MORRILLION'S ESTATE.

TO the child and children of Abraham Morrillion, deceased, formerly of Crowle, in the County of Lincoln, in the Kingdom of England, Mariner, who was brother of John Morrillion; late of Crowle aforesaid, gent. deceased, and to the personal representatives of any of such child or children who may be dead, and to his, her or their relatives.

Whereas the said John Morrillion departed this life on the 1st day of February 1814, and having by his last will and testament, dated the 12th day of March 1813, given and devised all his real estates at Crowle or elsewhere, in the Kingdom of England, except a certain messuage and homestead therein mentioned; and also the several personal estates and effects therein mentioned, unto certain trustees, in the said will named, upon trust, to sell and dispose of the same, respectively at their will and pleasure, and to call in and collect all such parts of the said testator's personal estates, as should consist of moneys or securities for money, and the money arising by and from all such sales and collections, in trust to pay and apply the same to, and to the use of all and every the children of the testator's late brother Abraham Morrillion, deceased, as should be found living at the testator's decease, in equal shares and proportions, if more than one, and if only one, then the whole to the use of such only child, their respective executors or administrators, provided such child or children of the testator's brother, should identify themselves and be made known to the said trustees, within the space of seven years from the day of the testator's death; and for that purpose the said trustees were directed to advertise and make known the said will in the English and Foreign Gazettes of London and Jamaica, and in such other newspapers as they should think proper, three times at the least in each and every year for the space of seven years next after the testator's death, and in case at the end of the said seven years by the means aforesaid, the children of his said brother Abraham, should not be found, or being found or heard of, should not either by themselves in person or by their attorney, duly authorised under his or their hand or hands and seals, apply or give notice in writing to the said trustees, for the distribution and payment of the said trust estates and effects, then the testator did direct the said trustees to apply the same to the use of certain other persons in the said will named, in the manner therein particularly set forth.

Now we William Scotchburn, of Crowle aforesaid, Timothy Richardson, of Luddington, in the said county of Lincoln, and Enoch Wilson Margrave, of Ealand, in the parish of Crowle aforesaid, the trustees and executors named in and appointed by the last will and testament, and a codicil thereto annexed of the said John Morrillion, deceased, do (in pursuance of the direction of the said will,) hereby give notice to all and every the child or children of the said Abraham Morrillion now living, and to the personal representatives or child; of any such child, who was living at the time of the said testator's death, and who by virtue of the aforesaid will, may become or claim to be entitled to the whole or any part of the said trust estates, late of their said uncle John Morrillion, of Crowle aforesaid, gent. deceased, of the contents of the said will; and he, she or they are hereby required to identify and make themselves known to us or one of us, or to our agents Messrs. Munro, Bullock, Lynch, and Myers, of Kingston, in
