TUESDAY, JANUARY 7, 1817.

Foreign-Office, December 17, 1816.

Notice is hereby given, that, for the greater convenience of persons having claims upon the French Government, under the Convention concluded at Paris on the 20th day of November 1815, between His Majesty and the Most Christian King, in conformity to the ninth article of the Treaty of Peace of the same date, and which Convention was laid before both Houses of Parliament on the 2d day of February 1816, the term for receiving such claims has been extended, with the consent of the Government of His Most Christian Majesty, from the 20th day of January next, to the 20th day of February next.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, October 21, 1816.

Notice is hereby given, that Her Majesty's birth-day, which falls on the 18th of January, will be celebrated by a Drawing-Room at the Queen's-Palace, on the 6th of February; and that the birth-day of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent will also be celebrated by a Drawing-Room at Her Majesty's Palace, on St. George's Day, the 23d of April.

It is most earnestly recommended and desired, that the Nobility and Gentry, and all persons attending upon those occasions, will appear in dresses entirely of British manufacture.

THE following Address has been presented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent; which Address His Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously:

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble Address of the Lord Mayor, Sheriffs, and Committee appointed to apply the fund subscribed for relief of the industrious and distressed poor of Dublin.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Lord Mayor and Sheriffs of the City of Dublin, and other Members of the Committee appointed to apply the fund subscribed for relief of the industrious and distressed poor of the metropolis, most humbly beg leave to approach your Royal Highness, and to express with feelings of the most profound respect, the grateful sentiments we entertain of your Royal Highness's humane and beneficent consideration for the distresses of the labouring classes and the poor of the City of Dublin, manifested by your Royal Highness's munificent contribution of two thousand pounds, transmitted by the hands of His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland.

Mark Bloxham, Lord Mayor, Chairman; William Dixon, John Read, Sheriffs.

[Transmitted by His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

Whitehall, January 7, 1817.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent hath been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to nominate and appoint Lieutenant-General Sir Gordon Drummond, Knight Commander of the Most Honourable Military Order of the Bath, to be a Knight Grand Cross of the said Most Honourable Military Order, vice Lieutenant-General Sir James Leith, deceased.

Whitehall, January 7, 1817.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent hath been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to nominate and appoint Lieutenant-General Sir Alexander Campbell, Bart. to be a Knight Commander of the Most Honourable Military Order of the Bath, vice Lieutenant-General Sir Gordon Drummond.

John Mountain, Esq. to be Captain, vice Morris, deceased. Dated December 5, 1816.

William Hottham, Gent. to be Lieutenant, vice Mountain, promoted. Dated as above.

Charles Smith, Gent. to be Cornet, vice Hottham, promoted. Dated as above.

Whitehall, December 20, 1816.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed Joseph Higginbottom, of Oldham, in the county palatine of Lancaster, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

Whitehall, December 31, 1816.

WHereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, in the night between Sunday the 15th and Monday the 16th instant, a farm, called Wakeley, near Buntingford, in the county of Hertford, in the occupation of Mr. James Overall, was wilfully and maliciously set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons, which consumed several stacks of corn and hay;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said premises) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the Right Honourable the Earl of Hardwicke to any person (except as is before excepted) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof, or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring the said offenders, or any of them, to conviction, or cause them, or any of them, to be apprehended and convicted as aforesaid.

Whitehall, December 31, 1816.

WHereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, on Wednesday morning the 11th instant, between three and four o'clock, two stacks of barley in the stack yard of Joseph Briggs, at Ossington, in the county of Nottingham, were discovered to be on fire; and that there is every reason to believe that the said stacks were wilfully and maliciously set on fire;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony above-mentioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said stacks), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY GUINEAS is hereby offered by the said Joseph Briggs, to any person (except as before excepted) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof, or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring the offenders, or any of them, to conviction, or cause them, or any of them, to be apprehended and convicted as aforesaid.

Whitehall, December 28, 1816.

WHereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that about nine o'clock on the evening of Saturday the 30th November last, a body of men armed with guns, to the number of twelve and upwards, disguised by handkerchiefs, tied down by the side of their faces, attacked and entered with violence into the house of Charles John Clavering, of Littlehamhope, in the parish of Hexham, in the county of Northumberland, Esq. and after behaving in a threatening and outrageous manner, to the imminent peril of the lives of Mrs. Clavering, and other individuals of the family, demanded of the servant a gun, which had been recently taken from a poacher by Mr. Clavering's game-keeper; and further, that the body of armed men committed a violent assault upon the person of Lieutenant Edward Johnson, who was an inmate in the house of Mr. Clavering aforesaid, and feloniously took from the said Lieutenant Johnson, a gun with which he was armed for the purpose of defending Mrs. Clavering from the attacks of the armed men before-mentioned;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the atrocious act above mentioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them, who shall discover his or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the said Charles John Clavering, Esq. to any person or persons who shall discover his or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof, or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring the offender or offenders to conviction, or cause him or them to be apprehended and convicted as aforesaid.

Whitehall, December 28, 1816.

WHereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, about half past seven o'clock in the evening of Tuesday the 10th instant, as Mr. Charles Tadman, of Higham, in the county of Kent, was returning home from Rochester corn market, he was stopped by four persons, about one mile from Strood on the London road, two of whom immediately fired pistols at him, the ball of the first went through the side of his hat, and the ball of the second into the pommel of the saddle; and whereas it hath been further represented unto His Royal Highness, that an anonymous threatening letter, addressed to the said Mr. Charles Tadman, was put into the Rochester Post-Office on Tuesday the 17th instant, evidently written by one of the parties concerned in the atrocious attack above mentioned;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in stopping and attacking the said Mr. Charles Tadman, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person or persons who actually fired the pistols), who shall discover his or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as is before excepted), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof, or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring the said offenders to conviction, or cause them, or any of them, so to be apprehended and convicted as aforesaid.

Whitehall, December 27, 1816.

WHereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, between the hours of six and ten o'clock on Monday evening the 25th November last, a grist mill, situate at Over-Compton, in the county of Dorset, the property of Robert Goodden, Esq. of very considerable extent and value, was maliciously set on fire and destroyed by some evil-disposed person or persons;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said felony, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set the said mill on fire), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the said Mr. Robert Goodden to any person (except as is before excepted) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof; or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring the said offenders, or any of them, to conviction, or cause them, or any of them, so to be apprehended and convicted as aforesaid.

Whitehall, December 21, 1816.

WHereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that some evil-disposed person or persons did, about the hour of ten o'clock on the night of Monday the 16th instant, feloniously, wilfully, and maliciously set fire to a wheat stack belonging to Mr. William Downing, of Denton, in the county of Lincoln, situate in his stack-yard there;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said felony, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said wheat stack), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, the following rewards are hereby offered, viz. FIFTY GUINEAS by Sir William Earle Welby, Bart.; FORTY GUINEAS by the said Mr. Downing; TEN GUINEAS by the Grantham Old Association for the Prosecution of Felons; and ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS by the County Fire-Office, to any person or persons (except as is before excepted) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof, or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring the said offenders to conviction, or cause them, or any of them, so to be apprehended and convicted as aforesaid.

Whitehall, December 7, 1816.

WHereas it hath been humbly represented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, early on Monday morning the 25th day of November last, the following anonymous threatening letter, addressed to Mr. Francis Head, clothier, in Chippenham, in the county of Wilts, was found under the front door of his dwelling-house, situate in Chippenham aforesaid;

" Mr Francis Head Clothier Chippenham
" Mr Geabey Sir you as the Bailey of this
" Borough the inhabitance think it right that you
" should go round to the Beakers Landlords and
" Shop Keepers and se that ther is meashur and
" waite sold and if not don immediatly you may
" depend on it that your Hous shaul be puld down
" about your Ears and the Mill at the other side of " the Bridge shaul be sett un fier I am Sirs yours
" well wishin Frend and hope youl seek into
" matters sooner than to be destroyed yourself"

" Bradford" " W P"

