SATURDAY, JULY 27, 1816.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 1st of July 1816,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the present session of Parliament, cap. 64, intituled "An Act to repeal several Acts relating to the militia of Great Britain, and to amend other Acts relating thereto," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order in Council, to suspend the calling out of the militia of Great Britain in the present year, for the purpose of being trained and exercised, and to order and direct that no training or exercising of the militia shall take place in the present year, any thing contained in any Act or Acts relating to the militia, to the contrary notwithstanding: And whereas it is deemed expedient that such training and exercising should be dispensed with in the present year; it is ordered by His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, that the calling out of the militia of Great Britain in the present year, for the purpose of being trained and exercised, be suspended, and that no training or exercising of the militia do take place in the present year. Chetwynd.

THE following Addresses have been presented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent; which Addresses His Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously:

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful subjects, the Commissioners of the Royal Boroughs of Scotland, met in our Annual Convention, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with respectful and sincere congratulations on the marriage of Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte of Wales with His Serene Highness Leopold George Frederick, Prince of Saxe Cobourg and Saalfeld.

In this auspicious event, we contemplate the increase of your Royal Highness's individual happiness, and the general gratification of an applauding people.

That the descendants of the illustrious House of Brunswick may long continue to wield the sceptre of this realm, must be the earnest prayer of all who value the blessings of equal laws duly administered, of a mild and temperate Government, and of a Constitution, the admiration of the world.

We, Sir, have marked with joy and exultation the success of your Royal Highness's councils, the triumph of the British arms, and the glorious termination of a struggle, unexampled in the history of the world, to which they have conducted us.

These events have shed a lustre on the period of your Royal Highness's Government never surpassed, perhaps unequalled, in our annals.

That your Royal Highness may long continue to enjoy the happy result of these great events, and the gratitude of the nation over which you preside, is the earnest wish and fervent prayer of your Royal Highness's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Commissioners of the Royal Boroughs of Scotland.

Signed in our name, and by our appointment, at Edinburgh, this 11th day of July, in the year 1816,

William Arbuthnot, Lord Provost of the City of Edinburgh, and Preses of the Convention.

[Transmitted by the Lord Provost of Edinburgh, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble Address of the Provost, Magistrates, Town Council, and Corporation of the Royal Burgh of Banff.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, Town Council, and Corporation of the Royal Burgh of Banff, entreat
