TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 11, 1817.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, January 25, 1817.

Notice is hereby given, that the Drawing-Room, intended to be held by Her Majesty at the Queen's Palace, on Thursday the 6th of February, is postponed to Thursday the 20th of February next.

AT the Council-Chamber, Whitehall, the 8th of February 1817,

PRESENT,

The Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

IT is this day ordered by their Lordships, that His Grace the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury do prepare the form of a Prayer and Thanksgiving to Almighty God for His late merciful preservation of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent from the daring attempts against His Royal Person, as He passed from the Parliament-House on Tuesday the twenty-eighth day of January last; such Prayer to be used at Morning and Evening Service after the General Thanksgiving, in all churches and chapels throughout those parts of the United Kingdom called England and Ireland, on the first Sunday after the Ministers of such churches and chapels respectively shall receive the same, and to be continued for fourteen days afterwards.

And it is hereby further ordered, that His Majesty's Printer do forthwith print a competent number of copies of the said form of Prayer and Thanksgiving, that the same may be forthwith sent round and read in the several churches and chapels throughout those parts of the United Kingdom called England and Ireland.

Jas. Buller.

AT the Council-Chamber, Whitehall, the 8th of February 1817,

PRESENT,

The Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

IT is this day ordered by their Lordships, that every Minister and Preacher, as well of the Established Church in that part of Great Britain called Scotland, as those of the Episcopal Communion protected and allowed by an Act, passed in the tenth year of Her late Majesty Queen Anne, cap. 7, intituled "An Act to prevent the disturbing those of the Episcopal Communion in that part of Great Britain called Scotland, in the exercise of their religious worship, and in the use of the Liturgy of the Church of England; and for repealing the Act, passed in the Parliament of Scotland, intituled An Act against irregular baptisms and marriages," do at some time during the exercise of the Divine Service in such respective church, congregation, or assembly, put up their prayers and thanksgivings to Almighty God for His late merciful preservation of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent from the daring attempts against His Royal Person, as He passed from the Parliament-House on Tuesday the twenty-eighth day of January last.

Jas. Buller.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 1st of February 1817,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board, a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the twenty-seventh of last month, in the words following, viz.

WHEREAS by the Act of the fifty-sixth of His Majesty, cap. 104, intituled "An Act for the making more effectual provision for the prevention of smuggling, and rewarding officers and persons making seizures, and capturing smuggling vessels; for licensing luggers employed in the North Sea fishery; and obliging exporters of excisable goods on drawback to give notice of shipment," it is provided, "that in case any ship or vessel liable to seizure or examination by that or any other Act of Parliament in force, shall not bring to on being required so to do, or being chased by any ship or vessel in His Majesty Navy, having the proper pendant and ensign of His Majesty's ships hoisted, or by any ship or vessel employed in the prevention of smuggling, under the authority of the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury, the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, or the Commissioners of the Customs or Excise, having a pendant and ensign hoisted, of such description as His Majesty by any Order in Council, or by His Royal Proclamation under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, shall from time to time in that behalf order and direct, it shall and may be lawful for the Captain, Master, or other person having the charge or command of such ship or vessel in His Majesty's Navy, or employed as aforesaid (first causing a gun to be fired as a signal), to shoot at or into such ship or vessel so liable as aforesaid;"

And whereas we think it expedient, that all such ships and vessels employed in the prevention of smuggling as aforesaid, under our authority, or that of the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury, or the Commissioners of the Customs or Excise, should be allowed to wear, instead of the pendant and jack appointed by the Royal Proclamations, bearing date the eighteenth December one thousand seven hundred and two, and the first January one thousand eight hundred and one, to be worn by ships and vessels employed by the Commissioners for Customs and Excise, a pendant and ensign of the following description, viz.

A pendant with a red field, having a regal crown described thereon, at the upper part next the mast; and for an ensign, a red jack, with a union jack in a canton at the upper corner thereof next the staff, and with a regal crown described in the centre of the red jack; we beg leave, with all humility, to recommend to your Royal Highness, that your Royal Highness would be graciously pleased, by your Order in Council, or by your Royal Proclamation under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to direct and appoint, that all such ships and vessels as are or may be employed in the prevention of smuggling, under our authority, or that of the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury, or the Commissioners of the Customs or Excise, shall be allowed to wear a pendant with a red field, having a regal crown described thereon, at the upper part next the mast; and for an ensign, a red jack, with a union jack in a canton at the upper corner thereof next the staff, and with a regal crown described in the centre of the red jack, instead of the pendant and ensign appointed by the Royal Proclamations, bearing date the eighteenth December one thousand seven hundred and two, and first January one thousand eight hundred and one, to be worn by ships and vessels employed for His Majesty's service by the Commissioners for Customs and Excise:

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed; and doth hereby direct and appoint, that all such ships and vessels as are or may be employed in the prevention of smuggling, under the authority of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, or that of the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury, or the Commissioners of the Customs or Excise, shall be allowed to wear a pendant with a red field, having a regal crown described thereon, at the upper part next the mast; and for an ensign, a red jack; with a union jack in a canton at the upper corner thereof next the staff, and with a regal crown described in the centre of the red jack, instead of the pendant and ensign appointed by the Royal Proclamations, bearing date the eighteenth December one thousand seven hundred and two, and first January one thousand eight hundred and one, to be worn by ships and vessels employed for His Majesty's service by the Commissioners for Customs and Excise:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Jas. Buller.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 27th of January 1817,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the twenty-eighth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for regulating the trade between the subjects of His Majesty's colonies and plantations in North America and in the West India Islands and the countries belonging to the United States of America, and between His Majesty's said subjects and the Foreign Islands in the West Indies," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty in Council, by Order or Orders to be issued and published from time to time, to authorise, or by Warrant or Warrants under His sign manual, to empower the Governor of Newfoundland for the time being, to authorise, in case of necessity, the importation into Newfoundland of bread, flour, Indian corn, and live stock, from any of the territories belonging to the said United States, for the supply of the inhabitants and fishermen of the Island of Newfoundland, for the then ensuing season only; provided always, that such bread, flour, Indian corn, and live stock, so authorised to be imported into the Island of Newfoundland, shall not be imported except in conformity to such rules, regulations, and restrictions as shall be specified in such Order or Orders, Warrant or Warrants respectively, and except by British subjects, and in British-built ships, owned by His Majesty's subjects, and navigated according to law:

