Estate of JOSEPH CONSTABLE, deceased.

Notice is hereby given, that a dividend will be made on Monday the 30th of September instant, and all persons who have, or claim any debt or demand against the said estate, and have not sent the particulars, are requested, before that time, to send the same, verified upon oath, before one of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace, to Mr. Hayter Reed, of Milk-Street, Dock-Head, London, or they will be excluded the benefit of the said dividend.

September 14, 1816.

ALL persons having any claims or demands on the estate of the late Margaret Sanderson, of Charles-Street, Grosvenor-Square, in the County of Middlesex, Widow, are desired to send an account thereof to the Office of Messrs. Dawson and Wratishaw, Savile-Place, New Burlington-Street, within three months from this day, otherwise they will be excluded the benefit of any participation of the assets in the hands of the Trustees.

To the First and Second Cousins of SARAH WELLS, late of the Parish of Moreton Valence, in the County of Gloucester, Singlewoman, deceased.

Whereas the said Sarah Wells, by her will, dated the 3d of May 1803 (after giving certain legacies and providing for the payment of her debts and funeral expenses), gave all the residue of her monies and effects to be equally divided amongst her first and second cousins: the said Sarah Wells was the daughter of Henry Wells, formerly of Tetbury, in the County of Gloucester, Woolstapler, who died in March 1765, by Margaret his wife, who died in March 1774, and the said Margaret was the daughter of John Long, by Margaret his wife, who formerly lived at Elmstree Farm, in the Parish of Tetbury aforesaid, and died at Ashley, in the County of Wilts.

And whereas claims were made to the said residue of the monies and effects of the said Sarah Wells, by various persons claiming to be her first and second cousins, in consequence of advertisements inserted in the London Gazette and other papers in the year 1804; and in the month of July 1805 an apportionment was made of such residue amongst the persons then appearing to be her first and second cousins, and payment made to such of them as applied, and the shares of such as did not apply were reserved by the Executor for payment when application should be made for the same;

Notice is hereby given, that unless the persons so appearing to be entitled to shares of the residue of the monies and effects of the said Sarah Wells, and who have not yet applied for the same, shall claim their shares and deliver proof of their claims on or before the 1st day of December next, to Mr. Vizard, Solicitor, Dursley, Gloucestershire; the balance now in the hands of the Executor will be divided between the claimants who have applied and received shares of such residue, for which division a day will be fixed.

TO be peremptorily sold, pursuant to two several Orders of His Majesty's High Court of Chancery, made in the Causes Dyer versus Dyer, and Harrison versus Dyer, with the approbation of Francis Paul Stratford, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at the White Lion Inn, at Malmesbury, in the County of Wilts, on Thursday the 10th day of October 1816, at Eleven of the Clock in the Forenoon, in three lots;

Several valuable freehold and leasehold closes of arable and pasture land, the leasehold being for the remainder of a term of one thousand years, situate in the Parish of Westport, near Malmesbury, in the County of Wilts, let to John Bennett, as tenant at will, at an old rent of 411. per annum.

Also a warehouse and garden, in Westport aforesaid, held under the corporation of Malmesbury, and let to a tenant at will.

The premises may be viewed on application to the tenants; and particulars had at the said Master's Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane; of Mr. Carr, Solicitor, No. 42, John-Street, Bedford-Row; of Mr. Kensis, Junior, Solicitor, No. 23, Bedford-Row; of Mr. Newton, Solicitor, Lyon's-Inn, Strand; of Messrs. Millett and Son, Solicitors, Middle-Temple-Lane, London; of Messrs. Clarke's, Sewell, and Hearn, Solicitors, Newport, Isle of Wight; at the place of sale; and the principal Inns in the neighbourhood.

TO be peremptorily sold, pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in the Cause Rickford v. Clulow, with the approbation of William Alexander, Esq. one of the Masters of the Court of Chancery, at the Macclesfield Arms, in Macclesfield, in the County of Chester, on Wednesday the 9th day of October 1816, at Three o'Clock in the Afternoon.

A compact copyhold estate, called Butterlands, situate in the Township of Wincle, within the Manor and Forest of Macclesfield, consisting of a convenient farm-house, with suitable outbuildings, and twenty closes or pieces of inclosed land, meadow, pasture, or wood ground, lying in a ring fence round the house, containing together by admeasurement 117 acres or thereabouts, and now in the possession of Mr. Joseph Chapman, as tenant from year to year, at a rent of 1061. and upwards.

The land tax for the premises has been redeemed, and the estate is subject to the payment of a small certain fine to the Lord of the Manor on every admission, and to the payment of a yearly quit-rent of 12s. 6d. to Lord Somers.

The tenant will shew the premises, and printed particulars may be had (gratis) at the Chambers of the said Master, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London; of Messrs. Pocock and Forbes, Solicitors, Ely-Place; of Mr. Robert Barbur, Solicitor, Fetter-Lane, London; Mr. Wolley, Solicitor, Matlock; Messrs. Johnson and Wise, Solicitors, Ashbourne, Derbyshire; and of David Browne, Esq. Macclesfield.

TO be sold, pursuant to a Decretal Order and Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Cure v. Jackson, bearing date respectively the 13th day of February 1812, and the 2d day of March 1816, on Friday the 25th day of October 1816, with the approbation of James Stephen,
