Turin, April 15.

THe Troops that were sent against the Peasants of Mondovi, are come back, the said Peasants having submitted themselves upon promise of Pardon, which was Published last Thursday. The Duke of Savoy has declared, That he intends to part from hence, the beginning of June, for Portugal, and an Expres has been sent to Lisbonne, to acquaint that Court therewith.

Venice, April 22. From Rome they write, that that Court are extremely alarmed with the News they receive from France, of the Proceedings of the Clergy of that Kingdom; That the Pope had expressed a great deal of Trouble, and had appointed the Cardinals, whom he esteemed most, to consider together what is to be done in a matter of so great Importance to that Sec.

Francfort, May 6. The French Ambassadors have given a Reply to the Answer they lately received from the Imperial Ambassadors, which is to this effect; That the Pretensions of the King their Master are founded upon the Treaties of Munster and Nimeguen; That the Examining the sense of those Treaties cannot but be very advantageous to his Majesty; but to avoid the fruitless disputes that would be thereby occasioned, his Majesty had Limited the Pretensions he has by virtue of those Treaties, to the Terms expressed in the Propositions which his Ambassadors here delivered to those of the Emperor on the 5th of January; and that his Majesty could not depart from what he had then Proposed. The Circle of Franconia, which is now assembled, has resolved to furnish with all speed their Quota of the Army of the Empire, which is 4000 Men; and to these the Bishop of Bamberg, Di-ector of that Circle, will add 5000 more, and Command them himself. The Circle of the upper Rhine furnishes 3000, and the Houses of Eysenach and Gotta, 3000 more, which together, will make 15000 Men, and it's said they will be Mustered in a Body the middle of the next Month, and that a Magazine is providing for them at Scheinfur. From Vlenna we have an account that the Emperors was brought to Bed of a Young Prince, to the great Joy of the Imperial Court, the Emperor having now two Sons by his present Emperess.

Cologne, May 5. Prince William of Furstenberg, whom our Elector sent to Liege with Proposals to those Magistrates, has been received there with all the Respects imaginable; and it is said that he will be made Governor of the County of Liege. The 800 Men which his Electoral Highness assists this City with, arrived here last Saturday, being very good Men, and new Cloathed: They have taken an Oath of Fidelity to the Magistrates, and of Obedience to the Commander in Chief. From Franc- fort they write, That the French Ambassadors are much dissatisfied with the Answer to their Proposals, and that they declare the King their Master will never part with what he is at present possessed of.

Brussels, May 8. The Prince de Rasch is gone to his Government of Mons; and Don Orillio, and the Sieur Cantelmo, are parted for Luxemburg, with 40 thousand Florins, for the Payment of that Garrison: Upon their arrival at Luxemburg, the Prince de Chimay has liberty to make a stop hither, the Government of that Place being in the interim put into the hands of Don Orillio. We have advice from the French Conquests, that great Magazines are providing at Tournay, Lille, Menin, Cambray, and Valenciennes, and that the French design to have two Camps, as soon as the Season will permit; the one at Pont Espieres, between Tournay and Audenarde, and the other between Cambray and Valenciennes: Monsieur Del Val, who arrived here within these two or three Days from Paris, confirms the same; and adds, that his most Christian Majesty has given out Commissions for the raising 10000 Horse. As for what concerns the Confiscations of the Estates, which the King of Spain's Subjects have in the French Conquests, we are informed that Monsieur Del Val received this Answer from the King, when he represented that Matter to him, that he could not give any Orders for the taking off the said Confiscations, till he knew his Catholick Majesties resolution concerning the Arbitrage he had proposed. Our Governor, the Marquis de Grana, having received Advice that the King of Denmark has fitted out several small Frigats, and that they were put to Sea with orders to joyn those of the Elector of Brandenburg, and to make Reprisals upon the Subjects of the Crown of Spain, for Arrears of Subsidies which they pretend to be due to them; his Excellency has given Orders for the fitting out several Light Men of War, for the security of our Coasts. Monsieur de Prado is so ill at Vilvord, that he cannot be removed hither, which retards his Process. This Morning his Excellency parted from hence for Flanders, to visit the several Garrisons in that Province; and before His Excellency returns hither, he will have an Interview with the Prince of Orange.

Brussels, May 12. On Saturday arrived an Expres, who not finding the Marquis de Grana here, followed him into Flanders, being sent by the Prince of Orange, to acquaint his Excellency, that his Highness intended to be at Breda as this Day, and that from thence he would go to a place called Louvenbour, and desired his Excellency would meet him there. And our Le ters from Flanders, arrived this day, give us an account, that his Excellency will be this Night at Antwerp, and that he will meet the Prince of Orange at the place above mentioned to Morrow. His Excellency has changed the Magistrates at Ghent, and will do the like at Antwerp