And whereas it is expedient and necessary, that provision be made for fully supplying the inhabitants and fishermen of the Island of Newfoundland, for the ensuing season, with bread, flour, Indian corn, and live stock, His Royal Highness the Prince Regent doth thereupon, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, hereby order and declare, that for the supply of the inhabitants and fishermen of the Island of Newfoundland, for the ensuing season only, bread, flour, Indian corn, and live stock, may be imported into the said island from any of the territories belonging to the said United States, by British subjects, and in British-built ships, owned by His Majesty's subjects, and navigated according to law, and which within the space of nine months previous to the time of such importation, have cleared out from some port of the United Kingdom of Great Britain or Ireland, or other His Majesty's dominions in Europe, for which purpose a licence shall have been granted by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs in England or Scotland, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Revenue in Ireland, or any other person or persons who may be duly authorised in that kingdom respectively, in the manner and form herein-after mentioned; which licence shall continue and be in force for nine calendar months from the day of the date upon which such licence is respectively granted, and no longer; provided that no such licence as aforesaid, granted after the thirtieth day of September next, shall be of any force or effect: and His Royal Highness is hereby further pleased to order, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, that the master or person having the charge or command of any ship or vessel to whom such licence shall be granted, shall, upon the arrival of the said ship or vessel at the port, harbour, or place in the said Island of Newfoundland where he shall discharge such bread, flour, Indian corn, and live stock, deliver up the said licence to the Collector or other proper Officer of the Customs there, having first indorsed on the back of such licence the marks, numbers, and contents of each package of bread, flour, Indian corn, and the number of live stock, under the penalty of the forfeiture in the said Act mentioned; and the Collector or other proper Officer of the Customs at Newfoundland, is hereby enjoined and required to give a certificate to the master or person having the charge or command of such ship or vessel, of his having received the said licence so indorsed as before directed, and to transmit the same to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs in England or Scotland, or to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Revenue in Ireland respectively, by whom such licence was granted. Jas. Buller.

FORM OF LICENCE.

By the Commissioners for managing and causing to be levied and collected His Majesty's Customs, Subsidies, and other Duties in [where].

WHEREAS [the name of the person] one of His Majesty's subjects, residing at [place where] hath given notice to us the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs [in Great Britain, or Revenue in Ireland] that he intends to lade at [some port of the United States of America] and import into [some port of Newfoundland] in the [ship's name] being a British-built ship [describing the tonnage and what sort of vessel] navigated according to law, whereof [master's name] is master, bound to [where]; and it appearing by the register of the said ship [ship's name] whereof [master's name] is master, that the said ship, the [ship's name] was built at [place where] and owned by [owner's name] residing at [place where] all His Majesty's British subjects, and that no foreigner, directly or indirectly, hath any share, part, or interest therein.

Now be it known, that the said [person's name] hath a licence to lade on board the said ship, [ship's name] at and from any port or place belonging to the United States of America, bread, flour, Indian corn, or live stock, the produce of the said United States, and no other article whatever; and to carry the said bread, flour, Indian corn, and live stock, to some port or place in the Island of Newfoundland; and on the arrival of the said ship at any port, harbour, or place of discharge in Newfoundland, the master or person having the charge or command of the said ship, is required and enjoined to deliver up the said licence to the Collector or other proper Officer of His Majesty's Customs there, and to indorse on the back thereof the marks, numbers, and contents of each package of bread, flour, Indian corn, and the number of live stock, and shall thereupon receive a certificate thereof from the said Collector or other proper Officer of the Customs.

This licence to continue in force for calendar months from the date hereof.

Signed by us the at the this day of one thousand eight hundred and Licence to import bread, flour, Indian corn, and live stock, into the Island of Newfoundland.

AT the Court at Brighton, the 2d of January 1817,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by the Order of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent in Council of the third day of August last, for prohibiting the exportation out of this kingdom, or carrying coastwise, gunpowder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, will expire on the thirteenth day of February next; and whereas it is judged expedient, that the said prohibition, so far as applies to the countries hereinafter named, should be continued for some time longer; His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, doth, therefore, hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's service) do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the said thirteenth day of February next), presume to transport any gunpowder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa, or in the West Indies, or on any part of the Continent of America (except to a port or place, or ports or places, in His Majesty's territories or possessions on the Continent of North America, or in the territories of the United States of America), or ship or lade any gunpowder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any such ports or places on the Coast of Africa, or in the West Indies, or on the Continent of America (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf first obtained from His Majesty, or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of salt-petre, and to enforce the law for empowering His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gunpowder, or any sort of arms or ammunition; and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt-petre, gunpowder, or any sort of arms or ammunition;" and also by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His Majesty's reign, cap. 2, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval stores, and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt-petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council." But it is His Royal Highness's pleasure, that nothing in this Order contained shall be construed to alter or repeal the Order in Council of the twentieth of May one thousand eight hundred and thirteen, for regulating the export of gunpowder and arms to the coast of Africa, under the conditions therein specified. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Jas. Buller.

AT the Court at Carlton House, the 29th of January 1817,

Mr. Bathurst,
Mr. Long,
Mr. Chancellor of the Exchequer.

By His Royal Highness the PRINCE of WALES, REGEN^T of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the Name and on the Behalf of His Majesty,

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE, P. R.

WHEREAS on the twenty-eighth day of this instant month of January divers persons, riotously assembled and stationed in different places in the City of Westminster, proceeded to commit certain daring and highly criminal outrages, in gross violation of the public peace, to the actual danger of Our Royal Person, and to the interruption of Our passage to and from the Parliament; we therefore, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, in pursuance of an address from the two Houses of Parliament, do hereby enjoin all Magistrates, and all other His Majesty's loving subjects, to use their utmost endeavours to discover and cause to be apprehended the authors, actors, and abettors concerned in such outrages, in order that they may be dealt with according to law: And We do hereby promise, that any person or persons, other than those actually concerned in doing any act by which Our Royal Person was immediately endangered, who shall give information, so as that any of the authors, actors, or abettors concerned in such outrages as aforesaid, may be apprehended and brought to justice, shall receive a reward of

to be paid on conviction of every such offender; which said sum of one thousand pounds the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are hereby required and directed to pay accordingly: And We do further promise, that any person or persons concerned in such outrages as aforesaid, other than such as were actually concerned in any act by which Our Royal Person was immediately endangered, who shall give information, so as that any of such authors, actors, or abettors as aforesaid, shall be apprehended and brought to justice, shall, upon conviction of such offender or offenders, receive His Majesty's most gracious pardon.

