SATURDAY, JANUARY 4, 1817.

Foreign-Office, December 17, 1816.

NOTICE is hereby given, that, for the greater convenience of persons having claims upon the French Government, under the Convention concluded at Paris on the 20th day of November 1815, between His Majesty and the Most Christian King, in conformity to the ninth article of the Treaty of Peace of the same date, and which Convention was laid before both Houses of Parliament on the 2d day of February 1816, the term for receiving such claims has been extended, with the consent of the Government of His Most Christian Majesty, from the 20th day of January next, to the 20th day of February next.

By His Royal Highness the PRINCE of WALES,
REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the Name and on the Behalf of His Majesty,

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE, P. R.

WHEREAS the Parliament stands prorogued to Thursday the second day of January next, We, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, do hereby publish and declare, that the said Parliament shall be further prorogued on the said second day of January to Tuesday the twenty-eighth day of the said month; and We have given order to the Lord High Chancellor of that part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland called Great Britain, to prepare a Commission for proroguing the same accordingly. And We do further hereby, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice aforesaid, publish and declare, that the said Parliament shall, on the twenty-eighth day of January next, be held and sit for the dispatch of divers urgent and important affairs: And the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Knights, Citizens, and Burgesses, and the Commissioners for Shires and Burghs of the House of Commons, are hereby required and commanded to give their attendance accordingly, at Westminster, on the said twenty-eighth day of January next.

Given at the Court at Carlton-House, the twenty-fifth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and sixteen, in the fifty-seventh year of His Majesty's reign.

GOD save the KING.

At the Council-Chamber, Whitehall, the 25th of November 1816,

PRESENT,

The Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

WHEREAS it hath been represented to this Board, that the Plague, which made its appearance and prevailed at Noya, has ceased; it is thereupon ordered, that the Order of Council of the fourteenth of February last, subjecting all ships and vessels liable to quarantine, and coming from or through the Mediterranean within the Streights of Gibraltar (although furnished with clean bills of health), to be treated as vessels arriving with suspected bills, be, and the same is, hereby revoked: and the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, His Majesty's Secretary at War, and the Governors or Commanders in Chief for the time being of the isles of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, and Man, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Chetwynd.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, October 21, 1816.

Notice is hereby given, that Her Majesty's birth-day, which falls on the 18th of January, will be celebrated by a Drawing-Room at the Queen's-Palace, on the 6th of February; and that the birth-day of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent will also be celebrated by a Drawing-Room at Her Majesty's Palace, on St. George's Day, the 23d of April.

It is most earnestly recommended and desired, that the Nobility and Gentry, and all persons attending upon those occasions, will appear in dresses entirely of British manufacture.

Windsor-Castle, January 1, 1817.

The Queen has been graciously pleased to appoint Major-General Herbert Taylor to be Treasurer to Her Majesty, in the room of the Earl of Effingham, deceased.

Whitehall, December 10, 1816.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent has been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to give and grant unto Davies Giddy, of St. Erth, in the county of Cornwall, Esq. Fellow of the Royal Society, and one of the Burgesses in Parliament for the borough of Bodmyn, in the said County, His Majesty's Royal license and authority that he may use, assume, and take the surname of Gilbert only, and bear and use the arms of Gilbert, pursuant to the last will and testament of Charles Gilbert, late of Eastbourne, in the county of Sussex, Esq. deceased; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Heralds' Office, otherwise His Majesty's said licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And also to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms.

War-Office, January 4, 1817.

Whitehall, January 4, 1817.

As several Artificers and Manufacturers, Subjects of Great Britain, have, from Time to Time, gone into Foreign Countries to exercise their several Callings, contrary to the Laws of these Kingdoms, the following Abstracts of Acts of Parliament of Their late Majesties King George the First and Second, and of His present Majesty, for preventing such Practices, are published, for the Information of all Persons who may be ignorant of the Penalties they may incur by Disobedience to them: And it will be observed, that such Penalties likewise extend to those who are any ways concerned or instrumental in the Sending or Enticing Artificers or Manufacturers out of these Kingdoms, or in the Exportation of the Tools and Instru- ments used by them, as well as to the Artificers or Manufacturers themselves.

