PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

THE following Address has been presented to Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte Augusta and His Serene Highness the Prince Leopold of Saxe Cobourg; which Address they were pleased to receive very graciously:

The humble and congratulatory Address of the Inhabitants of the Town of Bright-helmston, in the County of Sussex.

WE, the Inhabitants of the Town of Bright-helmston, feeling a lively concern as dutiful and affectionate subjects, in whatever conduces to the prosperity and happiness of our most gracious Sovereign, or any branch of His Royal House, humbly beg leave to assure your Royal and Serene Highnesses of our most cordial congratulations on the auspicious event that has recently taken place in your august marriage, an event which every true Briton and Protestant cannot but contemplate with the utmost satisfaction.

We request permission further to assure your Royal and Serene Highnesses, that nothing but the lamented absence of our Reverend Vicar, in consequence of severe indisposition, could have induced us to delay thus long the expression of our heartfelt joy, and of our earnest wishes, that very many years of health, prosperity, and happiness may be the result of a union so illustrious in itself, and so important to the genuine interests of this country.

Signed, by order of a public meeting of the inhabitants,