Given at the Court at Carlton-House, the twenty-ninth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and seventeen, in the fifty-seventh year of His Majesty's reign.

GOD save the KING.

By His Royal Highness the PRINCE of WALES, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the Name and on the Behalf of His Majesty,

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE, P. R.

WHEREAS by Our Proclamation, bearing date the eighteenth day of this instant, We thought fit, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, in pursuance of an Act passed in the fifty-sixth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled: "An Act to provide for a new silver coinage, and to regulate the currency of the gold and silver coin of this realm," to name and appoint the third day of February now next ensuing, as the day from and after which, and from thence until the seventeenth day of February then next ensuing, as the period of time during which it should and might be lawful for any person or persons to deliver into His Majesty's Mint any old silver coin, heretofore coined and current, which should by any officer or officers of the said Mint, to be appointed for that purpose by the Master of the Mint, be judged and deemed to be such silver coin of this realm; and the said third day of February now next ensuing as the day from and after which, and from thence until the seventeenth day of February then next ensuing, as the period of time during which there should be delivered out of the said Mint, new silver coins, as in the said Act is mentioned, pursuant to the regulations and directions thereof: And whereas We have thought fit, by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, to postpone the commencement of the period of time during which it shall and may be lawful for any person or persons to deliver into His Majesty's said Mint any such old silver coin, and during which there shall be delivered out of the said Mint new silver coins of equal amount according to the respective denominations of the said silver: We do hereby, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, revoke and discharge Our said Proclamation of the eighteenth of this instant January; and We do by this Proclamation, by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, name and appoint the thirteenth day of February now next ensuing, as the day from and after which, and from thence until the twenty-seventh day of February then next ensuing, as the period of time during which it shall and may be lawful for any person or persons to deliver into His Majesty's said Mint any such old silver coin, and the said thirteenth day of February now next ensuing, as the day from and after which, and from thence until the twenty-seventh day of February then next ensuing, as the period of time during which there shall be delivered out of the said Mint new silver coins, as in the said Act is mentioned, pursuant to the regulations and directions thereof.

Given at the Court at Carlton-House, the twenty-ninth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and seventeen, in the fifty-seventh year of His Majesty's reign.

GOD save the KING.

THE following Addresses have been presented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent; which Addresses His Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously:

To His Royal Highness George Augustus Frederick Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, composing the Court of Directors of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, presume most humbly to approach your Royal Highness, with an expression of our deep abhorrence at the daring and outrageous attack which was directed against the sacred person of your Royal Highness, upon your return from the discharge of one of the most important functions belonging to the Sovereign of this country.

We rejoice, in common with all descriptions of His Majesty's loyal subjects, that your Royal Highness escaped the danger to which you were exposed on that occasion. We beg at the same time to offer the strongest assurances of our fervent and devoted attachment to your Royal Highness's Person, Family, and Government; and of our determination to use every endeavour to frustrate the designs of the disaffected, to support the Constituted Authorities in the administration of the laws, and to inculcate a spirit of order and subordination among all who are placed within the sphere of our influence.

Thomas Reid, Chairman.

[Presented by the Chairman and Deputy Chairman, accompanied by several Directors.]

To His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

Most Gracious Prince,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council of the City of Exeter, in Chamber assembled, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness, humbly to offer our most sincere and heartfelt congratulations at your providential escape from the late most atrocious and treasonable attack on your Royal Person, at the moment your Royal Highness was graciously employed in exercising, in the name of our beloved Sovereign, one of the most important functions of your high station.

We regret that the dear-bought example, recently afforded by other countries, has so soon been forgotten; and that the experience of the anarchy and confusion, inevitably arising from such gross violations of the law, has been insufficient to prevent the atrocious crime of endangering the sacred person of the First Magistrate of the State, thereby tending to the introduction of all those evils in our own country, from which, to its eternal honour, under the blessing of Divine Providence, it has been the means of rescuing the other nations of Europe.

We trust the most prompt and vigorous measures will be adopted, for the effectual discovery and punishment of the authors and abettors of so foul and horrid a crime.

Deeply lamenting the existence of such depravity, we feel it our duty at this moment of public agitation, to add to our unfeigned expressions of loyalty and attachment to your Royal Highness's Person, our most decided detestation of those principles which have been lately asserted in the public meetings, held under the pretence of reforming the Constitution. And we humbly beg leave to assure your Royal Highness, that feeling these are times, in which all loyal and true patriots should associate in defence of their country, we will most readily concur in repelling every attack which might endanger the Throne and Government of this kingdom.

Given under our common seal, at the Guildhall of the City of Exeter, the 3d day of February, in the year of our Lord 1817.

[Presented by Wm. Courtenay, Esq. M.P.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Commonalty of the Borough of Hertford, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness to express our abhorrence of the abominable violence with which your Royal Highness was insulted on the late occasion of your return from Parliament, and to offer our sincere congratulations that your Royal Highness has been preserved from any ill consequences of so outrageous an attempt.

We are conscious that the safety of our Prince, and the security of our public welfare, are intimately and inseparably connected; and we trust that those whose infatuated audacity has led them to the commission of so high an offence, may speedily be discovered and punished; and that the honest and loyal subjects of these realms may never again have to deplore the disgrace of such atrocious crimes.

By order of Court,

Benj. Cherry, Town Clerk.

[Presented by the High Steward, the Member for the Borough, and the Recorder.]

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

WE, His Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Assistants, and Common Council, of the Ancient Town and Borough of Colchester, feelingly alive to the blessings we enjoy in the exercise of our civil and religious liberties, under our present glorious Constitution, as by law established, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with the most cordial and heartfelt congratulations on the providential escape of your Royal Highness from the recent attempt directed against your Royal Highness's sacred life and person.

We beg leave unfeignedly to assure your Royal Highness, that greatly as we deprecate, at all times, the vile character of an assassin, the enemy alike to social order and national prosperity; yet, when we reflect on the recent attempt meditated against the person of your Royal Highness, in the exercise of one of those royal functions which our beloved and venerable Monarch is, by his lamented personal afflictions, incapacitated himself to exercise, our feelings receive an additional poignancy and indignation of horror at the enormity of the offence, to which language becomes wholly inadequate! these, our feelings, are by no means softened by the reflection, that the Grand Council of the Nation which, from the lamentable indisposition of your Royal Parent, you had been called that day to meet, forms a sure pillar to our enviable Constitution, and is one of the means of our proud pre-eminence and ascendancy in the scale of nations.