Statute 5 George I. Chap. 27.

IF any person shall contract with, entice, or solicit, any artificer in wool, iron, steel, brass, or other metal, clock-maker, watch-maker, or any other artificer of Great Britain, to go into foreign countries out of the King's dominions, and shall be convicted thereof, upon indictment or information in any of the Courts at Westminster, or at the Assizes or Quarter Sessions, he shall be fined any sum not exceeding ONE HUNDRED POUNDS for the first offence, and shall be imprisoned three months, and till the fine be paid. And if any person having been once convicted shall offend again, he shall be fined at the discretion of the Court, and imprisoned twelve months, and till the fine be paid.

If any of the King's subjects, being such artificers, shall go into any country out of His Majesty's dominions, to exercise or teach the said trades to foreigners; and if any of the King's subjects in any such foreign country, exercising any of the said trades, shall not return into this realm within six months after warning given by the Ambassador, Minister, or Consul of Great Britain, in the country where such artificers shall be, or by any person authorised by such Ambassador, &c. or by one of the Secretaries of State, and from henceforth inhabit within this realm; such persons shall be incapable of taking any legacy, or of being an executor or administrator, or of taking any lands, &c. within this kingdom, by descent, devise, or purchase, and shall forfeit all lands, goods, &c. within this kingdom, to His Majesty's use, and shall be deemed alien, and out of His Majesty's protection.

Upon complaint made, upon oath, before any Justice of Peace, that any person is endeavouring to seduce any such artificer, or that any such artificer hath contracted or is preparing to go out of His Majesty's dominions, for the purposes aforesaid, such Justice may send his warrant to bring the person complained of before him, or before some other Justice; and if it shall appear by the oath of one witness, or by confession, that he was guilty of any of the said offences, such Justice may bind him to appear at the next Assizes or Quarter Sessions: And if such person shall refuse to give security, the Justice may commit him to gaol till the next Assizes or Quarter Sessions. and until he shall be delivered by due course of law. And if any such artificer shall be convicted, upon indictment, of any such promise, contract, or preparation to go beyond the seas, for the purpose aforesaid, he shall give such security to the King not to depart out of His Majesty's dominions, as such Court shall think reasonable, and shall be imprisoned till security given.

If any of the above offences shall be committed in Scotland, the same shall be prosecuted in the Court of Justiciary or the Circuits there.

Statute 23 George II. Chap. 13.

IF any person shall contract with, or endeavour to seduce any artificer in wool, mohair, cotton, or silk, or in iron, steel, brass, or other metal, or any clock-maker, watch-maker, or any other artificer in any other of the manufactures of Great Britain or Ireland, to go out of this kingdom or Ireland into any foreign country not within the dominions of the Crown of Great Britain, and shall be convicted, upon indictment or information, in the King's Bench at Westminster, or by indictment at the Assizes or General Gaol Delivery for the county, &c. wherein such offence shall be committed in England, or by indictment in the Court of Justiciary or any of the Circuit Courts in Scotland, or by indictment or information in the King's Bench at Dublin, if such offence be committed in Ireland; the person so convicted shall, for every artificer contracted with or seduced, forfeit FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS, and shall suffer imprisonment in the common gaol of the county or stewardry wherein such offender shall be convicted for twelve calendar months, and until forfeiture be paid: And in case of a subsequent offence of the same kind, the persons so again offending shall forfeit, for every person contracted with or seduced, ONE THOUSAND POUNDS, and shall suffer imprisonment in the common gaol of the county or stewardry wherein such offender shall be convicted, for two years, and until such forfeiture be paid.

