Carlton-House, February 5, 1817.

THIS day the Right Honourable the Lord Mayor, the Aldermen, Recorder, Sheriffs, and City Officers, waited upon His Royal Highness the Prince Regent with the following Address, which was read by Sir John Silvester, Bart. the Recorder.

To His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland:

The humble and dutiful Address of the Court of Lord Mayor and Aldermen of the City of London.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Lord Mayor and Aldermen of the City of London, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with profound sentiments of duty and respect, to express our horror and indignation at the most daring and flagitious outrage offered to your Royal Person, at the moment of your return from the House of Parliament on the occasion of your Royal Highness exercising the sacred duties of the Crown, and fulfilling, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, the very important function of one of the estates of the realm.

With the deepest concern we have to deplore, that any one should be found within His Majesty's dominions capable of violence so atrocious, so disgraceful to human nature, so foreign to the British character; and we most fervently hope, that the loyalty of the subjects of the United Empire will manifest itself to prevent a repetition of an attempt so base against the sacred person of your Royal Highness.

We beg permission to add, that nothing shall be wanting on our part as Magistrates of the metropolis of the empire, to promote on all occasions the general tranquillity, and to evince our steady loyalty and attachment to your Royal House and Person, and our determination to support the crown and dignity of these realms.

Signed, by order of Court,
Henry Woodthorpe.

To which Address His Royal Highness was pleased to return the following most gracious Answer:

" I thank you for this loyal and dutiful Address.

" It is highly satisfactory to me to receive upon this occasion, and at the present conjuncture, these assurances of your steady attachment to me and my family, and of your determination to promote obedience to the laws, and to afford firm support to the Crown, the prerogatives of which are inseparably connected with the liberties and best interests of the people."

They were all received very graciously, and had the honour of kissing the hand of His Royal Highness.

THE following Addresses have been presented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent; which Addresses His Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously:

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness;

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Dean of the Collegiate Church of St. Peter, Westminster, together with the Lord High Steward, Deputy High Steward, High Bailiff, Deputy High Bailiff, Chief Burgesses, Burgesses, and Burgesses Assistants, of his Majesty's Ancient City and Liberty of Westminster, beg leave to express our most lively congratulations on the happy deliverance of your Royal Highness, from the danger to which your Royal Highness was exposed by the daring outrage offered to the Executive Government, in your Royal Highness's Person, within this City and Liberty, on a day peculiarly interesting to the best feelings of the Nation, being that appointed for the performance of one of the noblest functions of your High Office, the Meeting of Parliament, on the 1st day of its Session.

Deeply sensible of the many inestimable blessings which we enjoy under our excellent Constitution in Church and State, we cannot but feel the highest indignation at conduct so atrocious, and lament that there should be found among our fellow subjects, any so wicked, ignorant, or deluded, as to be insensible to the substantial benefits derived to the Nation, by the just and mild administration of its Government by your Royal Highness.

Given under our common seal, this 5th day of February in the year of our Lord 1817,

Dardis, Town Clerk.

[Presented by the Dean, the High Steward, the Deputy High Steward, and the Court of Burgesses.]

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects, the Lord Provost, Magistrates and Council of the City of Edinburgh, humbly beg leave to approach your Royal Highness, with sentiments of profound respect and attachment to your Royal Highness's Person and Government, and to express our detestation of the gross outrage offered to your Royal Highness, on your return from Parliament on Tuesday last.

On this occasion, we feel not concern alone, but the greatest surprise and the deepest indignation that there should have been found a single individual in His Majesty's dominions, capable of so flagitious an attack on the person of your Royal Highness; and these we are convinced, are the sentiments of every real lover of his Country, and of all those, who, like us, duly appreciate the Blessings which all ranks and classes of the community enjoy from our inestimable Constitution, and who feel a just and honest pride in belonging to an Empire which, under your Royal Highness's sway, and through the wisdom and firmness of your Government, has attained a degree of glory and renown unequalled in the annals of our history.

