SATURDAY, MARCH 22, 1817.

Westminster, March 21, 1817.

THIS day, the Lords being met, a message was sent to the Honourable House of Commons by the Deputy Usher of the Black Rod, acquainting them, that The Lords, authorised by virtue of a Commission under the Great Seal, signed by the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, for declaring His Majesty's Royal Assent to several Acts agreed upon by both Houses, do desire the immediate attendance of the Honourable House in the House of Peers to hear the Commission read; and the Commons being come thither, the said Commission, empowering the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, and several other Lords therein named, to declare and notify the Royal Assent to the said Acts, was read accordingly, and the Royal Assent given to

An Act for punishing mutiny and desertion, and for the better payment of the army and their quarters.

An Act for the regulating of His Majesty's royal marine forces while on shore.

An Act to continue, until the fifth day of July one thousand eight hundred and eighteen, an Act of the forty-sixth year of His present Majesty, for granting an additional bounty on the exportation of the silk manufactures of Great Britain.

An Act to indemnify such persons in the United Kingdom as have omitted to qualify themselves for offices and employments, and for extending the time limited for those purposes respectively, until the twenty-fifth day of March one thousand eight hundred and eighteen; and to permit such persons in Great Britain as have omitted to make and file affidavits of the execution of indentures of clerks to attornies and solicitors, to make and file the same on or before the first day of Hilary Term one thousand eight hundred and eighteen.

THE following Addresses have been presented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent; which Addresses His Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously:

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

WE, the most loyal and dutiful subjects of His Majesty, the Bishop of the Diocese of Winchester, the Reverend the Dean and Prebendaries of the Cathedral Church of Winchester, with the other Members of the said Church, the Chancellor and Archdeacons of the said Diocese, together with the Clergy of the same, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness to express our utmost detestation of the most wicked and atrocious attempt to take away the Life of your Royal Highness, the most valuable and precious security we enjoy, for that happiness, prosperity, and good order, which, we know how to value, and which, we confidently promise ourselves we shall continue to enjoy under your auspicious Government and protection, anxious, at all times, to turn the blessings of that peace which the wisdom of your counsels has procured for us, to the purposes of religion, loyalty, and virtue.

We daily offer our prayers to God for the long continuance of those blessings, the fair prospect of which is open to us by the exercise of every public and domestic virtue which so highly distinguish your Royal Highness, both in your public and private character, and which hath laid the surest foundation for the future happiness of your people, together with your own, and ensured to your Royal Highness that glory and prosperity, which is the never-failing reward of every good and virtuous King, in the love and affection of a grateful people.

[Transmitted by the Bishop of Winchester, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth]

To His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Bishop and Clergy of the Diocese of Landaff, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with sentiments of the most profound veneration, and to offer our sincere congratulations on the providential escape of your Royal Highness from the late traitorous attack on your highly valuable life. —We are unable to express in adequate terms our indignation at such an outrage, the more atrocious, as it was committed at the very time when your Royal Highness was engaged in fulfilling those sacred duties of the Crown, which form an essential part in our excellent Constitution.

We beg permission to assure your Royal Highness of our firm attachment to our gracious and venerable Sovereign, and to the Person and Government of your Royal Highness. In conformity with these sentiments, we will endeavour, as Ministers of the Gospel, to propagate, both in our discourses and in our conversations, such religious doctrines, as shall unite the honour of the King with the fear of God.

[Transmitted by the Bishop of Landaff, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George, Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

WE, the Mayor, Jurats, and Commonalty, Freeholders, and other principal Inhabitants of the ancient Town of Rye and neighbourhood, humbly beg leave to approach your Royal Highness, with the offer of our most sincere congratulations on your Royal Highness's providential escape from the attempts of violent men, who, we grieve to suppose, bear the name of Englishmen.

In a country like this, so peculiarly blessed with a Constitution, the envy and glory of the world, maintained for half a century by the wisdom and virtue of our beloved and gracious King, and continued under the wise Government of your Royal Highness, we could not have supposed from our sense of the blessings we enjoy, that treason could have existed; we deeply lament the evil, and beg leave humbly to offer to your Royal Highness the assurance of our fidelity to our most happy Constitution, and to your Royal House.

