Published by Authority.

SATURDAY, MARCH 1, 1817.

THE following Addresses have been presented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent; which Addresses His Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously:

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, &c. &c. &c.

The humble and unanimous Address of the Citizens of the County of the City of Waterford, assembled at their Town Hall, by public notice from the Mayor, pursuant to a requisition for that purpose.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Citizens of Waterford, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with our most sincere congratulations on the failure of that outrageous and atrocious attempt which so lately endangered the sacred Person of your Royal Highness while returning from the important discharge of your Royal Highness's functions in the Imperial Parliament.

Impelled at once both by duty and inclination, permit us to tender the unfeigned assurance of our zeal and affection for your Royal Highness's Person and Government, and at the same time to express, in the most unqualified manner, our marked abhorrence of those dangerous and delusive doctrines, which, artfully propagated by designing agitators, would ultimately tend, if not promptly and vigorously resisted, to shake to its foundation the venerable fabric of our unrivalled and glorious Constitution.

Deeply sensible of the value and importance of that Constitution, and of the blessings of Divine Providence, in preserving the life of a Prince who has uniformly persevered in promoting the best interests of this great empire, and in whose Councils have been planned all those glorious achievements by which the Tyrant of the world has been humbled, we beg leave to convey to your Royal Highness our firm and unalterable determination to rally round the Throne, and uphold, with our lives and properties, the Government and Constitution, in defiance of foreign enemies and domestic traitors.

Corn. Bolton, Mayor, Chairman.

[Transmitted by His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great-Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, the undersigned Clergymen, Merchants, Bankers, and other Inhabitants of the City of Cork, and its Vicinity, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with our sincere congratulations on your Royal Highness's providential escape from the late flagitious outrage meditated against your Royal Highness's sacred Person, when returning from opening the present Session of Parliament.

We lament to think that any man is to be found in the community so daring, or so deluded, as either of his own bad spirit, or as the instrument of disaffection, to attempt so treasonable and so atrocious an act; and we cannot but view it as resulting from that excitement of popular feeling which evil-minded persons have of late so laboured to produce, arousing in the lower orders a spirit of sedition and violence, by taking advantage of the distresses of the country.

Duly appreciating the many blessings which the people of this empire have enjoyed under the mild and beneficent sway of the illustrious House of Brunswick, we are convinced the great body of His Majesty's subjects are actuated by an unshaken devotion to your Royal Highness's Person and Family, and that there exists among them sufficient good sense as well as loyalty, successfully to resist the arts that are used to seduce them.

Impressed with these sentiments, we beg to be permitted to express a confident hope that your Royal Highness will omit no precaution for preserving the public peace, and that the measures of your Royal Highness's Government being founded on sound and wise principles, will aid the strong disposition of the people of this united empire to uphold and hand down uninjured to posterity our admired Constitution.

Dated, Cork, 13th February 1817.

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT,
&c. &c. &c.

WE, the undersigned, His Majesty's most loyal and attached subjects, the Protestant and Roman Catholic Inhabitants of the Manor and Lordship of Burrishoole, in the County of Mayo, beg leave, in the most humble manner, to offer to your Royal Highness our heartfelt congratulations on your late providential escape from the attacks which were directed by the disloyal against your Person, on your return from executing the Royal functions in opening the present Session of Parliament.

We are most anxious to testify the abhorrence felt by us of the principles which occasioned so gross an insult to be offered to your Royal Highness, and in the most earnest manner do declare ourselves ready to rally round the Throne, and to make a willing sacrifice of our lives and fortunes in defence of your Person and its dignities.

We moreover beg your Royal Highness to believe, that we are equally anxious to oppose and defeat the attempts which are now daily making by the malevolent to delude the unthinking multitude, and to overthrow that proud bulwark of real liberty, the British Constitution.

We trust that the zeal of your Royal Highness's servants will enable the powerful arm of justice to fall heavy on the infamous authors of so foul a deed.

[Signed by 117 Protestants.]

We, the freeholders of Achill and Ballycroy, amounting in the aggregate, as to population, to the number of four thousand persons, Roman Catholics, do authorise our landlord, Sir Neal O'Donel, Baronet, to affix his signature to the foregoing Address for us individually and collectively, the whole earnestly and respectfully requesting and praying the Right Honourable Robert Peel to present this our Address to His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, as the best possible proof of their attachment and devotion to the Constitution in Church and State, at the same time humbly entreating that this our respectful Address be forwarded by His Excellency, and by him laid at the foot of the Throne.

Neal O'Donel.

Dated, Newport Pratt, 15th Feb. 1817.

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Noblemen, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Berwick, beg to approach your Royal Highness, with our warmest congratulations on your preservation from the imminent danger with which your Royal Person was lately threatened, while your Royal Highness was engaged in one of the most important functions of your exalted station.

While we deeply lament the extent to which the detestable intrigues of a few factious men have been successful in deluding a portion of the subjects of this kingdom, we cordially participate in the satisfaction every loyal mind derives from the manifestation of firm attachment to your Royal Highness's Person and Government, which the late occasion has so strongly called forth in every part of this realm; combined with the feeling of abhorrence universally prevailing towards those traitorous persons, who, availing themselves of a time of temporary and unavoidable difficulty, are, under the specious pretext of reform, diffusing their deadly poison, and seeking to sap the foundation of the Constitution, under which this great country has so gloriously prospered.

We beg to assure your Royal Highness, that we renew, with cordial satisfaction, the pledge of these sentiments. We are not insensible of the pressure which has for a time clouded our national prosperity, but our confidence is unshaken in the wisdom and energy of your Royal Highness's Councils, and in the splendid example afforded by the personal sacrifice which your Royal Highness has been lately pleased to make, we have a gratifying proof of your desire, in conjunction with the Parliament, to meet the exigency of the times, by limiting the public expenditure within the narrowest bounds compatible with the due exercise of the vital powers of the State.

We indulge the fullest hope that this country, which has come forth from the late long and arduous contest so transcendent in power and glory, will, during peace, maintain the high station it has attained. We, however, strongly feel, that under Providence, this result can only follow the steadfast maintenance of public order, the firm administration of the existing laws of the land, and by the inviolable preservation of a Constitution, which is the admiration of surrounding States, and under the influence of which Great Britain seems to have reached the highest point of human glory.

With this noble fabric, the name of your Royal Highness's illustrious Family is inseparably connected, and we beg to convey the expression of our ardent wish that your Royal Highness and your descendants, enthroned in the affections of a grateful people, may long sway the sceptre of this realm with continued prosperity.

Signed in our name and by our appointment, by the Earl of Home, Lord-Lieutenant of the county, Preses of the meeting, at Greenlaw, the 21st of February 1817.

Home, Preses.

[Transmitted by the Earl of Home, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

The humble address of the Magistrates and Town Council of the Royal Burgh of Dingwall, in Council assembled.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, the Magistrates and Town Council of Dingwall, have heard, with no less indignation than surprise, of a most daring outrage committed against the sacred Person of your Royal Highness, by a lawless and unprincipled mob, who, unmindful of the multifarious blessings they enjoy under a free and equitable Government, have suffered themselves to be so far misled by factious and designing men, as to seem prepared for acts of the greatest atrocity.

We beg leave to assure your Royal Highness, that, though we, in this remote corner, feel, in common with our fellow subjects, the pressure of the times, and find it our duty to join in strongly recommending economy in every department of the State, we are still determined patiently to put up with temporary and unavoidable privations, and never, so far as we can prevent it, allow our happy and unrivalled Constitution to be touched by the unhallowed hands of such as, under the specious name of reform, wish to introduce anarchy and confusion.

That heaven may prosper and protect your Royal Highness in the discharge of the weighty and important duties of Government, which have devolved upon your Royal Highness in consequence of your revered Father's lamentable illness; that your Royal Highness may ever escape the traitorous attacks of licentious riot, and that you may continue to exercise the functions of Royalty with advantage to the nation and the approbation of all good men, is the earnest prayer of, may it please your Royal Highness, His Majesty's attached and faithful subjects, the Magistrates and Town Council of Dingwall.

Signed by our appointment and in our name and presence, by Alexander Mackenzie, Provost.

