[Notice is hereby given, that a Gazette will be published on Thursday.]

Lord Chamberlain's Office, March 3, 1817.

HIS Royal Highness the Prince Regent will hold a Levee at Carlton-House, on Thursday next the 6th instant, at two o'clock.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 1st of March 1817.

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

HIS Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in Council, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, was this day pleased to appoint Thomas Spooner, of Hill-House, Ely, Esq. to be Sheriff of the counties of Cambridge and Huntingdon; and John Lloyd, of Trallwyn, Esq. to be Sheriff of the county of Carnarvon, in the room of Daniel Vawdry, of Plasgwynnant, Esq.

And His Royal Highness was pleased to make the following amendments upon the roll:

Somersetshire,	Philip John Miles, of Wraxnell, Esq. made Philip John Miles, of Wraxall, Esq.
Wills,	John Hungerford Penruddock, Esq. made John Hungerford Penruddocke, Esq.

By His Royal Highness the PRINCE of WALES, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the Name and on the Behalf of His Majesty,

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE, P. R.

WHEREAS George William Earl of Rothes was duly elected and returned to be one of the sixteen Peers of Scotland, to sit in the House of Peers in the present Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and is since deceased; in order to the electing another Peer of Scotland to sit in his room, We do, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, issue forth this Proclamation, strictly charging and commanding all the Peers of Scotland to assemble and meet at Holyrood-House, in Edinburgh, on Thursday the seventeenth day of April next, between the hours of twelve and two in the afternoon, to nominate and choose another Peer of Scotland, to sit and vote in the House of Peers of this present Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the room of the said George William Earl of Rothes, deceased, by open election and plurality of voices of the Peers that shall then be present, and of the proxies of such as shall be absent (such proxies being Peers, and producing a mandate in writing, duly signed before witnesses, and both constituent and proxy being qualified according to law); and the Lord Clerk Register, or such two of the Principal Clerks of the Session as shall be appointed by him to officiate in his name, are hereby respectively required to attend such meeting, and to administer the oaths required by law to be taken there by the said Peers, and to take their votes; and immediately after such election made and duly examined, to certify the name of the Peer so elected, and sign and attest the same in the presence of the said Peers the electors, and return such certificate into the High Court of Chancery of Great Britain. And We strictly charge and command that this Proclamation be duly published at the Market-Cross at Edinburgh, and in all the county towns in Scotland, twenty-five days, at least, before the time hereby appointed for the meeting of the said Peers to proceed on such election.

Given at the Court at Carlton-House, the first day of March, one thousand eight hundred and seventeen, in the fifty-seventh year of His Majesty's reign.

GOD save the KING.

By His Royal Highness the PRINCE of WALES, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the Name and on the Behalf of His Majesty,

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE, P. R.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-sixth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to provide for a new silver coinage, and to regulate the currency of the gold and silver coin of this realm," the Master and Worker of His Majesty's Mint, in London, was authorised and empowered to coin, or cause to be coined, silver ballion into silver coins, consisting of crowns, half-crowns, shillings, and sixpences, of the standard of eleven ounces and two penny weights of fine silver, and eighteen penny weights alloy to the pound troy, and in weight after the rate of sixty-six shillings to the pound troy:

And whereas, in virtue of the powers so given, a coinage of half-crowns, shillings, and sixpences, at the rate of sixty-six shillings to the pound troy, and of the standard of fineness above-mentioned; every such half-crown piece having for the obverse impression the head of His Majesty, with the inscription "Georgius III. Dei Gratia," and the date of the year; and for the reverse, the ensigns armorial of the United Kingdom, contained in a shield surrounded by the Garter, bearing the motto "Honi soit qui mal y pense," and the collar of the Garter, with the inscription "Britanniarum Rex Fid: Def:" with a newly invented graining on the edge of the piece; every such shilling and six penny piece having for the obverse impression the head of His Majesty, with the inscription "Geor. III. D. G. Britt. Rex, F. D." and the date of the year, and for the reverse, the ensigns armorial of the United Kingdom, contained in a shield surrounded by the Garter, bearing the motto "Honi soit q mal y pense," with a newly invented graining on the edge of the piece, has been completed, part of which has been delivered for the use of His Majesty's subjects, and the remainder thereof is now ready to be delivered for the use of his Majesty's subjects; We have therefore, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, thought fit to issue this Proclamation; and We do hereby ordain, declare, and command, that the said pieces of silver money shall, from and after the day of the date of this Our Proclamation, be current and lawful money of the kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and shall pass and be received as current and lawful money of the said kingdom; that is to say, such half-crown pieces as of the value of two shillings and six pence; such shilling pieces as of the value of one shilling; and such six penny pieces as of the value of six pence, in all payments and transactions of money.

Given at the Court at Carlton-House, the first day of March one thousand eight hundred and seventeen, in the fifty-seventh year of His Majesty's reign.

GOD save the KING.

By His Royal Highness the PRINCE of WALES, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the Name and on the Behalf of His Majesty,

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE, P. R.

