Vienna, May 16.

IT is said, That about the beginning of the next Month 14000 Men of the Emperors Troops will march towards the Rhine, under the Command of Count Leslie, as being the Emperors Quota of the Army of the Empire. We do not yet hear of Count Caprara's arrival at Constantinople. From Hungary they write, That Count Tzekeley was gone to confer with the Bassa of Ofen.

Hamburg, May 19. This City are very jealous of the designs of the King of Denmark, (who according to our last Letters from Copenhagen, intended to part from thence in few days, towards these parts) and therefore have resolved to raise immediately 500 Dragoons, and 1000 Foot; but their chief Reliance, in case of need, is in the assistance of the Princes of Lunenburg.

Brussels, May 19. Yesterday his Excellency the Marquis de Grana returned hither from Antwerp, and presently after his Arrival was to visit the Princess of Orange, who is Lodged at the House of Don Antonio d'Agurto; Her Highness has been to see all the Cloysters, and yesterday in the Evening she was at the Opera, and afterwards was entertained at Supper, and with a Ball by the Countess de Soissons.

Brussels, May 22. The 20th Instant in the Evening, the Marquis de Grana entertained her Highness the Princess of Orange at Supper in the Wilderness in the Park, which for security against the Weather, was covered with a Canopy fixed to the tops of the Trees, and the whole was so ordered, that nothing was wanting that could add to the splendor or pleasantness of the Entertainment. After which, his Excellency presented her Highness with a Cabinet of Massy Silver, curiously wrought and Beautified, and filled with many Rarities; as likewise with 6 Silver Fillagree Stands, made in the Indies, with Coco-nut Cups set in Fillagree; and 400 Weight of Spanish Chocolat. Don Fuen May- or, the King of Spain's Minister in Holland, did likewise present her Highness with a Service of double Gilt Dressing-Plate, curiously wrought at Noremberg. Yesterday her Highness was at Engbick, where she was very nobly Entertained by the Princess de Ligne; and this Afternoon her Highness parted hence for Antwerp, whither his Excellency the Marquis de Grana likewise goes.

Hague, May 22. The Prince of Orange has had an Interview with the Governor of the Spanish Netherlands, at Westwiesel, and from thence his Highness is gone to visit the Garisons of Breda, Maasbricht, Bergen op Zoom, &c. The States of Holland meet again on Tuesday next.

Paris, May 23. The fourth Instant the Committee appointed to examine the affair of Tholouze and Pamiers made their Report in the Assembly of the Clergy, which was, That it was to have been wished that the late Bishop of Pamiers had been more prudent, more moderate, and more respectful to the King, and that without entering more particularly into the Proceedings before and since the Decease of the said Bishop, it was their Opinion that the Assembly ought to protest against the Briefs which had been Written by the Pope in that affair, and to Write to the Pope, to desire him, That such like Briefs may not be dispatched for the future; and that he will grant his Bulls to the Abbe of Bourlemont, named by the King, for the Bishoprick of Pamiers; to which the Assembly agreed. The next day the Committee for the Affair of the Religious of Charonne, Reported, That the Archbishop of Paris had done nothing with relation to that House, but what belonged to the Jurisdiction of the Ordinaries, which having been wounded in an unbecoming manner, by the Popes Briefs, written on that occasion, the Assembly was obliged to protest against the same, that they might not be drawn into Consequences; and by Letter to desire the Pope to abstain from the like for the future; which the Assembly likewise agreed to, and ordered, That Notice be given to all the Archbishops and Bishops of France, of what they have done in these matters; and that at the same time the circulary Letter, written by the Assembly in 1655, with the Articles drawn up by them, (which were not then Printed) concerning the Episcopal Jurisdiction, shall be sent to them.

On the sixth, the Letters to the Pope, and to the Bishops, pursuant to the said Resolutions, were Read in the Assembly, and Signed by the President.

The Ninth, the Archbishop of Paris acquainted the Assembly, That he had received a Brief from the Pope, in answer to the late Letter Written to him by the Assembly; That he had carried it to the King, and that his Majesty had Commanded him to deliver it to the Assembly, as he did; and it having been read, the Assembly appointed the Committee for the Regale carefully to peruse it, and to Report their thoughts upon it to the Assembly.

In our last we told you of an Earth-quake that had happened here the 12th Instant, about Two in the Morning; we have an account from Tonnerre, Orleans, Troyes, Provins, Sens, Châlons, Joinville, Rheims, Soissons, Lion, Nancy, and several other places, That this Earth-quake happened there at the same time: In some places it was so violent, that it very much shook the Houses and Churches, and threw down several Hills, the people that were in the Fields or the Streets, feeling a motion or agitation like that of the Sea, or great Rivers. The Baron Bieleke, Ambassador of Sweden, has taken his leave of the King, in order to his return home.

Windsor, May 17. Besides the Addresses which follow, there have been others presented to his Majesty, from the County of Cumberland, and the City of Carlisle, which His Majesty received very Graciously.

To the Kings most Excellent Majesty.

WHOLE Names are hereunto subscribed, being of the Grand Request for Your Majesties Loyal County of Worcester, at the General Assizes held at Worcester the One and Thirtieth day of March, in the 34th Year of Your Sacred Majesties Reign; being highly sensible of the great Blessings

King.
