

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 25, 1817.

[Notice is hereby given, that a Gazette will be published on Thursday.]

Westminster, February 24, 1817.

THIS day, the Lords being met, a message was sent to the Honourable House of Commons by the Deputy Usher of the Black Rod, acquainting them, that The Lords, authorised by virtue of a Commission under the Great Seal, signed by the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, for declaring His Majesty's Royal Assent to several Acts agreed upon by both Houses, do desire the immediate attendance of the Honourable House in the House of Peers to hear the Commission read; and the Commons being come thither, the said Commission, empowering the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, and several other Lords therein named, to declare and notify the Royal Assent to the said Acts, was read accordingly, and the Royal Assent given to

An Act for raising the sum of twenty-four millions by Exchequer bills, for the service of the year one thousand eight hundred and seventeen.

An Act to continue and extend the provisions of an Act, of the forty-ninth year of His present Majesty, for regulating the trade and commerce to and from the Cape of Good Hope, until the fifth day of July one thousand eight hundred and twenty; and also for regulating the trade of the island of Mauritius.

THE following Addresses have been presented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent; which Addresses His Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously:

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants, Manufacturers, and principal Inhabitants of the Town and Parish of Halifax, humbly beg leave to express to your Royal Highness our abhorrence of the wicked and treasonable attack made upon your Royal Highness, on your return from the House of Lords on Tuesday the 23th of January last.

Whilst we deeply lament this flagrant outrage, we acknowledge, Sir, the hand of Providence in your preservation; and we implore for your Royal Highness, and for this kingdom, a continuance of the same mighty protection.

In approaching your Royal Highness, we are anxious dutifully to express our firm conviction, that this great crime has not been the deed of one solitary assassin, but has had its source in a wicked and rebellious spirit, which is actively seeking to seduce the distressed, but good and loyal subjects of your revered father, from their allegiance, and from their veneration for those laws and that form of government, which for ages have been the glory of Britons, have at all times upheld their country in the first scale of nations, and have, at a late important crisis, rendered her the prop and stay of social order.

Therefore, Sir, we earnestly beseech you to adopt such measures as, restraining the disaffected, shall shield your royal person, and ensure the tranquillity and safety of the realm.

Hy. Wm. Coulthurst, D. D. Chairman.
Halifax, February 8, 1817.

[Transmitted by Dr. Coulthurst, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble and dutiful Address of the Bailiff, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Bewdley.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Bailiff, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Bewdley, in the Guildhall assembled, having observed with indignation that factious men have taken advantage of the present distresses to excite among the lower orders discontent and rebellion, and having marked with horror the late