TUESDAY, DECEMBER 24, 1816.

Foreign-Office, December 17, 1816.

Notice is hereby given, that, for the greater convenience of persons having claims upon the French Government, under the Convention concluded at Paris on the 20th day of November 1815, between His Majesty and the Most Christian King, in conformity to the ninth article of the Treaty of Peace of the same date, and which Convention was laid before both Houses of Parliament on the 2d day of February 1816, the term for receiving such claims has been extended, with the consent of the Government of His Most Christian Majesty, from the 20th day of January next, to the 20th day of February next.

By His Royal Highness the PRINCE of WALES, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the Name and on the Behalf of His Majesty,

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE, P. R.

WHEREAS the Parliament stands prorogued to Thursday the second day of January next, We, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, do hereby publish and declare, that the said Parliament shall be further prorogued on the said second day of January to Tuesday the twenty-eighth day of the said month; and We have given order to the Lord High Chancellor of that part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland called Great Britain, to prepare a Commission for proroguing the same accordingly. And We do further hereby, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice aforesaid, publish and declare, that the said Parliament shall, on the twenty-eighth day of January next, be held and sit for the dispatch of divers urgent and important affairs: And the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Knights, Citizens, and Burgesses, and the Commissioners for Shires and Burghs of the House of Commons, are hereby required and commanded to give their attendance accordingly, at Westminster, on the said twenty-eighth day of January next.

Given at the Court at Carlton-House, the twenty-fifth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and sixteen, in the fifty-seventh year of His Majesty's reign.

GOD save the KING.

AT the Council-Chamber, Whitehall, the 25th of November 1816,

PRESENT,

The Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

WHEREAS it hath been represented to this Board, that the plague, which made its appearance and prevailed at Noya, has ceased; it is thereupon ordered, that the Order of Council of the fourteenth of February last, subjecting all ships and vessels liable to quarantine, and coming from or through the Mediterranean within the Streights of Gibraltar (although furnished with clean bills of health), to be treated as vessels arriving with suspected bills, be, and the same is, hereby revoked: and the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, His Majesty's Secretary at War, and the Governors or Commanders in Chief for the time being of the isles of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, and Man, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Chetwynd.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, October 21, 1816.

Notice is hereby given, that Her Majesty's birth-day, which falls on the 18th of January, will be celebrated by a Drawing-Room at the Queen's-Palace, on the 6th of February; and that the birth-day of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent will also be celebrated by a Drawing-Room at Her Majesty's Palace, on St. George's Day, the 23d of April.

It is most earnestly recommended and desired, that the Nobility and Gentry, and all persons attending upon those occasions, will appear in dresses entirely of British manufacture.

Downing-Street, December 24, 1816.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent has been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to appoint the Right Honourable Stapleton, Lord Combermere, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Honourable Military Order of the Bath, Lieutenant-General of His Majesty's Forces, and Commander of the Forces on the Windward and Leeward Island Station, to be Captain-General and Governor in Chief in and over the Island of Barbadoes.

Whitehall, December 10, 1816.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent hath been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to give and grant unto Edward Spencer Stanhope, Esq. third son of Walter Spencer Stanhope, of Cannon-Hall, in the county of York, Esq. by Mary Winifred his wife, sister and heir of Wingate Pallein, and only daughter of Thomas Babington Pallein, of Carleton-Hall, in the said county, Esq. by Winifred his wife, only sister of Edward Collingwood, of Chirton and Dissington, in the county of Northumberland, Esq. deceased, His royal licence and authority, that he and his issue may from henceforth assume and take the surname of Collingwood only, instead of the surnames of Spencer and Stanhope, and also that he and they may bear and use the arms of Collingwood, according to the tenor of an express condition contained in the last will and testament of the said Edward Collingwood; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Heralds' Office, otherwise His Majesty's said licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And also to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, December 17, 1816.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed George Burr, of Maidstone, in the county of Kent, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

