TUESDAY, AUGUST 20, 1816.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 13th of August 1816,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council. —

IT is ordered by His Royal Highness the Prince Regent in Council, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, that the Parliament, which stands prorogued to Saturday the twenty-fourth day of this instant August, be further prorogued to Monday the fourth day of November next.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 3d of August 1816,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by the Order of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent in Council of the twelfth day of February last, for prohibiting the exportation out of this kingdom, or carrying coastwise, gunpowder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, will expire on the thirteenth day of this instant August; and whereas it is judged expedient, that the said prohibition, so far as applies to the countries hereinafter named, should be continued for some time longer; His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, doth, therefore, hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's service) do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the said thirteenth day of this instant August), presume to transport any gunpowder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa, or in the West Indies, or on any part of the Continent of America, (except to a port or place, or ports or places, in His Majesty's territories or possessions on the Continent of North America, or in the territories of the United States of America), or in the territories of the United States of America), or ship or lade any gunpowder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any such ports or places on the Coast of Africa, or in the West Indies, or on the Continent of America (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf first obtained from His Majesty, or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of salt-petre, and to enforce the law for empowering His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gunpowder, or any sort of arms or ammunition, and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt-petre, gunpowder, or any sort of arms or ammunition;" and also by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His Majesty's reign, cap. 2, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval stores, and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt-petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council." But it is His Royal Highness's pleasure, that nothing in this Order contained shall be construed to alter or repeal the Order in Council of the twentieth of May one thousand eight hundred and thirteen, for regulating the export of gunpowder and arms to the coast of Africa, under the conditions therein specified. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Chetwynd.

At the Court at Carlton-House, the 27th of June 1816,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the present session of Parliament, cap. 38, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to suspend the ballot or enrolment for the local militia," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order in Council, to direct that no ballot or enrolment for the local militia shall take place; but that such ballot and enrolment shall remain and continue suspended for the period specified in any such Order of Council, and from time to time by any like Order or Orders in Council, to continue such suspension so long as His Majesty shall deem the same expedient, any thing in any Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary notwithstanding: And whereas it is deemed expedient that such ballot and enrolment should be suspended for the space of one year; it is ordered by His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, that no ballot or enrolment for the local militia do take place from and after the date of this Order for the space of one year; but that the ballot and enrolment for the local militia do remain and continue suspended for the space of one year from the date of this Order.

Jas. Buller.

THE following Address has been presented to Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte Augusta and His Serene Highness the Prince Leopold of Saxe Cobourg; which Address they were pleased to receive very graciously:

To Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte and His Serene Highness Leopold George Frederick, Prince of Saxe Cobourg.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriff, and Common Council of the ancient City of Canterbury, in Burghmote assembled.

May it please your Royal and Serene Highnesses, WE, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriff, and Common Council of the City of Canterbury, in Burghmote assembled, beg most respectfully to convey to your Royal and Serene Highnesses our sincere congratulations on your Highnesses auspicious marriage.

We sincerely hope and pray, that your illustrious union will be attended with a long and continued series of domestic happiness; and that it will tend to preserve and strengthen those constitutional principles, on which the British empire, both in Church and State, are most happily founded and established.

Given under our common seal, the 2d day of July, in the year of our Lord 1816,

Hanmond, Town Clerk.

[Transmitted to and presented by Sir Robert Gardiner.]

To which Address Her Royal Highness and His Serene Highness were pleased to return the following Answer:

"We request the Mayor, the Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriffs, and Common Council of the City of Canterbury, will receive our thanks for this proof of their attention and regard; and be assured that we receive their address and congratulations with the sincerest pleasure."

Whitehall, August 16, 1816.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that an anonymous threatening letter was put into the Birmingham Post-Office, on the 2d instant, and forwarded to Mr. John Walker, of Millfield, near Bilstone, of which the following is a copy, viz.

