

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

SATURDAY, AUGUST 24, 1816.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 13th of August 1816,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

IT is ordered by His Royal Highness the Prince Regent in Council, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, that the Parliament, which stands prorogued to Saturday the twenty-fourth day of this instant August, be further prorogued to Monday the fourth day of November next.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 3d of August 1816,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by the Order of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent in Council of the twelfth day of February last, for prohibiting the exportation out of this kingdom, or carrying coastwise, gunpowder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, will expire on the thirteenth day of this instant August; and whereas it is judged expedient, that the said prohibition, so far as applies to the countries hereinafter named, should be continued for some time longer; His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, doth, therefore, hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's service) do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the said thirteenth day of this instant August), presume to transport any gunpowder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa, or in the West Indies, or on any part of the Continent of America (except to a port or place, or ports or places, in His Majesty's territories or possessions on the Continent of North America, or in the territories of the United States of America), or ship or lade any gunpowder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any such ports or places on the Coast of Africa, or in the West Indies, or on the Continent of America (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf first obtained from His Majesty, or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of salt-petre, and to enforce the law for empowering His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gunpowder, or any sort of arms or ammunition, and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt-petre, gunpowder, or any sort of arms or ammunition;" and also by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His Majesty's reign, cap. 2, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval stores, and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt-petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council:" But it is His Royal Highness's pleasure, that nothing in this Order contained shall be construed to alter or repeal the Order in Council of the twentieth of May one thousand eight hundred and thirteen, for regulating the export of gunpowder and arms to the coast of Africa, under the conditions therein specified. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Chetwynd.

THE following Address has been presented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent; which Address His Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously:

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Recorder, Bailiffs, Burgesses, and Town Clerk of the ancient and loyal Borough and Corporation of New Windsor, in the County of Berks.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and affectionate subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Recorder, Bailiffs, Burgesses, and Town Clerk of the ancient and loyal Borough and Corporation of New Windsor, in the County of Berks, in Common Council assembled, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with our most sincere congratulations on the recent and auspicious nuptials of His Majesty's beloved daughter, Her Royal Highness Princess Mary, with His Royal Highness William Frederick, Duke of Gloucester and Edinburgh.

From our constant observation and experience of the many amiable qualities of the Royal Bride, and from the well known virtues which adorn her illustrious Consort, we can but anticipate the most happy results of the union which is now the subject of our humble congratulations; and we confidently hope, that a numerous offspring may hand down to posterity, the living examples of their parent's exalted virtues.

That your Royal Highness may long live to participate, with the members of your illustrious House, in the happiness of the royal pair, is our most earnest desire.

Given under the common seal of the Borough aforesaid, at the Guildhall within the said Borough, the 12th day of August, in the year 1816,
James Atkins, Mayor.

[Transmitted by His Royal Highness the Duke of York, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

THE following Addresses have been presented to Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte Augusta and His Serene Highness the Prince Leopold of Saxe Cobourg; which Addresses they were pleased to receive very graciously:

To Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte Augusta, and to His Serene Highness Leopold George Frederick, Prince of Saxe Cobourg of Saalfeld.

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Town of Beverley, in the County of York, in Common Council assembled, beg leave humbly to offer our sincere congratulations to your Royal Highness and to your Serene Highness upon your recent auspicious marriage. We also rejoice in the opportunity of assuring your Royal and Serene Highnesses how greatly we shall participate in every happiness you can experience; and we earnestly pray, that your nuptials may be productive of uninterrupted felicity to yourselves, and permanent prosperity to the United Kingdom, and that you, and your posterity, may ever live in the esteem and affection of a free and loyal people.

Given under our common seal, at Beverley aforesaid, the 8th day of July, in the 56th year of His Majesty's reign.

Robt. Ramsey, Mayor.

[Transmitted by Charles Forbes, Esq. M. P. and presented by Sir Robert Gardiner.]

To which Address Her Royal Highness and His Serene Highness were pleased to return the following Answer:

"We have great pleasure in receiving your congratulations: we thank you for this proof of your regard, and have every confidence in your best wishes and interest in our happiness."

To Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte of Wales and His Serene Highness Prince Leopold of Saxe Cobourg.

The humble Address and Congratulation of the Chancellor, Rector, Principal, and Professors of Marischal College, and University of Aberdeen.

