TUESDAY, DECEMBER 10, 1816.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, October 21, 1816.

Office is hereby given, that Her Majesty's birth-day, which falls on the 18th of January, will be celebrated by a Drawing-Room at the Queen's-Palace, on the 6th of February; and that the birth-day of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent will also be celebrated by a Drawing-Room at Her Majesty's Palace, on St. George's Day, the 23d of April.

It is most earnestly recommended and desired, that the Nobility and Gentry, and all persons attending upon those occasions, will appear in dresses entirely of British manufacture.

By His Royal Highness the PRINCE of WALES, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the Name and on the Behalf of His Majesty,

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE, P. R.

WHEREAS the Parliament stands prorogued to Thursday the second day of January next, We, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, do hereby publish and declare, that the said Parliament shall be further prorogued on the said second day of January to Tuesday the twenty-eighth day of the said month; and We have given order to the Lord High Chancellor of that part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland called Great Britain, to prepare a Commission for proroguing the same accordingly. And We do further hereby, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice aforesaid, publish and declare, that the said Parliament shall, on the twenty-eighth day of January next, be held and sit for the dispatch of divers urgent and important affairs: And the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Knights, Citizens, and Burgesses, and the Commissioners for Shires and Burghs of the House of Commons, are hereby required and commanded to give their attendance accordingly, at Westminster, on the said twenty-eighth day of January next.

Given at the Court at Carlton-House, the twenty-fifth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and sixteen, in the fifty-seventh year of His Majesty's reign.

GOD save the KING.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 14th of October 1816,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for the making more effectual provision for the prevention of smuggling, and rewarding officers and persons making seizures and capturing smuggling vessels, for licencing luggers employed in the North Sea fishery, and obliging exporters of excisable goods, on drawback, to give notice of shipment," it is amongst other things enacted, that every such reward, or part or share of such seizure, or of the value thereof, as shall under or by virtue of this or any other Act, be payable to any officer or officers, non-commissioned officers, petty-officers, seamen, or privates, of His Majesty's army, navy, or marines, or acting under the orders of the Lord High Admiral, or of the Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, shall be divided and be distributed in such proportions, and according to such rules, regulations, and orders, as His Majesty shall, by His Order or Orders in Council, or by His Royal Proclamation in that behalf, be pleased to direct or appoint:

And whereas by an Act, passed in the third year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for the further improvement of His Majesty's revenue of customs, and for the encouragement of “ officers making seizures, and for the prevention of the clandestine running of goods into any part of His Majesty's dominions :”

And whereas by another Act, passed in the fourth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled “ An Act for granting certain duties in the British colonies and plantations in America, for continuing, amending, and making perpetual an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, intituled “ An Act for the better securing and encouraging the trade of His Majesty's sugar colonies in America, for applying the produce of such duties, and of the duties to arise by virtue of the said Act, towards defraying the expenses of defending, protecting, and securing the said colonies and plantations ;” for explaining an Act made in the twenty-fifth year of the reign of King Charles the Second, intituled “ An Act for the encouragement of the Greenland and Eastland trade, and the better securing the plantation trade ; and for altering and disabling several drawbacks on exports from this kingdom, and more effectually preventing the clandestine conveyance of goods to and from the said colonies and plantations, and improving and securing the trade between the same and Great Britain ;” by which last recited Acts powers were given to His Majesty, His heirs and successors, to direct and appoint the moiety, or any other part of all and every seizure or seizures, made at sea, under the provisions of the said Act and other Acts therein mentioned, by any of His Majesty's ships or vessels, to be divided amongst the officers and seamen of such ship or vessel of war who shall make any such seizure, in such proportions, and in such manner, as His Majesty, His Heirs and successors, shall think fit to order and direct, by any Order or Orders in Council, or by any Proclamation or Proclamations, to be made or issued from time to time :

And whereas in pursuance of the powers so vested in His Majesty, His Heirs and successors, His Majesty was pleased, by Order in Council, bearing date the twelfth day of October in the year one thousand seven hundred and sixty-four, to order, direct, and appoint a scale of distribution accordingly :

