West India Dock-House,
November 2, 1816.

To the Owners of, or other Persons entitled to, the Ship Caledonia, Tumins, Mastet, and to all others whom it may concern.

WHEREAS the ship Caledonia, of 327 tons 86-94, which entered the import dock of the West India Dock Company on the 16th of December 1808, and was finally discharged from that dock on the 17th of January 1809, and has ever since remained in the export dock of the said Company, without the rates to which she is subject being paid, is now in so very decayed and ruinous a state as to be in danger of sinking; the said West India Dock Company do therefore hereby give notice, that unless the owners, or the persons interested in, the said vessel do pay the rates and charges to which she is subject, and take her out of the said docks within one month from the date hereof, the said vessel will be broken up and sold by public auction, to defray the said rates and charges, and the expences of removing, breaking up, and selling the same, and the balance (if any) will be accounted for to the owners of the said vessel on demand.

Thomas Marsham, Secretary.

West India Dock-House,
November 2, 1816.

To the Owners of, or other Persons entitled to, the Sloop Phoenix, Thompson, Master, and to all others whom it may concern.

WHEREAS the sloop Phoenix, of 36.75-94 tons, which entered the export dock of the West India Dock Company on the 8th of September 1811, and has remained therein and in the Blackwall Basin ever since, without being claimed, or the dock rates to which she is subject paid, is now in so very decayed and ruinous a state as to be in danger of sinking; the said West India Dock Company do therefore hereby give notice, that unless the owners of, or the persons interested in, the said vessel do pay the rates and charges to which she is subject, and take her out of the said docks within one month from the date hereof, the said vessel will be broken up and sold by public auction, to defray the said rates and charges, and the expences of removing, breaking up, and selling the same, and the balance (if any) will be accounted for to the owners of the said vessel on demand.
