

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

SATURDAY, AUGUST 31, 1816.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 13th of August 1816,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

IT is ordered by His Royal Highness the Prince Regent in Council, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, that the Parliament, which stands prorogued to Saturday the twenty-fourth day of this instant August, be further prorogued to Monday the fourth day of November next.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 3d of August 1816,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by the Order of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent in Council of the twelfth day of February last, for prohibiting the exportation out of this kingdom, or carrying coastwise, gunpowder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, will expire on the thirteenth day of this instant August; and whereas it is judged expedient, that the said prohibition, so far as applies to the countries hereinafter named, should be continued for some time longer; His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, doth, therefore, hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's service) do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the said thirteenth day of this instant August), presume to transport any gunpowder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa, or in the West Indies, or on any part of the Continent of America (except to a port or place, or ports or places, in His Majesty's territories or possessions on the Continent of North America, or in the territories of the United States of America), or ship or lade any gunpowder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any such ports or places on the Coast of Africa, or in the West Indies, or on the Continent of America (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf first obtained from His Majesty, or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of salt-petre, and to enforce the law for empowering His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gunpowder, or any sort of arms or ammunition, and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt-petre, gunpowder, or any sort of arms or ammunition;" and also by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His Majesty's reign, cap. 2, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval stores, and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt-petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council:" But it is His Royal Highness's pleasure, that nothing in this Order contained shall be construed to alter or repeal the Order in Council of the twentieth of May one thousand eight hundred and thirteen, for regulating the export of gunpowder and arms to the coast of Africa, under the conditions therein specified. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Chetwynd.

Commission in the South Hants Yeomanry, Selected by the Lord Lieutenant of the County of Hants.
 William Osborne Rich, Esq. to be Captain. Dated August 27, 1816.

Notice is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill to obtain an Act for making and maintaining an inclined plane of railway, or tram road, with all proper works and conveniences for the passage of waggons, carts, and other carriages, properly constructed, from or from near a place called Bull's Head-Lane, in the parish of Mansfield, in the county of Nottingham, through the said parish of Mansfield, and into and through the several parishes of Sutton in Ashfield, Kirkby in Ashfield, and Selston, in the said county of Nottingham, and of Pinxton, in the county of Derby, to or near to a place called Pinxton Basin, in the same parish of Pinxton and county of Derby.

Mansfield, 22d August 1816.

Notice is hereby given to the owners and occupiers of lands and estates in the parish of Saint Mary, Rotherhithe, in the county of Surrey, and to all other persons whom it may concern, that application will be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill for amending and rendering more effectual two several Acts, one passed in the fiftieth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for maintaining and improving the docks and warehouses called the Commercial Docks, and for making and maintaining other docks and warehouses to communicate therewith, all in the parish of Saint Mary, Rotherhithe, in the county of Surrey;" the other passed in the fifty-first year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act of His present Majesty, for maintaining and improving the docks and warehouses called the Commercial Docks, in the parish of Saint Mary, Rotherhithe, in the county of Surrey, and for extending the powers of the said Act;" and for extending the powers and provisions of the said Acts respectively; and also for confirming and assuring the privileges and rights of the said Commercial Dock Company; and for other purposes. Dated this 8th day of August 1816.

John Evans, St. Mildred's Court, Solicitor to the Commercial Dock Company.

Liverpool, August 28, 1816.

LIVERPOOL DOCKS.

THE Trustees of the Liverpool Docks, in pursuance and by virtue of the powers and authorities vested in them by an Act of Parliament, made in the fifty-first year of the reign of His Majesty George the Third, intituled "An Act for the improvement of the port and town of Liverpool, and amending the several Acts relating to the docks, quays, and other works belonging to the said port," hereby give notice, that they do intend to borrow and take up at interest, at the rate of ~~25~~ ²⁷ percent per annum, payable half-yearly, upon assignments of the rates and duties by the aforesaid Act granted, the sum of twenty thousand pounds, and for that purpose the said Trustees will, on Friday the 27th day of September next, at one o'clock in the afternoon, offer to sale by public auction such assignments, at the Dock-Office, in Liverpool aforesaid.