[Transmitted by Charles Fraser, Esq. and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

The humble address of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace, in and for the County of Middlesex, assembled at a General Meeting, at their Session House for the said County, on Tuesday the 25th of February 1817.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Justices of the Peace for the County of Middlesex, humbly beg leave to offer our cordial congratulations on the providential escape of your Royal Highness from the late atrocious and treasonable attack, directed against your Royal Person, whilst returning from the exercise of one of the most important functions of the Crown.

We reflect with indignation and abhorrence on this most flagitious outrage, so disgraceful to the British character, and deeply lament that any person should be found capable of such a flagrant violation of the law.

While we intreat permission to declare our unalterable fidelity and attachment to your Royal Highness's Person, Family, and Government, we feel it peculiarly incumbent upon us at the present moment, as conservators of the peace, to express our firm determination to use our utmost exertions, both individually and collectively, to counteract the efforts of the seditious, to suppress all attempts to disturb the public tranquillity, and to preserve inviolate the blessings of social order, and civil liberty, which we so pre-eminently enjoy under our present mild laws and happy Constitution.

Signed by order the meeting,

W. Watson, Chairman.

[Transmitted by W. Watson, Esq. Queen Square, Westminster, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble, loyal, and dutiful Address of the Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and other Heritors of the County of Cromarty.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most faithful and loyal subjects, the Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and other Heritors of the County of Cromarty, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with sentiments of attachment and respect, to express our deep regret and abhorrence at the wicked and diabolical attempt which was lately made on your sacred Person, while returning from the House of Parliament, after discharging the Constitutional and legal duty to which you were then called; and to congratulate your Royal Highness and the nation at large on the escape you made, under Providence, from the hands of some wicked and deluded persons.

We have much pleasure and satisfaction in assuring your Royal Highness, that in this Northern part of the United Empire, there appears to us no symptoms of revolt or disaffection, but on the contrary, a firm resolution of supporting the Government and laws of the country as now established: should unfortunately however, the spirit of anarchy in any degree show itself, we are resolved as Magistrates to use every legal and Constitutional means to suppress and put down the same.

Signed in our name, presence, and by our appointment, at Cromarty, this 18th day of February 1817.

Donald M'Kenzie, Preses.

[Transmitted by R. B. Æneas M'Cleod, Esq. and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

Unto His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Citizens, and Inhabitants of the City of Gloucester, anxious to testify our loyalty and veneration for the sacred Person of our Sovereign, beg leave most respectfully to express our abhorrence of the late atrocious attack on the Person of your Royal Highness, when returning from the exercise of that most important branch of the royal functions, the opening the Session of Parliament.

Fully sensible, that, on the preservation of our Monarchical form of Government, under those wise and salutary limitations which our envied Constitution has imposed, depend the happiness and prosperity of these realms, we cannot refrain from expressing our most ardent hopes, that, under the sanction of those laws which the wisdom of our ancestors has prescribed, your Royal Highness's illustrious Family may long enjoy the Throne of this kingdom, in happiness and security; while His Majesty's faithful subjects, experiencing the blessings of a mild and benignant administration of the Royal Authority, may, upon all occasions, be ready to rally round the Throne in defence of their Sovereign, their liberties and their Constitution.

Feeling, in common with our fellow subjects, the pressure which the country at present sustains, and fully satisfied that a system of strict œconomy is imperiously called for in every branch of the Public Expenditure, we observe with peculiar satisfaction your Royal Highness's gracious assurance, that the estimates for the current year are made with a view to every reduction consistent with the safety of the Empire: and we trust, that in the administration of every department of the State, your Royal Highness will cause such a system of œconomy and retrenchment to be steadily pursued, as may reduce the expenditure of the country within its due limits, fully assured that the reform of abuses, and the abolition of unnecessary expences, will most effectually counteract the designs of the disaffected, revive the national credit, and ensure the public peace, the public confidence, and public prosperity.

Signed on behalf of a public meeting of the Citizens and Inhabitants of Gloucester.

Thomas Washbourn, Mayor.

[Transmitted by Edward Webb, Esq. and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble and dutiful Address of the Minister, Churchwardens, and Inhabitants of St. Thomas's Parish, in the City of Dublin.

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Inhabitants of Saint Thomas's Parish, in the City of Dublin, beg leave humbly to address your Royal Highness, and to express our sincere and heartfelt congratulations on your Royal Highness's providential escape from the late treasonable and atrocious attack on your sacred Person.

Impressed with the deepest abhorrence of the treasonable design, we feel that the time of its occurrence has given to it a character of peculiar guilt. That a design, so detestable, should have been conceived at a period when your Royal Highness's manly and decided conduct had brought a war, which threatened destruction to the Empire and our unrivalled Constitution, to so glorious a termination,—at a period when your Royal Highness's solicitude for the relief of the temporary sufferings of His Majesty's People, had been so strongly evinced by great personal privations and sacrifices—marks the unexampled depravity of the author of it. In the contemplation of an event, which we lament to state must have sullied the national character, we derive much consolation from the general sentiment of attachment, which has been expressed towards your Royal Family and Person, and we humbly beg leave to offer to your Royal Highness our most ardent assurances of devotion and loyalty.

St. Luke's Parish, February 16th 1817.

At a numerous and respectable Meeting of the Parishioners, publicly convened, pursuant to Requisition, the following Resolutions were unanimously agreed to;

The Churchwardens in the Chair,

Resolved Unanimously, That we consider it our bounden duty to express our unfeigned abhorrence of the recent atrocious attack on the sacred Person of the Prince Regent, and we feel it incumbent on us at this period to express our sincere and unalterable attachment to our gracious and venerable King, and to His Royal Highness, and our firm determination to maintain by every means in our power, with our lives and our properties, the inestimable benefits of our matchless Constitution.

The Churchwardens being requested to leave the Chair, and the Rev. William O'Connor being called thereto, Resolved Unanimously, That the thanks of this meeting be given to our worthy Churchwardens, Thomas Beasley, Jun. and Daniel Hall, Esquires, for their ready acquiescence to our Requisition, and their very proper conduct in the Chair.

Resolved Unanimously, That the above Requisition be signed, on behalf of the Parish, by the Minister and Churchwardens.

William O'Connor, Minister.

Thomas Beasley

Daniel Hall,

} Churchwardens.

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

The humble Address of the Parishioners of St. Paul's, in the City of Dublin.

Most humbly sheweth,

THAT we your dutiful and loyal subjects of the Parish of St. Paul's, most humbly beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with our congratulation on the providential escape from the late traitorous attack made on your sacred Person.

We deem it our duty on such an occasion to express our sentiments of abhorrence and indignation, and to pledge ourselves to rally round the Throne in support of our beloved Sovereign, his Family, and our happy Constitution, to defend it against all foreign or domestic enemies, against treason and rebellion, and to protect it against all who shall dare to violate the law.

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales,
REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble and unanimous Address of the Mayor, Sheriffs, Aldermen, and Assistants of the County of the City of Waterford, in Common Council assembled.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Sheriffs, Aldermen, and Assistants of this ancient City, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness, with unfeigned assurances of our sincere and unalterable attachment to His Majesty's sacred Person and Government, and to your Royal Highness, in the exercise of that Government, on behalf of His Majesty.

We beg leave to assure your Royal Highness that no language can adequately express our detestation and abhorrence of the atrocious and treasonable attack, made upon the sacred person of your Royal Highness, in the constitutional discharge of your high functions, while retarding from the opening of the present Session of Parliament.

We cannot sufficiently deplore, that, even amongst the most ignorant of the lower orders, any could be found so deluded by the seditious and revolutionary doctrines, now generally and audaciously promulgated, as to make such a flagrant and criminal attempt.

But while we rejoice and congratulate your Royal Highness, that this flagitious treason has proved abortive, permit us to express our firm reliance, that the same wise and vigorous councils, the same approved loyalty, true patriotism, and courage of the nation, (aided by the tried wisdom and integrity of a Parliament constitutionally representing and speaking the nation's voice,) which has triumphantly borne us through so many perils, and justly rendered the British name and nation the admiration of the civilized world, will, under Providence, be fully able to appal the disaffected, and to crush all domestic treason and sedition, as they have been to conquer the most inveterate, and powerful foreign hostility, so as to preserve inviolate, and transmit unimpaired to the latest posterity, our unrivalled Constitution, and the succession to the Throne in His Majesty's illustrious House.