With our sensibilities thus wounded, we presume to offer up a fervent hope that the hand of Divine Providence, which has averted the fatal blow of an assassin, may continue to interpose its protective power, and grant to your Royal Highness a prolonged enjoyment of the blessings of that peace which has been so dearly and so gloriously obtained by the valour of His Majesty's loyal and patriotic subjects, for the repose of convulsed Europe and the world.

In testimony whereof we, the Mayor, Aldermen, Assistants, and Common Council of the said Borough, have affixed our common seal, the 1st day of February in the year of our Lord 1817.

[Presented by Hart Davis, Esq. jun. Member of Parliament for Colchester, and Mr. Serjeant Runnington.]

To His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses, and Commonalty of the Borough of Great Yarmouth, in the County of Norfolk, in Common Council assembled.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses, and Commonalty of the Borough of Great Yarmouth, in the County of Norfolk, are anxious to be amongst the foremost, to express our abhorrence of those enormities and criminal excesses which have lately disgraced the metropolis, and the still more desperate and atrocious outrage recently committed against the sacred person of your Royal Highness and the laws.

We are satisfied that nothing can tend so much to retard the accomplishment of the wishes and hopes of the nation, as the endeavours which, with too much success, have been exerted by evil-disposed and designing men, to persuade the people that an alleviation of their present distresses is to be found in measures, which, under specious pretences, have for their sole object the subversion of our happy Constitution.

Relying on the wisdom of your Royal Highness, and the energy of Parliament, in using every endeavour to lessen the present embarrassments of the nation, we again beg leave to renew to your Royal Highness the assurances of our attachment to your Royal Person, and veneration for the Constitution as by law established; and we solemnly pledge ourselves by every means in our power, to resist all attempts which, under the delusive pretence of reform or otherwise, may endanger its inviolability or disturb the public peace.

Given under our common seal, at our Guildhall, the 4th day of February 1817.

J. Preston, jun. Mayor.

[Presented by Lord Viscount Sidney, High Steward, accompanied by the Mayor, the Recorder, Mr. Edmund Preston, and General Loftus and E. K. Lacon, Esq. Members in Parliament for Great Yarmouth.]

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

May it please your Royal Highness,

TO permit His Majesty's faithful and loyal subjects, the Masters, Wardens, and Brethren of the Guild of Merchants, Dublin, to approach your Royal Highness with grateful and affectionate hearts, and to declare their perfect satisfaction at your Royal Highness's Government since the exercise of the Royal Authority has devolved into your hands.

Your attention to the welfare of all His Majesty's subjects has been unremitting, even the poor and indigent of this metropolis have not been neglected; and we thank your Royal Highness for the bounty bestowed on them, and for the liberality of the gift itself. We thank you, as your royal example must have a powerful influence upon the absentee proprietors, who draw immense sums from our soil. And we presume thus to express our satisfaction, that we may stand distinguished from those public meetings, which have presumed to raise the voice of ingratitude and discontent.

May your Royal Highness long enjoy health and every earthly blessing, is the sincere prayer of the Guild of Merchants, Dublin.

[Transmitted by His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

SIR,

WE, the Magistrates, Clergy, and Inhabitants of Sunderland, Bishop-Wearmouth, Monk-Wearmouth, and the vicinity, have heard with feelings of the utmost indignation and concern, of the atrocious acts of violence offered to your Royal Person; and we are anxious to express our utmost horror and detestation of attempts so revolting to all our sentiments of loyalty and attachment to your Royal Highness.

We beg leave humbly to convey to your Royal Highness our most earnest hope, that no measures may be omitted, that tend to discover and bring to punishment the authors and abettors of this wicked and detestable outrage.

[Transmitted by the Reverend Dr. Gray, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Inhabitants of Alnwick, in the county of Northumberland, beg leave to address your Royal Highness, and to express our abhorrence at the late daring and atrocious attempt which has been made upon your Royal Person; and to congratulate you upon having escaped therefrom.

We lament exceedingly that such a flagitious outrage was perpetrated, more especially whilst your Royal Highness was in the exercise of the Sovereign authority; and we trust that the measures which the two Houses of Parliament have unanimously advised to be taken, without delay, will be the means of discovering the authors of these wicked proceedings, and of preventing them in future.

[Transmitted by Lord Percy, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

TO His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, Regent of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble Address of the Bailiff, Burgesses, and Commonalty, and other inhabitants of the Borough of Daventre.

IMPRESSED with indignation at the atrocious attempt made on the Person of your Royal Highness, on your return from opening the Session of Parliament, We, His Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Bailiff, Burgesses, and Commonalty, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Daventre, humbly approach your Royal Highness to renew our sentiments of attachment to His Majesty's Person and Government, and to declare in your royal presence our veneration for the British Constitution, which by the blessing of Almighty God, and under the paternal protection of your illustrious house, has been handed to us from our ancestors, and which we trust will, by the firmness of your Royal Highness's counsels, aided by the wisdom of Parliament, and the loyalty and good sense of His Majesty's subjects, be transmitted unimpaired to our latest posterity.

We feel in common with our fellow subjects the distresses which afflict the country, and which we hope are of a temporary nature, partly to be ascribed to the dispensation of Providence, and partly to the unavoidable consequence of the return to peace after a long and arduous war, in which His Majesty has necessarily been engaged for the preservation of every thing that is dear to Britons, and which by the wisdom of his counsels, the valour of his fleets and armies, and the dutiful attachment of all his subjects, has been brought to a happy conclusion, has delivered the world from the hand of the oppressor, and has raised the British name and character, if possible, beyond its former elevation in the scale of nations.

We deeply regret, and with indignation observe, that wicked men, taking advantage of the temporary distress, have by seditious and inflammatory publications and speeches, attempted to mislead and corrupt the judgment of our fellow subjects, exciting them to riot and tumult, with the malignant design of destroying all social order, and the beautiful fabrick of the British constitution.

We humbly assure your Royal Highness that we will in our several stations exert ourselves to counteract the ill effects of those pernicious publications, that we will to the utmost of our power preserve the public peace, and support the just exercise of your Royal Highness's authority for the maintenance of social order, and the preservation of the rights and liberties of our country.

John Smith, Bailiff,

[Address from the Borough of Daventre, transmitted by the Town Clerk, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George, PRINCE REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great-Britain and Ireland.

