By His Royal Highness the PRINCE of WALES,
REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the Name and on the
Behalf of His Majesty,

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE, P. R.

WHEREAS His Majesty, by His Royal Proclamation, bearing date the first day of January one thousand eight hundred and one, did, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, amongst other things, appoint and declare that, with the arms or ensigns armorial of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, there should be borne, on an escocheon of pretence, the arms of His Majesty's dominions in Germany, ensigned with the electoral bonnet; and that the standard of the said United Kingdom should be the same quarterings as were therein declared to be the arms or ensigns armorial of the said United Kingdom, with the escocheon of pretence thereon, therein before described; and that the arms or ensigns armorial aforesaid should be used thenceforth, as far as conveniently might be, on all occasions wherein His Majesty's arms or ensigns armorial ought to be used: and whereas His Majesty having substituted to His antient title of Elector of the Holy Roman Empire, the title of King of Hanover, it is fit that an alteration should be made in His Majesty's arms or ensigns armorial, We have therefore thought fit, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, to appoint and declare that, instead of the arms of His Majesty's dominions in Germany, ensigned with the electoral bonnet, as directed by His Majesty's Proclamation above mentioned, there shall henceforth be used and borne with the arms or ensigns armorial of His Majesty's said United Kingdom, on an escocheon of pretence, the arms of His Majesty's dominions in Germany, ensigned with the Hanoverian royal crown; and that the standard of the said United Kingdom shall be the same quarterings as by His Majesty's said Proclamation were declared to be the arms or ensigns armorial of the said United Kingdom, with the escocheon of pretence, ensigned with the said Hanoverian royal crown, instead of the electoral bonnet: but, nevertheless, it is Our will and pleasure, that all such gold, silver, and copper monies, as on the day before this eighth day of this instant June were current and lawful monies of Great Britain, and all such gold, silver, and copper monies, as shall on or after this day be coined by Our authority with the like impressions, until Our will and pleasure shall be otherwise declared, shall be deemed and taken to be current and lawful monies of the said United Kingdom in Great Britain; and that all such gold, silver, and copper monies, as on the day before this eighth day of this instant June were current and lawful monies of Ireland, and all such gold and silver, and copper monies, as shall on or after this day be coined by Our authority with the like impressions, until Our will and pleasure shall be otherwise declared, shall be deemed and taken to be current and lawful monies of the said United Kingdom in Ireland; and all such monies as shall have been coined for and issued in any of the dominions of the said United Kingdom, and declared by Our Proclamation to be current and lawful money of such dominions respectively, bearing His Majesty's arms or ensigns armorial, or any part or parts thereof; and all monies which shall hereafter be coined and issued according to such Proclamation, shall continue to be lawful and current money of such dominions respectively, notwithstanding such change in His Majesty's arms or armorial bearings respectively as aforesaid, until Our pleasure shall be further declared thereupon; and all and every such monies as aforesaid shall be received and taken in payment in Great Britain and Ireland respectively, and in the dominions thereunto belonging, after the date of this Proclamation, in such manner and as of the like value and denomination as the same were received and taken before the date hereof: and it is also Our will and pleasure that the several dies and marks which have been used to denote the stamp duties, and all other stamps and marks and instruments, which before the issuing of this Proclamation shall have been in actual use for any public purpose, and in which His Majesty's arms or ensigns armorial, or any parts or part thereof respectively may be expressed, shall not, by reason of this Proclamation or any thing therein contained, be changed or altered, until the same may be conveniently so changed or altered, or until Our pleasure shall be further declared thereon; but that all such dies, stamps, marks, and instruments respectively, bearing His Majesty's arms or ensigns armorial, used before this eighth day of June instant, or any parts or part of such arms or ensigns armorial, shall have the like force and effect, as the same had before the said eighth day of June instant.

Given at the Court at Carlton-House, the eighth day of June one thousand eight hundred and sixteen, in the fifty-sixth year of His Majesty's reign.

GOD save the KING.