[Transmitted by Thomas Davis Lamb, Esq. Mayor of Rye, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Magistrates, Council, Burgesses, and whole body of the Inhabitants of the united Burghs of Fortrose and Rosemarkie, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with the expression of our detestation and abhorrence of the treasonable and daring outrage, offered to your sacred and Royal Person when returning from fulfilling the high and important duties of your station, in opening the Session of Parliament, and we offer our most unfeigned congratulations, that so atrocious an attempt has proved abortive.

It is with feelings of indignation and disgust, that we observe the artful and insidious attempts made to mislead the minds, and stir up the worst passions, of the lower classes; partly by means of inflammatory publications, and partly by the speeches of demagogues at factious meetings, audaciously assuming to themselves the voice of the people, thereby libelling the loyalty and fidelity of His Majesty's subjects.

Whilst we have been contemplating, with pride and gratitude, the vigorous measures of your Royal Highness, and the plans pursued with so much perseverance and success, which have raised our country to the highest pitch of glory, and to the admiration of Europe, we most sincerely lament that the nation should be disgraced by profligate men, imposing on the ignorance of the multitude, and exciting them to sedition and rebellion, under the delusive pretext of a reform in Parliament.

Although we, in common with our fellow subjects, deplore the general distress, arising from a combination of circumstances, which no human effort could controul, yet we observe with satisfaction, that the people of the surrounding districts, uncontaminated by revolutionary principles, are struggling under their difficulties, with fortitude and patience, and, by their industrious exertions, gradually overcoming them.

We further beg leave to avail ourselves of this opportunity of expressing our affectionate attachment to our venerable Sovereign,—to your Royal Highness's Person,—and to your Illustrious House, with which, we are deeply sensible, the liberties of this country are closely identified; and we pledge ourselves to support the Government of your Royal Highness, as by law established, and to maintain inviolate our glorious Constitution, with our lives and properties.

Signed in our name, and given under our seal, at Fortrose, this 12th day of March 1817.

Alexander Mackenzie, Provost.

[Transmitted by Charles Grant, Esq. Jun. and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

WE, the undersigned inhabitants of the parish of Riseley, although obscure individuals, and living in a village, deem it incumbent on us as dutiful and loyal subjects of Great Britain, to declare our sentiments on the present state of public affairs.

We are aware of the distresses which affect every class of the community, especially the poor, and are desirous that every lawful means be used for their relief, and we confidently hope and believe that the national resources are not radically impaired, but merely under a partial and temporary obstruction; that the difficulties we have to endure will, by the enlightened policy of Ministers, be overcome, and that the agriculture, manufactures and commerce of the country will soon revive, flourish and increase.

We are at the same time satisfied that nothing can tend more to retard the accomplishment of our hopes and wishes, the good designs of our Sovereign, and the blessings of God upon us, than the methods resorted to of late by designing and evil-minded men, to persuade their hearers and readers that a speedy remedy is to be found in measures, which, under specious pretences, would effect the complete subversion of the Constitution. We are, moreover, convinced, that such novelties as annual Parliaments and universal suffrage are inapplicable to the nature as well as to the state of the Empire; nor can any Government long or happily exist on such incoherent and self-destroying principles. To these endeavours may be traced the criminal excesses and treasonous practises, which have lately disgraced the metropolis and other parts of the Empire; in which, the self-sent delegates would persuade the simple and misguided populace, that they are abridged of their liberties, and deprived of their privileges; when the language they are unhappily, with impunity, permitted to use, the means they are allowed to employ, and the tumults they are suffered to excite, are such as are tolerated in no other civilised country; palpably refuting their unfounded calumnies, and pronouncing at the same time the loudest encomium on the abused freedom of Britons. Instead of murmuring under our embarrassments, and, above all, ascribing them to our Government; we believe that they are partly to be attributed to the inscrutable dispensations, and merciful though afflictive chastisements of Providence for our national and personal sins; and partly to the unavoidable consequence of the return to peace, after a long and arduous war, in which by our example and counsel, our fleets and armies, our blood and treasures, legitimate Sovereigns have been reinstated in their lost dominions, Europe has been delivered from the hand of oppression, and the British name and character has been raised, if possible, beyond its former elevation in the scale of nations, under the protection, and with the assistance and blessing of Almighty God.