If any person in Great Britain or Ireland shall put on board any ship or boat, not bound directly to some port in Great Britain or Ireland, or to some other of the dominions of the Crown of Great Britain, any such tools or utensils as are commonly used in, or proper for the preparing, working up, or finishing of the woollen or silk manufactures, or any part of such tools, he shall, for every offence, forfeit all such tools, or parts thereof, put on board, and TWO HUNDRED POUNDS, to be recovered by action of debt, &c. in any Court of Record at Westminster, or in the Court of Session in Scotland, or at any of the Four Courts in Dublin respectively, wherein no essoin, &c. shall be allowed.

It shall be lawful for any Officer of the Customs in Great Britain, or for any Officer of the Revenue in Ireland, to seize and secure, in some of His Majesty's warehouses, all such tools or utensils prohibited to be exported, as such officer shall find on board any vessel not bound directly to some port in Great Britain or Ireland, or to some other of the dominions of the Crown of Great Britain; and all tools so seized shall, after condemnation, be publicly sold to the best bidder; and one moiety of the produce shall be to the use of His Majesty, and the other moiety to the officer who shall seize and secure the same.

If the Captain of any vessel in Great Britain or Ireland knowingly permit any of the said tools, prohibited to be exported, to be put on board his vessel, he shall, for every such offence, forfeit ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, to be recovered as the penalties inflicted upon persons exporting the tools; and, if the vessel belongs to His Majesty, the Captain shall not only forfeit ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, but shall also forfeit his employment, and be incapable of any employment under His Majesty.

If any Officer of the Customs in Great Britain or of the Revenue in Ireland, take, or knowingly suffer to be taken, any entry outward, or sign any cocket or sufferance for the shipping or exporting of any of the said tools, or knowingly suffer the same to be done, he shall forfeit ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, to be recovered as aforesaid, and also forfeit his office, and be incapable of any office under His Majesty.

One moiety of the forfeitures shall be applied to the use of His Majesty, and the other moiety to the use of the person who shall sue for the same.

Statutes 14, 21, 25, and 26 of His present Majesty.

BY these Statutes the like penalties and forfeitures as above-mentioned are extended to persons packing or putting on board any vessel, not bound directly for some port in Great Britain or Ireland, any machine, engine, tool, press, paper, utensil, or implement whatsoever, used in or proper for the working or finishing of the cotton, steel, or iron manufactures of this kingdom, or any part or parts of such machines or implements, or any models or plans thereof; and all Captains of ships and other persons receiving or being in possession of any such articles, with an intent to export the same to foreign parts, and all Custom-house Officers suffering an entry to be made thereof, are respectively liable to the like penalties as are above-mentioned, in the case of tools and utensils used in the woollen and silk manufactures.

Whitehall, December 31, 1816.

WHereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, in the night between Sunday the 15th and Monday the 16th instant, a farm, called Wakeley, near Buntingford, in the county of Hertford, in the occupation of Mr. James Overall, was wilfully and maliciously set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons, which consumed several stacks of corn and hay;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said premises) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof. SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the Right Honourable the Earl of Hardwicke to any person (except as is before excepted) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof, or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring the said offenders, or any of them, to conviction, or cause them, or any of them, so to be apprehended and convicted as aforesaid.

WHereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, on Wednesday morning the 11th instant, between three and four o'clock, two stacks of barley in the stack yard of Joseph Briggs, at Ossington, in the county of Nottingham, were discovered to be on fire; and that there is every reason to believe that the said stacks were wilfully and maliciously set on fire;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony above-mentioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said stacks), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY GUINEAS is hereby offered by the said Joseph Briggs, to any person (except as before excepted) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof, or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring the offenders, or any of them, to conviction, or cause them, or any of them, to be apprehended and convicted as aforesaid.

Whitehall, December 27, 1816.

WHereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, between the hours of six and ten o'clock on Monday evening the 25th November last, a grist mill, situate at Over-Compton, in the county of Dorset, the property of Robert Goodden, Esq. of very considerable extent and value, was maliciously set on fire and destroyed by some evil-disposed person or persons;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said felony, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set the said mill on fire), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the said Mr. Robert Goodden to any person (except as is before excepted) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof; or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring the said offenders, or any of them, to conviction, or cause them, or any of them, so to be apprehended and convicted as aforesaid.

Whitehall, December 28, 1816.

WHereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, about half past seven o'clock in the evening of Tuesday the 10th instant, as Mr. Charles Tadman, of Higham, in the county of Kent, was returning home from Rochester corn market, he was stopped by four persons, about one mile from Strood on the London road, two of whom immediately fired pistols at him, the ball of the first went through the side of his hat, and the ball of the second into the pommel of the saddle; and whereas it hath been further represented unto His Royal Highness, that an anonymous threatening letter, addressed to the said Mr. Charles Tadman, was put into the Rochester Post-Office on Tuesday the 17th instant, evidently written by one of the parties concerned in the atrocious attack above mentioned;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in stopping and attacking the said Mr. Charles Tadman, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person or persons who actually fired the pistols), who shall discover his or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as is before excepted), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof, or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring the said offenders to conviction, or cause them, or any of them, so to be apprehended and convicted as aforesaid.

Whitehall, December 7, 1816.

WHereas it hath been humbly represented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, early on Monday morning the 25th day of November last, the following anonymous threatening letter, addressed to Mr. Francis Head, clothier, in Chippenham, in the county of Wilts, was found under the front door of his dwelling-house, situate in Chippenham aforesaid;

" Mr Francis Head Clothier Chippenham
 " Mr Geahy Sir you as the Bailey of this
 " Borough the inhabittance think it right that you
 " should go round to the Beakers Landlords and
 " Shop Keepers and se that ther is meashur and
 " waite sold and if not don immediatly you may " depend on it that your Hous shaul be puld down
 " about your Ears and the Mill at the other side of " the Bridge shaul be sett un fier I am Sirs yours
 " well wishin Frend and hope youl seek into
 " matters sooner than to be destroyed yourself"
 " Bradford" " W P"

And whereas it hath also been humbly represented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that early on Sunday morning, the 1st day of this instant December, certain grist mills, situate near the Bridge in the Town of Chippenham aforesaid, being the mills referred to in the before mentioned threatening anonymous letter, the property of Thomas Edridge, Esq., and occupied by Messrs. Gaby and Dowling, were maliciously destroyed by fire, together with a very large quantity of flour, wheat and other property, then being therein;

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, acting in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in sending the said threatening letter, or in setting fire to the said mills, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them, (except the person who actually wrote the said letter, or actually set fire to the said mills), who shall discover his, her or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And as a further encouragement a reward of TWO HUNDRED AND FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered by the said Thomas Edridge; Messrs. Gaby and Dowling; and the Wilts and Western Insurance Society; to any person making such discovery as aforesaid (except as before excepted) to be paid on the conviction of any one or more of the offenders.

Whitehall, December 6, 1816.

WHereas it hath been humbly represented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that James Watson the younger, late of Hyde-Street, Bloomsbury, surgeon, stands charged upon oath, on a violent suspicion of having wilfully and feloniously attempted to kill and murder Richard Platt, on Monday the 2d day of this instant December, by firing a loaded pistol at and desperately wounding the said Richard Platt; and that the said James Watson also stands charged on vehement suspicion with having committed divers other high and atrocious offences;

His Royal Highness, for the better and more speedy apprehending and bringing to justice the said James Watson for the felonies and offences aforesaid, is hereby pleased, acting in the name and on behalf of His Majesty, to promise to any person or persons who shall discover and apprehend, or cause to be discovered and apprehended, the said James Watson, the sum of FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS; to be paid by the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, upon the said James Watson being apprehended and lodged in any one of His Majesty's goals.

SIDMOUTH.