WE, the Provost, Magistrates, and Common Council of Paisley, in Council assembled, transmit to your Royal Highness sentiments of indignation and abhorrence of the recent, daring, and treasonable outrage on your person, when returning from the discharge of your duty in Parliament; and while we do most sincerely congratulate your Royal Highness and the Nation, on the providential failure of the diabolical assault, we would avail ourselves of this opportunity of renewing the declaration of our attachment to the Royal Family, and our resolution to support and defend our laws and constitution, so justly acknowledged to be the most perfect of any nation at present existing.

Subscribed and sealed in our name, and by our authority, by William Carlile, Provost.

[Transmitted by the Provost, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Lord Provost, Magistrates, and Common Council of the City of Glasgow, humbly beg leave to express the sentiments of extreme abhorrence, and indignation, with which we have heard of the late daring outrage offered to your Royal Highness; and to concur with His Majesty's other loyal and faithful subjects, in the earnest wish and hope, that the prompt measures which have been adopted, will prove effectual in detecting, and bringing to condign punishment, those who have been so profligate and depraved as to commit so heinous an offence.

Contemplating the calamities, which such an atrocious outrage might have occasioned, we deem it our duty, at this time, humbly to renew the assurances of our loyal zeal, and firm attachment to your Royal Highness's Person and Government. And while we reflect upon the manifold blessings we have long enjoyed, under the present mild and paternal reign, we beg to express the gratitude, with which we feel the sacred and indissoluble ties, that bind the British Nation to the House of Brunswick.

Signed and sealed with the common seal of the City of Glasgow, by me, Lord Provost, and Chief Magistrate of Glasgow, in name, and by appointment of the Magistrates and Council thereof, at Glasgow, the third day of February, eighteen hundred and seventeen years.

James Black.

[Transmitted by the Lord Provost, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Merchants' House of the City of Glasgow, sensible of the blessings of our inestimable constitution, and grateful for the auspicious sway of the House of Brunswick, humbly beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with renewed assurances of our attachment to His Majesty's Family and Government; with mingled sentiments of astonishment and abhorrence at the atrocious attack which has lately been made on your Royal Person, in the exercise of your duty as Vicegerent of the Realm; with expressions of cordial satisfaction at the measures which have been adopted for discovery of the perpetrators, with earnest hopes that the detection and punishment of the guilty will impress a salutary example—and with sincere congratulations that the base and traitorous aim has been averted, which was directed against the peace, the happiness, and security of the country.

Signed in our name and by our appointment, and the seal of the corporation hereto affixed at Glasgow, the fifth day of February, eighteen hundred and seventeen.

James Ewing, Dean of Guild.

[Transmitted by James Ewing, Esq. Dean of the Guild, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, Regent of the United Kingdom of Great-Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Aldermen, Common Council, Burgesses and Inhabitants of the Town and Borough of Ruthin, convened pursuant to Requisition, at the Town Hall, on Saturday, the 1st day of February 1817;

Impressed with sentiments of unalterable attachment to your Royal Highness, and duly appreciating the wisdom and energy which you have so eminently displayed, and which have so essentially contributed to raise this country to that pinnacle of glory whereon it proudly stands elevated among the nations of Europe, beg leave to testify our dutiful loyalty and affection, by expressing our decided abhorrence of the late violent and ferocious outrage disgracefully committed against your Royal Person, on your return from opening the Session of Parliament.

The reflection that the arm of a British Subject should have been raised against a character whom it is not only the interest, but the bounden duty of all, most vigilantly to shield and protect, naturally fills our minds with sentiments of the warmest indignation: feelings which we may safely anticipate, will pervade the people of this kingdom at large—feelings which cannot be suppressed, and are inseparable from that universal detestation, in which daring and presumptuous insults, wantonly aimed against Royalty, must necessarily be held so long as a sense of duty occupies room in the minds of men.

While we deprecate the insidious attempts of the disaffected, who taking advantage of the present distresses of the kingdom, are fomenting discord, under the specious pretext of recommending constitutional reform, we humbly beseech your Royal Highness to adopt vigorous measures for the preservation of the Throne, and for bringing to speedy and merited punishment the wicked instigators and perpetrators of the late disgraceful attack upon your Royal Person.

In humbly offering our sincere assurances of the deep concern we feel at the commission of an outrage treasonably directed against a personage whom laws human and divine contemplate as inviolably sacred, we cannot in conclusion, abstain from expressing our ardent hopes, that the interposing hand of Providence may invariably ward off from your Royal Highness the malicious shafts of misguided enemies; and long, very long, may it spare your life to a grateful and happy people.

Signed, by desire and on behalf of the meeting,

R. Newcome, } Aldermen.
R. Humphreys Jones, }

[Delivered by Lord Kirkwall, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

THE Royal College of Surgeons of Edinburgh beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with sentiments of the highest respect, to express the utmost indignation at the late daring outrage, and to congratulate your Royal Highness on account of your providential escape from so audacious and lawless an attack.

The Royal College has at all times displayed the most unshaken fidelity to the Constitution, and the most sincere attachment to the person of their Gracious Sovereign, and to that of the Prince Regent; and at the present important crisis, the Royal College will most cordially exert all its influence to preserve order, tranquillity, good government, and submission to the laws of the kingdom, and to repress the turbulence of the seditious and disaffected. By order of the Royal College, James Brice, President.

[Transmitted by James Brice, Esq. President, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

WE, His Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the undersigned Magistrates, Boroughs and Constables of Manchester and Salford, and other inhabitants of these towns and their neighbourhood, hasten to approach the Throne with our most heartfelt congratulations upon the happy and providential escape of your Royal Highness from the recent outrage offered to your sacred Person, when in the act of returning from one of the most important duties attached to the Sovereignty of these Realms.

We cannot adequately express the deep feeling of horror and detestation with which we shall ever contemplate the treasonable and highly atrocious purposes of this daring attempt, and we fervently trust that all, who are implicated in its guilt, may be speedily discovered and brought to exemplary punishment.

We humbly crave leave to renew the assurances of our inviolable attachment to the Constitution, and to your Royal Person, as well as of our unfeigned veneration for our afflicted Sovereign and his illustrious House.

[Transmitted by the Boroughreeve and Constables of Manchester, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

WE, the undersigned loyal inhabitants of the parish of Warcop, and its neighbourhood, humbly beg leave to express to your Royal Highness, our indignation and sorrow for the late atrocious attack upon the sacred Person of your Royal Highness.