WHEREAS an Act was passed in the fifty-sixth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to provide for a new silver coinage, and to regulate the currency of the gold and silver coin of this realm;" and whereas in pursuance of the said Act, great quantities of new silver coin have been delivered in exchange for old silver coin, current before the passing of the said Act, and further quantities are now ready to be delivered for the use of His Majesty's subjects, and it has been represented to us that some old silver coin may still remain in circulation, and we have thought it expedient that no such old silver coin of this realm should continue to be current in payment at any time after the date of this Proclamation; We have therefore, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, thought fit to issue this Proclamation: and we do hereby ordain, declare, and command, that no piece or pieces of old silver coin of this realm, current at any time before the passing of the said Act, shall pass or be current in any payment whatsoever, within the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, at any time after the date of this Proclamation: and We do hereby strictly prohibit and forbid all and every person or persons whomsoever, from and after the date of this Proclamation, to receive or utter in payment any piece or pieces of the said old silver coin: and We do hereby strictly require and command all His Majesty's loving subjects strictly to conform to the orders hereby given, and to the directions and regulations enacted and required by the said Act of Parliament with respect to the cutting, breaking, or defacing of all such pieces of the said old silver coin as shall be of less value than the denominations thereof shall respectively import; and We being desirous as much as in Us lies to give ease to His Majesty's subjects; and to prevent their sustaining any loss or inconvenience on account of the currency of old silver coin being prohibited as aforesaid, do hereby, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, authorise, command, and require the officers of His Majesty's Mint, for the space of three calendar months after the date of this Proclamation, to receive by tale only all such old silver coin of the realm, current at any time before the passing of the said Act, which shall be brought by any person or persons whomsoever into His Majesty's Mint, or to any place to be appointed for that purpose by the Master and Worker of His Majesty's Mint, and which shall be of or above the several weights following, that is to say, all crown pieces which shall be of or above the weight of eighteen pennyweights, four grains, troy; all half-crown pieces which shall be of or above the weight of nine penny weights, two grains, troy; all shillings which shall be of or above the weight of three pennyweights, fifteen grains troy; and all sixpenny pieces which shall be of or above the weight of one pennyweight, nineteen grains, troy; and to deliver out of the said Mint to every person bringing in and delivering such old silver coins, a sum in new silver coins equal to the amount of the silver coins so brought by any such person or persons as aforesaid, according to the respective denominations of such silver coins.

Given at the Court at Carlton-House, the first day of March one thousand eight hundred and seventeen, in the fifty-seventh year of His Majesty's reign.

GOD save the KING.

By His Royal Highness the PRINCE of WALES, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the Name and on the Behalf of His Majesty,

A 2

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE, P. R.

WHEREAS on the twenty-eighth day of this instant month of January divers persons, riotously assembled and stationed in different places in the City of Westminster, proceeded to commit certain daring and highly criminal outrages, in gross violation of the public peace, to the actual danger of Our Royal Person, and to the interruption of Our passage to and from the Parliament; we therefore, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, in pursuance of an address from the two Houses of Parliament, do hereby enjoin all Magistrates, and all other His Majesty's loving subjects, to use their utmost endeavours to discover and cause to be apprehended the authors, actors, and abettors concerned in such outrages, in order that they may be dealt with according to law: And We do hereby promise, that any person or persons, other than those actually concerned in doing any act by which Our Royal Person was immediately endangered, who shall give information, so as that any of the authors, actors, or abettors concerned in such outrages as aforesaid, may be apprehended and brought to justice, shall receive a reward of

to be paid on conviction of every such offender; which said sum of one thousand pounds the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are hereby required and directed to pay accordingly: And We do further promise, that any person or persons concerned in such outrages as aforesaid, other than such as were actually concerned in any act by which Our Royal Person was immediately endangered, who shall give information, so as that any of such authors, actors, or abettors as aforesaid, shall be apprehended and brought to justice, shall, upon conviction of such offender or offenders, receive His Majesty's most gracious pardon.

Given at the Court at Carlton-House, the twenty-ninth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and seventeen, in the fifty-seventh year of His Majesty's reign.

GOD save the KING.

By His Royal Highness the PRINCE of WALES, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the Name and on the Behalf of His Majesty,

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE, P. R.

WHEREAS on the sixth day of December last, a reward of five hundred pounds was, by and under our authority, offered for the apprehension of James Watson the younger, late of Hyde-street, Bloomsbury, surgeon, who then stood charged upon oath, on a violent suspicion of having wilfully and feloniously attempted to kill and murder Richard Platt, on Monday the second day of December last, by firing a loaded pistol at and desperately wounding the said Richard Platt: And whereas a bill of indictment has since been preferred and found by the Grand Jury of the City of London, against the said James Watson the younger, for the said offence: and whereas the promise of the said reward of five hundred pounds for the apprehension of the said James Watson the younger, was, by and under Our authority renewed on the twenty-second day of January last; but the said James Watson has not yet been apprehended: And whereas the said James Watson the younger and Arthur Thistlewood, late of No. , Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, stand charged upon oath with high treason committed by them and sundry other persons, now in custody in the Tower of London; We, therefore in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, do hereby enjoin all Magistrates and all other His Majesty's loving subjects, to use their utmost endeavours to discover and cause to be apprehended the said James Watson and Arthur Thistlewood, in order that they may be dealt with according to law: And We are hereby pleased to renew the said promise of a reward of

so made on the said sixth day of December, and renewed on the said 22d day of January last, to be paid upon the said James Watson the younger being apprehended and lodged in any one of His Majesty's gaols: And We do hereby promise, to any person or persons who shall discover and apprehend, or cause to be discovered and apprehended, the said Arthur Thistlewood, the like sum of

FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS,

to be paid in like manner, upon the said Arthur Thistlewood being apprehended and lodged in any one of His Majesty's gaols: And We do hereby strictly charge and command all persons upon their allegiance, not to receive or harbour the said James Watson and Arthur Thistlewood, or either of them: All persons offending herein will be thereby guilty of high treason: And We do hereby promise a like reward of

to any person who shall discover and apprehend, or cause to be discovered and apprehended, any person so receiving or harbouring the said James Watson and Arthur Thistlewood, or either of them; to be paid upon the conviction of the person or persons so receiving or harbouring as aforesaid, which said several sums of five hundred pounds the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are hereby required and directed to pay accordingly.