The above named James Watson is a surgeon by profession, and has been employed in that capacity on board a Greenland Ship: he is a young man, apparently about twenty-three or twenty-four years of age, but is only twenty; dark hair, rather pale complexion, five feet five inches high, rather slender made, has a scar or mole under his right eye; had on a brown great coat, blue under coat, black waistcoat, drab breeches and long gaiters; appearance, shabby genteel: he has lately lodged in Hyde-Street, Bloomsbury, and was in the habit of wearing a black coat buttoned, kerseymere breeches and long gaiters.

Royal Hospital, Chelsea, January 2, 1817.

IN pursuance of the Act of the 55th year of His present Majesty, by which it is enacted that all out-pensioners of this Hospital shall in future be paid quarterly, instead of half-yearly, notice is hereby given, by order of the Right Honourable the Lords and others, Commissioners for Managing the Affairs of the said Hospital, that all the out-pensioners thereof, residing in London, or within the district of the bills of mortality, are required to appear personally and regimentally, with their instructions and certificates of admission, at the Secretary's Office in the said Hospital on the respective days, and in the different classes, according to their several rates of pension, as undermentioned, when attendance will be given from nine o'clock in the morning until three in the afternoon, for the payment of a quarter of a year's pension in advance, to the 24th of March next.

On Tuesday the 7th of January,

The pensioners at 5d. 6d. and 8d. per day, from the different regiments of cavalry, foot guards, and infantry, including those from the militia.

*On Thursday the 16th of January,
Those at 1s. 7d. per day and upwards.*

On Friday the 17th of January,

The private gentlemen who receive annuities from the late 1st and 2d troops of horse guards; also the pensioners from the several regiments who have been admitted on account of blindness.

It is also ordered and directed, that all out-pensioners belonging to the said Hospital, do pay particular attention to their instructions, which they are required to produce at the time of payment, by which they are ordered to transmit to the Paymaster-General of His Majesty's Land Forces in London, their affidavits as therein prescribed, on, or immediately after every quarter-day, without which their names will not be entered on the pay-lists for the subsequent quarter, and they are not afterwards to change their place of abode, as specified in their affidavits, without unavoidable necessity, and duly notifying the same.

And if any pensioner shall fraudulently attempt to receive a double payment of his pension, either at Chelsea, or at different places, he shall be struck off the list, and forfeit all benefit arising from this Establishment.

Richard Neave, Secretary and Registrar.

LIVERPOOL DOCKS.

*Dock-Office, Liverpool,
December 7, 1816.*

Notice is hereby given, that the Trustees of the Liverpool Docks intend to offer for sale by public auction, at the Dock-Office, in Liverpool, on Friday the 10th day of January next, at one o'clock, assignments of the rates and duties of the said docks, according to the provisions of the Act of the 51st Geo. 3, to the amount of £20,000, in sums of not less than £100 each, bearing interest at the rate of £5 per centum per annum, payable half-yearly, in London or Liverpool, as may be most agreeable to the purchasers.

John Foster, Secretary.

Whereas by a notice, bearing date the 8th day of November 1816, signed by me and served on the principal occupying tenants of the town and lands of Glasshouse, Boultry, and Clonfad, containing three hundred and ninety acres and two roods, profitable land, plantation measure, situate in the barony of Clonlisk, and King's county; I have demanded from them, and each of them, all rent, and arrears of rent and renewal fines, to which I am entitled and now due me out of said lands and premises, under a lease for lives, with covenant for perpetual renewal; and whereas I have met difficulty in discovering the actual tenant bound to pay said rent, arrear of rent and renewal fines, I hereby give notice to all whom it may concern (pursuant to the Statute in that case made and provided), of the aforesaid demand so made by me in manner aforesaid.—Dated this 12th day of December, in the year 1816. John Smith.

