Published by Authority.

SATURDAY, AUGUST 17, 1816.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 13th of August 1816,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

IT is ordered by His Royal Highness the Prince Regent in Council, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, that the Parliament, which stands prorogued to Saturday the twenty-fourth day of this instant August, be further prorogued to Monday the fourth day of November next.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 3d of August 1816,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by the Order of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent in Council of the twelfth day of February last, for prohibiting the exportation out of this kingdom, or carrying coastwise, gunpowder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, will expire on the thirteenth day of this instant August; and whereas it is judged expedient, that the said prohibition, so far as applies to the countries hereinafter named, should be continued for some time longer; His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, doth, therefore, hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's service) do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the said thirteenth day of this instant August), presume to transport any gunpowder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa, or in the West Indies, or on any part of the Continent of America (except to a port or place, or ports or places, in His Majesty's territories, or possessions on the Continent of North America, or in the territories of the United States of America), or ship or lade any gunpowder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any such ports or places on the Coast of Africa, or in the West Indies, or on the Continent of America (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf first obtained from His Majesty, or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of salt-petre, and to enforce the law for empowering His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gunpowder, or any sort of arms or ammunition, and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt-petre, gunpowder, or any sort of arms or ammunition;" and also by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His Majesty's reign, cap. 2, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval stores, and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt-petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council:" But it is His Royal Highness's pleasure, that nothing in this Order contained shall be construed to alter or repeal the Order in Council of the twentieth of May one thousand eight hundred and thirteen, for regulating the export of gunpowder and arms to the coast of Africa, under the conditions therein specified. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Chetwynd.

Carlton-House, August 13, 1816.

THIS day the Right Honourable the Lord Mayor, the Aldermen, Recorder, Sheriffs, Common Council, and Officers of the Corporation of London, waited upon the Prince Regent with the following Address, which was read by Sir John Silvester, Bart. the Recorder:

To His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble and dutiful Address of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the City of London, in Common Council assembled.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the City of London, in Common Council assembled, humbly approach your Royal Highness to offer our sincere congratulations on the recent auspicious nuptials of your Royal Sister, the Princess Mary, with His Royal Highness the Duke of Gloucester.

We beg leave to express our most ardent hopes that this desirable alliance may be productive of perfect happiness to the illustrious individuals themselves, to every branch of your august family, and to the nation.

We contemplate with satisfaction the transcendent virtues which have uniformly commanded our admiration of the many valuable endowments and benevolent feelings which dignify and adorn the illustrious pair, and we look forward with confidence to the happiest results arising from virtues so eminently and honourably distinguished.

Permit us to repeat our unalterable sentiments of loyalty and firm attachment to His Majesty's Crown and Government, and to assure your Royal Highness of our anxious desire to contribute to the utmost of our power in promoting the happiness and prosperity of the United Kingdom.

Signed, by order of Court,

Henry Woodthorpe.

To which Address His Royal Highness was pleased to return the following most gracious Answer:

"I thank you for this dutiful and affectionate Address.

"It is highly gratifying to me to receive such a testimony of your participation in the happiness afforded to me and my family by the marriage of my sister, the Princess Mary, with His Royal Highness the Duke of Gloucester.

"I rely with confidence on your firm attachment to His Majesty's Crown and Government, and on your earnest desire to promote, to the utmost of your power, the welfare and prosperity of the United Kingdom."

They were all received very graciously, and had the honour of kissing the hand of His Royal Highness.

Queen's House, August 13, 1816.

This day the Right Honourable the Lord Mayor, the Aldermen, Recorder, Sheriffs, Common Council, and Officers of the Corporation of London, waited upon Her Majesty with the following Address, which was read by Sir John Silvester, Bart. the Recorder:

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the City of London, in Common Council assembled.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the City of London, in Common Council assembled, beg leave respectfully to approach your Majesty with sentiments of congratulation on the recent marriage of your Majesty's amiable daughter, the Princess Mary, with His Royal Highness the Duke of Gloucester.

The numerous and endearing virtues which adorn Her Royal Highness's mind, cultivated by the tender assiduity, and guided by the eminent example of her Royal Mother, could not fail to attract universal admiration; and it is with peculiar delight that we contemplate the union of a Princess, endowed with qualities so truly amiable with a Prince, no less distinguished by every noble accomplishment.

We earnestly hope, that this alliance of such exalted promise may be crowned with every prosperity, and that your Majesty may long continue to witness its increasing felicity.

Signed, by order of Court,

Henry Woodthorpe.

To which Address Her Majesty was graciously pleased to return the following Answer:

"I receive with great satisfaction your congratulations on an event the most interesting to me and my family; and I desire you to be assured, that I gratefully feel the value of the sentiments which you have expressed towards myself."

They were all received very graciously, and had the honour of kissing the hand of Her Majesty.

