TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 24, 1816.

Whitehall, September 18, 1816.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, on the night of Friday the 9th ultimo, some evil-disposed person or persons did wilfully and maliciously set fire to a hay-stack, the property of T. Thurnall and sons, of Dunford, in the county of Cambridge;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said felony, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to such hay-stack), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as is before excepted) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof; or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring the said offenders, or any of them, to conviction, or cause them, or any of them, so to be apprehended and convicted as aforesaid; such reward to be paid by the said Messrs. Thurnall and sons, of Dunford.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made the ensuing session of Parliament, for leave to bring in a Bill for making and maintaining a tontine patent iron bridge to cross the River Thames, of sufficient altitude for shipping to pass beneath; to pass from or near a place called the top of New Gravel-Lane, Ratcliffe-Highway, in the parish of Saint Paul, Shadwell, in the county of Middlesex, to or near a place in the parish of Saint Mary, Rotherhithe, in the county of Surrey, called Hanover-Street or Clarence-Street, into the meadow ground behind the same, with a road therefrom into the Lower Deptford and Rotherhithe Roads; which said bridge and roads are for forming a nearest communication with the counties aforesaid, together with those of Kent and Essex; and which said road is intended to pass from, through, and into the parish of Saint Mary, Rotherhithe, in the county of Surrey.

Bridge-Office, 11, Finch-Lane, Cornhill,
London, September 13, 1816.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made the ensuing session of Parliament, for leave to bring in a Bill for making and maintaining, with rules and regulations, a new fish market on the bank of the River Thames, in the west of London, the present market, Billingsgate, from the great increase of population in the metropolis and its environs, having evidently become insufficient. The site of the intended market to be at or near the old Hungerford Market, now in disuse, with suitable improvements on the bank of the river; which said intended market and works lie within the parish of Saint Martin's in the Fields, in the county of Middlesex.

London, September 13, 1816.

September 9, 1816.
THE Trustee on the estates of the foresaid Company and Individuals, hereby intimates, that at a meeting of the Creditors held on the 6th instant, an offer of composition of 13s. per pound, with security to the satisfaction of the meeting, was submitted and considered to be reasonable. The Trustee, therefore, hereby calls a general meeting of the Creditors, to be held within Hunter's Inn, Montrose, on Wednesday the 2d of October next, at Twelve of the Clock at Noon, for the purpose of reconsidering and deciding on said offer.

Notice to the Creditors of John Mitchell, Merchant in Backlyford.

THE said John Mitchell has, with concurrence of the Trustee upon his sequestrated estate and four-fifths of his Creditors, applied to the Court of Session for a final discharge of his debts.—Of which this notice is given, in terms of the statute.

Notice to the Creditors of James Bell and Company, Agents in Glasgow.

Glasgow, September 18, 1816.
WILLIAM PENNEY, Merchant in Glasgow, hereby intimates, that he has been appointed and confirmed Trustee upon the sequestrated estate of the said James Bell and Company, and of James Bell, as an individual; and that upon his application the Sheriff-substitute of Lanarkshire has fixed Thursday the 3d and Thursday the 17th days of October next, at Twelve o'Clock in the Forenoon on each day, within the Sheriff-clerk's Office, Glasgow, for the public examination of the Bankrupts and others connected with their affairs. The Trustee further intimates, that a general meeting of the said Creditors is to be held within the Writing-office of Messrs. McGrigor and Murray, Writers in Glasgow, upon Friday the 18th of October next, at Two o'Clock in the Afternoon; and another meeting, at the same place and hour, upon Friday the 1st of November next, for the purpose of electing Commissioners and instructing the Trustee in the management of the said estate.

And the Trustee requests the Creditors aforesaid to lodge with him their grounds of debt, and oaths of verity thereto, between and the said meetings; certifying hereby that all those who neglect to do so between and the 15th day of June 1817, being ten months from the date of the sequestration of the aforesaid estates, that they will be cut off from any share in the first dividend of the Bankrupts' estate.

Notice to the Creditors of Black and Peacock, Merchants in Greenock, and of Archibald Black, residing there, only surviving partner of said Company, as an individual.