John Foster, Secretary.

N.B. The Trustees of the Docks propose to dispose by auction of such assignments in sums of not less than £100 each, and by the said Acts such assignments are transferable, but not redeemable, except by the Trustees of the Docks themselves.

By Authority of Parliament,
Grocers' Hall,
August 31, 1816.
THOMAS NETTLESHIPP, Clerk of the Grocers' Company.

NORTHAMPTONSHIRE.

Northampton, August 29, 1816.

Notice is hereby given, that, in pursuance of an Act of Parliament, passed in the forty-second year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for amending the laws relating to the militia in England, and for augmenting the militia," a general meeting of the Lieutenantcy of the County of Northampton will be holden, at the George Inn, in the town of Northampton, on Saturday the 14th day of September next, at twelve o'clock at noon.

And notice is hereby also given, that at the above meeting the propriety of giving up the possession of the depôts or store-rooms of the eastern and western regiments of local militia of the said county of Northampton will be taken into consideration.

By order of the Most Honourable Charles Marquess of the County of Northampton, His Majesty's Lieutenant of the same County, Charles Markham, Clerk of the General Meetings.

Royal Hospital for Seamen at Greenwich,
May 1, 1816.

THE Commissioners and Governors of the said Hospital hereby give notice, that at Salters'-Hall, in London, on Saturday the 16th day of November next, or as soon after as conveniently may be, the undermentioned farms will be let on leases, to commence upon the 13th day of May 1817, for the term of years hereinafter respectively mentioned, that is to say, Disston Demesne Haugh Farm, Dilston New Town North Farm, and Corbridge Town Farm, in the parish of Corbridge; and Tedcastle Farm, in the parish of Warden, for the term of ten years; Newlands Haugh Farm, in the parish of Bywell Saint Peter; Wooley Farm, in the parish of Staley; Staples Farm, Peacock House Farm, and Highwood Farm, in the parish of Hexham; Meldon Farm, in the parish of Meldon; Needleshall North Farm, Hartburngrange East Farm, and Hartburngrange Middle Farm, in the parish of Hartburn, for the term of thirteen years; and East Land Ends Farm, Lipwood Farm, Lipwoodwell Farm, Haydon Town Farm, East Millhills Farm, Eastbrokenheugh Farm, Allerwash Town Farm, and Woodhall Farm, in the parish of Warden, for the term of sixteen years.

Such persons as may be desirous to take any of the said farms, are requested to deliver or send their proposals, in writing, to John Dyer, Esq. at Greenwich-Hospital, so as that the delivery thereof at that place shall not be later than on Friday the 15th day of November next; and all such proposals as shall be received after that day, will be returned as inadmissible.

Such alterations and additional buildings as may be thought essentially necessary by the receivers, and approved by the Directors of Greenwich-Hospital, will be made as soon as conveniently can be after the commencement of the terms, the tenant being at the expence of leading all materials.

In the present and all future lettings by the Commissioners and Governors of Greenwich-Hospital, the tenants will be required to pay one moiety of the expence of the leases.

Mr. Anthony Wailes, of Bearl, will shew the farms in the parish of Corbridge; Mr. Cuthbert Surtees, of Echester, the farm at Newlands; Mr. William Sample, of Low Brunton, near Hexham, the farms in the parishes of Staley and Hexham; Mr. Edward Bell, of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, those in the parishes of Meldon and Hartburn; and Mr. William Coats, of Haydon Bridge, those in the parish of Warden.

Messrs. Forster and Wailes, upon being applied to at their Office in Newcastle-upon-Tyne, will give any further particulars it may be necessary to require.

CONTRACT FOR COLOURS MADE OF BUNTIN, AND LINEN FOR MAKING FLAGS.

Navy-Office, August 30, 1816.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice, that on Wednesday the 11th of September next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying His Majesty's several Dock-Yards with Colours made of Buntin, and Linen for making Flags.

A form of the tender may be seen at this Office.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed, unless the party, or an agent for him, attends.