Whitehall, December 20, 1816.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed John Higginbottom, of Oldham, in the county palatine of Lancaster, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

The Lord Chancellor has also appointed William Garnham, of Bungay, in the county of Suffolk, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

Whitehall, December 6, 1816.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that James Watson the younger, late of Hyde-Street, Bloomsbury, surgeon, stands charged upon oath, on a violent suspicion of having wilfully and feloniously attempted to kill and murder Richard Platt, on Monday the 2d day of this instant December, by firing a loaded pistol at and desperately wounding the said Richard Platt; and that the said James Watson also stands charged on vehement suspicion with having committed divers other high and atrocious offences;

His Royal Highness, for the better and more speedy apprehending and bringing to justice the said James Watson for the felonies and offences aforesaid, is hereby pleased, acting in the name and on behalf of His Majesty, to promise to any person or persons who shall discover and apprehend, or cause to be discovered and apprehended, the said James Watson, the sum of FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS; to be paid by the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, upon the said James Watson being apprehended and lodged in any one of His Majesty's goals.

SIDMOUTH.

The above named James Watson is a surgeon by profession, and has been employed in that capacity on board a Greenhoad Ship: he is a young man, apparently about twenty-three or twenty-four years of age, but is only twenty; dark hair, rather pale complexion, five feet five inches high, rather slender made, has a scar or mole under his right eye;

had on a brown great coat, blue under coat, black waistcoat, drab breeches and long gaiters; appearance, shabby genteel: he has lately lodged in Hyde-Street, Bloomsbury, and was in the habit of wearing a black coat buttoned, kerseymere breeches and long gaiters.

Whitehall, December 7, 1816.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, early on Monday morning the 25th day of November last, the following anonymous threatening letter, addressed to Mr. Francis Head, clothier, in Chippenham, in the county of Wilts, was found under the front door of his dwelling-house, situate in Chippenham aforesaid;

“ Mr Francis Head Clothier Chippenham
 “ Mr Geabey Sir you as the Bailey of this “ Borough the inhabitation think it right that you “ should go round to the Beakers Landlords and “ Shop Keepers and see that ther is meashur and “ waite sold and if not don immediatly you may “ depend on it that your Hous shaul be puld down
 “ about your Bars and the Mill at the other side of
 “ the Bridge shaul be sett on fier I am Sirs yours
 “ well wishin Friend and hope youd seek into “ matters sooner than to be destroyed yourself”
 “ Bradford” “ W P”

And whereas it hath also been humbly represented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that early on Sunday morning, the 1st day of this instant December, certain grist mills, situate near the Bridge in the Town of Chippenham aforesaid, being the mills referred to in the before mentioned threatening anonymous letter, the property of Thomas Edridge, Esq., and occupied by Messrs. Gaby and Dowling, were maliciously destroyed by fire, together with a very large quantity of flour, wheat and other property, then being therein;

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, acting in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in sending the said threatening letter, or in setting fire to the said mills, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them, (except the person who actually wrote the said letter, or actually set fire to the said mills), who shall discover his, her or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And as a further encouragement a reward of TWO HUNDRED AND FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered by the said Thomas Edridge; Messrs. Gaby and Dowling; and the Wilts and Western Insurance Society; to any person making such discovery as aforesaid (except as before excepted) to be paid on the conviction of any one or more of the offenders.

Whitehall, December 21, 1816.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that some evil disposed person or persons did, about the hour of ten o'clock on the night of Monday the 16th instant, feloniously, wilfully, and maliciously set fire to a wheat stack, belonging to Mr. William Downing, of Denton, in the county of Lincoln, situate in his stack yard there;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said felony, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said wheat stack), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, the following rewards are hereby offered, viz. FIFTY GUINEAS by Sir William Earle Welby, Bart.; FORTY GUINEAS by the said Mr. Downing; TEN GUINEAS by the Grantham Old Association for the Prosecution of Felons; and ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS by the County Fire-Office, to any person or persons (except as is before excepted) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof, or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring the said offenders to conviction, or cause them, or any of them, so to be apprehended and convicted as aforesaid.