And whereas it will be expedient that the scale of distribution so ordered, directed, and appointed for seizures under the revenue laws, and also for seizures under the navigation laws, shall be revoked and annulled ; and that the rules and regulations hereinafter ordered, directed, and appointed, shall be substituted and adopted in lieu thereof ; His Royal Highness the Prince Regent having taken the same into consideration, is thereupon pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, directed, and appointed, that the said before-mentioned Order in Council be henceforth revoked and annulled, and the same is hereby revoked and annulled accordingly :

And it is further ordered, directed, and appointed, that all shares of any such seizures as are or shall, by virtue of the aforesaid Acts, or either of them, or any other Acts relating to the trade or revenues of His Majesty's dominions, be payable to and among the commanders, officers, and crews of any of His Majesty's ships or vessels of war, shall be divided and distributed in the following manner, viz.

That the produce of such seizures, so payable as aforesaid, shall be divided into eight equal parts.

The captain or captains of any of His Majesty's ships or sloops of war, or officers commanding such ships or vessels who shall be actually on board at the time of making any such seizure, shall have three of the said eighth parts ; but if such ships or vessels shall be under the command of a flag or flags, the flag-officer or officers so commanding shall have one of the said three eighth parts, and the captain or captains the other two. The sea lieutenants, captains of marines, and land forces serving as marines, and master on board, shall have one eighth part, to be equally divided amongst them.

The lieutenants and quarter masters of marines, and lieutenants and ensigns and quarter masters of land forces serving as marines, secretaries of admirals or of commodores, with captains under them, such secretaries being present at the seizure, second masters, chaplains, pursers, surgeons, boatswains, gunners, carpenters, master's mates, and pilots, who shall be on board, shall have one eighth part, to be equally divided amongst them.

The first class of petty officers, namely, Admiralty midshipmen, midshipmen, assistant surgeons, secretaries' clerks, captains' clerks, schoolmasters, masters at arms, armourers, caulkers, rope-makers, sail-makers, carpenters' mates, boatswains' mates, gunners' mates, ships' corporals, quarter masters, captain's coxswains, coxswains of the launch, coxswains of the pinnace, yeomen of the signals, captains of the hold, captains of the fore-castle, serjeants of marines and land forces, if serving as marines, shall have one eighth part, to be equally divided amongst them.

The other two eighth parts of the seizure to be divided into shares and distributed to the persons composing the remaining part of the crew or crews, in the following proportions, viz.

The second class of petty officers, namely, coopers, armourers' mates, caulkers' mates, sail-makers' mates, captains of the foretop, captains of the maintop, captains of the after guard, captains of the mast, ship's cook, corporals of marines and of land forces, if serving as marines, four shares each.

To the volunteers of the first class, the gunner's crew, carpenter's crew, sail-maker's crew, cooper's crew, able seamen, boatswains' yeomen, gunners' yeomen, carpenters' yeomen, ordinary seamen, drummers, private marines, and other soldiers, if serving as marines, three shares each.

To the landmen, admirals' domestics, and all other ratings not above enumerated, together with all passengers and other persons borne as supernumeraries, and doing duty and assisting on board (excepting officers acting by order, who are to receive the share of that rank on which they shall be acting), two shares each. And the boys of every description, one share each.

Secondly—In the cases of seizures made by the officers and men of cutters, schooners, brigs, and other armed vessels of war, commanded by lieutenants, the produce being divided as before into eight parts, the lieutenant or lieutenants to have three eighth parts, unless under the command of a flag officer or officers, in which case such flag officer or officers to have one eighth part, and the lieutenant or lieutenants the other two.

The share of the master and pilot to be one eighth part; the said eighth part, if there be both a master and a pilot on board, to be divided into three parts, of which two are to be taken by the master, and one by the pilot.

But if there be only a master and no pilot, then the master to take the whole eighth; if there be only a pilot, then such pilot to have one half of the eighth, and the other half to go to Greenwich-Hospital.

The surgeon (or surgeon's assistant, where there is no surgeon), master's mate, Admiralty midshipmen, midshipmen, and clerks, to have one eighth part.

The first class of petty officers, namely, sail-makers, gunners' mates, boatswains' mates, carpenters' mates, quarter master, captain of the fore-castle, and serjeants of marines or land forces, serving as marines, shall have one eighth part, to be equally divided amongst them; the remaining two eighth parts to be divided into shares, and distributed to the other part of the crew in the following proportions, viz.

