Whitehall, January 10, 1817.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed Thomas Salmon, of South Shields, in the county of Durham, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

Whitehall, December 28, 1816.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that about nine o'clock on the evening of Saturday the 30th November last, a body of men armed with guns, to the number of twelve and upwards, disguised by handkerchiefs, tied down by the side of their faces, attacked and entered with violence into the house of Charles John Clavering, of Littlehamhope, in the parish of Hexham, in the county of Northumberland, Esq. and after behaving in a threatening and outrageous manner, to the imminent peril of the lives of Mrs. Clavering, and other individuals of the family, demanded of the servant a gun, which had been recently taken from a poacher by Mr. Clavering's game-keeper; and further, that the body of armed men committed a violent assault upon the person of Lieutenant Edward Johnson, who was an inmate in the house of Mr. Clavering aforesaid, and feloniously took from the said Lieutenant Johnson, a gun with which he was armed for the purpose of defending Mrs. Clavering from the attacks of the armed men before-mentioned;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the atrocious act above mentioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them, who shall discover his or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the said Charles John Clavering, Esq. to any person or persons who shall discover his or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof, or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring the offender or offenders to conviction, or cause him or them to be apprehended and convicted as aforesaid.

Whitehall, December 6, 1816.

WHereas it hath been humbly represented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent; that James Watson, the younger, late of Hyde-Street, Bloomsbury, surgeon, stands charged upon oath, on a violent suspicion of having wilfully and feloniously attempted to kill and murder Richard Platt, on Monday the 2d day of this instant December, by firing a loaded pistol at and desperately wounding the said Richard Platt; and that the said James Watson also stands charged on vehement suspicion with having committed divers other high and atrocious offences;

His Royal Highness, for the better and more speedily apprehending and bringing to justice the said James Watson for the felonies and offences aforesaid, is hereby pleased, acting in the name and on behalf of His Majesty, to promise to any person or persons who shall discover and apprehend, or cause to be discovered and apprehended, the said James Watson, the sum of FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS; to be paid by the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, upon the said James Watson being apprehended and lodged in any one of His Majesty's gaols.

SIDMOUTH.

The above named James Watson is a surgeon by profession, and has been employed in that capacity on board a Greenland Ship: he is a young man, apparently about twenty-three or twenty-four years of age, but is only twenty; dark hair, rather pale complexion, five feet five inches high, rather slender made, has a scar or mole under his right eye;

had on a brown great coat, blue under coat, black waistcoat, drab breeches and long gaiters; appearance, shabby genteel: he has lately lodged in Hyde-Street, Bloomsbury, and was in the habit of wearing a black coat buttoned, kerseymere breeches and long gaiters.

WHereas by a notice, bearing date the 8th day of November 1816, signed by me and served on the principal occupying tenants of the town and lands of Glasshouse, Boultry, and Clonfad, containing three hundred and ninety acres and two roods, profitable land, plantation measure, situate in the barony of Clonlisk, and King's county; I have demanded from them, and each of them, all rent, and arrears of rent and renewal fines, to which I am entitled and now due me out of said lands and premises, under a lease for lives, with covenant for perpetual renewal; and whereas I have met difficulty in discovering the actual tenant bound to pay said rent, arrear of rent and renewal fines, I hereby give notice to all whom it may concern (pursuant to the Statute in that case made and provided), of the aforesaid demand so made by me in manner aforesaid.—Dated this 12th day of December, in the year 1816. John Smith.

To the Owners and Occupiers of Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments in the Township of Althorpe, in the County of Lincoln, and all other Persons interested therein.

I James Fenton, Clerk, Rector of the parish and parish church of Althorpe, in the county of Lincoln, do hereby give notice, that an application will be made by me at the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace to be holden at Kirton, in the division of Lyndsey, in the said county, in and for the said division, in the week after the Feast of Easter now next ensuing, to have two persons named or appointed by the Justices then and there assembled, to be, together with a third to be named and chosen by such two persons, arbitrators or referees for enquiring into and ascertaining by or from, or by means of, the London Gazette, or by such ways or means as they shall think equitable or proper, the average price of a Winchester bushel of good marketable wheat within the said county of Lincoln, for the twenty-one years then last past, in pursuance of a certain Act of Parliament, passed in the thirty-fourth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for dividing and inclosing the open fields and common in the township of Althorpe, in the county of Lincoln, and for draining the same and certain inclosed lands within the said township."—Dated this 30th day of November 1816.

J. Fenton, Rector of Althorpe.

Notice is hereby given, that, pursuant to the Act of the 55 Geo. 3. chap. 157, intituled, "An Act for the better examination of witnesses in the Courts of Equity in Ireland, and for empowering the Courts of Law and Equity in Ireland to grant commissions for taking affidavits in all parts of Great Britain," the Lord High Chancellor of Ireland hath been pleased to appoint the undermentioned Extraordinary Commissioners for the districts attached to their respective names, to swear and examine all witnesses to be sworn and examined in their respective districts in suits depending in the High Court of Chancery of Ireland, and to take within the said districts all answers, pleas, and demurrers of defendants in suits so depending; and also to take affidavits of parties and others in such manner as the Masters in Ordinary of the said Court may swear, and the Examiners thereof may examine such witnesses, and as the said Masters may take such answers, pleas, and demurrers, and such affidavits, according to the practice of the said Court.

Notice is also hereby given, that, by the general order of the Court of Chancery of Ireland, bearing date the 20th day of May 1816, all affidavits to be taken in Great Britain, in suits depending in said Court, are required to be transmitted to the proper Officer of the said Court, under the seal of the Extraordinary Commissioner before whom such affidavits shall have been taken.

And notice is further hereby given, that the Courts of King's Bench and Common Pleas in Ireland, in pursuance of the provisions for that purpose in said Act contained, have ordered that commissions shall also be forthwith granted to the undermentioned Commissioners, empowering them to take affidavits within their respective districts aforesaid, in all causes, matters, or things depending in said Courts of King's Bench and Common Pleas respectively, or touching or concerning the process thereof.
