

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 1st of July 1816,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the present session of Parliament, cap. 64, intituled "An Act to repeal several Acts relating to the militia of Great Britain, and to amend other Acts relating thereto," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order in Council, to suspend the calling out of the militia of Great Britain in the present year, for the purpose of being trained and exercised, and to order and direct that no training or exercising of the militia shall take place in the present year, any thing contained in any Act or Acts relating to the militia, to the contrary notwithstanding: And whereas it is deemed expedient that such training and exercising should be dispensed with in the present year; it is ordered by His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, that the calling out of the militia of Great Britain in the present year, for the purpose of being trained and exercised, be suspended, and that no training or exercising of the militia do take place in the present year.

Chetwynd.

THE following Address has been presented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent; which Address His Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously:

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

WE, His Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, the Deputies from the several Congregations of Protestant Dissenters of the Three Denominations in and about the Cities of London and Westminster, beg leave to offer to your Royal Highness our most respectful congratulations on the recent alliance between Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte Augusta of Wales and the Prince Leopold of Saxe-Cobourg.

The union of one so justly dear to this country as your Royal Daughter, with a Prince of an ancient and honourable House, and personally enjoying such high consideration, cannot but be regarded as most auspicious, and has been hailed by all ranks of His Majesty's subjects with the warmest expressions of affection and joy.

Accustomed as we have been to regard with hereditary veneration the principles of that glorious revolution, in consequence of which the august Family of your Royal Highness was seated on the throne of these realms, and entertaining sentiments of the most lively and respectful gratitude for the benefits which Protestant Dissenters, as a distinct body, have received from the successive Princes of the Brunswick Line, we feel peculiar pleasure in contemplating an event which tends to perpetuate a rule, founded on bases so favourable to the happiness of Great Britain and of mankind; and we humbly entreat your Royal Highness graciously to accept these expressions of our loyal and cordial attachment to your Royal Person and Government.

Signed, by order of the Meeting,
Wm. Smith, Chairman.

[Transmitted by W. Smith, Esq. and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

THE following Addresses have been presented to the Queen; which Addresses Her Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To Her Majesty the QUEEN.

The humble Address of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders, and Inhabitants of the County of Surrey.

WE, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders, and Inhabitants of the County of Surrey, beg leave to approach your Majesty with our sincere congratulations on the nuptials of your illustrious grand-daughter the Princess Charlotte Augusta of Wales with His Serene Highness the Prince Leopold of Saxe-Cobourg.

We rejoice on all occasions which contribute to the happiness of your Majesty, or any of your Royal House, and we view with peculiar pleasure this event, which cannot be more grateful to the personal feelings of your Majesty than it is congenial to the wishes, and conducive to the best interests of the people.

The high character and personal merits of His Serene Highness, the estimable virtues and accomplishments of Her Royal Highness, her education in every moral and religious principle, and the bright example of conjugal virtues exhibited to her by your Majesty, afford the best presage of domestic felicity to Her Royal Highness and her consort, and of happiness to the nation at large.

May your Majesty long live to witness that felicity, and to enjoy, as you so eminently deserve, the affection and admiration of the people of these realms.

Signed at the request and on behalf of the County of Surrey, at a public meeting held at Epsom, the 10th day of June 1816,

Ben. Barnard, Sheriff.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Jurats, Common Councilmen, and Inhabitants of the King's Town and Parish of Maidstone, humbly beg leave to offer to your Majesty our most cordial congratulations upon the marriage of Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte of Wales with a Protestant Prince so eminently qualified to ensure the future happiness of Her Royal Highness, from his exalted virtues and personal accomplishments.

We rejoice in the brilliant prospect that thus auspiciously dawns upon Her Royal Highness's entrance into the married state, and most earnestly pray that she may ever continue the happy and the bright example of that pure and exalted virtue.