To the second class of petty officers, namely, captain of the foretop, captain of the mast, and corporals of marines, four shares each.

To the volunteers of the first class, able seamen, ordinary seamen, and marines, and soldiers serving as marines, three shares each.

To the landmen and all other ratings, not before enumerated, together with passengers and other persons borne as supernumeraries, doing duty and assisting on board, two shares each.

Boys of all descriptions, one share each.

Thirdly—In the cases of seizures made by His Majesty's revenue cruisers, under the direction of the Admiralty:

The produce being divided as before, into eight parts, the commander or commanders of the cruiser or cruisers making the seizure, or of the cruiser or cruisers aiding and assisting therein, to have three of the said eighth parts; but if such cruiser or cruisers shall be under the command of a flag or flags, the flag officer or officers, so commanding, to have one of the said three eighth parts, and the commander or commanders the other two.

The first mate, or first mates, and the pilot of such cruiser or cruisers, to have one eighth part; such part to be divided into shares, of which the first mate or mates (if more than one) shall have two shares each, and the pilot one share; but if there be no pilot, the first mate or mates, if more than one, shall take the whole eighth in equal shares; but if there be a pilot and no mate, he shall take one half of the eighth, and the other half shall go to Greenwich Hospital.

And the remaining four eighth parts to be divided into shares, and distributed to the other part of the crew or crews, in the following proportions, viz.

To the second mate or mates, three shares each.

To the deputed mariner or mariners; two shares each.

To the seamen, one share each.

And to the boys half a share each.

Fourthly—But this distribution is only to extend to such seizures as shall be made by any cutter, schooner, brig, or armed vessel of war, or any revenue cruiser, without any of His Majesty's ships or vessels, commanded by captains or commanders, being present and aiding and assisting in the seizure.

In case any such ship or vessel should be present and aiding and assisting in the seizure, then the officer, pilots, petty officers, and men on board such cutters, schooners, brigs or armed vessels, are to share in the same proportions, as is allowed to persons of the like rank and denomination on board His Majesty's ships and vessels, commanded by captains and commanders; and the officers and men of such revenue cruisers, are to share as a King's vessel would, agreeably to the following scheme of classification:

Commander of such revenue cruiser, with the lieutenant; first mate and pilot, with the master and pilot; second mate, with the first class of petty officers; deputed mariners, with the second class of petty officers; seamen with able seamen, ordinary seamen, and marines.

Boys with boys.

Fifthly—In all cases of seizures, such officers or seamen as may be absent upon ship duty or revenue business, connected with the station upon which such ship or vessel is placed, shall be entitled to their respective shares, in the same manner as if they had been actually on board at the time of making the seizure.

And all seizures made by tenders employed by order of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, or boats and officers belonging to and detached from His Majesty's ships and vessels, or revenue cruisers, are to be shared by the officers and men of the ship, or vessel, to which such tender, boat, or officers belong, in the same manner as if the seizure were made by the said ship or vessel.

Sixthly—In all cases in which supernumeraries, whether officers or men, shall be borne by order of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, they shall share with the respective ranks in which they may be acting.

Seventhly—The following regulations to be established with respect to the share before-mentioned to be given to the flag officer or officers under whose command the capturing vessel may be.