Experiencing so many mercies, we cannot doubt that the hand of Providence will again be opened to us; that when things find their natural level, our income will equal our expenditures; and that England, already the queen and benefactress, will again become the emporium of nations. In this hope we are strengthened and confirmed, as well from other reasons as from the noble sacrifices lately made, and therein the disposition evinced by His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, the economy and retrenchment practised by His Majesty's Ministers, and the self-denial of other illustrious individuals, all of which tend to shew a determination to make every sacrifice consistent with the security and dignity of the Crown, the proper discharge of official duties, the inviolability of vested right, and the rewards due to distinguished merit, and eminent public service. But all our hopes depend, under God, on the loyal obedience and cheerful submission of His Majesty's subjects, at these trying times of public calamity; and we therefore are convinced that the proceedings of the disaffected, unless promptly repressed, must and will lead to scenes of anarchy and blood, too appalling to contemplate, involving their own ruin with the hurt and damage of their country.

While we express our unfeigned regret at the too-long-permitted recurrence of these disgraceful, seditious, and outrageous assemblages of the self-styled patriots and their seduced adherents, we are overwhelmed with horror, and know not how adequately to express our indignation, at the still more atrocious insult and treasonous assault, which has been recently committed against the sacred Person of the Prince Regent, and thereby against the kingly office and authority, on his return from the Lords House of Parliament, in the exercise of the solemn and important functions of our venerable, beloved and afflicted Monarch.

Deeply lamenting that such outrages should have occurred, and at the same time, glorying in, and grateful for the undisturbed and unabridged possession of more personal liberties than ever were enjoyed by any other people, we, as true Britons, and faithful subjects of a gracious King, feel it to be a solemn and imperious duty which we owe to our country, to protest against these unconstitutional assemblages, the above fruits of which we have seen, and do so much lament, firmly believing, that the object thereof is, under the name of reform, to effect a revolution in the country, of a Government, the envy and admiration of every other nation, and the bulwark and glory of our own; containing in it every thing that is necessary for the power, freedom, honour, and happiness of a people; and also, though unimportant as a parish, to pledge ourselves, as we hereby do, collectively and individually, to do all in our power, at any sacrifice, by precept and example, influence and interest, endeavour and exertion, to support the just exercise of the authority of Government, to promote obedience to the laws, loyalty to our Prince, and to support and maintain, as far as in us lies, the Constitution, both in Church and State, as by law established; convinced that they both must stand or fall together, determined to resist every attempt, whether of force or fraud, that may be directed against the Monarchy or Hierarchy, our civil liberty or social peace, with all that is dear to us, as men, as subjects, as churchmen and as Britons.

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales,
REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

WE, the Grand Jury of the County of Nottingham, now assembled, most respectfully approach your Royal Highness with the assurance of our sincere congratulations upon your Royal Highness's happy and providential escape from the late wicked and atrocious attack upon your Royal Person. We also beg leave to express our firm attachment to your Royal Person and to the Constitution of our Country, and our abhorrence of every detestable attempt to injure the one or subvert the other.

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales,
REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Burgesses, and other Inhabitants of the Borough, Liberty, and Parish of Bradninch, in the County of Devon.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Burgesses, and other Inhabitants of the Borough, Liberty, and Parish of Bradninch, beg leave most respectfully to approach your Royal Highness, and with feelings of the deepest concern and indignation, to express our detestation and abhorrence at the late treasonable and daring attack committed on the sacred Person of your Royal Highness, while exercising, in the name and on the behalf of our venerated Sovereign, the most important and august function of the State.

While we offer to your Royal Highness our sincere and heartfelt congratulations on the signal interposition of Divine Providence, we solemnly assure your Royal Highness of our cordial attachment to your Royal Highness's Person and Government, and of our fixed determination to maintain the honour of His Majesty, and the establishment of our invaluable Constitution, against every encroachment of designing or disaffected persons.