Gloucester-House, August 13, 1816.

This day the Right Honourable the Lord Mayor, the Aldermen, Recorder, Sheriffs, Common Council, and Officers of the City of London, waited upon the Duchess of Gloucester with the following Compliments of Congratulation, which were read by Sir John Silvester, Bart. the Recorder:

To Her Royal Highness the Duchess of Gloucester.

Madam,

WE, the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the City of London, in Common Council assembled, request permission to offer our warmest congratulations upon your auspicious marriage with His Royal Highness the Duke of Gloucester.

Having been accustomed to behold with respect and delight in your Royal Highness's person the display of every female attraction, and in your conduct the practice of every virtue that can adorn the human mind, we indulge with confidence the hope, that this joyful alliance, with an illustrious and accomplished Prince, will be crowned with every blessing, and productive of uninterrupted happiness.

Signed, by order of Court,

Henry Woodthorpe.

To which Compliments of Congratulation Her Royal Highness was pleased to return the following Answer:

My Lord Mayor and Gentlemen,

"I return to you my sincere thanks for your very flattering congratulations, and I request of you to believe, that the assurance of the interest you take in my happiness, and the sentiments you have just expressed, are most gratifying to me, who must ever feel anxious to possess the good wishes of the City of London."

Gloucester-House, August 13, 1816.

This day the Right Honourable the Lord Mayor, the Aldermen, Recorder, Sheriffs, Common Council, and Officers of the City of London, waited upon the Duke of Gloucester with the following Compliments of Congratulation, which were read by Sir John Silvester, Bart. the Recorder:

To His Royal Highness the Duke of Gloucester.
SIR,

WE, the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the City of London, in Common Council assembled, have great joy in offering our compliments of congratulation to your Royal Highness on your auspicious nuptials with the virtuous and amiable Princess Mary, whose most excellent qualities and accomplishments have attracted universal admiration. Our satisfaction on this happy occasion is increased by the recollection of the numerous testimonies of your benevolence, exerted in support of the many charitable institutions of our metropolis, and of the noble endowments of your mind, affording the delightful presage that this illustrious union will be productive of the greatest felicity, and may your Royal Highness long live to enjoy the blessings of this alliance.

Signed, by order of Court,

Henry Woodthorpe.

To which Compliments of Congratulation His Royal Highness was pleased to return the following Answer:

My Lord Mayor and Gentlemen,

"I request of you to accept my warmest acknowledgments for your very flattering congratulations, and to be assured, that this proof of your regard affords me the sincerest gratification. The sentiments you have had the goodness to express are deeply felt by me, who must ever anxiously wish to possess your good opinion, and who will ever feel the truest solicitude for the prosperity of the City of London."

THE following Address has been presented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent; which Address His Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously:

Unto His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

WE, the Noblemen, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Perth, in a general meeting assembled, humbly beg leave to offer to your Royal Highness our sincere congratulations on the recent marriage of Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte Augusta with His Serene Highness the Prince Leopold of Saxe Cobourg.

Deeply impressed with a sense of the blessings which this kingdom has enjoyed under the Government of the House of Brunswick, we cannot but rejoice at an event which promises a continuance of these blessings; and we contemplate with satisfaction an union so propitious, presenting prospects of happiness to the illustrious personages, and important benefits to the British empire.

Signed by our Preses, in our name and by our appointment, at Perth, the 30th day of July 1816 years, Atholl.

[Transmitted by Lord James Murray, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

THE following Address has been presented to the Queen; which Address Her Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the States of His Majesty's Island of Jersey.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, His Majesty's ever dutiful, loyal, and most ancient subjects, the States of the Island of Jersey, most humbly crave leave, for ourselves and our constituents, to convey to your Majesty our most sincere congratulations on the auspicious nuptials of Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte of Wales with His Serene Highness Prince Leopold of Saxe Cobourg.

We contemplate in this propitious alliance of your august royal grand-daughter with a Protestant Prince highly distinguished for his great and noble personal qualities, the security of our most pure and holy religion, and of our liberties, and the continuance of the same kind and parental care for our happiness and prosperity which has for more than half a century signalized the mild, just, and wise reign of the best of Kings, our much beloved and revered Sovereign.

We sensibly feel the great pleasure and satisfaction that this promising union must cause in your royal mind, and we most sincerely and fervently pray, that your Majesty may live yet many years, in health and happiness, to witness the blessings and felicity which we ardently hope will attend the connubial state of this illustrious pair, and to see in their royal children the proud guarantee of the continued future greatness, glory, and prosperity of the British empire.

By order of the States,
Fr. Godfray, Greffier.
Jersey, 27th July 1816.