- That a captain of a ship or commander of a vessel shall be deemed to be under the command of a flag, when he shall have actually received some order directly from, or he acting in execution of some order issued by a flag officer; and in the event of his being directed to join a flag officer on any station, he shall be deemed to be under the command of such flag officer from the time when he arrives within the limits of the station, and shall be considered to continue under the command of the flag officer of such station until such captain or other commander shall have received some order directly from, or he acting in execution of some order issued by some other flag officer, or the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty.
- That a flag officer, commander in chief, when there is but one flag officer upon service, shall have to his own use the one third part of the said three eighths of the seizures made by ships and vessels under his command.
- That when vessels under the command of several flags, which belong to separate stations, shall happen to be joint captors, the captain of each ship shall pay one third of the share to which he is entitled to the flag officers of the station to which he belongs; but the captains of vessels under Admiralty orders, being joint captors with other vessels under a flag, shall retain the whole of their share.
- That if a flag officer is sent to command in the out-ports of this kingdom, he shall have no share in the seizures made by ships or vessels which have sailed, or shall sail, from that port by order from the Admiralty.
- That when more flag officers than one serve together, the one third part of the three eighths of the seizures made by any ships or vessels of the fleet or squadron shall be divided in the following proportions, viz.
- If there be but two flag officers, the chief shall have two third parts of the said third of three eighths, and the other shall have the remaining third part; but if the number of flag officers be more than two, the chief shall have only one half, and the other half shall be equally divided amongst the junior flag officers.
- That commodores, with captains under them, shall be esteemed as flag officers, with respect to the one third of the three eighth parts of seizures made, whether commanding in chief or serving under command.
- That the first captain to the admiral and commander in chief of His Majesty's fleet, and also the first captain to a flag officer appointed, or hereafter to be appointed to command a fleet or squadron of ten ships of the line of battle, or upwards, shall be deemed and taken to be a flag officer, and shall be entitled to a part or share of seizures, as the junior flag officer of such fleet or squadron.
- Eighthly—In case any difficulty shall arise in respect to the aforementioned scheme for general distribution, not herein sufficiently provided for, the same shall be referred to the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, whose direction thereupon shall be final, and have the same force and effect as if herein inserted.
- Lastly—With regard to the preparations of the lists for the distribution of seizures; That the captains and commanders of His Majesty's ships and vessels of war, and of the revenue cruizers, shall, on making any seizure, transmit as soon as may be, or cause to be transmitted, to the Commissioners of the Navy, or in the case of revenue cruizers, to the Commissioners of Customs or Excise in London, Edinburgh, or Dublin, according to the department from which they may receive their pay, a true list of the names of all the officers, seamen, marines, soldiers, and others who were actually on board of His Majesty's ships or vessels of war, or the said revenue cruizers, under their command at the time of the seizure, and also those who were absent on duty as before mentioned; which list shall contain the quality of the service of each person on board, together with the description of the men, taken from the description books of the capturing vessel or vessels, and their several ratings, and be subscribed by the captain or commanding officer, and three or more of the chief officers on board. And the Commissioners of the Navy, or any three or more of them, or the Commissioners of the Customs or Excise in London, Edinburgh or Dublin, shall examine, or cause to be examined, such lists, by the muster-books of such ships and vessels of war and revenue cruizers, and lists annexed thereto, to see that such lists do agree with such muster-books, and annexed list, as to the names, qualities, or ratings of the officers, seamen, marines, soldiers and others belonging to such ships and vessels of war and revenue cruizers, and upon request, shall forthwith grant a certificate, signed by any three or more of them, of the truth of any list transmitted to them, to the agents nominated and appointed by the seizors; and also upon application to them, the said Commissioners shall give or cause to be given to the said agents, all such lists from the muster-books of any such ships of war and revenue cruizers, and annexed lists, as the said agent shall find requisite for their direction in making distribution to the parties entitled to share in the produce of such seizures, and otherwise be aiding and assisting to the said agents in all such matters as shall be necessary.
- And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, are to cause His Royal Highness's pleasure, hereby signified, to be duly complied with.
- Jas. Buller.*

At the Council-Chamber, Whitehall, the 25th of November 1816.

PRESENT,

The Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

WHEREAS it hath been represented to this Board, that the plague, which made its appearance and prevailed at Noya, has ceased; it is thereupon ordered, that the Order of Council of the fourteenth of February last, subjecting all ships and vessels liable to quarantine, and coming from or through the Mediterranean, within the Straights of Gibraltar (although furnished with clean bills of health), to be treated as vessels arriving with suspected bills, be, and the same is, hereby revoked: and the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, His Majesty's Secretary at War, and the Governors or Commanders in Chief for the time being of the isles of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, and Man, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Chetwynd.

Carlton-House, December 9, 1816.

THIS day the Right Honourable the Lord Mayor, the Aldermen, Recorder, Sheriffs, Common Council, and Officers of the Corporation of the City of London, waited upon the Prince Regent with the following Address and Petition; which was read by Sir John Silvester, Bart. the Recorder:

To His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble Address and Petition of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the City of London, in Common Council assembled.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the City of London, in Common Council assembled, humbly approach your Royal Highness to represent our national sufferings and grievances, and respectfully to suggest the adoption of measures which we conceive to be indispensably necessary for the safety, the quiet, and prosperity of the realm.

