

lace, and did other damage to the amount of ten thousand pounds;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said atrocious outrage, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually fired at and wounded the guard belonging to the said premises) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIVE HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered to any person (except as is before excepted) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof, or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring the said offenders, or any of them, to conviction, or cause them, or any of them, so to be apprehended and convicted as aforesaid; such reward to be paid by the said Messrs. Heathcoat and Boden.

Whitehall, July 5, 1816.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that on the night of Wednesday the 26th of June last the dwelling-house of Mr. Dunkin, No. 33, Aldersgate-Street, was set on fire, whereby the same was wholly destroyed, and the dwelling adjoining thereto was considerably damaged, and whereas there is every reason to believe that the said premises were wilfully and maliciously set on fire;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the person or persons concerned in the said felony, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said premises), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of THREE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as is before excepted), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof, or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring the said offender, or any of them, to conviction, or cause them, or any of them, so to be apprehended and convicted aforesaid, such reward to be paid by Mr. James Harmer, Solicitor, 29, Hatton-Garden.

SUSPENSION OF A LICENCE.

Navy Pay-Office, London,
July 22, 1816.

NOTICE is hereby given, that, by virtue of the authority vested in me by the Act of Parliament, forty-ninth of George the Third, chap. 123, I do hereby suspend the licence granted to

Jonas Jones, on the 19th December. 1815,

A 2

to act as an agent in the receipt of pay, wages, prize and bounty-money, for and in respect of the service of petty officers, seamen, and others serving in any of His Majesty's ships; which licence is suspended by me, on the ground of his committal to Exeter Gaol, on suspicion of his having forged an order, in the name of Thomas Warren, late of His Majesty's ship Lightning, and thereby receiving from Greenwich-Hospital the sum of £61 15s 2d.

GEORGE ROSE.

CONTRACT FOR PLUMBER'S WARES.

Navy-Office, July 16, 1816.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice, that on Wednesday the 14th August next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying His Majesty's several Dock-Yards, or any one, or more of them, with