Admiralty-Office, December 11, 1816.

THE following official notification has been received at this Office. J. W. CROKER.

“ Consul General's-Office for the Azores, at St. Michael's, 10th November 1816.

“ Notice is hereby given to navigators, that the following light-houses are now establishing on the south side of this island, viz. on the top of the Cathedral Steeple of Ponta Delgada City, at an elevation of 110 feet above the surface of the water, a light-house is completed, and lighted up with eight glass lamps and reflectors; at the east point of the Bay, called Ponta da Galera, another light-house is begun, which bears S. E. by E. from the Cathedral Lights, distant about nine nautic miles, will be completed about the 10th of December; and a third light-house on a peak, situated at the S. W. quarter of the island, near Ponta de Ferreira, is expected to be ready by the 1st of January 1817; and, in the event of the funds collected being sufficient, it is in contemplation to erect a fourth light at the N. E. point of the island.

“ The following rates are established for the maintenance thereof:

- “ Vessels under fifty tons burthen, half a dollar, or 500 reis.
- “ From fifty to one hundred tons, one dollar, or 1000 reis.
- “ From an hundred tons upwards, one dollar and a half, or 1500 reis.

“ The said lights will be shewn every night throughout the year, from half an hour after sunset to half an hour before sun-rise.

“ (Signed) William Harding Read,
Consul General.”

All that messuage, tenement or dwelling-house, with the garden, outbuildings and appurtenances thereunto belonging, situate and being on the west side of Mount Vernon-Street, near Low Hill, within West Derby, in the said County of Lancaster, and now in the tenure and occupation of the said John Cecil.

BRIDPORT, DORSET.

TO be sold, (before the major part of the Commissioners named and authorised in and by a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued against Thomas Hart, of Bridport aforesaid, Grocer, Dealer and Chapman, a Bankrupt), at the Bull Inn, in Bridport aforesaid, on Friday the 17th day of January next, between the hours of Five and Six o'Clock in the Evening, subject to such conditions as shall be then produced;

The fee and inheritance of all that messuage or dwelling-house, with the spacious shop in front, and the Corntilage Buildings and garden behind the same, situate on the north side of the east-street of Bridport aforesaid, and lately occupied by the said Bankrupt.

The premises are situate nearly in the centre of the Town of Bridport, and are eligible for any wholesale or retail trade.

For viewing the same, apply to Mr. Thomas Major, of Bridport; or to Mr. Thomas Swain, of Bridport Harbour, the Assignee; and for particulars, to Mr. Nicholets, of Bridport, the Solicitor to the Assignee.

TO be sold by auction, by Bardwell and Son, (by order of the major part of the Commissioners named and authorised in and by a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued against Thomas North, of Sheffield, in the County of York, Cutler, a Bankrupt), at the house of Mrs. Healy, the Hotel, in Sheffield aforesaid, on Thursday the 9th day of January next, at Four o'Clock in the Afternoon, subject to such conditions of sale as will be then produced;

The handsome new erected capital messuage or dwelling-house, situate on the south side of Broad-Lane, in the Township of Ecclesall Bierlow, in the Parish of Sheffield, with the yard and outbuildings, and extensive well walled garden to the same adjoining and belonging, late in the possession of the said Thomas North, and now used as a ladies boarding school, and in the occupation of Miss Green.

The ground plot of the premises contains 2120 superficial square yards or thereabouts, and is held by lease for the term of 800 years from the 25th day of March 1812, under the yearly rent of 80l. 14s. 9d.

The pleasant and healthy situation of the premises, and their being within a quarter of an hour's walk of the parish church and market, render them particularly eligible for a family desirous of living out of the town.

Miss Green will allow the premises to be viewed, and further particulars may be had at the Offices of Messrs. Rimington and Wilson, and Mr. Brookfield, in Sheffield.