We beg leave most faithfully to assure your Royal Highness that these objects and principles are dear to our hearts, and that at all times, and under all circumstances, our best energies shall be exerted to maintain and perpetuate them.

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT
of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble and dutiful Address of the Inhabitants of the City or Borough of Wells, and its suburbs.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Inhabitants of the ancient City or Borough of Wells, and its suburbs, humbly beg leave to lay before your Royal Highness the respectful assurances of our abhorrence of the late daring and atrocious outrage offered to the Person of your Royal Highness, whilst in the discharge of one of the most solemn and important of the Regal functions.

But whilst we express our detestation of the obscure perpetrators of an act so flagitious, affecting at once the safety of your Royal Highness's Person, the honour and dignity of Parliament, and the best interests of the British Empire, we should ill discharge that duty which we owe to your Royal Highness, to the public, and to ourselves, if we refrained from explicitly declaring our abhorrence of those persons who have goaded on, to the commission of these excesses, the deluded instruments of their criminal ambition.

It is, Sir, with equal indignation and disgust that we have seen the basest artifices resorted to, and most industriously employed to vilify and bring into contempt all the legally established authorities of the realm—to convert to seditious purposes, the distresses, under which the country is labouring, in consequence of a singularly unpropitious harvest, having afflicted us at the very moment when we were suffering under the effects of a long and arduous struggle for our independence—to aggravate these distresses by false suggestions, and by prejudicing the people against the means of alleviating them, and thus increasing that irritation of the public mind, which all good subjects would have been solicitous to soothe—and finally, to scatter abroad the seeds of universal discontent, and insidiously to excite those disturbances of the public peace, which the authors of these artifices affect, with an ill-concealed duplicity, to deprecate and deplore.

We feel confident, however, that this recent outrage will open the eyes of the public to those practices which have led to the perpetration of it, and that in producing a firm union among all classes of His Majesty's loyal subjects, for the protection of our laws and our Constitution, it will give birth to a resolute determination, to resist the violence and counteract the arts of those disaffected persons, who, by taking advantage of the pressure of unexampled, but, (as we trust,) temporary distress, are seeking to accomplish the overthrow of both.

Relying upon the disposition of your Royal Highness's Government to adopt all proper and practicable means of alleviating the sufferings of the country—relying also upon its vigilance in detecting, and its promptitude and energy in repressing all attempts to disturb the public tranquillity, we feel a well founded hope, that, aided as your Royal Highness will be by the wisdom of Parliament, and by the efforts of a loyal people, our present difficulties will ere long be surmounted, and that we shall transmit, inviolate and unimpaired to our posterity, those laws, and that Constitution under which these kingdoms have so long flourished.

Henry Brookes, Mayor.
Wells, February 20th 1817.

[Transmitted by John Paine Tredway, Esquire, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

At a Meeting of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders, and Inhabitants of the County of Wexford, convened by the High Sheriff (pursuant to requisition) at Gumscothy, on Saturday the 15th day of February 1817; The High Sheriff being called to the chair, it was unanimously resolved, that the following Address be presented to His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders, and Inhabitants of the County of Wexford, His Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, beg leave most humbly and heartily to congratulate your Royal Highness on your late providential escape from the daring outrage attempted to be committed on your Person on your return from having opened the present Session of Parliament, in your capacity as Regent of the United Kingdom.

Words can but faintly express the horror and disgust of our feelings on hearing of the ferocious and detestable attempt.

It would seem that, under the mask of Reform, some evil-disposed persons, taking advantage of the distress of the times, are doing their utmost to instigate the people to anarchy and confusion.

But we beg leave to assure your Royal Highness, that no arguments, however plausible—no language, however cloaked, can lull our vigilance, or weaken the steady attachment we bear to your Person, your Royal House, and our unmatched and envied Constitution. And as a proof of these our sentiments, we pledge ourselves to suppress, to the utmost of our power, any attempts that may be made to mislead the people of this country from their allegiance and obedience to the laws; and we have no doubt, that by such exertions, on the part of His Majesty's loyal subjects, and the wisdom of Parliament, this empire will, under the blessing of Divine Providence, long maintain its present proud situation among the nations of the world. Signed by me,

Wm. Botter, Sheriff, in behalf of the Meeting.

To His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble and dutiful Address of the Bishop, the Dean and Chapter, the Chancellor, and the Clergy of the Diocese of Carlisle.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Bishop, the Dean and Chapter, the Chancellor, and the Clergy of the Diocese of Carlisle, beg leave most humbly to express our utter abhorrence of the late nefarious attempt upon the life of your Royal Highness.

At a time when the wisdom and energy of your Royal Highness's Councils have raised this kingdom to a height of glory beyond what has been experienced at any former period, it might have been expected, that every heart would beat high with sentiments of love, respect, and admiration;

a few base minds, however, to our grief, have been found to be otherwise actuated.

During the late monstrous disturbance of the world, the great body of the Clergy, and, we trust, we also, amongst the rest, have remained unshaken in our attachment to your Royal House, and in persuading and exemplifying all due obedience to the laws of our country, and in enforcing those religious and social duties which are so essentially necessary to procure the favour of God, the prosperity of nations, and the peace and happiness of mankind.

We assure your Royal Highness, that we will never forsake this line of conduct; we trust also, that under the Divine blessing, the bad principles which have manifested themselves in the late conduct of a few, will be repelled and be effectually put to shame by the steady loyalty of the sensible and well-disposed multitudes who have crowded around your Royal Highness upon this disgraceful occurrence.

[Transmitted by the Bishop of Carlisle, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Members of the Guildry Incorporation of the ancient Royal Burgh of Dundee, grateful for the many blessings which we enjoy under the mild sway of the illustrious House of Brunswick, humbly beg leave to approach your Royal Highness, to express our attachment to your Royal Person, to His Majesty's Government, and to the venerable fabric of the British Constitution: and to declare our abhorrence and detestation of the conduct of those wicked and deluded people, who lately committed the gross outrage on your sacred Person when returning from the exercise of that most important branch of the royal functions, the opening of the Session of Parliament.

[Transmitted by W. Roberts, Esq. and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

WE, His Majesty's faithful and loyal subjects, the undersigned Magistrates, Clergy, and other Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Warrington, in the County of Lancaster, beg leave to approach the Throne with sentiments of unabated fidelity to your Royal Highness, and the warmest attachment to your illustrious House: Strongly impressed with these feelings, we assure your Royal Highness, that we contemplate with the deepest horror and detestation the late atrocious attack upon your Royal Person.

We cannot adequately express our happiness in being able to congratulate your Royal Highness and the nation at large, that the same Providence which many years ago interfered to save the life of our revered Monarch, under similar circumstances, has not at this time forgotten to be gracious to the people of this realm: from hence we are confidently led to hope and trust, that the same Almighty Power will turn the hearts of the few who have been deluded by factious and seditious men, and that the present age will be no more disgraced by disorder and tumult.

7th February 1817.

[Transmitted by J. Blackburn, Esq. and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble Address of the Provost, Magistrates and Town Council of the Royal Burgh of Kirkcaldy, in Council assembled.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Town Council of the Royal Burgh of Kirkcaldy, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with our most sincere congratulations, on your deliverance from the outrageous and treasonable attempt lately made on your Royal Highness's personal safety, when exercising one of the most important prerogatives conferred on you by that Constitution, under which the people of these realms have enjoyed so many signal blessings: we cannot sufficiently express our abhorrence of such nefarious deeds, and we beg leave to take this opportunity of testifying our unfeigned loyalty and attachment to His Majesty's Government, and to your illustrious House

We deeply lament the delusions, under the specious pretext of reform, which have been practised on many of His Majesty's subjects by artful and designing men, who have taken the advantage of the present distresses of the country, which we trust are only temporary, to mislead the credulous by the dissemination of wild impracticable theories, tending to the overthrow of our happy Constitution; but we place the most entire confidence in the wisdom, virtue, and firmness of His Majesty's Councils, and that of the two Houses of Parliament, not only to repress the daring spirit of disaffection at present unhappily existing, but also, as all human institutions are liable in course of time to partial imperfections, to correct and reform whatever to them may appear to require it.