Given at the Court at Carlton-House, the eighteenth day of February, one thousand eight hundred and seventeen, in the fifty-seventh year of His Majesty's reign.

GOD save the KING.

The above-named James Watson is a Surgeon by profession, and has been employed in that capacity on board a Greenland ship: He is a young man, apparently about twenty-three or twenty-four years of age, but is only twenty, dark hair, rather pale complexion, five feet five inches high, has a mark or mole with a few hairs on it, on his left cheek bone near the eye, the left eyelid rather dropping over the eye, very faint remains of small pox in his face, has rather a wide mouth, and shews his teeth, (which are very black) when he laughs; he sometimes wore a brown great coat, black under coat, black waistcoat, drab breeches and long gaiters, and at other times he wore a black coat and waistcoat, blue pantaloons, and Hessian boots; his appearance shabby genteel: he formerly lodged in Hyde-Street, Bloomsbury.

Arthur Thistlewood is about forty-five years of age, five feet eleven inches high, has a sallow complexion, long visage, dark hair (a little grey), small whiskers, dark hazel eyes, and arched eyebrows, a wide mouth, and a good set of teeth, has a scar under his right jaw, is slender made, walks very upright, and has much the appearance of a military man; was born in Lincolnshire, and apprenticed to an apothecary at Newark, and has been a lieutenant in the army; he usually wore a French grey coloured coat, buff waistcoat, grey coloured Wellington pantaloons, with Hessian boots under them, and at times a dark brown great coat.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 1st of March 1817,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the present session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to continue and extend the provisions of an Act, of the forty-ninth year of His present Majesty, for regulating the trade and commerce to and from the Cape of Good Hope, until the fifth day of July one thousand eight hundred and twenty; and also for regulating the trade of the Island of Mauritius;" His Majesty is authorised, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, by any Order or Orders to be issued from time to time, to give such directions, and make such regulations touching the trade and commerce to and from all islands, colonies, or places, and the territories and dependencies thereof, to His Majesty belonging or in His possession, in Africa, or Asia to the eastward of the Cape of Good Hope (excepting only the possessions of the East India Company), as to His Majesty, in Council, shall appear most expedient and salutary, any thing contained in an Act, passed in the twelfth year of the reign of His Majesty King Charles the Second, intituled "An Act for the encouraging and increasing of shipping and navigation," or in an Act, passed in the seventh and eighth years of the reign of His Majesty King William the Third, intituled "An Act for preventing frauds, and regulating abuses in the plantation trade," or any other Act or Acts of Parliament now in force, relating to His Majesty's colonies and plantations, or any other Act or Acts of Parliament, law, usage or custom to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding: and whereas on the night of the twenty-fifth of September last, a dreadful fire broke out in the town of Port Lewis, in the Island of Mauritius, which totally destroyed the chief part of that town, together with a great mass of provisions and merchandise intended for the consumption and trade of its inhabitants, whereby a great number of families were reduced to extreme indigence, and left without a home; in consequence of which dreadful calamity the Governor of the said Island found himself compelled to open the ports of the Island to foreign vessels, in order to afford the speediest relief of which the case would admit, and thereby to save His Majesty's subjects residing in that colony from the greatest extremity of distress; and whereas it is expedient that facilities should in consequence be granted to the trade of the Island of Mauritius, for a limited time, with the view of giving still further relief to its suffering inhabitants; His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that all vessels, whether British or foreign vessels belonging to countries in amity with His Majesty, arriving at any port of the Island of Mauritius, or its dependencies, within twelve months from the date of this present Order, from any country in amity with His Majesty, laden with any articles the growth, production, or manufacture of any such country, excepting all articles composed of cotton, iron, steel, or wool of foreign manufacture, shall be permitted to enter and land their cargoes, and dispose of the same, in the said ports; provided always, that such articles, when imported in a foreign ship, shall pay a duty of two per cent. ad valorem, over and above what may be payable upon similar goods when imported in a British ship.

And it is further ordered, that every such vessel, arriving as aforesaid, shall be permitted to export a cargo, consisting of any articles of the growth, produce, or manufacture of the Island of Mauritius, or its dependencies, or of any other articles which shall have been legally imported there; and that all such articles so exported in foreign vessels, shall in like manner be subject to a duty of two per cent. ad valorem, over and above the duties (if any) which shall be payable on similar articles when exported from the Mauritius, or its dependencies, in British vessels.

It is, however, hereby further ordered and declared, that no foreign vessel, allowed by the terms of this Order to export a cargo from the Island of Mauritius, or its dependencies, shall be permitted to export such cargo to any of His Majesty's possessions. But that every British vessel which shall during the continuance of this present Order, have imported a cargo into any port of the said Island of Mauritius, or its dependencies, either from the United Kingdom, or from any other place, shall be permitted to carry back a return cargo, consisting of the articles aforesaid, to any place whatever, either belonging to His Majesty, or to any state in amity with His Majesty. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Chetwynd.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 1st of February 1817,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board, a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the twenty-seventh of last month, in the words following, viz.

