

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority

From Thursday May 10. To the Kings most Excellent to Monday May 22. 1722

Within this City of London, the Duke of Tuscany, who is the general expectation of things will come to a happy issue, for the Court and Councils have been very much rejoiced not to give any satisfaction on his side, but to maintain his jurisdiction, and that he was complying with the Cardinals, in order to the taking such Resolutions as may be most conducive thereunto. The French are making several new Fortifications at Genoa, and it is very much apprehended that they design to bring their Arms into Italy, against which little provision is hitherto made by the Princes thereof.

Turin, May 6. The Duke of Savoy has declared his intentions of parting from France for the latter end of this Month, or the beginning of the next; and notice has been given to the Magistrates of this and other places, that his Highness has appointed the 20th Instant to give Audience to them, in order to their taking their leave of him.

Genoa, May 13. The 11th Instant arrived here the Dutch Convoy from Alicante, by whom we have Advice, That before their Departure from Alicante the Tiger Frigate arrived there from Algiers, and brought an Account, That Admiral Herzog had concluded an honourable Peace with the Government of Algiers.

Vienna, May 14. The Letters we receive from Hungary continue to speak of the Preparations of the Turks, but in such a manner, that there is no reason to apprehend a War this Year at least; and we are told, That thereupon the Regiments that were Commanded to March towards Hungary, have received Orders to make a Halt. In the mean time the new Levies that are making here, go on very successfully; and we are assured that Count Leslie will March with a Body of 14000 Men towards the Rhine, before the end of this Month, to join the Troops of the Circle. The Bishop of this place, whole credit with the Emperor increases daily, is now made President of the Council of State, and has taken his place there accordingly. The Duke of Lorraine continues still very ill, though it's hoped he is out of danger.

Frankfort, May 20. The French Ambassadors here press for a Positive and Categorical Answer to the Proposition made by them several Months since.

Hamburg, May 20. We have here very great Apprehensions of the Danes, and our Magistrates are making what Provision they can for the Security of this City, and have acquainted the Princes of Lunenburg with the jealousies they have, and desired their assistance, which they are assured of. There is to be an Interview between the King of Denmark and the Elector of Brandenburg.

Cologne, May 22. On Thursday last, the Corps of the late Bishop of Strasburg was Interred in the

Our Ambassadors here press for a Positive and Categorical Answer to the Proposition made by them several Months since. The French are making several new Fortifications at Genoa, and it is very much apprehended that they design to bring their Arms into Italy, against which little provision is hitherto made by the Princes thereof. The Duke of Savoy has declared his intentions of parting from France for the latter end of this Month, or the beginning of the next; and notice has been given to the Magistrates of this and other places, that his Highness has appointed the 20th Instant to give Audience to them, in order to their taking their leave of him. The Dutch Convoy from Alicante, by whom we have Advice, That before their Departure from Alicante the Tiger Frigate arrived there from Algiers, and brought an Account, That Admiral Herzog had concluded an honourable Peace with the Government of Algiers. The Letters we receive from Hungary continue to speak of the Preparations of the Turks, but in such a manner, that there is no reason to apprehend a War this Year at least; and we are told, That thereupon the Regiments that were Commanded to March towards Hungary, have received Orders to make a Halt. In the mean time the new Levies that are making here, go on very successfully; and we are assured that Count Leslie will March with a Body of 14000 Men towards the Rhine, before the end of this Month, to join the Troops of the Circle. The Bishop of this place, whole credit with the Emperor increases daily, is now made President of the Council of State, and has taken his place there accordingly. The Duke of Lorraine continues still very ill, though it's hoped he is out of danger. The French Ambassadors here press for a Positive and Categorical Answer to the Proposition made by them several Months since.