Convinced that on the preservation of the Monarchy, the security of our happy Constitution chiefly depends, we feel it our indispensable duty, when the Throne is insulted or endangered, eagerly to avow our decided resolution to repress by every means in our power such disgraceful excesses, tending only to increase the pressure of a temporary distress, which we confidently hope, by the united wisdom of His Majesty's Councils and Parliament, will be speedily removed.

Daniel Middleton, Mayor.

[Delivered by Sir Thomas D. Ackland, Bart. and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom.

WE, the Mayor, Bailiffs, Burgesses and other Inhabitants of the Town of Northampton, beg leave most humbly to approach your Royal Highness with sentiments of dutiful attachment to your Royal Highness and your illustrious Family, to express how deeply we are penetrated with feelings of indignation and abhorrence, at the atrocious and daring outrage recently offered to your Royal Person and authority, on your return from opening the present Session of Parliament, in the name and on the behalf of our revered and beloved Sovereign.

If any thing could in our estimation have added to the atrocity of such an attack, it was that it should have been committed immediately after your Royal Highness had most graciously recommended to Parliament the adoption of measures calculated to relieve the burthens of the nation.

We lament that wicked persons have taken advantage of the present distresses of the country, for the purpose of effecting schemes of violence tending to destroy the sources of public tranquillity and happiness; and we are convinced that the friends of the true liberty of the subject will always be found among the most loyal supporters of the Crown and of the constituted authorities of the realm.

We beg leave most humbly to express our sincere and grateful acknowledgments for the important benefit which your Royal Highness has rendered to the country, under the present circumstances of difficulty, by relinquishing a large portion of your Income to the service of the State, and we trust that this patriotic example, combined with the expressions of your Royal Highness's sentiments in your late most gracious speech from the Throne, will be followed by the adoption of all possible means of retrenchment and economy (consistent with the well being of the Empire) in every department of the public expenditure.

Signed by order of the Meeting,

William Brown, Chairman.

[Transmitted by William Hanbury, Esq. M. P. for Northampton, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The loyal and dutiful Address of the Provost, Magistrates, and Town Council of the Royal Burgh of Linlithgow.

WE, His Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the ancient Burgh of Linlithgow, struck with horror at the late atrocious attempt made against your Royal Highness's sacred Person, when returning from the discharge of one of the most important functions of Royalty, the opening of the present Session of the Imperial Parliament, and rejoicing at your Royal Highness's providential escape, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness, and to offer our most heartfelt congratulations thereon, with assurance of our thankfulness to Almighty God for the preservation of your Royal Highness's precious life, and our fervent prayer that it may be long preserved to exercise the Government over a free, happy and loyal people.

Deeply impressed with the most grateful sense of your Royal Highness's paternal care of the peace and happiness of all His Majesty's subjects, so strongly evinced by your Royal Highness's generously relinquishing for the benefit of the public a considerable proportion of your Royal Highness's Revenue, we assure your Royal Highness of our most cordial support and hearty co-operation in the maintenance of good order, in preserving the peace of society, and in guarding against all infringements of the laws and Constitution of these Realms, as confirmed to us at the glorious revolution.

Signed in our name and by our appointment, by the Provost in Common Council assembled, at Linlithgow, the 1st day of March 1817.

Adam Dawson, Provost.

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergymen and Freeholders of the County of Limerick, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness, with the warmest sentiments of veneration and respect, to assure your Royal Highness that we view with the utmost indignation and abhorrence the late flagitious outrage on the Royal authority, and humbly to offer our sincere congratulations to your Royal Highness on your late providential escape from the traitorous assault and attack on your Royal Person, on your return from opening the present Session of Parliament.

We entreat permission to assure your Royal Highness, that, deeply impressed with the knowledge of the blessings we enjoy from our excellent Constitution, and feeling the greatest horror at the atrocious designs both openly avowed and attempted to be executed against the peace and tranquillity of the realm, we feel ourselves bound to express to your Royal Highness our gratitude for the care which your Royal Highness has shewn for the dearest interests of the people of this country, in having taken such measures as may best tend to defeat all such purposes, and to bring the authors and abettors of them to public justice.