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Chancellor, Rector, Principal, and Professors of Marischal College, and University of Aberdeen, beg leave, with all humility and respect, to present to your Royal and Serene Highnesses our most sincere and expressive congratulations on your auspicious union, so recently contracted. We cordially join, with our fellow-subjects, in praying that, as it has been founded on mutual esteem and affection, it may be cemented by the same amiable and generous principles, and be productive of all that conjugal felicity, which such an honourable and disinterested connexion is calculated to afford, and of all that benefit to the British empire which is so generally anticipated by His Majesty's subjects. That the Supreme Disposer of all events may sanction your illustrious marriage with his abundant blessing, may preserve and prosper, through a long succession of years, your Royal and Serene Highnesses, and may maintain, protect, and defend, on the throne of this United Kingdom, the illustrious House of Brunswick, to the most remote generations, is, may it please your Royal and Serene Highnesses, the fervent wish and prayer of His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, and of your Royal and Serene Highnesses humble and obedient servants, Huntly, Chancellor; Chas. Forbes, Rector; W. L. Brown, S. S. D. and P. Principal; Pat. Copland, Math. P.; Ro. Hamilton, LL. D. P. P.; Jo. Stuart, Lit. Gr. P.; Willm. Livingston, M. D. M. P.; Geo. French, M. D. Chem. P.; Jas. Kidd, L. L. O. O. P.; Geo. Glennie, Mor. P. P.; Ja. Davidson, M. D. H. N. and C. P.

[Transmitted by Charles Forbes, Esq. M. P. and presented by Sir Robert Gardiner.]

To which Address Her Royal Highness and His

Serene Highness were pleased to return the following Answer:

“ We are much gratified in this instance of attention in the Chancellor, the Rector, the Principal, and Professors of Marischal College and University of Aberdeen; and we receive their congratulations with the greatest pleasure.”

MEMORANDUM.

The date of the commission of Second Lieutenant Tydd is 12th July 1816, and not that stated in the Gazette of 30th July last.

Whitehall, August 16, 1816.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that an anonymous threatening letter was put into the Birmingham Post-Office, on the 2d instant, and forwarded to Mr. John Walker, of Millfield, near Bilstone, of which the following is a copy, viz.

“ Mr. John Walker

“ Sir this is too oscertifey You that if You Drop the Millfield Paddlers You shall recev the fratell blow of Death co shure as I remain a ennemy to You my fier lock shall be in better order then it was when I a tempted it be fore

“ This a sure token of Death to You”

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in writing and sending the said letters, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually wrote the same), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered to any person (except as is before excepted) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof, or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring the said offenders, or any of them, to conviction, or cause them, or any of them, so to be apprehended and convicted as aforesaid.—Such reward to be paid by the said Mr. John Walker.

A 2

Notice is hereby given to the owners and occupiers of lands and estates in the parish of Saint Mary, Rotherhithe, in the county of Surrey, and to all other persons whom it may concern, that application will be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill for amending and rendering more effectual two several Acts, one passed in the fiftieth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled “ An Act for maintaining and improving the docks and warehouses called the Commercial Docks, and for making and maintaining other docks and warehouses to communicate therewith, all in the parish of Saint Mary, Rotherhithe, in the county of Surrey;” the other passed in the fifty-first year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled “ An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act of His present Majesty, for maintaining and improving the docks and warehouses called the Commercial Docks, in the parish of Saint Mary, Rotherhithe, in the county of Surrey, and for extending the powers of the said Act;” and for extending the powers and provisions of the said Acts respectively; and also for confirming and assuring the privileges and rights of the said Commercial Dock Company; and for other purposes.—Dated this 8th day of August 1816.

John Evans, St. Mildred's-Court, Solicitor to the Commercial Dock Company.

Office of the Commissioners in England for investigating the Debts of the late Nabobs of the Carnatic, No. 11, Manchester-Buildings, Westminster, July 15, 1816; repeated, August 22, 1816.

Notice is hereby given, that a bond of His Highness the Nabob Wallajah, in favour of the late Henry Price, for pagodas 488, and dated the 1st day of September 1781, with an assignment annexed, from the said Henry Price to “ William Carlile, Esq. late of Ganjam,” dated Madras, the 31st day of March 1788, was delivered to the Commissioners at Madras by Messrs. Colt, Hart, and Weston, of Madras aforesaid, with the other bonds claimed on the part of the heirs of the above-mentioned Henry Price.

The heirs or representatives of the said late William Carlile are hereby required to produce proof, at this Office, on or before the 1st day of January 1817, of the said bond having been bond fide assigned to the said William Carlile, notwithstanding its having been found in the possession of the said Messrs. Colt, Hart, and Weston, successors of the late attornies of the said Henry Price, by whom it is claimed on the part of the heirs of Price, upon the “ presumption that the assignment was not acted upon, and that of course the said bond continued to be the property of Mr. Price.”

By order of the Commissioners,
Geo. Parkhouse, Secretary.