Notice is hereby given, that, pursuant to an Act of Parliament, passed in the thirty-fifth year of the reign of His present Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for dividing and inclosing the open fields, meadows, commonable lands, and waste grounds, in the parish of Bridge Casterton, in the county of Rutland," I, the Reverend Richard Lucas, Rector of the rectory and parish church of Bridge Casterton aforesaid, do intend to apply to the Justices, at their first Quarter Sessions of the Peace to be held in and for the county of Rutland, in the week succeeding the close of the Feast of Easter now next ensuing, to have two persons (not being interested in the premises) named by the said Justices then and there assembled, to be, together with a third person to be chosen by such two persons, arbitrators or referees for enquiring into and ascertaining from or by means of the London Gazette, or otherwise as in the said Act is directed, the average price of a Winchester bushel of good marketable wheat within the county of Rutland, for the ten years then last past.—Dated this 1st day of January 1817.

Richard Lucas, Rector of Bridge Casterton.

The Reverend Peter Lievre, Clerk, Vicar of Arnesby, in the county of Leicester, do hereby give notice, that, in pursuance of an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the thirty-fourth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for dividing and inclosing the open and common fields, common meadows, common pastures, and other commonable lands and grounds, in the parish of Arnesby, in the county of Leicester," I intend to apply to the Quarter Sessions of the Peace to be held in and for the said county of Leicester, on Tuesday the 15th day of April next, being the first Quarter Sessions of the Peace to be held in and for the said county in the week next after the close of the Feast of Easter, next after the expiration of twenty-one years after the making of the award of the Commissioners appointed by the said Act for the said inclosure, to have two persons named or appointed by the Justices then and there assembled, to be, together with a third person to be named and chosen by such two persons, arbitrators or referees for enquiring into and ascertaining by or from, or by means of, the London Gazette, the average price of a Winchester bushel of good marketable wheat within the said county of Leicester, for the ten years then last past.—Dated this 23d day of December 1816. Peter Lievre.

To the Owners and Occupiers of Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments in the Township of Althorpe, in the County of Lincoln, and all other Persons interested therein.

James Fenton, Clerk, Rector of the parish and parish church of Althorpe, in the county of Lincoln, do hereby give notice, that an application will be made by me at the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace to be holden at Kirton, in the division of Lyndsey, in the said county, in and for the said division, in the week after the Feast of Easter now next ensuing, to have two persons named or appointed by the Justices then and there assembled, to be, together with a third to be named and chosen by such two persons, arbitrators or referees for enquiring into and ascertaining by or from, or by means of, the London Gazette, or by such ways or means as they shall think equitable or proper, the average price of a Winchester bushel of good marketable wheat within the said county of Lincoln, for the twenty-one years then last past, in pursuance of a certain Act of Parliament, passed in the thirty-fourth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for dividing and inclosing the open fields and common in the township of Althorpe, in the county of Lincoln, and for draining the same and certain inclosed lands within the said township."—Dated this 30th day of November 1816.

J. Fenton, Rector of Althorpe.

IN pursuance of the directions contained in an Act of Parliament, passed in the thirty-fourth year of the reign of His present Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for dividing and inclosing the common and open fields, meadows, commonable lands, and waste grounds, within the parish of Shelton, in the county of Bedford," I, the Reverend Daniel Crofts, Rector of the rectory and parish church of Shelton aforesaid, do hereby give notice, that application will be made to the Justices at the Quarter Sessions of the Peace to be held in and for the said county of Bedford, in the week succeeding the close of the Feast of Easter which will be in the year of our Lord 1818, to have two persons, not being interested in the said premises, named by the said Justices then and there assembled, to be, together with a third person to be chosen by such two persons, arbitrators or referees for enquiring into and ascertaining, by the means in the said Act mentioned, the average price of a Winchester bushel of good marketable wheat within the county of Bedford, for the ten years then last past, in order that the said arbitrators or referees, or any two of them, shall by their report, to be delivered to the Justices at the Court of Quarter Sessions to be held in the first week after the Translation of Saint Thomas the Martyr then next ensuing, set forth such average price as aforesaid, to the end that the yearly rent payable to the said Rector in lieu of tythes may be increased or diminished accordingly, and that the exact amount of the yearly rent or sum to which the same shall be so increased or diminished, shall be declared by the order of the said Court, conformably with the directions of the said Act.—Dated this 2d day of January 1817.