WHEREAS by the Act of the fifty-sixth of His Majesty, cap. 104, intituled "An Act for the making more effectual provision for the prevention of smuggling, and rewarding officers and persons making seizures and capturing smuggling vessels; for licensing luggers employed in the North Sea fishery; and obliging exporters of excisable goods on drawback to give notice of shipment," it is provided, "that in case any ship or vessel liable to seizure or examination by that or any other Act of Parliament in force, shall not bring to on being required so to do, or being chased by any ship or vessel in His Majesty's Navy, having the proper pendant and ensign of His Majesty's ships hoisted, or by any ship or vessel employed in the prevention of smuggling, under the authority of the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury, the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, or the Commissioners of the Customs or Excise, having a pendant and ensign hoisted, of such description as His Majesty by any Order in Council, or by His Royal Proclamation under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, shall from time to time in that behalf order and direct, it shall and may be lawful for the Captain, Master, or other person having the charge or command of such ship or vessel in His Majesty's Navy, or employed as aforesaid (first causing a gun to be fired as a signal), to shoot at or into such ship or vessel so liable as aforesaid;"

And whereas we think it expedient, that all such ships and vessels employed in the prevention of smuggling as aforesaid, under our authority, or that of the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury, or the Commissioners of the Customs or Excise, should be allowed to wear, instead of the pendant and jack appointed by the Royal Proclamations, bearing date the eighteenth December one thousand seven hundred and two, and the first January one thousand eight hundred and one, to be worn by ships and vessels employed by the Commissioners for Customs and Excise, a pendant and ensign of the following description, viz.

A pendant with a red field, having a regal crown described thereon, at the upper part next the mast; and for an ensign, a red jack, with a union jack in a canton at the upper corner thereof next the staff, and with a regal crown described in the centre of the red jack; we beg leave, with all humility, to recommend to your Royal Highness, that your Royal Highness would be graciously pleased, by your Order in Council, or by your Royal Proclamation under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to direct and appoint, that all such ships and vessels as are or may be employed in the prevention of smuggling, under our authority, or that of the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury, or the Commissioners of the Customs or Excise, shall be allowed to wear a pendant with a red field, having a regal crown described thereon, at the upper part next the mast; and for an ensign, a red jack, with a union jack in a canton at the upper corner thereof next the staff, and with a regal crown described in the centre of the red jack, instead of the pendant and ensign appointed by the Royal Proclamations, bearing date the eighteenth December one thousand seven hundred and two, and first January one thousand eight hundred and one, to be worn by ships and vessels employed for His Majesty's service by the Commissioners for Customs and Excise.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed; and doth hereby direct and appoint, that all such ships and vessels as are or may be employed in the prevention of smuggling, under the authority of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, or that of the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury, or the Commissioners of the Customs or Excise, shall be allowed to wear a pendant with a red field, having a regal crown described thereon, at the upper part next the mast; and for an ensign, a red jack, with a union jack in a canton at the upper corner thereof next the staff, and with a regal crown described in the centre of the red jack, instead of the pendant and ensign appointed by the Royal Proclamations, bearing date the eighteenth December one thousand seven hundred and two, and first January one thousand eight hundred and one, to be worn by ships and vessels employed for His Majesty's service by the Commissioners for Customs and Excise:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Jas. Buller.

AT the Court at Brighton, the 2d of January 1817,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by the Order of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent in Council of the third day of August last, for prohibiting the exportation out of this kingdom, or carrying coastwise, gunpowder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, will expire on the thirteenth day of February next; and whereas it is judged expedient, that the said prohibition, so far as applies to the countries hereinafter named, should be continued for some time longer; His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, doth, therefore, hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's service) do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the said thirteenth day of February next), presume to transport any gunpowder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa, or in the West Indies, or on any part of the Continent of America (except to a port or place, or ports or places, in His Majesty's territories or possessions on the Continent of North America, or in the territories of the United States of America), or ship or lade any gunpowder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any such ports or places on the Coast of Africa, or in the West Indies, or on the Continent of America (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf first obtained from His Majesty, or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of salt-petre, and to enforce the law for empowering His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gunpowder, or any sort of arms or ammunition, and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt-petre, gunpowder, or any sort of arms or ammunition;" and also by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His Majesty's reign, cap. 2, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval stores, and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt-petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council:". But it is His Royal Highness's pleasure, that nothing in this Order contained shall be construed to alter or repeal the Order in Council of the twentieth of May one thousand eight hundred and thirteen, for regulating the export of gunpowder and arms to the coast of Africa, under the conditions therein specified. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of

His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions hereiu as to them may respectively appertain.

Jas. Buller.

THE following Addresses have been presented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent; which Addresses His Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously:

The dutiful and loyal Address of the Warden, Subwarden, Master, Fellows, Second-Master, and Chaplains of Winchester College, to His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Warden, Subwarden, Master, Fellows, Second-Master, and Chaplains of Winchester College, beg permission to lay before your Royal Highness our expressions of abhorrence excited by the late most atrocious attempts against the dignity and safety of your Royal Highness's Person, and to unite with all the loyal subjects of the British Empire, in congratulations on the preservation vouchsafed unto Your Royal Highness by Divine Providence.

On this interesting occasion, we would humbly assure your Royal Highness, that in addition to the reverence and obedience which we owe to your Royal Highness, as Regent of this United Kingdom, we feel a strong sense of peculiar obligation and gratitude for the distinguished manner in which your Royal Highness is most graciously pleased, as a munificent Benefactor, to encourage literary exertion in this our college.

Deeply impressed with a sense also of the especial importance of pious and loyal principles to every establishment of learned and religious education, we maintain such principles ourselves, and inculcate them by precept on the Scholars and other Members of this Society; and in conformity therewith, we earnestly pray that Almighty God may ever vouchsafe to promote the personal prosperity of your Royal Highness, and the general welfare of the British Empire.

Signed and sealed on this 27th day of February, in the year of our Lord 1817, in the name and on the behalf of Winchester College, by George Isaac Hereford; Warden.