That His Majesty, your Royal Highness, and your descendants may long continue successively to preside over a free, happy and loyal people, is, and shall be our earnest prayer.

Signed in name and by appointment of the Town Council, (the seal of the Burgh being also hereunto appended) by John Ford, Provost.

[Transmitted by Lieutenant General Sir R. Ferguson, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the President and Council, and the rest of the Members of the Royal Academy, beg leave most humbly to approach your Royal Highness with our warmest congratulations on your providential escape from the late atrocious outrage upon the sacred Person of your Royal Highness.

Although we should be most reluctant, through an officious or unauthorised zeal, to trespass on the attention of your Royal Highness, yet, peculiarly distinguished as we have been by the countenance and protection of your Royal Highness, we should consider ourselves as insensible to the interests of our country, as ungrateful for the favours which we have received, if we did not eagerly desire, at a moment like the present, to express those sentiments of loyalty and attachment which must ever bind us to your Royal Highness's Person and Government.

As Members of an Institution which exists by Royal Favour, and as Artists, particularly interested in the peace and good order of society, we must ever view with the deepest detestation all attempts to disturb the public tranquillity, or to endanger a life which is consecrated by the Invaluable Constitution under which we live, and in the preservation of which we not only feel the common interest of good subjects, but that more particular concern which the gracious patronage and experienced benefits of your Royal Highness must always excite in the hearts of the Members of the Royal Academy.

[Transmitted by the President and Council, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders, Justices of Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Banff, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with our sincere congratulations on your Royal Highness's providential escape, from the late daring and detestable outrage offered to your Royal Highness, on your return from opening the Session of Parliament; one of the most important duties attached to your exalted station.

Filled with amazement and indignation at such a flagrant instance of licentiousness, at once repugnant to the National feeling, and calculated to tarnish the National character; we beg leave to renew to your Royal Highness the assurance of our inviolable attachment to His Majesty's sacred person, crown and dignity.

At a time like the present, when we see attempts made to take advantage of the general distress, for the purpose of exciting a spirit of sedition and tumult, we consider it a duty, which we owe to our King and country, to declare to your Royal Highness in this public manner, our firm resolution to promote to the utmost of our power, a due submission to our wise and equal laws, and to lend our humble but zealous support, to those measures which may be directed to the great object of maintaining the public tranquillity, and of conveying unimpaired to latest posterity, the bright inheritance of freedom which we of this highly favoured kingdom, so happily enjoy.

Signed, at Banff, the 20th day of February 1817, in our name and by our appointment.

Thomas Gordon, Preses.

[Presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales,
REGENT of the United Kingdom.

WE, the Bishop, and Dean and Chapter, Archdeacons, and Clergy of the Dioceses of Exeter; beg leave to approach your Royal Highness, with the warmest sentiments of entire devotion and sincere attachment, and to express, however inadequately to our real feelings, our just abhorrence at the late atrocious and treasonable attempt against your Sacred Person, when returning from the performance of one of the important duties belonging to your Royal Highness's high station.

And whilst we contemplate with real concern, this deep stain on our National character, we cannot, at the same time, but console ourselves with thinking that the general mass of the country view this act in the same light that we do; and that so daring an outrage will tend to rally round your Royal Person, this United Kingdom, who gratefully feel that during your Regency, your Royal Highness has in the most glorious manner, and by the most undaunted firmness, terminated a long and desolating War; whereby not only your Royal Highness has placed this country amongst the first Nations of Europe; but above all, has secured to us the blessings of our invaluable Constitution, and essentially protected our religion, and our laws.

That your Royal Highness may long live, to reap the fruits of this your labour, is the united and sincere prayer of, Sir, your Royal Highness's most devoted, attached and dutiful servants.

To His Royal Highness George Prince REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Bishops of the Episcopal Church in that part of Great Britain which is called Scotland, beg leave to approach the Throne, and, after returning our humble and hearty thanks to Him, by whom King's reign, and Princes decree justice, to congratulate your Royal Highness and the British empire, on the providential protection of your Royal Highness's sacred Person from the late outrages of disloyal, violent and blood-thirsty men; and to express our own utter abhorrence and detestation, and the abhorrence and detestation of all those, both Clergymen and Laymen, who have committed themselves to our pastoral care, of that monstrous conspiracy, which seems to have been formed against a Constitution, which has long been at once the pride of Britons and the envy of surrounding nations.

It is with astonishment as well as sorrow, that we behold numbers of our fellow subjects attributing to the defects of that Constitution, those judgments which our manifold and crying sins have brought down from Heaven on our own guilty heads; and availing themselves of this pretence to excite a spirit of disaffection to that Government, which, under the wise and vigorous administration of your Royal Highness, in the name and on the behalf of His sacred Majesty, has been the chief instrument employed by Divine Providence to restore peace and harmony to Europe, distracted and harassed as it has been for many years, by all the miseries of war.

That He, who alone can stay the madness of those, who conduct themselves as if the seasons could be ruled by the decrees of human legislatures, will be pleased to open the eyes of the deluded multitude, and to confound the devices of those who delude them; that He will preserve your Royal Highness, as well from the machinations of secret, as from the violence of open enemies; that He will enable your Royal Highness to tread firmly, as you have hitherto trode, in the footsteps of our beloved Sovereign, your Royal Father; and that the sceptre of these realms, after being long held by your Royal Highness, may pass through many generations, to your Royal Highness's latest posterity, is the earnest prayer of, may it please your Royal Highness, His Majesty's and your Royal Highness's devoted subjects and servants,

Andrew Macfarlane, Bishop of Ross.
Alexander Jolly, Bishop in Fraserburgh.
Daniel Sandford, Bishop of Edinburgh.

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales,
REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble Address of the Mayor and Citizens of the City of Kilkenny.

May it please your Royal Highness;

WE, the Mayor and Citizens of the City of Kilkenny, feeling a most sincere abhorrence of the infamous attack made upon the sacred Person of your Royal Highness, beg leave to approach you with sentiments of our unalterable attachment and respect.

While we profess our horror and indignation at so treasonable an act, allow us to congratulate your Royal Highness on your most fortunate escape from a blow, aimed not only against the sacred life of your Royal Highness, but, through you, against the frame and existence of our invaluable Constitution.

May we then avail ourselves of this opportunity to express our most cordial attachment to the Person of your Royal Highness, and our sincere veneration for our excellent Constitution—to the defence and support of both which we are ready and willing to devote the utmost of our exertions.

Given under our seal, this 18th day of February 1817.

Wm. Kingsmill, Deputy Mayor.*

To His Royal Highness George, Prince of Wales,
REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble Address of the Noblemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Kilkenny.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Noblemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Kilkenny, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with sentiments of the profoundest veneration and respect.

Being devotedly attached to your Royal Highness and our most glorious Constitution, permit us to express our deep indignation at the late daring attack upon your Royal Person, from the hand of some infamous criminal.

We consider this horrible attempt as a design to pull down one of the main pillars of our excellent Constitution—to the perfect support and maintenance of which, with the sincerest loyalty, we beg leave to profess before your Royal Highness our willingness to devote our properties and lives.

The moment chosen for perpetrating this treasonable act, adds, if possible, to its atrocity, having been at a time, when your Royal Highness was exercising one of the highest duties of your exalted station.

We beg leave to offer our fervent congratulations to your Royal Highness upon your most providential escape, and we anxiously hope that the wretch, who could be induced to attempt the perpetration of so desperate a crime may be detected and brought to that punishment, which his guilt so justly merits.

Dated at Grace's Old Castle, in the County of Kilkenny, the 18th day of February 1817.

By His Royal Highness the PRINCE of WALES,
REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the Name and on the
Behalf of His Majesty,

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE, P. R.