We beg leave to assure your Royal Highness of our sincere attachment to the illustrious House of Brunswick, and of our determination to support, to the utmost of our power, that glorious Constitution which is so justly the admiration of all the civilized world.

Given under our hands at Warcop, in the county of Westmorland, this 30th day of January 1817:

[Transmitted by Capt. Thomas Southey, R. A. and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The loyal and dutiful Address of the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgesses of the Town of Beverley, in the County of York.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgesses of the Town of Beverley, in the County of York, in Common Council assembled, humbly approach your Royal Highness, with our heart-felt congratulations on the providential escape of your Royal Highness, from the late outrageous attack upon your Royal Person:

We also behold with alarm and detestation the wicked attempts in different parts of the Country, of artful and designing demagogues to inflame the minds of His Majesty's subjects, and thereby endeavour to subvert our valuable Constitution.

We assure your Royal Highness, we will at all times unite with all His Majesty's loyal subjects, in support of that Constitution, under which we have so long and happily lived, and which we trust will endure to the end of time.

Given under our common seal at Beverley aforesaid, the 3d day of February, in the 57th year of His Majesty's Reign.

John Hall, Mayor.

[Presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdoms of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Capital Burgesses of the Borough of Stafford, in the County of Stafford.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen and Capital Burgesses of the Borough of Stafford, in the County of Stafford, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness, with our unfeigned congratulations on the providential escape which your Royal Highness has lately had from the attempts of a misguided multitude, and the more daring attacks of lawless assassins; we are persuaded that it never was more necessary for us than at the present moment, to renew our assurances of attachment to the illustrious House of Brunswick, our confidence in the wisdom and firmness of the great council of the nation, and our abhorrence of the late most atrocious attempt upon the life of your Royal Highness.

The period chosen for that nefarious purpose, strikes us with peculiar force: a blow levelled against the highest branch of the Constitution, at the very moment that branch was in the exercise of the Sovereign authority, appears to us a blow directly aimed at the Constitution itself.

We are far from being insensible of the evils which at present affect every class of the community, more especially the lower orders; and are anxiously desirous that every practicable means may be used for alleviating their distresses.

We are satisfied at the same time, that nothing can tend more to retard the accomplishment of our wishes and hopes, than the endeavours which have been recently exerted with too much success, by designing and evil-minded men, to persuade the people that a remedy is to be found in measures, which, under specious pretences, would affect, if not overthrow, the Constitution.

Given under our common seal of the said Borough, this 3d day of February 1817.

F. Hughes, Mayor.

[Transmitted by F. Brooks, Esq. Town Clerk, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble Address of the Mayor and Burgesses of the Borough of Devizes, in Common Council Assembled.

May it please your Royal Highness,

We, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor and Burgesses of the Borough of Devizes, humbly approach your Royal Highness, with our heartfelt congratulations on the providential deliverance of your Royal Highness, from the gross and violent outrage lately offered to your sacred Person, on your return from the exercise of one of the most important duties of the Crown.

Impressed as we are with the strongest sentiments of duty and loyalty to His Majesty and to your Royal Highness, and of attachment to the form of Government under which we have the happiness to live, we cannot reflect on an attempt so atrocious without feelings of the deepest indignation and horror.

Grateful to the Supreme Disposer of Events for his providential interference in averting the treasonable blow, we and all classes of His Majesty's loyal subjects, will feel some alleviation of our grief, in the pleasing satisfaction of thus offering additional proofs of our unshaken and unalterable loyalty to our Prince, and of our attachment to the glorious Constitution, which has been handed down to us by our ancestors, and which we will strenuously endeavour to transmit unimpaired to our posterity.

Given under our common seal in the Council Chamber of the said Borough, this seventh day of February, in the fifty-seventh year of His Majesty's Reign.

By order of Council,

Stephen Neate, Mayor.

[Transmitted by T. G. Estcourt, Esq. and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgesses of the Borough of Leicester, in Common Hall assembled, holding in deep abhorrence the late treasonable attack upon your Royal Person, presume to approach your Royal Highness with feelings of fervent gratitude to Almighty God for your Royal Highness's happy preservation.

We trust that the authors and abettors of so daring an outrage, will soon be made to answer to the offended laws of their country.

In this atrocious attempt we view only the first fruits of that desperate system, by which wicked and designing men have been too long permitted to undermine the principles and assail the loyalty of the people; but we rely upon the wisdom and vigour of your Royal Highness's Councils to put a speedy termination to their career.

We mean no vain parade or idle ostentation, when we assure your Royal Highness of our most devoted attachment to your Royal Highness's Person, family, and Government. Indeed, we feel ourselves roused to redoubled energy in defence of that invaluable Constitution of which your Royal Highness forms so important a branch, when we see it assailed by open as well as insidious enemies, and know that it forms the pride of our own country, and the envy of others; combining private security with the highest possible public liberty, and embodying all the elements of national glory, prosperity, and happiness.

We fervently pray that the favour of Heaven may long preserve your Royal Highness in safety, and enable you to transmit to succeeding generations this glorious Constitution unimpaired: and we trust that all His Majesty's subjects will evince a grateful sense of the blessings it dispenses, by a spirit of steady and invincible allegiance, in which alone can be found their protection against the snares of their enemies.

Signed by the unanimous order of a Common Hall. Tho. Burbidge, Town Clerk.

To His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble Address of the Master, Wardens, Assistants, and Elder Brethren of the Corporation of Trinity-House of Deptford Strond.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects, the Ancient Body Corporate of the Seamen of England, beg permission humbly to approach your Royal Highness, to express our sincere concern and unfeigned abhorrence, at the wicked and outrageous attempt committed against your Royal Highness's sacred Person, and the public peace, during your Royal Highness's late progress to and from the House of Parliament.

Truly sensible of the blessings we, in common with all our fellow subjects, have so long enjoyed, under the mild and paternal Government of your Royal and revered Father, and so happily continued to us under the auspicious administration of your Royal Highness, we sincerely join in deprecating such an atrocious insult, and ardently unite in earnest prayers to Almighty God, that your Royal Highness may long be preserved to enjoy, in health and happiness, the loyal and fervent attachment of a free and grateful nation: and that when called, in due course of nature, to succeed to the throne of your illustrious ancestors, your Royal Highness, endowed with the same estimable qualities which so justly endeared them to all their subjects, may reign, with uninterrupted felicity, in the hearts of a faithful, affectionate, and united people.