[Transmitted by the Bishop of Hereford; and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland:

The humble Address of the Mayor and other Inhabitants of the Borough of King's Lynn, in the County of Norfolk, assembled on Thursday the 13th day of February 1817, at the Guildhall there.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's faithful subjects, humbly approach your Royal Highness with the strongest assurances of our loyalty and attachment, of our zeal also for the true principles of the Constitution of our Country as established at the Revolution, and in numerous and important instances improved during the present mild and benignant reign.

With these sentiments, and considering the sacredness of the Sovereign's Person as a wise and fundamental law of the land, we cannot but feel peculiar alarm and indignation at the receipt and atrocious conduct of a deluded and desperate set of men; and we beg to tender our warmest congratulations on the escape of your Royal Highness from personal injury.

Anxious to preserve inviolate every branch of the British Constitution, we must ever deprecate rash and turbulent modes of appealing to the public voice, whilst it is our earnest hope and trust, that whatever is wanting to render the form of our civil Government perfect and complete, will be accomplished at no distant period by the deliberative wisdom of the Legislature.

As Citizens of a free State, we set the highest value on the rights and privileges which we inherit and enjoy; and we beg leave, in the most sincere and solemn manner, to declare to your Royal Highness, that our zeal for the preservation of the Constitution is in proportion to this our estimation of its worth.

Signed on the behalf and at the unanimous request of the Meeting:

Robert Green, Mayor.

[Transmitted by Lord Walpole, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness;

WE, His Majesty's faithful subjects, the undersigned Inhabitants of the Borough of Reading, humbly beg leave to express our attachment to your Royal Highness's Person and Government; and our abhorrence of the late atrocious outrages committed against your Royal Highness, by deluded but wicked and audacious men.

We further humbly beseech your Royal Highness to receive our expressions of gratitude for the firmness and magnanimity by which your Royal Highness preserved our country's security and honour, and finally raised her to the highest summit of national glory; nor can we fail most gratefully to applaud and appreciate the recent sacrifice which your Royal Highness has made at the shrine of humanity and patriotism.

We are also anxious to declare our devotedness to that venerable Constitution, the best inheritance of Britons; which has so long secured the enjoyment of real freedom to our ancestors and to ourselves; and we therefore view with suspicion and alarm the projected changes in our political system, by ignorant or designing innovators.

We also deprecate and detest the continued attempts to mislead the judgment of our fellow subjects, and to excite the most malignant hostility against the constituted authorities, thereby leading to consequences fatal to true liberty, and even to all social order. We leave to the talent, virtue and experience of the Legislature, the consideration of the present state of our representation, with full confidence that it will deliberate and decide with wisdom and integrity, and that the result will be the happiness and welfare of a grateful people.

Transmitted by Sir John Simeon, Bart. and C. Shaw Lefevre, Esq. and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.

To His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great-Britain and Ireland.

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Inhabitants of the ancient Borough of Reading, in the County of Berks, in Common Hall duly convened by the Mayor of the said Borough;

With hearts imbued with loyalty to your Royal House, and with reverence for the laws and the Constitution of this realm, do humbly solicit your Royal Highness to accept the assurance of our utter detestation and abhorrence of the late most atrocious and highly criminal outrage committed against your Royal Highness, upon your return from opening the present session of Parliament.

We beg, in all truth and humility, to express to your Royal Highness that we are most fully aware, that however urgent the distress of the people, however desponding their condition, no such circumstances can justify or extenuate so daring and audacious an outrage, as on that occasion was offered to the Person and high authority of your Royal Highness.

We presume not to intrude upon your Royal Highness any observations upon the causes which have subjected the people of this our beloved country to an overwhelming weight of taxation, but the deep conviction we feel of the absolute and irresistible necessity of a great and efficient retrenchment in the national expenditure, impels us to offer to your Royal Highness our most sincere and grateful thanks for the recent magnanimous example your Royal Highness has graciously afforded, in sacrificing so considerable a portion of your revenue, for the furtherance of this great and indispensable object.

We beg leave to conclude by repeating to your Royal Highness the assurance of our most devoted and unalterable attachment to our Sovereign and the Royal Family, and to the Constitution of England, and we deprecate any innovation or alteration of the latter, beyond the reformation of certain acknowledged abuses, which the lapse of time, or the occasional prevalence of evil council may have introduced therein; and however desirous we may be to witness such a reform, we are determined enemies of all seditious, riotous or tumultuary proceedings for the attainment thereof; confidently trusting, as we do, that the Legislature in its wisdom and humanity, will hearken with complacency to the just complaints of the people, when brought in a legal and constitutional way under its cognizance.

W. B. Simms, Mayor of Reading.

To His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great-Britain and Ireland.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Bayliffs, and Burgesses and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Abingdon, in the County of Berks.

WE beg leave to approach your Royal Highness, as the representative of our venerable and beloved Sovereign, to express the sincerity of our attachment to the Person of your Royal Highness, and to His Majesty's Government; and the strong sense we entertain of the mighty benefits which this fortunate country has derived from the firm and durable settlement of the crown of these realms on that illustrious family, of which the father of your Royal Highness is now the head.

We contemplate, with the utmost abhorrence, the atrocious insult offered to your Royal Highness on your late return from Parliament, and deem it matter of great consolation to all good and loyal men, that no further mischief was done, by a misguided and lawless rabble, to the sacred Person of your Royal Highness, while in the exercise of your high and important function.

It will give us peculiar satisfaction to see the wicked and daring offenders discovered and brought to condign punishment, and it is our earnest prayer, that your Royal Highness may, under Providence, long continue to dispense the blessings of good government and a free Constitution to a contented and grateful people.