We forbear to enter into details of the afflicting scenes of privations and sufferings that every where exist; the distress and misery, which for so many years has been progressively accumulating, has at length become insupportable; it is no longer partially felt nor limited to one portion of the empire, the commercial, the manufacturing, and the agricultural interests are equally sinking under its irresistible pressure; and it has become impossible to find employment for a large mass of the population, much less to bear up against our present enormous burthens.

We beg to impress upon your Royal Highness, that our present complicated evils have not arisen from a mere transition from war to peace, nor from any sudden or accidental causes, neither can they be removed by any partial or temporary expedients.

Our grievances are the natural effect of rash and ruinous wars, unjustly commenced and pertinaciously persisted in, when no rational object was to be obtained; of immense subsidies to Foreign Powers to defend their own territories, or to commit aggressions on those of their neighbours; of a delusive paper currency; of an unconstitutional and unprecedented military force in time of peace; of the unexampled and increasing magnitude of the Civil List; of the enormous sums paid for unmerited pensions and sinecures; and of a long course of the most lavish and improvident expenditure of the public money throughout every branch of the Government; all arising from the corrupt and inadequate state of the representation of the people in Parliament, whereby all constitutional controul over the servants of the Crown has been lost, and Parliaments have become subservient to the will of Ministers.

We cannot forbear expressing our grief and disappointment, that notwithstanding your Royal Highness's gracious recommendation of economy at the opening of the last Sessions of Parliament, your Ministers should have been found opposing every proposition for lessening the national expenditure, and that they should have been able to obtain majorities to support and sanction their conduct, in defiance of your Royal Highness's recommendation and the declared sense of the nation; affording another melancholy proof of the corrupt state of the representation, in addition to those facts so often stated and offered to be proved at the bar of the House of Commons, in a petition presented in 1793, by the Honourable Charles Lord Grey, whereby it appeared that the great body of the people were excluded from all share in the election of Members, and that the majority of that Honourable House, were returned by the proprietors of rotten boroughs, the influence of the Treasury, and a few powerful families.

We can, Sir, no longer support out of our dilapidated resources, an overwhelming load of taxation, and we humbly submit to your Royal Highness, that nothing but a reformation of these abuses, and restoring to the people their just and constitutional right in the election of Members of Parliament, can afford a security against their recurrence, calm the apprehension of the people, allay their irritated feelings, and prevent those misfortunes in which the nation must inevitably be involved, by an obstinate and infatuated adherence to the present system of corruption and extravagance.

We therefore humbly pray your Royal Highness to assemble Parliament as early as possible, and that you will be graciously pleased to recommend to their immediate consideration these important matters, and the adoption of measures for abolishing all useless places, pensions and sinecures, for the reduction of our present enormous military establishment, for making every practicable reduction in the public expenditure, and restoring to the people their just share and weight in the Legislature.

Signed, by order of Court,

Henry Woodthorpe.

To which Address and Petition His Royal Highness was graciously pleased to return the following Answer:

“ It is with strong feelings of surprise and regret that I receive this Address and Petition of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons, of the City of London, in Common Council assembled.

“ Deeply as I deplore the prevailing distress and difficulties of the country, I derive consolation from the persuasion that the great body of His Majesty’s subjects, notwithstanding the various attempts which have been made to irritate and mislead them, are well convinced that the severe trials which they sustain with such exemplary patience and fortitude are chiefly to be attributed to unavoidable causes; and I contemplate, with the most cordial satisfaction, the efforts of that enlightened benevolence which is so usefully and laudably exerting itself throughout the kingdom.

“ I shall resort, with the utmost confidence, to the tried wisdom of Parliament, at the time which, upon the fullest consideration, I have thought most advisable under the present circumstances of the country; and I entertain a perfect conviction, that a firm and temperate administration of the Government, assisted and supported by the good sense, public spirit and loyalty of the nation, will effectually counteract those proceedings which, from whatever motives they may originate, are calculated to render temporary difficulties the means of producing permanent and irreparable calamity.”