We beg farther to express our abhorrence of the attempts made throughout the Country, by wicked and designing persons, to excite dissatisfaction and disorder, and our determination to support your Royal Highness's Government, in defence of our invaluable Constitution, by every means within our power.

Signed, in our name, and by our appointment, and the seal of the City affixed hereto, at Edinburgh, this 3d day of February 1817.

William Arbuthnot, Lord Provost.

[Presented by the Right Hon. W. Dundas.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

WE, His Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen and Common Council of the City of Bath, in Common Hall specially assembled, humbly present to your Royal Highness, our unfeigned congratulations on your Royal Highness's providential escape from the late audacious and treasonable attack on your Royal Person, whilst in the exercise of the first duties of the Sovereign authority; and we beg to renew to your Royal Highness, the assurance of our unalterable attachment to your illustrious House, and to the Constitution of our country as by law established.

Given under our common seal of the said City, the 5th day of February, in the 57th year of His Majesty's Reign.

[Presented by the Marquess Camden and Lord John Thynne.]

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Inhabitants of Brighthelmston, loyally devoted to the Government of His Majesty, and most gratefully attached to the person of your Royal Highness, approach you with sentiments of the most profound respect, to offer our warmest congratulations on the interposition of Divine Providence, in protecting your Royal Highness from the late daring outrage of Traitors and Assassins, which threatened the direst calamities, not only to your illustrious House but to the whole British empire.

While we lament the depravity of the misguided individuals who could attempt the perpetration of so foul a crime, and detest with unqualified abhorrence the traitorous conduct of those, by whose vile arts they were instigated, we present our fervent prayers to Almighty God, that he would be pleased long to preserve the invaluable life of your Royal Highness, and to shed the brightest glory on your mild Government and just administration of public affairs.

[Presented by the High Constable of Brighthelmston, attended by the Earl of March, Sir James Graham, J. M. Tierney, M. D. Mr. Serjeant Runnington, J. Bates, Esq. Magistrates, W. Attree, Esq. and Mr. T. Attrey, Town Clerk.]

To His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble and dutiful Address of the Inhabitants of the Town of Margate and Parish of Saint John the Baptist, in the County of Kent, duly convened by public notice in the Town-Hall of the said Town, on the 3d of February 1817.

WE, the Inhabitants of the Town of Margate, in the Parish of Saint John the Baptist, in the County of Kent, humbly beg leave to approach your Royal Highness, with expressions of unfeigned grief and indignation at the daring and atrocious outrage which has recently been committed against the sacred person of your Royal Highness, whilst in the discharge of the highest duty of your exalted station.

Deeply as we deplore this disgraceful act of popular violence, so repugnant to the feelings of a brave and loyal people, we are unable to express in adequate terms our abhorrence of those enormities which have lately been excited by designing and evil-minded men, and which, if not speedily subdued, must lead to a state of anarchy and bloodshed.

We therefore rely upon your Royal Highness's wisdom for that vigorous exercise of authority, by which every attempt against the Constitution, as by law established, may be promptly defeated.

Signed, at the request and in behalf of the meeting,

W. Frederick Baylay, Vicar, Chairman.

[Transmitted by the Reverend W. F. Baylay, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

C. GRANT, jun.

To the Managers and Directors of the Lottery.

Whitehall, February 7, 1817.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, about one o'clock on the morning of the 31st of January last, the rick-yard of Mr. John Hoare, at Sutton Courtney, in the county of Berks, was discovered to be on fire, whereby two ricks of barley, and one rick of beans, were destroyed; and that there is every reason to believe the same was wilfully and maliciously set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the person or persons concerned in the felony above-mentioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said ricks), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the County Fire-Office, to any person or persons (except as is before excepted) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof, or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring the offender or offenders to conviction, or cause him, her, or them to be apprehended and convicted as aforesaid.

