

As subjects of His Majesty's Government, and members of the established Church of Scotland, we pledge ourselves to use our utmost endeavours to impress upon the people under our charge, those feelings of attachment and veneration to your Royal Highness's family, and to that excellent Constitution under which we have enjoyed so many blessings civil and religious.

Under these impressions we trust that the authors and abettors of the late traitorous outrage shall be brought to deserved punishment, and that all who aim at the subversion of our admirable Constitution, shall have their counsels turned into foolishness.

That the God and Father of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, may bestow upon your Royal Highness every temporal and spiritual blessing; and that at last, through the merits and mediation of our Redeemer, you may receive a crown of glory which fadeth not away, is the fervent prayer of, may it please your Royal Highness, your Royal Highness's, most devoted, and faithful servants and subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Dunfermline

Signed in name, in presence and by appointment of the Presbytery of Dunfermline.

Alexander Thomson, Moderator.

Dunfermline, 26th February 1817.

[Transmitted by the Rev. Alex. Thomson, Moderator, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

WE, the Inhabitants of the Borough of Totnes, beg leave to offer our warm congratulations to your Royal Highness on your happy escape from the late atrocious attack on your Royal Highness's Person. Attached to the principles of our invaluable Constitution, we cannot but view with just indignation such flagrant breaches of the public peace in an attack upon the Representative of our beloved Sovereign. This feeling of reprehension is one in which we are assured all classes of His Majesty's subjects must cordially participate. We regret that the state of the public mind is such, that we cannot permit this opportunity to elapse without mingling with our congratulations on your Royal Highness's personal safety, our earnest entreaties that your Royal Highness will be pleased to institute an immediate enquiry into the state of the nation—to reduce our enormous military establishments—to abolish all unnecessary places and sinecures—to enforce through every department of your Royal Highness's Government the most rigid economy in the application and expenditure of the public money—and, lastly, to recommend to your Royal Highness's Ministers their acquiescence in a constitutional reform in the representation of the people, thus allaying the irritation of the public mind, giving joy to all the really loyal friends of the Constitution, and securing your Royal Highness from a recurrence of the outrages we condemn.

[Transmitted by Lord Ebrington, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Comonalty of the City of Durham, in Common Council assembled, humbly beg leave to offer to your Royal Highness the expression of our detestation of the daring and disgraceful outrage committed against your Royal Person, upon your return from exercising one of the most important functions of the Executive Government of this country, and the expression of our abhorrence of this gross violation of the law, by whomsoever perpetrated.

And, on this occasion, we humbly trust your Royal Highness will permit us to declare our firm declaration to support the Constitution and offended laws of this realm.

Given under our common seal, the 10th day of February, in the year of our Lord 1817.

Thos. Austin, Mayor.

[Presented by Mr. Allan.]

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Corporation, and other Inhabitants of the Borough and Town of Great Torrington, in the County of Devon, and the Neighbourhood, most humbly approach your Royal Highness with feelings of the deepest indignation and abhorrence at the outrageous and treasonable assault made upon your Royal Highness in your return from the exercise of that Imperial office, most important to the welfare of the State, and to every class of His Majesty's subjects.

While we offer our hearty and sincere congratulations on your providential escape from this most daring and flagitious attempt, we beg leave to assure your Royal Highness of our duty and loyalty to the King, and our zealous attachment to our happy Constitution, which we are determined, by every means in our power, to preserve pure and inviolate against all the attempts and encroachments of the designing and disaffected.

Guildhall, Great Torrington, 10th February 1817.

[Presented by Lord Rolle, the Recorder.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble Address of the Mayor and Inhabitants of the City of Exeter.

WE, His Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor and Inhabitants of the City of Exeter, in Guildhall assembled, most humbly approach your Royal Highness, with feelings of the deepest concern and indignation, at the desperate and treasonable attack which the atrocious fury of a lawless populace has dared to commit on the sacred Person of your Royal Highness, while returning from the exercise of that part of the Imperial functions, most important to the welfare of every class of His Majesty's people.

Your Royal Highness will deign to accept our sincerest congratulations at your providential es-
