ALL persons having any claim or demand on the estate of the above-named Thomas Webster (who died near Quebec in the month of July last), are requested to send the particulars thereof, and of any securities they hold, to Mr. J. G. Soggers, Solicitor, Crosby-Square, London, on or before the 4th day of November next, in order that the amount of such claims may be ascertained, and an account thereof forthwith transmitted to Canada, that the same may be put in a due course of payment.

Estate of Mr. CHARLES BRADBURN, deceased.

ALL persons who have any claims on the estate of Mr. Charles Bradburne, late of Duncan-Street, White-chapel, deceased, are requested forthwith to send the accounts of their respective demands to Mr. Anthony Brown, London Commercial Sale-Rooms, Mincing-Lane, Solicitor to the Executors.

Creditors of SARAH STEVENS, Widow, deceased.

THE Creditors of the deceased are hereby required, on or before the 20th day of November next, to deliver in writing a particular of their demand upon her estate, that the same may be examined and paid by Mr. Bryan Leaton, her Executor, who now resides in the Kent-Road, near the Bricklayer's Arms, and with whom the deceased lived; in default thereof the assets then in hand will be applied pursuant to the directions of her will, and the Creditors excluded therefrom.

Marshal's Office.—Sale by Execution.

BY virtue of an appointment from His Excellency H. W. Bentinck, Esq. Lieutenant-Governor of the Colony of Berbice, and its dependencies, &c. &c. &c. dated the 27th of April 1816, given upon a petition presented by Lewis Cameron, as the Attorney of Charles Campbell and James Bowden, of London, Merchants, v. the Representative or Representatives for the estate of John M'Kenzie, deceased;

Notice is hereby given, that I the undersigned will sell, at public execution sale, in the month of August 1817, the precise day hereafter to be notified through the Gazette of this Colony, the cotton estate called Dunrobin, the property of the estate of John M'Kenzie, deceased, situate on the east sea coast of this Colony, with all its cultivation, slaves, buildings, and further appurtenances thereto belonging, and of which an inventory is to be seen at this Office.

Should therefore any person think himself entitled to oppose the execution sale of aforesaid estate Dunrobin cum annexis, let such person or persons address themselves to the Marshal's Office of this Colony, declaring their reasons for so doing in due time and form; as I hereby give notice, that I will receive opposition from every intermediate person, appoint them a day to have his or her claim heard before the Court, and further act therein as the law directs.

This proclamation published as customary.—Berbice, July 7, 1816.
K. FRANCKEN, First Marshal.

NORTHAMPTONSHIRE.

TO be sold by auction, by John Dumbleton, either together or in separate lots, as may be agreed upon at the time of sale, at the Plough Inn, in Braunston, in the said County of Northampton, on Thursday the 31st day of October instant, between the hours of Four and Six in the Afternoon, by order of the major part of the Commissioners named, authorised and appointed in and by a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued and now in prosecution against Richard Dunn, now or late of Braunston aforesaid, Dealer and Chapman, subject to the conditions of sale which shall be then and there produced;

All that freehold messuage or tenement, together with an exceedingly good butcher's shop, with fasting pens, slaughter-house, and cutting shop (now in full trade), outbuildings and appurtenances, spacious yard, garden, and piece of ground adjoining the same, containing half an acre (more or less) situate and being in Braunston aforesaid, and now or late in the tenure or occupation of the said Richard Dunn.

Also a close or inclosed ground of exceedingly rich pasture-land, lying in the inclosed fields of Braunston aforesaid, and in that part thereof which before the inclosure of the said fields was called Brownsom-Field, containing by estimation three acres (more or less) and now or late also in the occupation of the said Richard Dunn.

For a view of the premises apply at the House, and for further particulars at the Offices of Mr. Wardle, Solicitor, Daventry.

Pursuant to an Order of the Right Honourable the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, made in the matter of William Hunter, a lunatic, the Creditors of the said William Hunter are personally, or by their Solicitors, to come in and prove their debts before Joseph Jekyll, Esq. one of the Masters of the High Court of Chancery, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, on or before the 23d of January 1817; or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Order.

THE Creditors who have proved their Debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Joseph Budworth Sharp, of Queen-Street, Cheapside, in the