THE

AVERAGE PRICE OF BROWN OR MUSCOVADO SUGAR,

Computed from the RETURNS made in the Week ending the 21st day of August 1816,

Is Forty-four Shillings and Nine Pence Three Farthings per Hundred Weight,

Exclusive of the Duties of Customs paid or payable thereon on the IMPORTATION thereof into GREAT BRITAIN.

Grocers' Hall,
August 24, 1816.

By Authority of Parliament,
THOMAS NETTLESHIPP, Clerk of the Grocers' Company.

Exchequer Bill Office, August 23, 1816.

TO BE PAID OFF.

All Exchequer Bills dated in the Month of October 1815, viz. on Aids 1815, 55 Geo. 3. cap. 5.; Supply 1815, £4,500,000, 55 Geo. 3. cap. 148.; Vote of Credit 1815, £6,000,000, 55 Geo. 3. cap. 196.

THE Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury having given directions for paying off the principal of the above-mentioned Exchequer Bills, with the interest due thereon, at the Exchequer Bill Office in the Receipt of Exchequer, New Palace-Yard, Westminster, on Tuesday the 10th day of September 1816, attendance will be given daily (Sundays and holidays excepted) until, and including, Thursday the 5th of September, from ten o'clock in the morning till one in the afternoon, for the purpose of receiving the same. And, for the greater dispatch, the bearers of the said bills are desired to place each description of bills in separate lists (which are to be obtained at this Office), classing them in the order of their respective dates, such as are for the same amount being numerically arranged, and specifying the principal sums and interest due thereon, computed from, but excluding the days on which they are respectively dated, to the said 10th day of September inclusive, when the interest will cease; and the said bearers (being holders or not) are indispensably required to indorse each bill with their usual signatures, and to write their names and residence at the bottom of each separate list; and they are moreover required to attend the Exchequer Bill Office for payment, and to receive the new bills, and give the receipts for the same.

If any of the holders of the aforesaid bills should be desirous of receiving payment of the principal and interest, previous to the said 10th day of September, they may be accommodated on computing the interest to the day on which they wish to be paid, and leaving the said bills for examination one day prior thereto.

Such persons as may be desirous of having new Exchequer Bills in whole or in part of payment of principal, upon marking new bills, and mentioning the amount at the bottom of their lists, delivered on or before Thursday the 5th of September, may be accommodated with new bills, payable to or order, carrying an interest of three pence farthing by the day, on every one hundred pounds; which said new bills will bear date the said 10th day of September, and will be delivered, together with the interest due in respect of the bills so desired, to be exchanged, on Wednesday the 11th day of September, and the following days.

The Exchequer Bills to be issued in exchange and made payable to or order, as abovementioned, may be either transferred by endorsement or will be paid to the bearer if the blank shall not be filled up.

N.B. All Exchequer Bills dated prior to October 1815, have been advertised to be paid off, and the interest thereon has ceased.

Office of Ordnance, August 16, 1816.

THE Principal Officers of His Majesty's Ordnance do hereby give notice, that proposals will be received at their Office in Pall-Mall, on or before Wednesday the 4th day of September next, from such persons as may be willing to undertake the supply of

for the ordnance horses stationed in the following districts, to be delivered at the expence of the contractor, viz.

North Britain,
Northern,
Eastern, exclusive of Warley,
Southern, exclusive of Chatham,
Western,
South West, including Portsmouth, Isle of Wight, and Christchurch,
Woolwich, with its dependencies, Warley and Chatham,
Weedon, Northamptonshire;

for a period of six months from the 1st of October next.

The oats to be good, sweet, dry, and clean, without any mixture of foxy or mowburnt oats, and must not weigh less than 37½ of Winchester bushel.

The hay to be sweet and dry, and delivered in trusses of 56 lb weight.

The straw to be good, clean, and dry wheat or rye straw, and delivered in trusses of 36 lb weight.

The prices to be paid for the respective quantities of each article which may be delivered, at the following rates, viz.

For the oats, at	£ hundred pounds, avoirdupois weight.
For the hay, at	£ hundred and twelve pounds.
For the straw, at	£ hundred and twelve pounds.

The proposals may be delivered separately or jointly for two or more of the said districts; and it is expected that the contractor shall receive the stable dung which, during the period of his contract, may accumulate, making an allowance for the same, after the rate of £ horse per week.

Farther particulars may be known upon application to the officers commanding the Royal Artillery in each district, and also at the Secretary's Office, in Pall-Mall aforesaid, any day between the hours of ten and four o'clock; where the proposals must be delivered, sealed up and endorsed "Proposals for Forage;" but no proposals can be admitted after the said 4th of September, at twelve o'clock at noon of the same day; neither will any tender be noticed unless the party making it, or an agent in his behalf, shall attend.

By order of the Board,
R. H. Crew, Secretary.