And whereas it hath also been humbly represented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that early on Sunday morning, the 1st day of this instant December, certain grist mills, situate near the Bridge in the Town of Chippenham aforesaid, being the mills referred to in the before mentioned threatening anonymous letter, the property of Thomas Edridge, Esq., and occupied by Messrs. Gaby and Dowling, were maliciously destroyed by fire, together with a very large quantity of flour, wheat and other property, then being therein;

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, acting in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in sending the said threatening letter, or in setting fire to the said mills, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them, (except the person who actually wrote the said letter, or actually set fire to the said mills), who shall discover his, her or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And as a further encouragement a reward of TWO HUNDRED AND FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered by the said Thomas Edridge; Messrs. Gaby and Dowling; and the Wilts and Western Insurance Society; to any person making such discovery as aforesaid (except as before excepted) to be paid on the conviction of any one or more of the offenders.

Whitehall, December 6, 1816.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that James Watson the younger, late of Hyde-Street, Bloomsbury, surgeon, stands charged upon oath, on a violent suspicion of having wilfully and feloniously attempted to kill and murder Richard Platt, on Monday the 2d day of this instant December, by firing a loaded pistol at and desperately wounding the said Richard Platt; and that the said James Watson also stands charged on vehement suspicion with having committed divers other high and atrocious offences;

His Royal Highness, for the better and more speedy apprehending and bringing to justice the said James Watson for the felonies and offences aforesaid, is hereby pleased, acting in the name and on behalf of His Majesty, to promise to any person or persons who shall discover and apprehend, or cause to be discovered and apprehended, the said James Watson, the sum of FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS; to be paid by the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, upon the said James Watson being apprehended and lodged in any one of His Majesty's goals.

SIDMOUTH.

The above named James Watson is a surgeon by profession, and has been employed in that capacity on board a Greenland Ship: he is a young man, apparently about twenty-three or twenty-four years of age, but is only twenty; dark hair, rather pale complexion, five feet five inches high, rather slender made, has a scar or mole under his right eye; had on a brown great coat, blue under coat, black waistcoat, drab breeches and long gaiters; appearance, shabby genteel: he has lately lodged in Hyde-Street, Bloomsbury, and was in the habit of wearing a black coat buttoned, kerseymere breeches and long gaiters.

Royal Hospital, Chelsea, January 2, 1817.

IN pursuance of the Act of the 55th year of His present Majesty, by which it is enacted that all out-pensioners of this Hospital shall in future be paid quarterly, instead of half-yearly, notice is hereby given, by order of the Right Honourable the Lords and others, Commissioners for Managing the Affairs of the said Hospital, that all the out-pensioners thereof, residing in London, or within the district of the bills of mortality, are required to appear personally and regimentally, with their instructions and certificates of admission, at the Secretary's Office in the said Hospital on the respective days, and in the different classes, according to their several rates of pension, as undermentioned, when attendance will be given from nine o'clock in the morning until three in the afternoon, for the payment of a quarter of a year's pension in advance, to the 24th of March next.

On Tuesday the 7th of January;

The pensioners at 5d. 6d. and 8d. per day, from the different regiments of cavalry, foot guards, and infantry, including those from the militia.

*On Thursday the 16th of January,
Those at 1s. 7d. per day and upwards.*

On Friday the 17th of January,

The private gentlemen who receive annuities from the late 1st and 2d troops of horse guards; also the pensioners from the several regiments who have been admitted on account of blindness.

It is also ordered and directed, that all out-pensioners belonging to the said Hospital, do pay particular attention to their instructions, which they are required to produce at the time of payment, by which they are ordered to transmit to the Paymaster-General of His Majesty's Land Forces in London, their affidavits as therein prescribed, on, or immediately after every quarter-day, without which their names will not be entered on the pay-lists for the subsequent quarter, and they are not afterwards to change their place of abode, as specified in their affidavits, without unavoidable necessity, and duly notifying the same.

And if any pensioner shall fraudulently attempt to receive a double payment of his pension, either at Chelsea, or at different places, he shall be struck off the list, and forfeit all benefit arising from this Establishment.