WHEREAS George William Earl of Rothes was duly elected and returned to be one of the sixteen Peers of Scotland, to sit in the House of Peers in the present Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and is since deceased; in order to the electing another Peer of Scotland to sit in his room, We do, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, issue forth this Proclamation, strictly charging and commanding all the Peers of Scotland to assemble and meet at Holyrood-House, in Edinburgh, on Thursday the seventeenth day of April next, between the hours of twelve and two in the afternoon, to nominate and choose another Peer of Scotland, to sit and vote in the House of Peers of this present Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the room of the said George William Earl of Rothes, deceased, by open election and plurality of voices of the Peers that shall then be present, and of the proxies of such as shall be absent (such proxies being Peers, and producing a mandate in writing, duly signed before witnesses, and both constituent and proxy being qualified according to law), and the Lord Clerk Register, or such two of the Principal Clerks of the Session as shall be appointed by him to officiate in his name, are hereby respectively required to attend such meeting, and to administer the oaths required by law to be taken there by the said Peers, and to take their votes; and immediately after such election made and duly examined, to certify the name of the Peer so elected, and sign and attest the same in the presence of the said Peers the electors, and return such certificate into the High Court of Chancery of Great Britain. And We strictly charge and command that this Proclamation be duly published at the Market Cross at Edinburgh, and in all the county towns in Scotland, twenty-five days, at least, before the time hereby appointed for the meeting of the said Peers to proceed on such election.

No. 17225.

Given at the Court at Carlton-House, the first day of March, one thousand eight hundred and seventeen, in the fifty-seventh year of His Majesty's reign.

GOD save the KING.

By His Royal Highness the PRINCE of WALES,
REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the Name and on the
Behalf of His Majesty,

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE, P. R.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-sixth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to provide for a new silver coinage, and to regulate the currency of the gold and silver coin of this realm," the Master and Worker of His Majesty's Mint, in London, was authorised and empowered to coin, or cause to be coined, silver bullion into silver coins, consisting of crowns, half-crowns, shillings, and sixpences, of the standard of eleven ounces and two penny weights of fine silver, and eighteen penny weights alloy to the pound troy, and in weight after the rate of sixty-six shillings to the pound troy :

And whereas, in virtue of the powers so given, a coinage of half-crowns, shillings, and sixpences, at the rate of sixty-six shillings to the pound troy, and of the standard of fineness above-mentioned; every such half-crown piece having for the obverse impression the head of His Majesty, with the inscription "Georgius III. Dei Gratia," and the date of the year; and for the reverse, the ensigns armorial of the United Kingdom, contained in a shield surrounded by the Garter, bearing the motto "Honi soit qui mal y pense," and the collar of the Garter, with the inscription "Britanniarum Rex Fid: Def:" with a newly invented graining on the edge of the piece; every such shilling and six penny piece having for the obverse impression the head of His Majesty, with the inscription "Geor. III. D. G. Britt. Rex, F. D." and the date of the year, and for the reverse, the ensigns armorial of the United Kingdom, contained in a shield surrounded by the Garter, bearing the motto "Honi soit q mal y pense," with a newly invented graining on the edge of the piece, has been completed, part of which has been delivered for the use of His Majesty's subjects, and the remainder thereof is now ready to be delivered for the use of his Majesty's subjects; We have therefore, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, thought fit to issue this Proclamation; and We do hereby ordain, declare, and command, that the said pieces of silver money shall, from and after the day of the date of this Our Proclamation, be current and lawful money of the kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and shall pass and be received as current and lawful money of the said kingdom; that is to say, such half-crown pieces as of the value of two shillings and six pence; such shilling pieces as of the value of one shilling; and such six penny pieces as of the value of six pence, in all payments and transactions of money.

Given at the Court at Carlton-House, the first day of March one thousand eight hundred and seventeen, in the fifty-seventh year of His Majesty's reign.

GOD save the KING.

By His Royal Highness the PRINCE of WALES, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the Name and on the Behalf of His Majesty,

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE, P. R.

WHEREAS an Act was passed in the fifty-sixth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to provide for a new silver coinage, and to regulate the currency of the gold and silver coin of this realm;" and whereas in pursuance of the said Act, great quantities of new silver coin have been delivered in exchange for old silver coin, current before the passing of the said Act, and further quantities are now ready to be delivered for the use of His Majesty's subjects, and it has been represented to us that some old silver coin may still remain in circulation, and we have thought it expedient that no such old silver coin of this realm should continue to be current in payment at any time after the date of this Proclamation; We have therefore, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, thought fit to issue this Proclamation: and we do hereby ordain, declare, and command, that no piece or pieces of old silver coin of this realm, current at any time before the passing of the said Act, shall pass or be current in any payment whatsoever, within the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, at any time after the date of this Proclamation: and We do hereby strictly prohibit and forbid all and every person or persons whomsoever, from and after the date of this Proclamation, to receive or utter in payment any piece or pieces of the said old silver coin: and We do hereby strictly require and command all His Majesty's loving subjects strictly to conform to the orders hereby given, and to the directions and regulations enacted and required by the said Act of Parliament with respect to the cutting, breaking, or defacing of all such pieces of the said old silver coin as shall be of less value than the denominations thereof shall respectively import: and We being desirous as much as in Us lies to give ease to His Majesty's subjects, and to prevent their sustaining any loss or inconvenience on account of the currency of old silver coin being prohibited as aforesaid, do hereby, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, authorise, command, and require the officers of His Majesty's Mint, for the space of three calendar months after the date of this Proclamation, to receive by tale only all such old silver coin of the realm, current at any time before the passing of the said Act, which shall be brought by any person or persons whomsoever into His Majesty's Mint, or to any place to be appointed for that purpose by the Master and Worker of His Majesty's Mint, and which shall be of or above the several weights following, that is to say, all crown pieces which shall be of or above the weight of eighteen pennyweights, four grains, troy; all half-crown pieces which shall be of or above the weight of nine pennyweights, two grains, troy; all shillings which shall be of or above the weight of three pennyweights, fifteen grains troy; and all sixpenny pieces which shall be of or above the weight of one pennyweight, nineteen grains, troy; and to deliver out of the said Mint to every person bringing in and delivering such old silver coins, a sum in new silver coins equal to the amount of the silver coins so brought by any such person or persons as aforesaid, according to the respective denominations of such silver coins.

Given at the Court at Carlton-House, the first day of March one thousand eight hundred and seventeen, in the fifty-seventh year of His Majesty's reign.

GOD save the KING.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 1st of March 1817,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the present session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to continue and extend the provisions of an Act, of the forty-ninth year of His present Majesty, for regulating the trade and commerce to and from the Cape of Good Hope, until the fifth day of July one thousand eight hundred and twenty; and also for regulating the trade of the Island of Mauritius;" His Majesty is authorised, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, by any Order or Orders to be issued from time to time, to give such directions, and make such regulations touching the trade and commerce to and from all islands, colonies, or places, and the territories and dependencies thereof, to His Majesty belonging or in His possession, in Africa, or Asia to the eastward of the Cape of Good Hope (excepting only the possessions of the East India Company), as to His Majesty, in Council, shall appear most expedient and salutary, any thing contained in an Act, passed in the twelfth year of the reign of His Majesty King Charles the Second, intituled "An Act for the encouraging and increasing of shipping and navigation," or in an Act, passed in the seventh and eighth years of the reign of His Majesty King William the Third, intituled "An Act for preventing frauds, and regulating abuses in the plantation trade," or any other Act or Acts of Parliament now in force, relating to His Majesty's colonies and plantations, or any other Act or Acts of Parliament, law, usage or custom to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding: and whereas on the night of the twenty-fifth of September last, a dreadful fire broke out in the town of Port Lewis, in the Island of Mauritius, which totally destroyed the chief part of that town, together with a great mass of provisions and merchandise intended for the consumption and trade of its inhabitants, whereby a great number of families were reduced to extreme indigence, and left without a home; in consequence of which dreadful calamity the Governor of the said Island found himself compelled to open the ports of the Island to foreign vessels, in order to afford the speediest relief of which the case would admit, and thereby to save His Majesty's subjects residing in that colony from the greatest extremity of distress; and whereas it is expedient that facilities should in consequence be granted to the trade of the Island of Mauritius, for a limited time, with the view of giving still further relief to its suffering inhabitants; His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that all vessels, whether British or foreign vessels belonging to countries in amity with His Majesty, arriving at any port of the Island of Mauritius, or its dependencies, within twelve months from the date of this present Order, from any country in amity with His Majesty, laden with any articles the growth, production, or manufacture of any such country, excepting all articles composed of cotton, iron, steel, or wool of foreign manufacture, shall be permitted to enter and land their cargoes, and dispose of the same, in the said ports; provided always, that such articles, when imported in a foreign ship, shall pay a duty of two per cent. ad valorem, over and above what may be payable upon similar goods when imported in a British ship.