Whitehall, February 4, 1817.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that on Sunday the 1st day of December last, between five and six o'clock in the evening, some person or persons entered the dwelling-house of William Howard, of Yiewsley, in the parish of Hillingdon, in the county of Middlesex, farmer, and most barbarously and inhumanly murdered the said William Howard; and also violently beat Sarah Randall, his housekeeper, with a bludgeon, leaving her almost dead, and afterwards stole a considerable sum of money from a bureau in the said dwelling-house;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said murder and robbery, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person or persons who actually murdered the said William Howard), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered by the relatives of the said William Howard, and FIFTY POUNDS by the parish of Hillingdon, to any person (except as before excepted) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof, or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring the said offenders, or any of them, to conviction, or cause them, or any of them, so to be apprehended and convicted as aforesaid.

Whitehall, January 22, 1817.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that James Watson the younger, formerly of Hyde-Street, Bloomsbury, surgeon, stands indicted for a capital felony, in having wilfully and feloniously attempted to kill and murder Richard Platt, on Monday the 2d day of December last, by firing a loaded pistol at and desperately wounding the said Richard Platt; and that the said James Watson also stands charged with having committed other high and atrocious offences;

His Royal Highness, for the better and more speedy apprehending and bringing to justice the said James Watson for the felony and offences aforesaid, is hereby pleased, acting in the name and on behalf of His Majesty, to promise to any person or persons who shall discover and apprehend, or cause to be discovered and apprehended, the said James Watson, the sum of FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS; to be paid by the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, upon the said James Watson being apprehended and lodged in any one of His Majesty's gaols.

several payments will begin to be made at the Pay Office, by the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy, at ten o'clock in the morning, on the following days, viz.

On the 10th, 11th, and 12th instant, to Admirals, Captains, and their Attornies.

On the 13th, 14th, 17th, and 18th instant, to Lieutenants, and Chaplains, and their Attornies.

On the 19th and 20th instant, to Masters, Pursers, and Surgeons, and their Attornies.

After which the lists will be recalled the first and third Wednesday in every month, that all persons may then and there attend to receive what may become payable to them, and not only bring with them the affidavit required, touching their not having enjoyed the benefit of any public employment, either at sea or on shore, during the time they are to be paid their half-pay, but also to produce certificates that they have subscribed to the Test, and taken the Oaths of Allegiance required by Act of Parliament, to His present Majesty; and in case any of the said Officers should not be able to attend themselves, but employ Attornies for that purpose, that the said Attornies do produce the like certificates and affidavits from the persons they are employed by.

Where Officers are abroad on leave, their agents are to produce attested copies of such leave, before the half-pay can be paid.

“don, or at the Pay-Office at such Dock-Yard, signifying such his desire;” notice is hereby further given, that the half-pay ending the 31st December 1816, will commence paying on the 10th instant; and all persons desirous of drawing for or of having their half-pay remitted to them, may apply as above directed.

R. A. Nelson, Secretary.

THE Court of Directors of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, do hereby give notice,

That a General Court of the said Company will be held at their House, in Leadenhall-Street, on Thursday the 20th instant, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, for the purpose of continuing the consideration of the following proposition, viz.

“ That the Court of Directors be requested to take into their consideration the nature of the Company's Institution at Haileybury, and how far it has answered, or is likely on its present plan to answer, the ends proposed by the resolution of the General Court of the 2nd February 1805; and whether in their opinion, any seminary at the Company's expense in England be now advisable for the civil service, and if so, whether an establishment more in the nature of a school, where masters should attend at stated hours, having proper authority for the due enforcement of obedience, learning, and moral conduct, would not be preferable to a university or college? This Court, however, more especially requests the Court of Directors to consider, whether the expense at present incurred in maintaining the College, might not with great propriety be almost wholly saved, if, instead of compelling parents to send their sons to a particular seminary, the Court of Directors were to require of the youths intended for their civil service in India, a certain degree of proficiency in such languages and sciences as should be deemed necessary, the same to be certified by gentlemen of known learning and ability, appointed for that purpose? And whether in such case it would not be highly expedient and economical, to remove the Military Seminary from Addiscombe to the more commodious and spacious buildings at Haileybury? And that the Court of Directors be further requested to report their opinions on the different points herein referred to them as soon as convenient, and call an early and special General Court to receive and consider the same.”