THE following Address has been presented to Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte Augusta and His Serene Highness the Prince Leopold of Saxe Cobourg; which Address they were pleased to receive very graciously:

Unto Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte Augusta of Wales, and His Serene Highness Prince Leopold of Saxe Cobourg.

WE, the Noblemen, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Perth, in a general meeting assembled, humbly beg leave to approach your Royal and Serene Highnesses with our most sincere and cordial congratulations, upon the auspicious alliance which has lately taken place, so peculiarly gratifying to His Majesty's faithful subjects; and which promises so much benefit to the nation and so much domestic felicity to your Royal and Serene Highnesses.

That your Royal and Serene Highnesses may long live with increasing mutual affections, and enjoy the attachment of a loyal and grateful people, is our most earnest prayer.

Signed by our Preses, in our name and by our appointment, at Perth, this 30th day of July 1816. Atholl.

[Transmitted by Lord James Murray, and presented by Sir Robert Gardiner.]

To which Address Her Royal Highness and His Serene Highness were pleased to return the following Answer:

We thank the Noblemen, the Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Perth, for their cordial congratulations; and we receive their Address with every heartfelt satisfaction and pleasure."

CONTRACTS FOR TRAIN OIL AND GALLEYS.

Navy-Office, August 14, 1816.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice, that on Thursday the 29th instant, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying His Majesty's several Yards with

Train Oil;

and also for supplying His Majesty's Yard at Deal with Galleys of thirty feet long.

A distribution of the oil, with forms of the tenders, may be seen at this Office.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed, unless the party, or an agent for him, attends.

Every tender must be accompanied by a letter addressed to the Navy Board, and signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £500, for the due performance of each of the contracts.

R. A. Nelson, Secretary.

Office of Ordnance, August 2, 1816.

THE Principal Officers of His Majesty's Ordnance do hereby give notice, that proposals will be received at their Office in Pall Mall, on or before Monday the 19th instant, from such persons as may be willing to undertake the supply of

Helmets and Caps,

for service of this Department, for a period of three years, determinable after the expiration of the first year, upon notice of three months, at the option of either party.

Patterns of the articles may be viewed upon application to the respective Officers of the Ordnance in the Royal Arsenal at Woolwich; and further particulars, together with the terms and conditions of the contract, may be known at the Secretary's Office, in Pall Mall aforesaid, any day between the hours of ten and four o'clock; where the proposals must be delivered, sealed up, and indorsed "Proposals for Helmets and Caps;" but no proposal can be admitted after the said 19th instant, at twelve o'clock at noon of the same day; neither will any tender be noticed, unless the party making it, or an agent in his behalf, shall attend.

By order of the Board,

R. H. Crew, Secretary.

Sheffield-Place, August 12, 1816.

I John Earl of Sheffield, His Majesty's Vice-Lieutenant of the County of Sussex, hereby appoint a general meeting of Lieutenancy to be holden at the County Hall, in Lewes, on Tuesday the 10th day of September next, at the hour of twelve at noon, for the purpose of apportioning to and amongst the several rapes of the said county, the number of men required to be provided by ballot for supplying the deficiencies in the regular militia of the county aforesaid.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS.

Stockport, August 1, 1816

THE Creditors of James Filer, of the City of Bristol, Hatter, who have not already executed the deed of assignment made by him of his estate and effects for the benefit of his Creditors, bearing date the 28th day of June 1814, are requested to execute the same, or to signify their consent to accept thereof, on or before the 17th day of September next, on which day the Trustee intends to make a dividend of the estate and effects of the said James Filer, and of such of the Creditors of the said James Filer, who shall not then have executed the said deed of assignment, or by letter, addressed to Mr. William Carrington, Hat-Manufacturer, Stockport, Cheshire, have signified their consent to accept thereof and to execute the same, will be excluded the benefit of the said dividend.