Richard Neave, Secretary and Registrar.

LIVERPOOL DOCKS.

*Dock-Office, Liverpool,
December 7, 1816.*

Notice is hereby given, that the Trustees of the Liverpool Docks intend to offer for sale by public auction, at the Dock-Office, in Liverpool, on Friday the 10th day of January next, at one o'clock, assignments of the rates and duties of the said docks, according to the provisions of the Act of the 51st Geo. 3, to the amount of £20,000, in sums of not less than £100 each, bearing interest at the rate of £5 per centum per annum, payable half-yearly, in London or Liverpool, as may be most agreeable to the purchasers.

John Foster, Secretary.

Whereas by a notice, bearing date the 8th day of November 1816, signed by me and served on the principal occupying tenants of the town and lands of Glasshouse, Boultry, and Clonfad, containing three hundred and ninety acres and two roods, profitable land, plantation measure, situate in the barony of Clonlisk, and King's county; I have demanded from them, and each of them, all rent, and arrears of rent and renewal fines, to which I am entitled and now due me out of said lands and premises, under a lease for lives, with covenant for perpetual renewal; and whereas I have met difficulty in discovering the actual tenant bound to pay said rent, arrear of rent and renewal fines, I hereby give notice to all whom it may concern (pursuant to the Statute in that case made and provided), of the aforesaid demand so made by me in manner aforesaid.—Dated this 12th day of December, in the year 1816. John Smith.

Irish Life Annuity-Office, No. 15, Bridge-Street, Blackfriars, January 6, 1817.

Notice is hereby given, that payment of the half-yearly dividends, due at Christmas 1816, together with all arrears due to that period, will commence on Thursday the 16th instant, from which day the Office will continue open for payment of the same, from the hour of ten in the forenoon to the hour of two in the afternoon, on every Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday (Bank holidays excepted). The debentures are to be produced, and also certificates of the lives of the nominees, containing the names and descriptions of the nominees as in the debentures, and their present residence, otherwise a personal appearance of the nominee will be required. And it is particularly requested, that, on the demise of the nominee, the debentures may be delivered in, to be transmitted to Ireland, to render the lists of deaths complete, for the future benefit and regulation of each class; and, as it is expedient that the earliest information should be obtained of the occurrences which affect a reversionary property, where so many individuals are concerned, it is further requested of all persons, who may discover any fraud or imposition on these annuities, to give notice thereof with all convenient speed.

The public are requested to take notice, that, by the Act of Parliament providing for the payment of these annuities, all persons neglecting to demand the same for the space of three years, shall forever lose and forfeit the same, as if his or her respective nominees had been dead at the commencement of the said three years.

To the Owners and Occupiers of Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments in the Township of Althorpe, in the County of Lincoln, and all other Persons interested therein.

I, James Fenton, Clerk, Rector of the parish and parish church of Althorpe, in the county of Lincoln, do hereby give notice, that an application will be made by me at the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace to be holden at Kirton, in the division of Lyndsey, in the said county, in and for the said division, in the week after the Feast of Easter now next ensuing, to have two persons named or appointed by the Justices then and there assembled, to be, together with a third to be named and chosen by such two persons, arbitrators or referees for enquiring into and ascertaining by or from, or by means of, the London Gazette, or by such ways or means as they shall think equitable or proper, the average price of a Winchester bushel of good marketable wheat within the said county of Lincoln, for the twenty-one years then last past, in pursuance of a certain Act of Parliament, passed in the thirty-fourth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for dividing and inclosing the open fields and common in the township of Althorpe, in the county of Lincoln, and for draining the same and certain inclosed lands within the said township."—Dated this 30th day of November 1816.

J. Fenton, Rector of Althorpe.

OFFICE FOR TAXES, SOMERSET-PLACE,

January 7, 1817.

Pursuant to Acts, passed in the forty-second and fifty-third years of His present Majesty's reign, notice is hereby given, that the price of the Three per Centum Reduced Bank Annuities, sold at the Bank of England this day, was £62 and under £63 per Centum.

By order of the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes, Matt. Winter, Secretary.