Sleaford, December 30, 1816.

Notice is hereby given, that a general meeting of His Majesty's Lieutenancy for the county of Lincoln will be held at the County Hall, in Lincoln, on Friday the 24th day of January next, at twelve o'clock at noon, to settle and apportion the number of men to be raised for the militia in the several hundreds, rapes, lathes, wapentakes, liberties, and other divisions in the said county, under the Act of the forty-second of George the Third, chapter 90.

B. Cheales, Clerk of the General Meetings.

Royal Hospital for Seamen at Greenwich,
September 25, 1816.

THE Commissioners and Governors of the said Hospital do hereby give notice, that, on Saturday the 12th day of April next, or as soon after as conveniently may be, the undermentioned farm will be let on lease, to commence on the 12th day of May next, for the term of ten years, that is to say, Thornbrough Town Farm, in the parish of Corbridge, in the county of Northumberland.

Such persons as may be desirous of taking the said farm, are requested to deliver or send their proposals, in writing, to John Dyer, Esq. at Greenwich-Hospital, so as that the delivery thereof at that place shall not be later than on Friday the 11th day of April next; and all such proposals as shall be received after that day will be returned as inadmissible.

Such alterations and additional buildings as may be thought essentially necessary by the receivers, and approved by the Directors of Greenwich-Hospital, will be made as soon as conveniently can be after the commencement of the term, the tenant being at the expence of leading all materials.

In the present and all future lettings by the Commissioners and Governors of Greenwich-Hospital, the tenants will be required to pay one moiety of the expence of the leases.

Mr. Anthony Waiies, of Bearl, will shew the farm; and Messrs. Forster and Waiies, upon being applied to at their Office in Newcastle-upon-Tyne, will give any further particulars which it may be necessary to require.

LONDON DOCKS.

At the General Session of the Peace of our Lord the King, holden for the City of London, at the Guildhall, within the said City, on Monday the 2d of December, in the Fifty-seventh Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord George the Third, by the Grace of God of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland King, Defender of the Faith, before Matthew Wood, Esq. Mayor of the City of London, Sir John Eamer, Knight, Sir William Leighton, Knight, Joshua Jonathan Smith, Esq. Samuel Birch, Esq. Aldermen of the said City, Sir John Slivester, Baronet, Recorder of the said City, and others their Fellows, Justices of our said Lord the King, assigned to keep the Peace of our said Lord the King within the said City; and also to hear and determine divers Felonies, Trespasses, and other Misdeeds committed within the said City;

BE it remembered, That the Inspector of Corn Returns bath, in open Court, presented and delivered to the Lord Mayor, Recorder, and Aldermen, assembled at this present Session, a certain book, into which the states or accounts of the aggregate quantities, and average prices of English barley, beans, pease, rye, wheat, rapeseed, and oats, bona fide sold and delivered from the 12th of August last to the 9th of November last, by each and every person carrying on the trade or business of a corn-factor in the City of London or suburbs thereof, have been made up, formed, computed, and distinguished, and fairly and properly inserted; and hath verified upon his oath, that the same have been fairly, correctly, and properly made up, formed, and computed, to the best of his skill and judgment, and according, so far as in him lay, to the true intent and tenor of the Act of Parliament in that behalf; and the general average prices of each of the said respective sorts of corn and grain thereby appearing to the said Lord Mayor, Recorder, and Aldermen, they do, in pursuance of the said Act, deem and certify the same to be as follows, viz.

Barley .....	2	10	1	Average price per quarter on the last six weeks.
Beans .....	2	11	7
Pease .....	2	16	9
Rye .....	2	11	2
Wheat .....	4	13	1
Rapeseed .....	4	0	10
Oats .....	1	10	4	Average price per quarter on the last twelve weeks.