County of Limerick Court House, March 1, 1817.

[Transmitted by His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

WE, the Archbishop of Cashel, Coadjutor of Euseby, Archbishop of Dublin, the Vicar General of Dublin, the Dean and Chapter of the Holy Trinity Dublin, the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral of St. Patrick's near Dublin, and the Clergy of the Diocese of Dublin and Glandelagh, beg leave humbly to offer to your Royal Highness our unfeigned congratulations on your late escape from the traitorous attempts on your Royal Highness's Person, and to express our thankfulness to Almighty God for his goodness to your Royal Highness, and his mercy to the country in the moment of danger.

We contemplate with feelings of grief and horror the frantick delusions of a part of His Majesty's subjects; we are confident that the atrocities into which these infatuated men have been betrayed by artful and wicked leaders, will only serve to awake the execration of the British Publick and unite their energies in support of that Throne and Constitution which have been so long the glory and happiness of the Empire.

We have witnessed with inexpressible satisfaction the unexampled success with which Divine Providence has hitherto distinguished your Royal Highness's Government, and we trust that the firm counsels, which, through the blessings of God, have given peace to Europe, will be no less effectual in crushing the effects of insurgents and the machinations of traitors.

We gratefully acknowledge your Royal Highness's sympathy in the distresses brought by existing circumstances, on all, but especially the lower ranks of His Majesty's subjects, and we trust that Divine Providence will give its effective aid and blessing to those measures which we are confident the wisdom of your Government will adopt for shortening the season of difficulty, and reinvigorating the repressed, but, we firmly hope, unimpaired capacities of our country.

Charles Cashel.

Charles Kildare, Dean of Dublin.

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble Address of the High Sheriff, Noblemen, Clergy, Gentry, and Freeholders of the County of Dublin.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the High Sheriff, Noblemen, Clergy, Gentry, and Freeholders of the County of Dublin, beg leave in the most respectful manner to present to your Royal Highness, our sincere and heartfelt congratulations on your providential escape from the daring and desperate attack committed on your Royal Person in your return from discharging one of the most important duties of the Crown.

We are most anxious to testify the just abhorrence we feel at such an atrocious outrage, and in the most impressive manner, to declare ourselves not only ready, but willing to devote our lives and fortunes in defence of your sacred Person and dignity.

We beg moreover to assure your Royal Highness that we are equally anxious to oppose and defeat all attempts whatever which may or can be made by deluded and misguided men, to subvert the Constitution, which has been considered by the ablest Statesmen as the strongest bulwark of civil liberty which ever existed in any country either ancient or modern.

On behalf of the Noblemen, Clergy, Gentry, and Freeholders of the County of Dublin.

Compton Donnell, Sheriff.

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, Aldermen, Free Burgesses and Commonalty of the Town and Corporation of Youghall.

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, Aldermen, Free Burgesses and Commonalty of the Town and Corporation of Youghall, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness, to express our detestation and abhorrence of the late daring and atrocious outrage committed on your august Person, when in the exercise of one of the highest functions of Kingly authority, as the representative of our most revered and gracious Sovereign.

In expressing our warmest congratulations on the safety of your Royal Person, we beg permission to assure your Royal Highness, that the lively emotions of joy and exultation, so justly and generally excited throughout the British Empire, on your providential escape, have not in any part of His Majesty's dominions been more cordially felt than by the inhabitants of Youghall.

Firmly and unalterably attached to the illustrious House of Hanover, we anxiously press forward to renew the assurances of our ardent loyalty and devotion to His Majesty and your Royal Highness, and to declare our determination at all times, to rally round the Throne, in defence of the Crown, support of the laws, and maintenance of our unrivalled Constitution, in Church and State.

Given under the Common Seal of the Corporation of Youghall, this 7th day of March 1817.

By Order, John Jenkins, Town Clerk.

[Transmitted by His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George PRINCE REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Right Worshipful Provincial Grand Master, Grand Wardens, and Masters and Wardens, of the Free Mason Lodges of Munster in Provincial Grand Lodge assembled, beg leave most respectfully to approach your Royal Highness, and lay our unfeigned sentiments of duty and veneration at the foot of the Throne.