Given under our common seal, this 6th day of February 1817. Liverpool, Master.

[Transmitted by the Earl of Liverpool, and presented by the Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Magistrates and Town-Council of the Burgh of Dunbar, in Council assembled, beg leave to address your Royal Highness, and to express our abhorrence of the several daring outrages which have been lately committed on your sacred person; and sensible of the blessings which we enjoy under our present happy Constitution, we feel the utmost indignation from the disorderly and licentious conduct of those who dared to offer such gross insults and violence.

We sincerely congratulate your Royal Highness that those men who have hitherto manifested themselves inimical to the peace of our country have been so strictly watched, and that all their wicked attempts have been happily frustrated; and we hope, that instead of producing the mischief they wish, it will only tend to unite more firmly the hearts of all good men in repelling both foreign and domestic enemies.

On the present occasion we again deem it our duty to come forward and publicly to declare our firm and unshaken attachment to His Majesty's person and our happy Constitution.

That your Royal Highness's sacred person may be protected from all daring and flagitious outrages or insults is the ardent wish and prayer of His Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects the Magistrates and Council of the Burgh of Dunbar.

Chr. Middlemass, Provost.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent has been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to give and grant unto Robert Macfarlane, Esq. Lieutenant-General of His Majesty's Forces, Colonel of the 97th Regiment of Foot, and Grand Cross of the Royal Hanoverian Guelphic Order, His Majesty's royal licence and permission, that he may accept and wear the grand cross of the Royal Sicilian Military Order of St. Ferdinand and of Merit, with which His Majesty the King of the Two Sicilies hath been pleased to honour him, in testimony of the high sense that Sovereign entertains of the distinguished services rendered by him throughout the different operations against the enemy on the coasts of Italy; more particularly in command of the Sicilian troops at the assault of the entrenchments and capture of Genoa in the year 1814; and in command of the Allied, British, and Sicilian army in the expedition to the coast of Naples in 1815; provided nevertheless, that His Majesty's said licence and permission doth not authorise, and shall not be deemed or construed to authorise, the assumption of any style, appellation, rank, precedence, or privilege appertaining unto a Knight Bachelor of these realms:

And His Royal Highness hath been further pleased to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, February 8, 1817.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed Henry Piniger, of Trowbridge, in the county of Wilts, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

Whitehall, February 7, 1817.

WHereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, about one o'clock on the morning of the 31st of January last, the rick-yard of Mr. John Hoare, at Sutton Courtney, in the county of Berks, was discovered to be on fire, whereby two ricks of barley, and one rick of beans, were destroyed; and that there is every reason to believe the same was wilfully and maliciously set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the person or persons concerned in the felony above-mentioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said ricks), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the County Fire-Office, to any person or persons (except as is before excepted) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof, or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring the offender or offenders to conviction, or cause him, her, or them to be apprehended and convicted as aforesaid.

Whitehall, February 4, 1817.

WHereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that on Sunday the 1st day of December last, between five and six o'clock in the evening, some person or persons entered the dwelling-house of William Howard, of Yiewsley, in the parish of Hillingdon, in the county of Middlesex, farmer, and most barbarously and inhumanly murdered the said William Howard; and also violently beat Sarah Randall, his housekeeper, with a bludgeon, leaving her almost dead, and afterwards stole a considerable sum of money from a bureau in the said dwelling-house;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said murder and robbery, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person or persons who actually murdered the said William Howard), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered by the relatives of the said William Howard, and FIFTY POUNDS by the parish of Hillingdon, to any person (except as before excepted) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof, or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring the said offenders, or any of them, to conviction, or cause them, or any of them, so to be apprehended and convicted as aforesaid.

Whitehall, January 22, 1817.

WHereas it has been humbly represented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that James Watson the younger, formerly of Hyde-Street, Bloomsbury, surgeon, stands indicted for a capital felony, in having wilfully and feloniously attempted to kill and murder Richard Platt, on Monday the 2d day of December last, by firing a loaded pistol at and desperately wounding the said Richard Platt; and that the said James Watson also stands charged with having committed other high and atrocious offences;

His Royal Highness, for the better and more speedy apprehending and bringing to justice the said James Watson for the felony and offences aforesaid, is hereby pleased, acting in the name and on behalf of His Majesty, to promise to any person or persons who shall discover and apprehend, or cause to be discovered and apprehended, the said James Watson, the sum of FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS; to be paid by the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, upon the said James Watson being apprehended and lodged in any one of His Majesty's gaols.

SIDMOUTH.

The above named James Watson is a surgeon by profession, and has been employed in that capacity on board a Greenland ship: he is a young man, apparently about twenty-three or twenty-four years of age, but is only twenty; dark hair, rather pale complexion, five feet five inches high, rather slender made, has a scar or mole under his right eye, and a slight scarification on the eyelid, which disfigures the eye, and faint remains of small pox in his face; had on a brown great coat, blue under coat, black waistcoat, drab breeches, and long gaiters; appearance, shabby genteel: he formerly lodged in Hyde-Street, Bloomsbury, and was in the habit of wearing a black coat buttoned, kersycumere breeches, and long gaiters.

Whitehall, January 16, 1817.

WHereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, on the night of Sunday the 5th instant, some evil-disposed person or persons did maliciously destroy nineteen rams belonging to Mr. John Hall, of Countessthorpe, in the county of Leicester;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said felony, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person or persons who actually killed the said sheep) who shall discover his or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered by the said John Hall to any person (except as is before excepted) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof; or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring the said offenders, or any of them, to conviction, or cause them, or any of them, so to be apprehended and convicted as aforesaid.

Notice is hereby given, that, pursuant to the Act of the 55 Geo. 3. chap. 157, intituled, "An Act for the better examination of witnesses in the Courts of Equity in Ireland, and for empowering the Courts of Law and Equity in Ireland to grant commissions for taking affidavits in all parts of Great Britain," the Lord High Chancellor of Ireland hath been pleased to appoint the undermentioned Extraordinary Commissioners for the districts attached to their respective names, to swear and examine all witnesses to be sworn and examined in their respective districts in suits depending in the High Court of Chancery of Ireland, and to take within the said districts all answers, pleas, and demurrers of defendants in suits so depending; and also to take affidavits of parties and others in such manner as the Masters in Ordinary of the said Court may swear, and the Examiners thereof may examine such witnesses, and as the said Masters may take such answers, pleas, and demurrers, and such affidavits, according to the practice of the said Court.