"Mr. John Walker

"This a sure token of Death to You"

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in writing and sending the said letters, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually wrote the same), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered to any person (except as is before excepted) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof, or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring the said offenders, or any of them, to conviction, or cause them, or any of them, so to be apprehended and convicted as aforesaid.—Such reward to be paid by the said Mr. John Walker.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application will be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill, to alter and enlarge the powers and provisions of a certain Act of Parliament, made and passed in the eighth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, intituled "An Act to enable the present and future proprietors and inhabitants of the houses in Lincoln's-Inn-Fields, in the county of Middlesex, to make a rate on themselves for raising money sufficient to inclose, clean, and adorn the said fields; and for the better and more effectually lighting, passing, watching, cleansing, and otherwise improving Lincoln's-Inn-Fields aforesaid; which are situate in the several parishes of Saint Giles in the Fields, Saint Clement Danes, and Saint Andrew Holborn, in the county of Middlesex; in which Bill it is intended to propose provisions for increasing and altering the existing rates, duties, or assessments granted by the said Act.—Dated 10th August 1816.

John Summers, Secretary, Lincoln's-Inn-Fields.

OFFICE FOR TAXES, SOMERSET-PLACE,

August 20, 1816.

Pursuant to Acts, passed in the forty-second and fifty-third years of His present Majesty's reign, notice is hereby given, that the price of the Three per Centum Consolidated Bank Annuities, sold at the Bank of England this day, was £62 and under £63 per Centum.

By order of the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes,
Matt. Winter, Secretary.

Royal Hospital for Seamen at Greenwich,
May 1, 1816.

THE Commissioners and Governors of the said Hospital hereby give notice, that at Sitters-Hall, in London, on Saturday the 16th day of November next, or as soon after as conveniently may be, the undermentioned farms will be let on leases, to commence upon the 13th day of May 1817, for the term of years hereinafter respectively mentioned, that is to say, Dilston Downside Haugh Farm, Dilston New Town North Farm, and Corbridge Town Farm, in the parish of Corbridge; and Tedcastle Farm, in the parish of Warden, for the term of ten years: Newlands Haugh Farm, in the parish of Bywell Saint Peter; Wooley Farm, in the parish of Slaley; Staples Farm, Peacock House Farm, and Highwood Farm, in the parish of Hexham; Meldon Farm, in the parish of Meldon; Needleshall North Farm, Harburngrange East Farm, and Harburngrange Middle Farm, in the parish of Harburn, for the term of thirteen years; and East Land Ends Farm, Lipwood Farm, Lipwoodwell Farm, Haydon Town Farm, East Millhills Farm, Eastbrokenheugh Farm, Allerwash Town Farm, and Woodhall Farm, in the parish of Warden, for the term of sixteen years.

Such persons as may be desirous to take any of the said farms, are requested to deliver or send their proposals, in writing, to John Dyer, Esq. at Greenwich-Hospital, so as that the delivery thereof at that place, shall not be later than on Friday the 15th day of November next; and all such proposals as shall be received after that day, will be returned as inadmissible.

Such alterations and additional buildings as may be thought essentially necessary by the receivers, and approved by the Directors of Greenwich-Hospital, will be made as soon as conveniently can be after the commencement of the terms, the tenant being at the expence of leading all materials.

In the present and all future lettings by the Commissioners and Governors of Greenwich-Hospital, the tenants will be required to pay one moiety of the expence of the leases.

Mr. Anthony Wailes, of Bearl, will show the farms in the parish of Corbridge; Mr. Cuthbert Surtees, of Ebchester, the farm at Newlands; Mr. William Sample, of Low Brunton, near Hexham, the farms in the parishes of Slaley and Hexham; Mr. Edward Bell, of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, those in the parishes of Meldon and Harburn; and Mr. William Coats, of Haydon Bridge, those in the parish of Warden.

Messrs. Forster and Wailes, upon being applied to at their Office in Newcastle-upon-Tyne, will give any further particulars it may be necessary to require.

CONTRACTS FOR TRIMMING AND GALBEYS.

Navy-Office, August 14, 1816.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice, that on Thursday the 29th instant, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying His Majesty's several Yards with