And it is further ordered, that every such vessel, arriving as aforesaid, shall be permitted to export a cargo, consisting of any articles of the growth, produce, or manufacture of the Island of Mauritius, or its dependencies, or of any other articles which shall have been legally imported there; and that all such articles so exported in foreign vessels, shall in like manner be subject to a duty of two per cent. ad valorem, over and above the duties (if any) which shall be payable on similar articles when exported from the Mauritius, or its dependencies, in British vessels.

It is, however, hereby further ordered and declared, that no foreign vessel, allowed by the terms of this Order to export a cargo from the Island of Mauritius, or its dependencies, shall be permitted to export such cargo to any of His Majesty's possessions. But that every British vessel which shall during the continuance of this present Order, have imported a cargo into any port of the said Island of Mauritius, or its dependencies, either from the United Kingdom, or from any other place, shall be permitted to carry back a return cargo, consisting of the articles aforesaid, to any place whatever, either belonging to His Majesty, or to any state in amity with His Majesty. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Chetwynd.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 29th of January 1817,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT,
His Royal Highness the Duke of York,
His Royal Highness the Duke of Clarence,
His Royal Highness the Duke of Gloucester,
The Archbishop of Canterbury,
The Lord President,
The Lord Privy Seal,
The Lord Steward,
The Lord Chamberlain,
Marquess of Winchester,
Marquess Camden,
Earl of Macclesfield,
Earl Bathurst,
Earl of Liverpool,
Earl of Chichester,
Earl of Mulgrave,
Viscount Melville,

Viscount Sidmouth,
Viscount Jocelyn,
Lord George Beresford,
Mr. Canning,
Mr. Bathurst,
Mr. Long,
Mr. Chancellor of the Exchequer.

By His Royal Highness the PRINCE of WALES, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the Name and on the Behalf of His Majesty,

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE, P. R.

WHEREAS on the twenty-eighth day of this instant month of January divers persons, riotously assembled and stationed in different places in the City of Westminster, proceeded to commit certain daring and highly criminal outrages, in gross violation of the public peace, to the actual danger of Our Royal Person, and to the interruption of Our passage to and from the Parliament; we therefore, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, in pursuance of an address from the two Houses of Parliament, do hereby enjoin all Magistrates, and all other His Majesty's loving subjects, to use their utmost endeavours to discover and cause to be apprehended the authors, actors, and abettors concerned in such outrages, in order that they may be dealt with according to law: And We do hereby promise, that any person or persons, other than those actually concerned in doing any act by which Our Royal Person was immediately endangered, who shall give information, so as that any of the authors, actors, or abettors concerned in such outrages as aforesaid, may be apprehended and brought to justice, shall receive a reward of

to be paid on conviction of every such offender; which said sum of one thousand pounds the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are hereby required and directed to pay accordingly: And We do further promise, that any person or persons concerned in such outrages as aforesaid, other than such as were actually concerned in any act by which Our Royal Person was immediately endangered, who shall give information, so as that any of such authors, actors, or abettors as aforesaid, shall be apprehended and brought to justice, shall, upon conviction of such offender or offenders, receive His Majesty's most gracious pardon.

Given at the Court at Carlton-House, the twenty-ninth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and seventeen, in the fifty-seventh year of His Majesty's reign.

GOD save the KING.

By His Royal Highness the PRINCE of WALES, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the Name and on the Behalf of His Majesty,

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE, P. R.

WHEREAS on the sixth day of December last, a reward of five hundred pounds was, by and under our authority, offered for the apprehension of James Watson the younger, late of Hyde-street, Bloomsbury, surgeon, who then stood charged upon oath, on a violent suspicion of having wilfully and feloniously attempted to kill and murder Richard Platt, on Monday the second day of December last, by firing a loaded pistol at and desperately wounding the said Richard Platt: And whereas a bill of indictment has since been preferred and found by the Grand Jury of the City of London, against the said James Watson the younger, for the said offence: and whereas the promise of the said reward of five hundred pounds for the apprehension of the said James Watson the younger, was, by and under Our authority renewed on the twenty-second day of January last; but the said James Watson has not yet been apprehended: And whereas the said James Watson the younger and Arthur Thistlewood, late of No. , Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, stand charged upon oath with high treason committed by them and sundry other persons, now in custody in the Tower of London; We, therefore in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, do hereby enjoin all Magistrates and all other His Majesty's loving subjects, to use their utmost endeavours to discover and cause to be apprehended the said James Watson and Arthur Thistlewood, in order that they may be dealt with according to law: And We are hereby pleased to renew the said promise of a reward of

FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS,

so made on the said sixth day of December, and renewed on the said 22d day of January last, to be paid upon the said James Watson the younger being apprehended and lodged in any one of His Majesty's gaols: And We do hereby promise, to any person or persons who shall discover and apprehend, or cause to be discovered and apprehended, the said Arthur Thistlewood, the like sum of

FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS,

to be paid in like manner, upon the said Arthur Thistlewood being apprehended and lodged in any one of His Majesty's gaols: And We do hereby strictly charge and command all persons upon their allegiance, not to receive or harbour the said James Watson and Arthur Thistlewood, or either of them: All persons offending herein will be thereby guilty of high treason: And We do hereby promise a like reward of

FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS,

to any person who shall discover and apprehend, or cause to be discovered and apprehended, any person so receiving or harbouring the said James Watson and Arthur Thistlewood, or either of them; to be paid upon the conviction of the person or persons so receiving or harbouring as aforesaid, which said several sums of five hundred pounds the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are hereby required and directed to pay accordingly.

Given at the Court at Carlton-House, the eighteenth day of February, one thousand eight hundred and seventeen, in the fifty-seventh year of His Majesty's reign.

GOD save the KING.

The above-named James Watson is a Surgeon by profession, and has been employed in that capacity on board a Greenland ship: He is a young man, apparently about twenty-three or twenty-four years of age, but is only twenty, dark hair, rather pale complexion, five feet five inches high, has a mark or mole with a few hairs on it, on his left cheek bone near the eye, the left eyelid rather dropping over the eye, very faint remains of small pox in his face, has rather a wide mouth, and shews his teeth, (which are very black) when he laughs; he sometimes wore a brown great coat, black under coat, black waistcoat, drab breeches and long gaiters, and at other times he wore a black coat and waistcoat, blue pantaloons, and Hessian boots; his appearance shabby genteel: he formerly lodged in Hyde-Street, Bloomsbury.

Arthur Thistlewood is about forty-five years of age, five feet eleven inches high, has a sallow complexion, long visage, dark hair (a little grey), small whiskers, dark hazle eyes, and arched eyebrows, a wide mouth, and a good set of teeth, has a scar under his right jaw, is slender made, walks very upright, and has much the appearance of a military man; was born in Lincolnshire, and apprenticed to an apothecary at Newark, and has been a lieutenant in the army; he usually wore a French grey coloured coat, buff waistcoat, grey coloured Wellington pantaloons, with Hessian boots under them, and at times a dark brown great coat.

AT the Court at Brighton, the 2d of January 1817,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by the Order of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent in Council of the third day of August last, for prohibiting the exportation out of this kingdom, or carrying coastwise, gunpowder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, will expire on the thirteenth day of February next; and whereas it is judged expedient, that the said prohibition, so far as applies to the countries hereinafter named, should be continued for some time longer; His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, doth, therefore, hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's service) do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the said thirteenth day of February next), presume to transport any gunpowder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa, or in the West Indies, or on any part of the Continent of America (except to a port or place, or ports or places, in His Majesty's territories or possessions on the Continent of North America, or in the territories of the United States of America), or ship or lade any gunpowder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any such ports or places on the Coast of Africa, or in the West Indies, or on the Continent of America (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf first obtained from His Majesty, or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of salt-petre, and to enforce the law for empowering His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gunpowder, or any sort of arms or ammunition, and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt-petre, gunpowder, or any sort of arms or ammunition;" and also by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His Majesty's reign, cap. 2, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval stores, and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt-petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council:" But it is His Royal Highness's pleasure, that nothing in this Order contained shall be construed to alter or repeal the Order in Council of the twentieth of May one thousand eight hundred and thirteen, for regulating the export of gunpowder and arms to the coast of Africa, under the conditions therein specified. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Jas. Buller.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed John Hatley Hawkes, of Dudley, in the county of Worcester, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

The Lord Chancellor has also appointed Henry Wells, of Ramsgate, in the county of Kent, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

Whitehall, March 1, 1817.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed Thomas Wilson, of Liverpool, in the county of Lancaster, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

The Lord Chancellor has also appointed William Jefferys the younger, of Sittingbourne and Faversham, in the county of Kent, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

Whitehall, February 28, 1817.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, on the night of Sunday the 16th, or in the morning of Monday the 17th instant, some evil disposed person or persons maliciously set fire to a stack of hay, the property of James and John Forster, Esqrs. standing at Murrell-Hill, near the city of Carlisle, whereby the greater part of the said stock was burned or destroyed.