Paris, May 23. Here it is much expected that the several Armies the King intends to have in the Field this Summer, which some think is to be sent abroad to amuse our Neighbours; the Truth time must shew. We are told that Monsieur de Quefne is expected at Marseilles the latter end of this Month. Our Ambassadors at Marseilles have a positive Answer to their Proposition, not being satisfied with that they had from the Imperial Ambassadors. The King's Quota, being 14000 Men, will March very suddenly towards the Rhine.

Windsor, May 23. A Petition from the Mayor, Steward, Under-Stewards, and Inhabitants of Crayford and Milton in Kent, was presented to his Majesty's High Court of Chancery, Under-Stewards, Magistrates, and Inhabitants of Eastloe in Cornwall; which together with those which which follow, His Majesty received with His wounded Grace and Goodness.

To the Kings most Excellent Majesty

The Humble Address of Your Majesties Loyal and Dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Commonalty of Your Majesties ancient Burrough of Hillsdon, in the County of Cornwall.

Most Dread Sovereign,

When we consider the unpeackable Miseries and Calamities which these Your Majesties Kingdoms have Endured under the Reign of the late unparaleld Rebellious and traitorous King James the first, Your Majesty's Royal Father of every blessed Memory; and of the rellells and endeavors of evil Men, toally to extirpate Your Sacred Majesty and Royal Family, together with our Religion by Law Established; and of the great Progress made by these Hellish endeavors in their compassing their damnable Design and all under the specious pretence of Pious y^e Religion; we cannot but acknowledge it a Mercy from God to Merit and Mankind, That it hath pleased Almighty God to send Your Majesty to the Employment of Your Majesty's Protection and Religion, and as Your Subjects to the immediate Protection and Assistance of Your Majesty apparently visible, that Almighty Providence hath been so wicked Plots, and Conspiracies to hope that any Contrivances, had their Sovereign Majesty, against Gods Protection, notwithstanding the heavy weight should come ment lately seen a Paper, not long since, four great Images discovered and produced of the Pretending a most happily ment against the Earl of Shaftsbury, and then produced the Closet, which contains a most and abominable tending to Sedition and Rebellion, and an absolute destruction of Monarchy, and the good Government by Law established. We therefore think our selves obliged in duty to protest to Your Majesty our afflicted Benevolent and Abhorrence of the said ASSOCIATIONS and of all Treasonable Confederacies and Combinations whatsoever, against Your Majesties Person or Government: And we do solemnly and sincerely declare and protest, That upon all occasions we will be ready to sacrifice our Lives and Fortunes in Defense of Your Majesty, Your Lawfull Heirs and lawful Successors, and that Church and State of England, as now by Law Established; and that, whensoever Your Majesty shall in Your Princely Wisdom think fit to call a Parliament, we will make it our principal Care, as his Majesty we have done, to send such Representatives for this our Burrough, as shall endeavor to answer those ends for which Parliaments were ordained.

That Your Majesty may quash all Plots and Contrivances whatsoever, against Your Royal Person or Government, and that the Authors, Contrivers and Abettors thereof, of what Sort soever they be, may be brought to condign Punishments; That all Your Enemies may become Your worst foes; and that the Great God of Heaven, who hath hitherto so miraculously preserved Your Royal Person, may grant You a long and happy Reign over us; and that after this Life you may obtain everlasting joy and felicity; us, and shall be the daily Prayers of, Great SIR, Your Majesties most Loyal and Dutiful Subjects.

Dated at our Guild-hall, and Given under the Common Seal of this Burrough of Hillsdon, this One and twentieth Day of April, in the Four and thirtieth Year of Your Majesties Reign.