Fully animated with those principles of loyalty and attachment to our Sovereign, which are inculcated by the most solemn precepts of our order, we cannot but express our abhorrence of the treasonable and outrageous attack made upon your Royal Person, whilst exercising the functions of his representative, and our feelings of thankfulness to that Providence, who has, in so many instances, rendered abortive the wild machinations of the enemies of your Royal House.

Strongly impressed with such feelings, we deem it incumbent on us thus publicly to avow our determination to give every support in our power, in upholding our invaluable Constitution; a duty not only due to your Illustrious Family from us as loyal subjects, but doubly due to your Royal Person, as the patron and ornament of that order to which we belong, and over which your Royal Highness has extended your gracious favour and protection.

Given under the seal of our Provincial Grand Lodge of Munster, held at the Council Chamber, in the City of Cork, the 6th day of March 1817.

[Transmitted by the Earl of Shannon, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Bishop, the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Saint Bridget, and the Clergy of the Diocese of Kildare, desire to express our unfeigned thanks to Almighty God for that protecting Providence which was lately manifested towards your Royal Person, in like manner, as in a long and eventful reign He hath not ceased to "compass"

Your Royal Father, in manifold dangers, "as with a shield."

The august House of your Forefathers, responsive to the voice of pure morality and religion on the Throne of these, now happily, united kingdoms, equally rejected, at all times, the seductions of despotism as the frenzy of licentiousness, and thus the blessing of true freedom, proceeding from the fear of God, which is the fountain of all human wisdom, has been continued and extended, not only to the King's most dutiful subjects, but to the lately enslaved nations of Europe.

Your Royal Highness celebrated by prayer and public thanksgiving your devotion towards that Divine Mercy which supported your Throne, and enabled your fleets and armies to contend with, and finally to overcome, mighty forces embattled against just and lawful Governments; and yet we have now to lament, that the same malignant and treasonable principles of the enemies of happiness, and the good order of human society, which long endeavoured in vain to intimidate the Councils of your Royal Father, should again have instigated a mistaken and misguided populace to assail your Royal Person on a late most important occasion.

We pray God long to preserve your Royal Highness in health and wealth, and in that peace and prosperity, which are the usual concomitants of true Godliness and virtue; beseeching Him, for our sakes, to perpetuate, through a lengthened succession of Princes of the House of Brunswick, those genuine principles of liberty, both in Church and State, which they, under Heaven, established, and which your Royal Highness hath continually supported.

Charles Kildare,

T. Trench, Dean of Kildare.

For, and on the behalf of, the Chapter and Clergy of the Diocese of Kildare.

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Convener, Deacons, and Members of the Nine incorporated Trades of Dundee, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness, with the most unfeigned sentiments of respect for your Royal Person, to express our abhorrence and detestation of the most daring outrage offered to your Royal Highness, on your return from Parliament after exercising the important duties of the Crown, and fulfilling your part of our most excellent Constitution.

Zealously attached to the mild and equitable system of Government, established at the revolution, and happy in the enjoyment of every blessing derived to us from that settlement, we are unable in adequate terms to express our concern, that any person should be found within His Majesty's dominions so base as to endanger, by such atrocious violence, the safety of your Royal Person, and therein the tranquillity of the whole country.

We sincerely congratulate your Royal Highness on your providential escape from such traitorous attacks, dangerous to the public safety, and a gross violation of the glorious Constitution, of which your Royal Highness forms so essential a part.

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

The humble Address of the Portrieve, Burgesses and Freemen of the Corporation of Irishtown, Kilkenny.

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Portrieve, Burgesses and Freemen of the ancient and loyal Corporation of Irishtown, Kilkenny, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with sentiments of the most inviolable attachment to your Royal Person and Family.

While in common with all His Majesty's loyal subjects, we regard with the utmost detestation and abhorrence, the late traitorous attack upon your Royal Person and life, when returning from the discharge of one of the most important of your sacred duties, we cannot but feel grateful to the interposing hand of Providence, which defeated the malicious and evil designs of your enemies.