Greenock, September 16, 1816.
CHARLES CAMPBELL, Writer in Greenock, being confirmed Trustee on the sequestrated estates of the said Black and Peacock, and Archibald Black, hereby intimates, that the said Archibald Black having now returned from abroad, the Sheriff of Renfrewshire has fixed Tuesday the 1st and Tuesday the 15th days of October next, at One o'Clock of each of these days, within the Sheriff-clerk's Office in Greenock, for the public examination of the Bankrupt; and that a general meeting of the Creditors will be held in the Tontine Inn, Greenock, on Wednesday the 16th day of the said month of October, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon, being the first lawful day after the Bankrupt's examination, for the purpose of electing Commissioners. And the Trustee requests the Creditors to lodge in his hands their claims and grounds of debt, with oaths of verity thereto, on or before the said day of meeting; certifying, that those who fail to do so, can have no share in the first distribution of the funds.

Notice to the Creditors of William Kennedy, Merchant of Lanen-Draper in Annan.

September 19, 1816.
THE Lord Ordinary officiating on the Bills, of this date, sequestrated the whole estate and effects, heritable and moveable, real and personal, belonging to the said William Kennedy; and appointed his Creditors to meet within the Buck Inn, Annan, upon Friday the 4th of October next, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon, to name an Interim Factor; and to meet again, at the same place and hour, on Monday the 29th day of the said month of October, to elect a Trustee on the said sequestrated estate.—Of which intimation is hereby given to all concerned.

NOTICE.

THE Lord Ordinary officiating on the Bills, of this date, sequestrated the estates, real and personal, of Hugh M'Kay, Merchant in Thurso; and appointed his Creditors to meet in the Prince of Wales Tavern in Glasgow, upon Monday the 30th current, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon, to choose an Interim Factor; and at the same place and hour, upon Monday the 14th of October next, to choose a Trustee.

Notice to the Creditors of James Honey, Merchant in Perth, Perth, September 18, 1816.

JOHN YOUNG, junior, Glover in Perth, hereby intimates, that his election as Trustee on the said James Honey's sequestrated estate has been confirmed by the Lord Ordinary officiating on the Bills; and that the Sheriff of Perthshire has fixed Friday the 4th and Saturday the 19th days of October next, for the public examination of the Bankrupt and others connected with his affairs, within the Sheriff-court-room of Perth, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon on each of these days. General meetings of the Creditors will be held within the White Bull Tavern in Perth, upon Monday the 21st day of October and Monday the 4th of November next, at Two o'Clock in the Afternoon on each day, for choosing Commissioners and instructing the Trustee; and the Creditors are requested to lodge their grounds of debt, with oaths of verity thereon, in the hands of the Trustee, betwixt and the first meeting, or at all events, on or before the 8th June next; certifying to such as fail to do so, that they shall receive no share of the first distribution of the funds.—All in terms of the statute.

Notice to the Creditors of Samuel Haswell, Merchant-Tailor, Glasgow.

Edinburgh, September 20, 1816.

In addition to the intimation contained in Gazette of Tuesday the 10th inst. as of the diets fixed by the Sheriff of Lanarkshire for the examination of the said Samuel Haswell, of the subsequent meeting and lodging of claims, the Trustee hereby intimates, that another meeting will be held in the Prince of Wales Tavern, Glasgow, on Wednesday the 16th of October next, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon; being 14 days after the last examination of the Bankrupt, to examine into the state of the Bankrupt's affairs and give directions to the Trustee, in terms of the statute.

NOTICE.

Edinburgh, September 19, 1816.

UPON the application of Malcom Hunter, Merchant in Glasgow, with concurrence of the Trustee on his sequestrated estate, and of four-fifths of his Creditors in number and value, for a discharge of the debts due by him prior to the date of his sequestration, the Lord Ordinary officiating on the Bills has appointed intimation thereof to be made, in terms of the statute.—Of which notice is hereby given to all concerned accordingly.

Notice to the Creditors of J. and D. M'Gown, Manufacturers in Glasgow, and of the said J. and D. M'Gown, as individuals.

Glasgow, September 17, 1816.

JOHN M'GAVIN, Accountant in Glasgow, hereby intimates, that he has been confirmed Trustee upon the sequestrated estates of the said J. and D. M'Gown, as a company, and as individuals; and that the Sheriff of Lanarkshire has fixed Thursday the 3d and Thursday the 17th days of October next, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon of each day, within the Sheriff-clerk's Office in Glasgow, for the public examination of the Bankrupts and others connected with their affairs; and general meetings of the Creditors will be held within the Prince of Wales Tavern, Glasgow, on Friday the 18th day of October and Friday the 1st day of November next, at one o'Clock in the Afternoon on each day, for the purposes mentioned in the statute.

The Creditors are required to lodge with the Trustee their grounds of debt, with oaths of verity, at or previous to the said first meeting; certifying to those Creditors who shall fail to do so on or before the 7th day of June next, that they will receive no share of the first dividend.