To the Kings most Excellent Majesty

Dread Sovereign,

The Lords Lieutenant, Deputy, Lieutenants, Colonels, and Officers the Offices of Your Majesties Militia of the County of Essex, do humbly beg leave to declare their out-most Abhorrence of all TRAITEROUS ASSOCIATIONS, and all other Conspiracies tending to diminish the Prerogative of Your most Sacred Majesty, or the undoubted Right of Your Lawfull Successors; and more particularly we do detest and abominate that Treasonable Paper in the Nature of an ass, lately found in the Closet of the Earl of Shaftsbury, which does plainly discover the most wicked designs of some ill Men, to destroy the happiell of Governments, under the best of Kings; To prevent the effects of such ill practices, we think our selves, and all other Your Majesties good Subjects, bound in duty to assure Your Maesty of our most constant Resolutions to serve You without Lives and Fortunes, to the utmost Extremity, against all Your Enemies and Opposers whatsoever. And as we cannot but be sensible of the happy Success, it hath pleased God to give to Your Majesties Affairs in your Kingdom of Scotland, under the Conduct of Your Royal Brother, by his stead-fastness and unwearied Endeavors in Your Majesties Service, so it will, we hope, have that Influence upon all Your Subjects, that we may still enjoy the Blessing of Your Majesties Reign over us: Which, that it may be long, and Glorious, and the Crown continue for ever in the legal Descent of Your Royal Family, shall be always the Prayers of us whole Names, are here under-written.

To the Kings most Excellent Majesty:

Dread Sir,

WE Your Majesties Justices of the Peace for the County of Cumberland, and the Grand Jury at the General Quarter Sessions holden at the City of Carlisle, the 18th of April 1682, do humbly beg leave to assure Your Majesty, That we will, to the utmost of our Ability, assist and support Your Majesty in Your Royal Person and Government, against all Your Enemies whatsoever. And we do further solemnly declare, That we do Abominate and Detest all Associations that do tend to the Subversion of the Government, or the disturbing the Succession of the Crown in its due Lineal Course of Descent: So that if Your Majesty shall in Your Princely Wisdom think fit to meet your People in Parliament, we do not doubt but we shall be able to send up such Representatives for this County, as shall, together with their Care of the Protection of Religion, give a full demonstration of Your Majesty of these our firm Resolutions of Obedience and Loyalty to Your Sacred Person and Government, which God Almighty long continue amongst us.

Plimouth, May 16. Yesterday Sailed from hence His Majesties Ship the Dragon, with the Merchant hips under her Convooy; as like wise the two East-India Ships.

ALL Persons owing Arrears of Rent for Wine-Licences, or whose Licences are expired, are hereby desired to take notice, That if they do not pay their said Arrears, and Renew their said Wine-Licences with all speed, they will be forthwith Sued at Law for the same.

Advertisements.

LOst the 19th Instant, a Diamond Hoop of about seven Rounds Value. Whoever gives Notice of it to that it be restored to Mrs. Peter White, Goldsmith in Lombard street, shall have two Guineas Reward; or if already bought, their Money again with content.

STolen about two Months since, from Mr. James Martin, Iron Sea-barn, seven Miles from London, a large jet-black Mare, about four Years of Age, short Tail, Trots; suspected to be stolen by one who calls himself John Taylor, yet sometimes goes by the Names of Hobbs, Bacon, Shibly, and Story; he is a little broad Man, Pookhole, hath a sharp Nose, a forehead is a little out-shin'd; about 27 years of Age, and was born at Holderness in Yorkshire. If any one shall discover or cause to be Apprehended the Person of the said John Taylor, alias Hobbs, &c. so as that he may be brought into Custody, in order to his being Prosecuted according to Law; or discover where the said Mare is, let them give Notice thereof to Sir Richd. & Robt. at Newark upon Trent, to Mr. Per. Padman, an Attorney at Durham, or to Captain William Richardson, Master of His Majesties Goal of Newgate, London; shall be well Rewarded for their pains.

STolen, the 19th Instant, on the High-way, from Thomas Raxifley, in the Parish of South-Mymms, in the County of Middlesex, a bright bay Gelding, bay Faced, Wall-Fy'd, a little white on the near Foot behind, about 14 hands high.
Whoever gives notice of him to Mr. Woodcock at the George-Inn without Aldersgate, London, or at the Angel in Tooting, in Northamptonshire, shall have 40 s. Reward.