Appreciating as we ought the benefits we have, so long enjoyed under the benign Government of your Illustrious House, we entertain the fullest confidence, that the same energy, which has contributed so highly to exalt the British name and character, will still be exerted to uphold and secure to us the invaluable blessings of the British Constitution, so justly the pride of our country, and the admiration of the world.

Anth. Pack, Portrieve of Irishtown.

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Freeholders and Inhabitants of the County of Louth, assembled by the High Sheriff in the County Court-House, this Twelfth day of March, One thousand eight hundred and seventeen, pursuant to notice; beg leave to express our abhorrence of the daring and outrageous assault, made upon your Royal Highness's Person, by desperate and evil-minded traitors, on your return from exercising in Parliament, the legislative rights and duties vested in the Crown.

We feel and we repeat devoutly our most grateful thanks to Heaven, for the Divine protection which rescued your Royal Highness from their intended malice; and it is and ever will be our fervent prayer, that your Royal Highness may long live to protect and maintain inviolate and unaltered our present envied Constitution, under which His Majesty's faithful people have enjoyed, and have been blessed with more happiness, credit, fame and glory, liberty and prosperity, than have fallen to the lot of any other nation.

J. Macan, Sheriff.

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the High Sheriff, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Callow, beg leave humbly to approach your Royal Highness with sentiments of unalterable attachment and respect.

Permit us, Sir, to offer your Royal Highness, our sincere congratulations, on the providential interference, which, at the same time that it averted the blow of the assassin, has saved this Empire from the disgrace of a crime, which we cannot contemplate without horror.

We rejoice that this atrocious attempt on the life of your Royal Highness, has only given an opportunity to so large a mass of His Majesty's faithful subjects to come forward, with assurances of their attachment to your Person and Government, of their veneration for our excellent Constitution, and of their determination to support it against all attempts of foreign or domestic enemies.

M. F. Cornwall, High-Sheriff.

[Transmitted by His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, and Clergy, residing in the County of Donegal, beg leave humbly to approach your Royal Highness with our sincere congratulations on your escape from the attack made against your Person, when returning from opening the Session of Parliament.

We gratefully acknowledge the goodness of Divine Providence, in delivering your Royal Highness from the dangers to which you were exposed, and we implore for your Royal Highness, and for this empire, a continuance of the same Almighty protection.

We deeply lament the wickedness of those seditious and designing agitators, who, regardless of the certain horrors of civil commotion, have taken advantage of the distresses of the times to excite the lower orders of the people to tumult and insurrection.

To the artifices of factious individuals we trace the criminal excesses which have disgraced the British Metropolis, and we therefore look anxiously to the wisdom of Parliament, to adopt such measures as may defeat the machinations of the disaffected, and secure the stability of the Government and the peace of the country.

We feel duly sensible of the many blessings we have enjoyed under your Royal House, and we are ready to stand forward in defence of our Sovereign, our Laws and Constitution; with the firmness and courage becoming faithful and loyal subjects.

Thomas John Atkinson, Sheriff.

FIFTH LOTTERY 1816.

THE Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, having contracted for the sale of the fifth and sixth lotteries for the year 1816, consisting of 25,000 tickets, the former of which lotteries is to be accompanied with an after drawing, or supplementary lottery, of 8000 tickets, which are to be given in prizes in the fifth lottery, according to a scheme already approved by them, the said Lord Commissioners, whose names are hereunto subscribed, in pursuance of the power vested in them by the Act of the last session of Parliament, for granting His Majesty a sum of money to be raised by lotteries, do hereby order and direct as follows:

That every ticket in the fifth or principal lottery, which shall be drawn a prize of a ticket in the supplementary lottery, shall entitle the bearer thereof to such benefit as shall belong to the ticket bearing the same number in the supplementary lottery:

That every lawful share of a ticket in the said fifth or principal lottery, which shall be drawn a prize of a ticket in the supplementary lottery, shall entitle the bearer thereof to the like share of the benefit which shall belong to the ticket bearing the same number in the supplementary lottery:

That the Managers and Directors of the lotteries to be drawn in pursuance of the aforesaid Act, shall prepare 8000 tickets to be put into the prize and blank box or wheel of the fifth or principal lottery, for entitling the holders of tickets against which the same shall be drawn, to tickets bearing the same numbers in the supplementary lottery, and shall cause the same to be expressed in the following form;

" Fifth Lottery for 1816.