Notice is also hereby given, that, by the general order of the Court of Chancery of Ireland, bearing date the 20th day of May 1816, all affidavits to be taken in Great Britain, in suits depending in said Court, are required to be transmitted to the proper Officer of the said Court, under the seal of the Extraordinary Commissioner before whom such affidavits shall have been taken.

And notice is further hereby given, that the Courts of King's Bench and Common Pleas in Ireland, in pursuance of the provisions for that purpose in said Act contained, have ordered that commissions shall also be forthwith granted to the undermentioned Commissioners, empowering them to take affidavits within their respective districts aforesaid, in all causes, matters, or things depending in said Courts of King's Bench and Common Pleas respectively, or touching or concerning the process thereof.

THESE are to give notice, that a General Court of the Governors of the Charity for the Relief of Poor Widows of Commission and Warrant Officers of the Royal Navy, will be held at this Office on Thursday the 27th instant, at one o'clock in the afternoon, in order to choose two Vice-Presidents and fifteen Assistants, for the year ensuing.

J. W. CROKER.

WHEREAS by a notice, bearing date the 8th day of November 1816, signed by me and served on the principal occupying tenants of the town and lands of Glasshouse, Boultry, and Clonfad, containing three hundred and ninety acres and two roods, profitable land, plantation measure, situate in the barony of Clonlisk, and King's county; I have demanded from them, and each of them, all rent, and arrears of rent and renewal fines, to which I am entitled and now due me out of said lands and premises, under a lease for lives, with covenant for perpetual renewal; and whereas I have met difficulty in discovering the actual tenant bound to pay said rent, arrear of rent and renewal fines, I hereby give notice to all whom it may concern (pursuant to the Statute in that case made and provided), of the aforesaid demand so made by me in manner aforesaid.—Dated this 12th day of December, in the year 1816. John Smith.

OFFICE FOR TAXES, SOMERSET-PLACE,

February 11, 1817.

PUrsuant to Acts, passed in the forty-second and fifty-third years of His present Majesty's reign, notice is hereby given, that the price of the Three per Centum Consolidated Bank Annuities, sold at the Bank of England this day, was £66 and under £67 per Centum.

By order of the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes. Matt. Winter, Secretary.

Office of Ordnance, February 3, 1817.

THE Principal Officers of His Majesty's Ordnance do hereby give notice, that proposals will be received at their Office in Pall-Mall, on or before Monday the 24th instant, from such persons as may be willing to undertake the supply of Tools of various descriptions, for service of this Department, for a period of three years, determinable after the expiration of the first year, upon notice of three months, at the option of either party.

Patterns of the articles may be viewed upon application at the Principal Storekeeper's Office in the Tower; and farther particulars, together with the terms and conditions of the contract, may be known at the Secretary's Office, in Pall-Mall aforesaid, any day between the hours of ten and four o'clock; where the proposals must be delivered, sealed up, and indorsed "Proposals for Tools, &c.;" but no proposal can be admitted after the said 24th instant, at twelve o'clock at noon of the same day; neither will any tender be noticed, unless the party making it, or an agent in his behalf, shall attend.

By order of the Board,

R. H. Crew, Secretary.

CONTRACT FOR WORKS AT HIS MAJESTY'S YARD AT SHEERNESS.

Navy-Office, January 27, 1817.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice, that on Wednesday the 5th of March next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for performing the following works at His Majesty's Yard at Sheerness, viz.

Digging the earth, piling foundations, laying cills and planking for the platform of the mast-lock, mast-pond, and mast-house walls, and for the tunnel belonging to the same, together with the brickwork and masonry of the same; and also for excavating the foundation of the basin wall, and piling and forming the platform, and executing the brickwork and masonry of the said basin wall; and for depositing earth and puddling all around and between the said walls.

Plans and specifications of the works, and a form of the tender, may be seen at this Office.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed, unless the party, or an agent for him, attends.

Every tender must be accompanied by a letter, addressed to the Navy Board, and signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £10,000, for the due performance of the contract.

R. A. Nelson, Secretary.

Lottery-Office, Somerset-Place,
February 10, 1817.

THE Managers and Directors of the lotteries do hereby give notice, that numbers of tickets and shares in all preceding lotteries may be examined at this Office every day, between the hours of ten and three, with their registers of benefits and blanks.

And the said Managers and Directors do hereby give notice, that they will cut off the tickets of the fourth of those lotteries for 1816, into their respective boxes A and B, on Saturday the 22d day of February instant, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, at this Office, beginning first with the benefits and blanks, which are to be cut into box B, and continuing until all the said tickets for each of the said boxes are completely cut therein.

And the said Managers and Directors do hereby also give notice, that they will attend and oversee the drawing of the tickets of the said fourth lottery for 1816, on Saturday the 1st day of March next, at Coopers'-Hall, in Basinghall-Street, within the City of London.

East India-House, February 6, 1817.

THE Court of Directors of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, do hereby give notice,

That a General Court of the said Company will be held at their House, in Leadenhall-Street, on Thursday the 20th instant, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, for the purpose of continuing the consideration of the following proposition, viz.

"That the Court of Directors be requested to take into their consideration the nature of the Company's Institution at Haileybury, and how far it has answered, or is likely on its present plan to answer, the ends proposed by the resolution of the General Court of the 28th February 1805; and whether in their opinion, any seminary at the Company's expence in England be now advisable for the civil service, and if so, whether an establishment more in the nature of a school, where masters should attend at stated hours, having proper authority for the due enforcement of obedience, learning, and moral conduct, would not be preferable to a university or college? This Court, however, more especially requests the Court of Directors to consider, whether the expence at present incurred in maintaining the College, might not with great propriety be almost wholly saved, if, instead of compelling parents to send their sons to a particular seminary, the Court of Directors were to require of the youths intended for their civil service in India, a certain degree of proficiency in such languages and sciences as should be deemed necessary, the same to be certified by gentlemen of known learning and ability, appointed for that purpose? And whether in such case it would not be highly expedient and economical, to remove the Military Seminary from Addiscombe to the more commodious and spacious buildings at Haileybury? And that the Court of Directors be further requested to report their opinions on the different points herein referred to them as soon as convenient, and call an early and special General Court to receive and consider the same."

James Cobb, Secretary.
