

farm house, in the parish of Westwood, near Trowbridge, in the county of Wilts, belonging to George Hayward/Tugwell, Esq. was discovered to be on fire, which soon communicating to another barn, both of them were totally consumed, together with about one hundred and fifty sacks of wheat, and a threshing machine, in one barn, and three or four loads of oats in the straw, and a small quantity of barley and peas, in the other; and whereas it hath been further represented unto His Royal Highness, that, at the same time the above-mentioned fire was raging, a barley rick on the same farm, but about a quarter of a mile distant, was likewise observed to be on fire in four places, which was also totally consumed; and that there is every reason to believe the same were wilfully and maliciously set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the person or persons concerned in such felonies, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person or persons who actually set fire to the said barn or rick), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

STDMOUTH
And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the said Mr. Tugwell, to any person or persons (except as is before excepted) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof, or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring the offender or offenders to conviction, or cause him, her, or them to be apprehended and convicted as aforesaid.