And do hereby order and direct, that the said general average prices be published in the London Gazette once in four several weeks immediately succeeding this present Session.

By the Court,
THOMAS SHELTON, Clerk of the Peace.

TO be sold, in public sale, at the King's Arms Inn, Carlisle, on Saturday the 8th day of February 1817, at Six o'Clock in the Evening, by order of the major part of the Commissioners under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued against John Reay, of Mark-Lane, in the City of London, Wine-Merchant,

All that freehold messuage and tenement and lands, situate at Gill, in the Parish of Bromfield, in the County of Cumberland, containing by estimation 95A. more or less, subject to the life estates of Mr. John Reay the elder and Julia his wife, in four rooms, with the garden and appurtenances, now occupied by them and lately detached from the above-mentioned messuage.

Also all that other freehold messuage and tenement and lands, situate at Langrigg, or Laugrigg-Bank, in the said Parish of Bromfield, and containing by estimation 12A. more or less.

The whole of the above-mentioned premises are also subject to an annuity or rent charge of 105l. during the lives of the said John Reay the elder and Julia his wife.

Matthew Barker or William Reay, the present occupiers, will shew the premises, and further particulars may be known by applying to Messrs. Hodgson and Nanson, Solicitors, Fisher-Street, Carlisle.

Desirable Freehold Estate in Herefordshire.—Capital Travellers' Inn, Dwelling-Houses and Shops, in the City of Gloucester.

TO be sold by auction, by Mr. Melson, without reserve, at the Ram Inn, in the City of Gloucester, on Wednesday the 15th day of January instant, at Four o'Clock in the Afternoon, before the major part of the Commissioners under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued against Edward Tipton, of the City of Gloucester, Vintner, Dealer and Chapman, upon such conditions as shall be then and there produced;

All that most desirable and compact freehold estate, called the Warren, beautifully situate in the Parishes of Aston, Ingham and Lea, in the Counties of Hereford and Gloucester; consisting of a good farm house with suitable buildings, a water grist mill recently built on a good stream, with 133 statute acres of rich inclosed arable, meadow and pasture land and orcharding, in a high state of cultivation. The estate is occupied by a very respectable tenant, at the annual rent of 300l., and will be sold subject to an annuity of 120l. for the life of a gentleman, aged about 50; the roads in this country are good, the turnpike-road from London through Gloucester to Hereford and Wales runs near to the premises; coals and lime-stone are in abundance in the neighbourhood, and may be obtained on reasonable terms.

Also all that capital freehold inn, called the White Hart, most advantageously and centrally situate in the Southgate-Street, the greatest thoroughfare for travelling in the City of Gloucester, with commodious stabling, excellent cellaring, attached and detached offices, and every other requisite for accommodation as a travellers' inn, and also for carrying on an extensive and lucrative posting business.

The above inn has been long celebrated as a traveller's house, and also for town business, and is too well known as such to require any recommendation through the medium of an advertisement.

And all that very desirable and commodious dwelling-house, conspicuous shop and premises, most eligibly situate for trade in the Westgate-Street, in the City of Gloucester, nearly opposite the New Shire Hall, and now occupied by Mr. Henry Whittick, Perfumer.

And also all that messuage and shop adjoining the last mentioned premises, situate in College-Street, in the City of Gloucester, now in the possession of Mr. William Smart.

For further particulars apply (if by letter, post paid) to Messrs. Bowyer, Mr. W. C. Ward or Mr. Chadborn, Solicitors, Gloucester.

TO be sold by auction, at the house of Mr. John Percival, the sign of the Swan, at Rochdale, on Monday the 3d day of February next, at Four in the Afternoon, subject to such conditions as will be then produced;

Thirty-seven shares in the Rochdale Canal, being shares vested in the Company for arrears of calls.

For particulars apply at the Office of Messrs. R. and R. Shuttleworth, Rochdale.