THE Creditors who have proved their Debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against William Forster, of Saint Martin's-Lane, in the County of Middlesex, Silversmith, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on the 22d day of August instant, at One o'Clock in the Afternoon precisely, at the Hungerford Coffee-House, in the Strand, to assent to or dissent from the Assignees selling to the said William Forster, the whole of the stock in trade, household furniture, and all other property belonging to him before his bankruptcy, and now vested in his Assignees under and by virtue of the Commission (except the book debts) for 5000l. the said William Forster; also to satisfy the execution which Mr. Gordon, senior, now has in the house, the sum of money due to Mr. Williams of the Auction Mart, for which he has a lien on the goods in his possession; also to satisfy all other incumbrances there may be on the said goods in the hands of workmen or others, and to pay the said 5000l. with interest as follows, the promissory note of the said William Forster for 1000l. and interest, payable six months after date, and another for the like sum and interest, payable twelve months after date, four joint and several promissory notes of the said William Forster, Mr. Gordon, senior, and Mr. Alexander Gordon, each for 750l. and interest, payable at eighteen, twenty-four, thirty, and thirty-six months after the respective dates thereof; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling to the said William Forster, the book debts due to his estate at the time of the bankruptcy, for the sum of 1200l. to be paid by the promissory notes of the said William Forster, Mr. Gordon, senior, and Mr. Alexander Gordon, for 600l. each, payable at three and nine months after the date thereof; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, for the recovery of any part of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their Debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against David Backlee, of Hatton-Garden, in the County of Middlesex, Watch-Gilder, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on the 27th of August instant, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon, at the White Hart Tavern, in Holborn, in order to take into consideration the expediency of the said Assignees delivering up certain leasehold premises held by the said Bankrupt at the time of issuing the Commission against him, and which said premises are charged with a certain annuity of $600, during the lives of three persons now in being, or to consider whether it will be for the interest of the Creditors of the said Bankrupt, that the said Assignees shall continue to hold the said premises, subject to the rent reserved and the several covenants contained in the original lease thereof, and also subject to the said annuity; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees disposing of a certain leasehold house in Hatton-Garden, and the fixtures contained therein, belonging to the said Bankrupt by private contract; and upon other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their Debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Matthew Barnard Harvey, of Witham, in the County of Essex, and John Whittle Harvey, late of Hadleigh-Hall, in the said County, Bankers, Dealers, Chapman and Copartners (carrying on trade as Bankers and Copartners at Rochford and Billericay, in the said County), are desired to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on the 22d of August instant, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon precisely, at the Office of Messrs. Tilson and Preston, 29, Coleman-Street, London, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees paying over to the Assignees under a subsequent Commission of Bankrupt issued against the said John Whittle Harvey, jointly with one Robert Copland, the proceeds of the sale of certain property acquired by the said John Whittle Harvey since the date of the Commission, and which had been seized by the said Assignees, and to their releasing their claim thereto, and to any other property of the said John Whittle Harvey, upon terms which will be stated at such meeting, and to the said Assignees entering into and executing such deeds, releases, and other instruments, as may be necessary for carrying such arrangement into effect; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their Debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against James Roxburgh, of Liverpool, in the County of Lancaster, Taylor and Draper, are desired to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on the 26th day of August instant, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon, at the Office of Messrs. Griffith and Hinde, Solicitors, in Liverpool aforesaid, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling and disposing of the said Bankrupt's shop, dwelling-house, and premises, in School-Lane and Post-Office Place, in Liverpool aforesaid, and also his household goods and furniture, stock in trade, and other effects, either by public auction or private contract; or to the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, for the recovery of any part of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against William Wilcox, of the City of Canterbury, Plumber and Glazier, Dealer and Chapman, are desired to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on Friday the 23d day of August instant, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon precisely, at the Office of Mr. Starr, Solicitor, Canterbury, to assent to or dissent from the Assignees conveying their interest in three Messuages or Tenements, with their Appurtenances, situate and being in the Parish of Saint Andrew, in the said City of Canterbury, one of which Messuages or Tenements, with their Appurtenances, is now in the tenure or occupation of Mr. Edward Holtum, one other in the tenure or occupation of Mr. Henry Tibbe, and the other at present untenanted, to Mr. Charles Bradley, a mortgage thereof, for such consideration as will be stated at the meeting; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Mary Salmon and William Wilcox, of the City of Canterbury, Plumbers, Glaziers, and Copartners, are desired to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupts, on Friday the 23d day of August instant, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon precisely, at the Office of Mr. Starr, Solicitor, Canterbury, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees joining with the other person or persons entitled thereto, in conveying the Entirety of two Messuages or Tenements, with their Appurtenances, situate and being in the Parish of Saint Margaret, in the said City of Canterbury, and now in the several tenures or occupations of John Wright and Henry Acors, to Mr. William Stokes, who claims an equitable mortgage of the Bankrupt's interest therein, for such consideration as will be stated at the meeting; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against John Johnson, now or late of Whittlesey, in the Isle of Ely, in the County of Cambridge, Farmer, Dealer and Chapman, are desired to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on the 27th of August instant, at Ten of the Clock in the Forenoon, at the Falcon Inn, in Whittlesey aforesaid, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, for the recovery of any part of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto; and particularly as to the said Assignees paying or agreeing to discharge certain arrears of rent claimed to be due from the said Bankrupt to Thomas Wright Vaughan, Esq.; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their Debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against William Tozer, of Crediton, in the County of Devon, Saddler and Harness-Maker, Dealer and Chapman, are desired to meet the Assignee of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on the 23d of August instant, at One o'Clock in the Afternoon, at the Globe Tavern, Exeter, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee disposing of the Bankrupt's stock in trade by private contract, at a valuation, or for such sum as shall then be offered; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, for the recovery of any part of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto; and on other special affairs.