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said felony, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person or persons who actually set fire to the said stack of hay), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof. SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY GUINEAS is hereby offered to any person (except as is before excepted), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof, or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring the said offenders, or any of them, to conviction, or cause them, or any of them, so to be apprehended and convicted as aforesaid:

Whitehall, February 28, 1817.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that about eight o'clock in the evening of Thursday the 6th instant. Mr. Pennington, of London, Wine-Merchant, was stopped in his gig between Vauxhall Gardens, in the neighbourhood of Birmingham; and the village of Saltby, near that town, by some persons, by whom he was robbed and inhumanly murdered.

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said atrocious act, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person or persons who actually perpetrated the deed), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof. SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED AND FIFTY GUINEAS is hereby offered to any person (except as is before excepted) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof, or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring the said offenders, or any of them, to conviction, or cause them, or any of them, so to be apprehended and convicted as aforesaid.

Whitehall, February 22, 1817.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that on Thursday evening the 13th instant, the Rev. Mr. Longuet, on his return on horseback from Pangbourn, in the county of Berks, was barbarously murdered between the hours of eight and nine o'clock, on the Oxford road, about three miles from Reading; that his head was nearly severed from his body; that several dreadful gashes were inflicted on the skull, supposed to have been done with a sword; and that five stabs, apparently made by a bayonet, had penetrated the heart;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said atrocious murder, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person or persons who actually committed the same), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof. SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of TWO HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered to any person (except as is before excepted) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof; or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring the said offenders, or any of them, to conviction, or cause them or any of them so to be apprehended and convicted as aforesaid: such reward to be paid on application to William Andrews, jun. Esq. Clerk to the Magistrates of the Reading Division.

Whitehall, February 12, 1817.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, on the evening of Tuesday the 21st of January last, a stack of wheat, belonging to Mr. John Jarvis, of Oadby, in the county of Leicester, and also a stack of wheat, belonging to Mr. John Varnham, of the same place, were maliciously set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said felonies, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person or persons who actually set fire to the said wheat stacks) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof. SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of THIRTY POUNDS is hereby offered by the Oadby Association to any person or persons (except as is before excepted) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof, or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring the said offenders to conviction, or cause them, or any of them, so to be apprehended and convicted thereof; the said reward to be paid by John Iliffe, Treasurer of the Oadby Association for the Prosecution of Felons.

TO THE RIGHT HONOURABLE THE LORDS COMMISSIONERS OF HIS MAJESTY'S TREASURY.

WE, Commissioners appointed by an Act of the 26th Geo. 3. cap. 31, intituled "An Act for vesting certain sums in Commissioners at the end of every quarter of a year, to be by them applied to the reduction of the National Debt," do hereby certify, that the Capital Stock which has been purchased by or transferred to us on account of Great Britain and Ireland consolidated, up to the 5th day of January 1817, inclusive, is as follows; viz.

		Capital Stock.			Interest or Yearly Dividend thereon.

Published by Authority of Parliament,

WILLIAM DOWDING, Receiver of Corn Returns.

TRIGONOMETRICAL SURVEY OF GREAT BRITAIN.

IT having been represented to the Master-General and Principal Officers of His Majesty's Ordnance, that certain mapsellers and others have, through inadvertence or otherwise; copied, reduced, or incorporated into other works and published, parts of the "Trigonometrical Survey of Great Britain," a work executed under the immediate orders of the said Master-General and Board, the said Master-General and Board have thought proper to direct, that public notice be given to all mapsellers and others, cautioning them against copying, reducing, or incorporating into other works and publishing, all or any part of the said "Tri-gonometrical Survey," or of the Ordnance maps which have been or may be engraven therefrom. "Every offender after this notice given, will be proceeded against according to the provisions of the Act of Parliament made for the protection of property of this kind."

By order of the Board,

R. H. Crew, Secretary.

Office of Ordnance, 24th February 1817.

Navy-Office, February 25, 1817.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice, that on Wednesday the 12th of March next, at ten

Navy-Office, February 20, 1817.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice, that on Wednesday the 12th of March next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for Conveying by land and water carriage, about 1177 loads of Oak Timber from Alice Holt Forest, in the county of Hants, to His Majesty's Yard at Deptford.

A form of the tender may be seen at this Office.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty; nor any noticed, unless the party, or an agent for him, attends.

Every tender must be accompanied by a letter addressed to the Navy Board, and signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £500, for the due performance of the contract.

R. A. Nelson, Secretary.

Royal Hospital for Seamen at Greenwich, September 25, 1816.

THE Commissioners and Governors of the said Hospital do hereby give notice, that, on Saturday the 12th day of April next, or as soon after as conveniently may be, the undermentioned farm will be let on lease, to commence on the 12th day of May next, for the term of ten years, that is to say, Thornbrough Town Farm, in the parish of Corbridge, in the county of Northumberland.

Such persons as may be desirous of taking the said farm, are requested to deliver or send their proposals, in writing, to John Dyer, Esq. at Greenwich-Hospital, so as that the delivery thereof at that place shall not be later than on Friday the 11th day of April next; and all such proposals as shall be received after that day will be returned as inadmissible.

Such alterations and additional buildings as may be thought essentially necessary by the receivers, and approved by the Directors of Greenwich-Hospital, will be made as soon as conveniently can be after the commencement of the term, the tenant being at the expence of leading all materials.

In the present and all future lettings by the Commissioners and Governors of Greenwich-Hospital, the tenants will be required to pay one moiety of the expence of the leases.

Mr. Anthony Wailes, of Bearl, will shew the farm; and Messrs. Forster and Wailes, upon being applied to at their Office in Newcastle-upon-Tyne, will give any further particulars which it may be necessary to require.

East India-House, February 25, 1817.

THE Court of Directors of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, do hereby give notice,

That a General Court of the said Company will be held at their House, in Leadenhall-Street, on Tuesday the 4th March next, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, for the purpose of continuing the consideration of the following proposition, viz.

"That the Court of Directors be requested to take into their consideration the nature of the Company's Institution at Haileybury, and how far it has answered, or is likely on its present plan to answer, the ends proposed by the resolution of the General Court of the 23th February 1805; and whether in their opinion, any seminary at the Company's expence in England be now advisable for the civil service, and if so, whether an establishment more in the nature of a school, where masters should attend at stated hours, having proper authority for the due enforcement of obedience, learning, and moral conduct, would not be preferable to a university or college? This Court, however, more especially requests the Court of Directors to consider, whether the expence at present incurred in maintaining the College, might not with great propriety be almost wholly saved, if, instead of compelling parents to send their sons to a particular seminary, the Court of Directors were to require of the youths intended for their civil service in India, a certain degree of proficiency in such languages and sciences as should be deemed necessary, the same to be certified by gentlemen of known learning and ability, appointed for that purpose? And whether in such case it would not be highly expedient and economical, to remove the Military Seminary from Addiscombe to the more commodious and spacious building at Haileybury? And that the Court of Directors be further requested to report their opinions on the different points herein referred to them as soon as convenient, and call an early and special General Court to receive and consider the same."

James Cobb, Secretary.

Lead-Office, February 27, 1817.

Notice is hereby given, that a General Court of the Corporation of the Governor and Company for smelting down Lead with Pit Coal and Sea Coal will be held at the Company's House, in St. Martin's-Lane, Cannon-Street, on Thursday the 27th of March next, at twelve o'clock precisely, being a Half-yearly Court, to consider of a dividend; and that the transfer-book will be shut on Wednesday the 12th March; and opened on Wednesday the 16th April.