Whitehall, December 10, 1816.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent hath been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to nominate and appoint Major-General Sir David Ochterlony, Bart. and Knight Commander of the Most Honourable Military Order of the Bath, to be a Knight Grand Cross of the said Most Honourable Military Order.

Alexander Morison, M. D. has been appointed Physician Extraordinary to their Royal and Serene Highnesses the Princess Charlotte and the Prince Leopold.

Whitehall, December 6, 1816.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented that His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that James Watson, the younger, late of Hyde-Street, Bloomsbury, surgeon, stands charged upon oath, on a violent suspicion of having wilfully and feloniously attempted to kill and murder Richard Platt, on Monday the 2d day of this instant December, by firing a loaded pistol at and desperately wounding the said Richard Platt; and that the said James Watson also stands charged on vehement suspicion with having committed divers other high and atrocious offences;

His Royal Highness, for the better and more speedily apprehending and bringing to justice the said James Watson for the felonies and offences aforesaid, is hereby pleased, acting in the name and on behalf of His Majesty, to promise to any person or persons who shall discover and apprehend, or cause to be discovered and apprehended, the said James Watson, the sum of FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS; to be paid by the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty’s Treasury, upon the said James Watson being apprehended and lodged in any one of His Majesty’s goals.

SIDMOUTH.

The above named James Watson is a surgeon by profession, and has been employed in that capacity on board a Greenland Ship: he is a young man, apparently about twenty-three or twenty-four years of age, but is only twenty; dark hair, rather pale complexion, five feet five inches high, rather slender made, has a scar or mole under his right eye; had on a brown great coat, blue under coat, black waistcoat, drab breeches and long gaiters; appearance, shabby genteel: he has lately lodged in Hyde-Street, Bloomsbury, and was in the habit of wearing a black coat buttoned, kerseymere breeches and long gaiters.

Whitehall, December 7, 1816.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented that His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, early on Monday morning the 25th day of November last, the following anonymous threatening letter, addressed to Mr. Francis Head, clothier, in Chippenham, in the county of Wilts, was found under the front door of his dwelling-house, situate in Chippenham aforesaid;

“ Mr Francis Head Clothier Chippenham
 “ Mr Geabey Sir you as the Bailey of this “ Borough the inhabitation think it right that you “ should go round to the Beakers Landlords and “ Shop Keepers and see that ther is measur and “ waite sold and if not don immediatly you may “ depend on it that your Hous shaul be puld down
 “ about your Ears and the Mill at the other side of
 “ the Brilge shaul be sett un fier I am Sirs yours
 “ well wishin Friend and hope youl seek into “ matters sooner than to be destroyed yourself”
 “ Bradford” “ W P”

And whereas it hath also been humbly represented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that early on Sunday morning, the 1st day of this instant December, certain grist mills, situate near the Bridge in the Town of Chippenham aforesaid, being the mills referred to in the before mentioned threatening anonymous letter, the property of Thomas Edridge, Esq., and occupied by Messrs. Gaby and Dowling, were maliciously destroyed by fire, together with a very large quantity of flour, wheat and other property, then being therein;

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, acting in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in sending the said threatening letter, or in setting fire to the said mills, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them, (except the person who actually wrote the said letter, or actually set fire to the said mills), who shall discover his, her or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And as a further encouragement a reward of TWO HUNDRED AND FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered by the said Thomas Edridge; Messrs. Gaby and Dowling; and the Wilts and Western Insurance Society; to any person making such discovery as aforesaid (except as before excepted) to be paid on the conviction of any one or more of the offenders.

Whitehall, November 19, 1816.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that about ten o'clock on the night of Friday the 25th ultimo, while Thomas Hanson, gamekeeper of the manor of Silsden, in the west riding of the county of York, was shutting the door of the public house known by the name of the 'Thanet's Arms, in Silsden, a gun was fired through the window the contents of which penetrated the thigh and leg of the said Thomas Hanson, of which wounds he shortly after died; and that there is every reason to suspect the said gun was fired by some evil disposed person;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said murder, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually committed the same) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED AND FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered by the gentlemen residing in the neighbourhood of Silsden, to any person (except as is before excepted) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof, or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring the said offenders, or any of them, to conviction, or cause them, or any of them, so to be apprehended and convicted as aforesaid; such reward to be paid by J. A. Busfield, Esq.