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent hath been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to grant unto Patrick Campbell, Esq. Major in the Royal Artillery, and Brigadier-General in the service of His Catholic Majesty, late Colonel of the Spanish Regiment of Light Infantry called "Caçadores of Majorca," His Majesty's royal licence and permission, that he may accept and wear the cross of the Royal and distinguished Order of Charles the Third, which His Catholic Majesty Ferdinand the Seventh, King of Spain, hath been pleased to confer upon the Officer, as a signal testimony of His Royal approbation of the distinguished services rendered by him in several actions with the enemy during the Peninsular war, particularly at Medellin, Talavera de la Reyna, Castalla, Tarragona, and Barcelona; provided nevertheless, that His Majesty's said licence and permission doth not authorise, and shall not be deemed or construed to authorise, the assumption of any style, appellation, rank, precedence, or privilege appertaining unto a Knight Bachelor of these realms:

And His Royal Highness hath been further pleased to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, July 30, 1816.

Whereas it has been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, on the night of the 18th of June last, a loaded gun or pistol was fired upon some of the Officers of Police of Edinburgh, while standing at the Office Door in that City, by some evil disposed person, at present unknown, whereby one of the said Officers was dangerously wounded in the head;

His Royal Highness for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the person or persons concerned in such atrocious act, is hereby pleased in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually fired such gun or pistol), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ORDERS FOR PRIZE-MONEY.

Navy Pay Office, London, August 2, 1816.

Whereas a practice has prevailed, of licenced agents having induced seamen to go from London into parishes at the distance of more than six miles from this Office and Greenwich-Hospital, and there to make orders for prize-money, with a view to defeat the provision of the 45th section of the Act of Parliament, 54 Geo. 3. chap. 93, and the 40th section of the Act, 55 Geo. 3. chap. 60, intended to prevent frauds being practised on seamen, under which Acts all orders made beyond the aforesaid limits are required to be attested only by the Minister and Churchwardens of the parish where the grantor resides; notice is, therefore, hereby given, that all orders in which those provisions are not strictly attended to, must be invalid for prize or bounty-money; and on information being received at this Office of any improper practices in this respect, the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy will give the necessary directions for recovering the penalties under the last mentioned Act.

John Smith, Paymaster.

Navy-Office, August 1, 1816.

THE Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, having appointed money for the payment of half-pay to Sea Officers, from the 1st April to the 30th June 1816, according to His Majesty's establishment in that behalf; these are to give notice, that the several payments will begin to be made at the Pay-Office, by the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy, at ten o'clock in the morning, on the following days; viz.

On Monday the 12th, Tuesday the 13th, and Wednesday the 14th instant, to Admirals, Captains, and their Attornies.

On Thursday the 15th, Friday the 16th, Monday the 19th, and Tuesday the 20th instant, to Lieutenants, Chaplains, and their Attornies.

On Wednesday the 21st and Thursday the 22d instant, to Masters, Pursers, Surgeons, and their Attornies.

After which the lists will be recalled the first and third Wednesday in every month, that all persons may then and there attend to receive what may become payable to them, and not only bring with them the affidavit required, touching their not having enjoyed the benefit of any public employment, either at sea or on shore, during the time they are to be paid their half-pay, but also to produce certificates that they have subscribed to the Test, and taken the Oaths of Allegiance required by Act of Parliament, to His present Majesty; and in case any of the said Officers should not be able to attend themselves, but employ Attornies for that purpose; that the said Attornies do produce the like certificates and affidavits from the persons they are employed by.

Where Officers are abroad on leave, their agents are to produce attested copies of such leave, before the half-pay can be paid.

And as by Act of Parliament, passed in the thirty-fifth year of His present Majesty's reign, intitled, "An Act for establishing a more easy and expeditious Method for the Payment of Officers belonging to His Majesty's Navy," it is enacted by the twentieth clause of the said Act, "that if "any Commissioned or Warrant, Naval Officer who shall be entitled to receive Half-Pay, and shall be desirous to receive and be paid the same at or near the place of his residence, he may apply to the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy, in London, to have such Half-Pay paid at or near the place of his residence, &c. in the manner pointed out by the said Act;" notice is hereby further given, that the half-pay ending on the 30th June 1816, will be paid on the 12th instant; and all persons desirous of having their half-pay remitted to them, may apply as above directed.