Robert Tippler, Secretary.

English Copper-House, February 25, 1817.

THE Governor and Company of Copper Miners in England hereby give notice, that a General Court of the said Company will be held, pursuant to their charter, at their House, in Thames-Street, London, on Tuesday the 1st of April next, from eleven o'clock in the forenoon till one in the afternoon; for the election of a Governor, Deputy Governor, and ten Assistants, for the year ensuing, and to consider of a dividend; also that the transfer-books of the said Company will be shut on Tuesday the 11th of March, and opened again on Tuesday the 8th of April; and printed lists of the Proprietors of shares will be ready to be delivered at their said House, on Tuesday the 25th of March next.

London, February 28, 1817.

Office for the Duty on Post Horses, No. 16, Hyde-Street, Bloomsbury.

Pursuant to an Act, passed in the twenty-seventh year of the reign of His present Majesty King George the Third, and by order of the Commissioners for managing the Duties on Stamped Vellum, Parchment, and Paper; notice is hereby given, that the postmasters, innkeepers, and other persons licensed to let horses to travel post, &c. residing in the City of London and Liberty of Westminster, and within five miles of the Head Office for Stamps, or within the Weekly Bills of Mortality, are required to attend on Wednesday next the 5th day of March 1817, or either of the three following days, between the hours of ten o'clock in the forenoon and two o'clock in the afternoon, to bring in and deliver at this Office their several weekly accounts to Saturday the 1st day of March instant inclusive; and at the same time to pass the said accounts, and pay the money due thereon.

John Ramsden and Cornelius Hayter, Farmers of the said Duties.

No. 8, New Broad-Street, London,

March 1, 1817.

Notice is hereby given to the officers and company of His Majesty's ship Carron, that the accounts for distribution of the proceeds of the schooners Des Amigos and L'Hirondelle, captured on the 29th November 1814, will be exhibited in the Registry of the High Court of Admiralty, on the 10th instant.

EDWARD BAYLEY.

WANTED the next of kin of Edward Bayley, who intermarried many years ago with Ann Meir, only daughter of Mr. Stephen Meir, of the Parish of Saint Mary, Islington, Saddler, deceased.

The said Edward Bayley is understood, at one time, to have kept a chandler's shop in North-Street, City-Road, and afterwards to have resided in lodgings in Saint John's-Street, Clerkenwell, and is understood to have survived his said wife, who died about the year 1804, and to have married again after her decease, but to have died shortly afterwards.

The next of kin of the said Edward Bayley will hear of something greatly to their advantage on applying, by letter, to Messrs. Thomas and Robert Fenton, Solicitors, in Newcastle-under-Lyme, Staffordshire.

Notice is hereby given, that the Assignees of Richard Kerkham the younger, late of Spalding, in the County of Lincoln, Draper, Grocer, Dealer and Chapman, a Bankrupt, intend to offer for sale, at the White Hart Inn, in Spalding aforesaid, on Monday the 24th day of March 1817, between the hours of Eleven and Twelve o'Clock in the Forenoon, the outstanding debts due to the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt.—Dated this 26th day of February 1817.

To be sold by auction, before the major part of the Commissioners named and authorised in and by a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued and now in prosecution against Stephenson Thomas, of Handall-Abbey, in the Parish of Lofthouse, in the County of York, Cattle-Jobber, Dealer and Chapman, at the house of Thomas Marsh, the Cock Inn, in Guisbrough, in the said County of York, on Monday the 24th day of March instant, between the hours of Three and Six o'Clock in the Afternoon,

The manor or reputed manner of Handall, otherwise Grindall, in the Parish of Lofthouse, in the North Riding of Yorkshire; also a substantial messuage or farm house, with barns, stables, fold yard, and all other requisite conveniences, and a thrashing machine and flour-mill adjoining worked by water, of which there is constant supply, and 165 acres of land in appropriate inclosure late in the occupation of the said Stephenson Thomas; and thirty-five acres of ground in plantations, well stocked with variety of timber trees of about 26 years growth, in a very thriving and healthful state.

Also a messuage and a cottage occupied by labourers. The estate is entitled to common of pasture and turbarry, on a considerable tract of land adjoining, and right of shooting, &c. on the common, in respect of the manor, has been always exercised, and the whole is free from title when in the occupation of the owner. The estate is distant 2 miles from Lofthouse, 3 from Guisbrough, and 12 from the port of Whitby.

The common is well supplied with grouse and partridges, hares, pheasants, and woodcocks (in the season) are in abundant plenty.

The estate will be shewn on application to William King, of Lofthouse, and further particulars may be had of William Powell, Solicitor, Stokesley.

TO be sold by auction, before the major part of the Commissioners named and authorised in and by a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued and now in prosecution against John Wardell, now or late of Guisbrough, in the County of York, Money-Scrivener, at the house of Thomas Marsh, the Cock Inn, in Guisbrough aforesaid, on Monday the 24th day of March instant, between the hours of Three and Six o'Clock in the Afternoon, in the following lots, viz.

Lot 1. A farm called Black Moor Farm, consisting of a messuage or dwelling-house with barns, stables, and all other requisite outbuildings in complete repair, and 160A. 2R. 38P. of land, in a ring fence divided into appropriate inclosures, situate in the Township of Great Aytou, in Cleveland, in the said County of York, and within two miles of Stokesley, in the occupation of William Barker.

Lot 2. A messuage or dwelling-house, and five closes of land called Pillmoor-Closes, containing together 14A. or thereabouts, situate in the Township of Easingwold, in the said County of York, in the occupation of William Williamson.

Lot 3. Two cottages or dwelling-houses, with the appurtenances, situate in a street called Barrowgate, in Skelton, in Cleveland, in the said County of York, in the occupation of John Abbot and others.

The respective tenants will shew the premises, and further particulars will be furnished on application to William Powell, Solicitor, Stokesley, Yorkshire.

TO be sold by auction, before the major part of the Commissioners named and authorised in a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued against Francis Martin Fowler, of the City of Bristol, Merchant and Ironmonger, Dealer and Chapman, in obedience to an order of the Lord High Chancellor, by Mr James Williams, at the Commercial Sale Room, in the City of Bristol, on Thursday the 20th day of March instant, at One o'Clock in the Afternoon, the following freehold premises in lots, viz.

Lot 1. A substantial well finished dwelling-house, fitted up with every convenience, and a lawn in front, with a gig-house and stable, situate at Frenchay, in the Parish of Winterbourne and County of Gloucester, in the occupation of Mr. Fowler. Early possession may be obtained if desired.

Lot 2. Another substantial well built dwelling-house, also replete with every convenience, with a good garden, situate in Guinea-Street, in the Parish of Saint Mary Redcliff, in Bristol, in the occupation of Mr. Samuel Alloway, as tenant at will.

Lot 3. Another substantial new built dwelling-house and garden, No. 1, situate in Redcliff-Parade, in the Parish of Saint Mary Redcliff, Bristol, in the occupation of Miss Mary Hugo, as tenant at will.

To view the several lots, and for further particulars and conditions of sale, apply to Mr. Isaac Cooke, Solicitor, Bristol.

TO be sold by auction, by Mr. George Allen, by order of the major part of the Commissioners named and authorised in and by a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued against George Coltman, of Stourbridge, in the County of Worcester, Druggist and Grocer, Dealer and Chapman, on Friday the 21st day of March instant, at Three o'Clock in the Afternoon, at the Crown Inn, in Stourbridge aforesaid, subject to such conditions as will be then produced;

All that freehold messuage or dwelling-house, situate in the High-Street, in Stourbridge aforesaid, in the possession of the said George Coltman, adjoining the gate way of the said Crown Inn, with a third part of two necessary or privy houses, and all other outbuildings and privileges to the same belonging. The above messuage or dwelling-house is well situated for any retail trade. Mr. Coltman will shew the premises, and for further particulars apply to Mr. Robins, Solicitor, in Stourbridge.

TO be sold, some time in the month of May 1817, at the Hoppole Inn, in the City of Worcester, pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause, Hatton v. Lechmere, and others, before Sir John Simeon, Bart. one of the Masters of the said Court, in such lots as will be subsequently advertised, and subject to such conditions as shall be then and there produced;
