[Notice is hereby given, that a Gazette will be published on Thursday.]

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, January 25, 1817.

Notice is hereby given, that the Drawing-Room, intended to be held by Her Majesty at the Queen's Palace, on Thursday the 6th of February, is postponed to Thursday the 20th of February next.

THE following Addresses have been presented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent; which Addresses His Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously:

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

WE, your Royal Highness's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Vyanders and Inhabitants of the Borough of Newport, in the County of Cornwall, humbly beg leave to offer to your Royal Highness our sincere congratulations on your happy escape from the late atrocious outrage on your sacred person, whilst returning from the discharge of those functions which the illness of our revered Monarch has imposed on you.

Against the act, and the licentious instigators of it, we are unable to express our indignation; but we take this opportunity to convey to your Royal Highness our fixed determination to support the public peace, and to discountenance those who would wish to disturb it.

Newport, February 7, 1817.

[Transmitted by Earl Percy, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

WE, your Royal Highness's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Deputy Recorder, Aldermen, Minister, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Dunbeved, otherwise Launceston, in the County of Cornwall, humbly request permission to offer to your Royal Highness our sincere congratulations on the happy escape from the late most daring outrage offered to your sacred person.

We are unable to express our abhorrence of the villainous authors and abettors of it, and devoutly pray, that the Almighty will frustrate all their evil designs, and shield you with his divine protection; and we sincerely hope, that the measures adopted by your Royal Highness for the discovery of the offenders, will be the means of bringing them to condign punishment.

Dated 5th February 1817.

[Transmitted by Earl Percy, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

WE, His Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Town Council of the Royal Burgh of Haddington, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with our sincere and hearty congratulations upon your escape from the late daring and treasonable outrage offered to your person on your return from opening Parliament. We cannot adequately express our concern, that there should be found persons in this country, favoured as it is beyond other nations, capable of committing so desperate and atrocious an outrage against the sacred person of your Royal Highness, and so daring a violation of the laws of the land. We beg leave to express our detestation and abhorrence of all riotous proceedings, and our determination to support that excellent form of government under which we live, and the just exercise of the authority of Government; and while we express our horror at the late outrage against the person of your Royal Highness, and our congratulations on your escape, we feel much gratified in assuring your Royal Highness of the peaceable behaviour and unabated loyalty of all ranks of His Majesty's subjects in this ancient burgh.

Signed in name, and by appointment of the Magistrates and Town Council of Haddington, in Common Council assembled, by John Martine, Provost.

[Transmitted by the Provost, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]