James Cole, Mayor.

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The Address and Petition of the undersigned Members of Guild, Burgesses, Trades, and Inhabitants of the Royal Burgh of Montrose, County of Forfar.

May it please your Royal Highness,

YOUR Petitioners humbly beg leave to express to your Highness their abhorrence of the daring outrage offered to your sacred Person, in returning from exercising the highest functions of your high office, in meeting the Lords, Spiritual and Temporal, and your faithful Commons in Parliament.

Testifying their deep regret that such outrage should have been perpetrated by any of His Majesty's subjects, lamenting their wickedness and folly, and assuring your Royal Highness of the loyalty and attachment of the Petitioners to your Royal and illustrious House, your petitioners embrace this opportunity of thanking your Highness for the generous and voluntary reduction of your establishment, for the relief of your people; an example which cannot fail to be productive of the most salutary effects.

Your Petitioners beg leave at the same time to lay their just complaints at the foot of the Throne, stating the intolerable pressure of taxation that overwhelms them, and the decay of their trade, manufacturers, agriculture, and navigation, by which means your petitioners are deeply oppressed: That your petitioners have no hope of relief from such evils, but by a reform in the representation of the people; in Parliaments of a duration not exceeding three years; by restoring to your faithful Commons in Counties and Boroughs, their old constitutional rights of election of all their functionaries and Representatives in Parliament.

May it therefore please your Royal Highness to grant the prayer of your petitioners, by passing into a law, such bill as may be prepared to accomplish these important objects.

And your petitioners shall ever pray that the Throne of these Realms may be for ever established in your illustrious House.

Montrose, February 17th 1817.

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales
REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the President, Council, and Members of the Royal Company of Archers in Scotland, constituted by Royal Authority, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with the expression of our indignation and abhorrence at the late desperate and atrocious attack made upon the Person of your Royal Highness, while returning from the discharge of one of the most important functions of Royalty, the opening of the Session of the Imperial Parliament.

Attached as we are by every tie of duty and of gratitude to the invaluable Constitution under which we live, we deeply lament the atrocious violence which has thus been offered to it in the Person of your Royal Highness, the depository of the Sovereign Power, and we unite with all our loyal fellow subjects, in an ardent hope, that those measures may be successful, which your Royal Highness has directed to be employed, for bringing to conviction and punishment the perpetrators of so daring and flagitious an outrage.

That the same Providence which in this instance hath so visibly interposed to guard the life of your Royal Highness, may long preserve you to exercise for the benefit of this Empire the Royal functions, is our earnest prayer.

Signed in presence, and by the appointment of a general meeting of the Council and Members of the Royal Company of Scotch Archers, held within their Hall, at Edinburgh, this 22d day of February 1817.

Elibank, President of the Council.

Unto His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

WE, His Majesty's most faithful subjects, the Freeholders, Clergy, Heritors, and other Inhabitants of the county of Kinross,

Beg leave with most profound respect to approach your Royal Highness, humbly to offer our most sincere congratulations on your escape from the outrageous attack made upon your Royal Highness, in returning from the important duty of opening the Parliament in its present Session.

No. 17226.

The life of the Heir Apparent to the Throne, has for ages been protected by the same salutary laws which guard the sacred Person of the King, and while the daring assailants of your Royal Person could not but be aware of the treasonable nature of their acts, the loyal People whom your Royal Highness has been called upon to govern, view with abhorrence this unprincipled violation of the wise institutions of their ancestors.

We consider it to be a most binding obligation imposed upon us by the laws, riveted by our attachment to our Sovereign, and to the Person and Family of your Royal Highness, and confirmed by our sense of what is expedient for the safety of the Realm, to unite with our fellow subjects in expressing our detestation at the lawless violence, which endangered your Royal Highness; it could spring only from minds lost to all sense of those inestimable blessings which are derived from a Government of mild, wise and equal laws.

The wicked spirit which dictated the attack, we trust, will be put down by the voice of the Nation, universally raised to express their devoted attachment to your Royal Highness, and their firm resolution at all times to maintain inviolate the Person of their Prince, and the Constitution of their country.

We are fully sensible of the distresses which now pervade these Kingdoms, and which press severely on all ranks of the community; we are convinced that a due observance of that subordination which the laws inculcate and enforce, is the first duty of the people; we feel assured that this disposition prevails throughout the district with which we are connected, and we humbly hope that by persevering in a judicious and well regulated system for alleviating the pressure of the times, where it is most severe, we shall best contribute in our station, to confirm that security to the Person and authority of your Royal Highness, so essential to the well being of the State.

Signed by order of the Meeting,

William Adam, Preses.

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

The humble and dutiful Address of the Magistrates and Town Council of the Royal Burgh of Selkirk.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Magistrates and Town Council of the Burgh of Selkirk, in Council assembled, beg leave humbly to approach your Royal Highness, and to express our abhorrence at the wicked and most atrocious attack lately made on the sacred Person of your Royal Highness, when returning from opening the present Session of Parliament.

We deplore most sincerely that in these kingdoms, which now for more than a century have enjoyed, under the family of your Royal Highness, and our excellent Constitution, so much of real and substantial freedom and happiness, there should be found individuals so insensible of these blessings, as to attempt what might at once have deprived the kingdom of the august Person at the head of the Government, which during the lamented illness of our venerable Sovereign, he has conducted so gloriously for the country, and thrown it into a state of the most frightful confusion; but, while we thus deeply deplore that such an attempt should have been made, we at same time feel the most perfect confidence that in these kingdoms, the sensible, loyal, and well-thinking part of the community, so far exceeds those who may entertain different sentiments, that all machinations and attempts of the disaffected, or of the ignorant who may be deluded by their specious, but most pernicious doctrines, will be successfully resisted, and the family of your Royal Highness, and the Constitution under which we live, long preserved a blessing to these realms: that this may be the case is the sincere wish and prayer of the Magistrates and Town Council of Selkirk.

