WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, about four o'clock on Saturday morning the 13th instant, a fire broke out in a barn belonging to W. H. Whittington, Esq. at Broadwater, near Hitchin, Herts, which consumed the same, together with its contents, and sundry corn and hay ricks adjoining, and that there is every reason to believe that the same was wilfully and maliciously set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said felony, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said barn), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof. Notice is hereby given, that, on the 25th day of November next, the present Swape or Low Light, on the Spurn Point at the Mouth of the Humber, will be removed, and, in-lieu thereof, an oil light will be exhibited, with argand lamps and reflectors, in a lanthorn fixed on the top of a brick tower fifty feet in height, situate in the same line of direction as the present light, and forty-six feet to the south eastward of the said Swape or Low Light.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

Edinburgh, October 12, 1816.

THE Commissioners of the Northern Light-Houses hereby give notice, that for the improvement of the Navigation of the Irish Channel, and Frith of Clyde, a Light-house is erected upon Corsewall Point, from which a light will be exhibited on the evening of Friday the 15th of November ensuing, and will thereafter continue to be lighted every night, from the going away of day-light in the evening, till the return of day-light in the morning.

The following is the Specification of the Position of the Light-house, and Appearance of the Light, by Mr. Stevenson, Engineer to the Commissioners :

Corsewall Point Light-house is situate in the county of Wigton, and district of Galloway, in north latitude 55. 1. and west longitude 5. 5. It bears by compass, from Milloar, on the western side of the channel leading into Loch Ryan, W. by S. distant about two miles; from Turnberry Point S. W. 21 miles; from the Craig of Ailsa S. S. W. 15 miles; from the Mull of Kintyre S. E. by S. 31 miles; from the Hulin, or Maiden Rocks, off the coast of Antrim, in Ireland, E. by S. 20 miles; from Copeland light-house, near the entrance of Belfast Loch, N. E.  $\frac{1}{2}$  E. 22 miles; and from Laggan Point, in Galloway, N. E. distant  $3\frac{1}{2}$  miles.

The light will be from oil, with a reflecting and revolving apparatus. To distinguish it from the other lights upon this coast, it will be known to Mariners as a single revolving light, with colour, and will therefore exhibit, from the same light-room, a light of the natural appearance, alternating with a light tinged with a red colour. These lights will respectively attain their greatest strength, or most luminous effect, at the end of every two minutes. But in the course of each periodic revolution of the reflector-frame, both lights will become alternately fainter and more obscure; and to a distant observer be totally eclipsed for a short period.

The light-room at Corsewall is glazed all round, but the light will be hid from the marine by the