In whose name, and by whose authority this is signed, and the seal of the Burgh appended, this 14th day of February 1817.

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

WE, His Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, the undersigned Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Mansfield, beg leave most respectfully to approach your Royal Highness, to express our strong sense of horror and indignation at the late violent and atrocious attack upon your Royal Person, committed at a time when your Royal Highness was returning from the discharge of one of the most important duties of your high station, as also our fervent hope that the persons concerned in this treason may be speedily detected and brought to deserved punishment.

We return thanks to the Almighty, for the signal display of his Providence, in the protection of your Royal Person on this momentous occasion, and we entreat your Royal Highness will accept the sincere assurance of our attachment to your illustrious House and Person, and our firm determination at all times, to strengthen the hands of the civil power, for the preservation of the peace and the maintenance of the laws and Constitution of this kingdom.

[Transmitted by John Need, Esq. and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriffs, and Common Council of the City of Gloucester, in Council assembled, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with expressions of abhorrence and indignation at the late daring and atrocious outrage offered to your Royal Highness's Person, on your return from the meeting of Parliament, and to tender our respectful assurances of unabated attachment to our beloved Sovereign, and to your Royal Highness's illustrious Family.

Actuated no less by our feelings, than by our duty, we shall ever be ready to rally round the Throne in the defence of our Sovereign, against all the efforts of foreign enemies and domestic traitors; fully assured that in the constitutional support of the Crown, we best maintain the rights and liberties of the people.

We have seen with the greatest concern the deficiency in the produce of the revenue in the last year, but we rely with confidence on your Royal Highness's gracious assurance that every reduction compatible with the safety of the Empire will be made in the national expenditure. A steady and unremitting attention to the great objects of economy and retrenchment, we humbly submit, can alone revive the native energy of the country, and enable it to surmount the difficulties and distresses under which it now labours, and we most humbly entreat your Royal Highness's gracious attention to the reform of abuses, and the abolition of useless expenditure, as the best proof of your Royal Highness's regard for the interests and happiness of His Majesty's subjects, and for the tranquillity and prosperity of his dominions.

Given under our common seal, at the Tolsey, in the said City, the 6th day of February, in the year of our Lord 1817.

Carlton-House, March 1, 1817.

This day His Excellency the Baron Fagel, Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary from His Majesty the King of the Netherlands, Grand Duke of Luxembourg, had an audience of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, to deliver a letter from his Sovereign, together with a letter from His Royal Highness the Prince of Orange, announcing the birth of His son, and requesting His Royal Highness the Prince Regent and Her Majesty to be godfather and godmother to the young Prince; to which His Royal Highness was graciously pleased to signify his consent. His Excellency was introduced to the audience by Earl Bathurst, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, in the absence of Viscount Castlereagh, and conducted by Robert Chester, Esq. Assistant-Master of the Ceremonies.

Crown-Office, March 4, 1817.

MEMBER returned to serve in this present PARLIAMENT.

County of Down.

The Right Honourable Arthur Hill, commonly called Lord Arthur Hill, in the room of the Honourable John Meade, who has accepted the office of His Majesty's Consul-General in Spain.

Whitehall, February 28, 1817.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, on the night of Sunday the 16th, or in the morning of Monday the 17th instant, some evil disposed person or persons maliciously set fire to a stack of hay, the property of James and John Forster, Esqrs. standing at Murrell-Hill, near the city of Carlisle, whereby the greater part of the said stock was burned or destroyed.

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said felony, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person or persons who actually set fire to the said stack of hay), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof. SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY GUINEAS is hereby offered to any person (except as is before excepted), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof, or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring the said offenders, or any of them, to conviction, or cause them, or any of them, so to be apprehended and convicted as aforesaid.

Whitehall, February 28, 1817.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that about eight o'clock in the evening of Thursday the 6th instant, Mr. Pennington, of London, Wine-Merchant, was stopped in his gig between Vauxhall Gardens, in the neighbourhood of Birmingham, and the village of Saltby, near that town, by some persons, by whom he was robbed and inhumanly murdered.

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said atrocious act, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person or persons who actually perpetrated the deed), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof. SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED AND FIFTY GUINEAS is hereby offered to any person (except as is before excepted) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof, or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring the said offenders, or any of them, to conviction, or cause them, or any of them, so to be apprehended and convicted as aforesaid.

Whitehall, February 22, 1817.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that on Thursday evening the 13th instant, the

B 2

Rev. Mr. Longuet, on his return on horseback from Pangbourn, in the county of Berks, was barbarously murdered between the hours of eight and nine o'clock, on the Oxford road, about three miles from Reading; that his head was nearly severed from his body; that several dreadful gashes were inflicted on the scull, supposed to have been done with a sword; and that five stabs, apparently made by a bayonet, had penetrated the heart;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said atrocious murder, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person or persons who actually committed the same), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof. SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of TWO HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered to any person (except as is before excepted) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof; or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring the said offenders, or any of them, to conviction, or cause them or any of them so to be apprehended and convicted as aforesaid: such reward to be paid on application to William Andrews, jun. Esq. Clerk to the Magistrates of the Reading Division.

Whitehall, February 12, 1817.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, on the evening of Tuesday the 21st of January last, a stack of wheat, belonging to Mr. John Jarvis, of Oadby, in the county of Leicester, and also a stack of wheat, belonging to Mr. John Varnham, of the same place, were maliciously set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said felonies, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person or persons who actually set fire to the said wheat stacks) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof. SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of THIRTY POUNDS is hereby offered by the Oadby Association to any person or persons (except as is before excepted) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof, or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring the said offenders to conviction, or cause them, or any of them, so to be apprehended and convicted thereof; the said reward to be paid by John Iliffe, Treasurer of the Oadby Association for the Prosecution of Felons.

TO THE RIGHT HONOURABLE THE LORDS COMMISSIONERS OF HIS MAJESTY'S TREASURY.

WE, Commissioners appointed by an Act of the 26th Geo. 3. cap. 31, intituled "An Act for vesting certain sums in Commissioners at the end of every quarter of a year, to be by them applied to the reduction of the National Debt," do hereby certify, that the Capital Stock which has been purchased by or transferred to us on account of Great Britain and Ireland consolidated; up to the 5th day of January 1817, inclusive, is as follows; viz.

LONDON.
 At the General Session of the Peace of our Lord the King, holden for the City of London, at the Guildhall, within the said City, on Monday the 17th of February, in the Fifty-seventh year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord George the Third, by the Grace of God of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland King, Defender of the Faith, before Matthew Wood, Esq. Mayor of the City of London, Sir Richard Carr Glyn, Bart. Sir John Perring, Bart. Sir Charles Flower, Bart. George Scholey, Esq. Aldermen of the said City, Sir John Slivester, Bart. Recorder of the said City, Christopher Smith, Esq. William Heygate, Esq. others of the Aldermen of the said City, and others their Fellows, Justices of our said Lord the King, assigned to keep the Peace of our said Lord the King within the said City; and also to hear and determine Divers Felonies, Trespases, and other Misdeeds committed within the said City;

BE it remembered, That the Inspector of Corn Returns hath, in open Court, presented and delivered to the Lord Mayor, Recorder, and Aldermen, assembled at this present Session, a certain book, into which the states or accounts of the aggregate quantities, prices, and average prices of English barley, beans, pease, rye, wheat, and oats, bona fide sold and delivered from the 11th of November last to the 8th of February last, by each and every person carrying on the trade or business of a corn-factor in the City of London or suburbs thereof, have been made up, formed, computed, and distinguished, and fairly and properly inserted; and hath verified upon his oath, that the same have been fairly, correctly, and properly made up, formed, and computed, to the best of his power, skill and judgment, and according, so far as in him lay, to the true intent and tenor of the Act of Parliament in that behalf; and the general average prices of each of the said respective sorts of corn and grain thereby appearing to the said Lord Mayor, Recorder, and Aldermen, they do, in pursuance of the said Act, deem and certify the same to be as follows, viz.

Barley	2	10	7	} Average price per quarter on the last six weeks.
Beans	2	12	5
Pease	3	4	6
Rye	3	7	7
Wheat	5	8	4
Oats	1	13	0	} Average price per quarter on the last twelve weeks.

And do hereby order and direct, that the said general average prices be published in the London Gazette once in four several weeks immediately succeeding this present Session.

By the Court,
 THOMAS SHELTON, Clerk of the Peace.

TO be sold by auction, by Mr. William Spelman (by order of the Commissioners under a Commission of Bankruptcy awarded against James Lepingwell), on Thursday the 13th day of March 1817, at Four o'Clock in the Afternoon, at the Star Tavern, on the Quay, Great Yarmouth, Norfolk, the following estates and property, in four lots;

Lot 1. All that freehold office of fish-houses, situate in Great Yarmouth, in a quay row, called or known by the name of the Greenland-Whale-Fishery-Row, consisting of five fish-houses, divided into rooms, and in all capable of hanging about fifty lasts of herrings, with the loaves, salt-house, barfe-house, barrel-chamber, sleeping-rooms, and billet-yard thereto belonging, and the pump and pump-house adjoining (saving the right of the occupiers of several tenements to take water therefrom, contributing proportionably to the expence thereof), all in good repair, the said fish-houses having been lately new roofed, the whole now unoccupied. Immediate possession may be had.

Lot 2. A compact and convenient dwelling-house, situate in South Town, otherwise Little Yarmouth, in the County of Norfolk, on the West side of the Great-Road, and near to the Town of Great Yarmouth aforesaid, in a place called Saint Mary's-Terrace, consisting of a kitchen, parlour, four sleeping rooms, and wash-house, with a small garden in front thereof, convenient offices, and also a large ware-house or building lately erected for keeping nets in as the said premises are now in the occupation of the said James Lepingwell. This lot is leasehold for a term, of which forty-seven years were unexpired the 5th day of January last, at an apportioned yearly rent of 14s. and is free from the payment of land-tax. Possession may be had at Midsummer next.

Lot 3. All that good fishing boat or vessel called the Trafalgar, of thirty-five tons or thereabouts, with the sails, masts, rigging, bulk-head, boards, and furniture thereto belonging. This vessel is now lying in the yard of Mr. Holmes, Shipwright, Yarmouth, and has lately undergone a complete repair.

Lot 4. One moiety or half part of all that good fishing boat or vessel called the Speedy, of twenty-eight tons or thereabouts, with the sails, masts, rigging, bulk-head, boards, and furniture thereto belonging. This vessel is now lying in Lovell's-Dock, Yarmouth, and has lately been doubled.

For further particulars apply to the Auctioneer, or to Messrs. Bignold and Brightwell, Solicitors, Norwich.