" A ticket in the supplementary lottery bearing the same number, together with the benefit which may belong thereto;" which 8000 tickets shall be rolled up and fastened in the same manner as the other prize tickets, and the blank tickets to be put into the box or wheel marked with the letter B, according to the directions of the said Act, and shall be mingled therewith in the said box or wheel in the usual manner:

That such of the tickets in the fifth or principal lottery, divided into shares, and deposited at the Stamp-Office, in London, or Dublin, pursuant to the aforesaid Act, as shall be drawn prizes of tickets in the supplementary lottery, shall remain in the said offices respectively until the supplementary lottery shall be drawn; and such of the tickets in the fifth or principal lottery as shall be entitled to a benefit of £50, or under, in the supplementary lottery, shall remain three clear days longer; and such as shall be entitled to a greater benefit than £50 in the supplementary lottery, shall remain fourteen clear days longer, at the expiration of which time the same shall be delivered back to the proprietor, on receiving the receipt given for the same. But every person holding a share in any such ticket may, by giving notice to the Receiver-General, or other person having the custody thereof, cause the same to be still further detained till the share shall be paid or security given, in the same manner as the aforesaid Act directs, in case the ticket had been drawn a money or stock prize in the fifth or principal lottery, and in default thereof such further measures shall be taken with respect to such ticket as if the same had been drawn a money or stock prize in the fifth or principal lottery:

That for the supplementary lottery the said managers and directors shall cause eight thousand tickets to be prepared in the usual manner, bearing the same numbers, with such of the tickets of the fifth or principal lottery as shall have been drawn prizes of tickets in the supplementary lottery, and shall cause the same to be rolled up and fastened, and to be cut off into a box marked with the letter A, in the same manner as the said Act directs, with respect to the middle columns in the books with three columns containing the adventurers tickets in the fifth or principal lottery; and that the said managers and directors shall cause eight thousand other tickets to be prepared in the usual manner, to designate the prizes and blanks in the said supplementary lottery, according to the scheme already approved of and transmitted to the said managers and directors, and shall cause the same to be rolled up and fastened, and to be cut off into a box marked with the letter B, in the same manner as the said Act directs with regard to the prize and blank tickets in the fifth or principal lottery; and that the supplementary lottery thus prepared shall be drawn in the manner prescribed by the said Act, with regard to the fifth or principal lottery; and that the drawing thereof shall take place on the 4th day of June next.

Whitehall, Treasury-Chambers, the 19th day of March 1817,
N. VANSITTART.
LOWTHER.
G. W. ODELL.

Whitehall, March 18, 1817.

WHereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, early in the morning of the 8th instant, a new farm-house, situate at Mickleton, in the county of Gloucester, belonging to the Rev. Mr. Graves, was maliciously and wantonly set on fire, the whole of which was consumed in the space of three hours.

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said felony, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person or persons who actually set fire to the said premises) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered by the said Rev. Mr. Graves to any person (except as is before excepted) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof: or to any person who shall apprehend and bring the said offenders, or any of them, to conviction, or cause them, or any of them, so to be apprehended and convicted as aforesaid.

Whitehall, March 18, 1817.

WHereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, about nine o'clock in the evening of Thursday the 13th instant, some person or persons, at present unknown, did fire a pistol or other fire arms, loaded with slugs, through the sitting room window of the dwelling-house of Mr. James Lees, of Odham-Lane, near Oldham, and that there is every reason to suppose it was with an intent to shoot the said James Lees and his family.

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said atrocious act, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them, (except the person or persons who actually fired the said pistol or other fire arms), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the said James Lees, and FIFTY POUNDS to be paid by the Constables of Oldham, to any person (except as is before excepted), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof, or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring the said offenders or any of them to conviction, or cause them or any of them so to be apprehended and convicted as aforesaid.

NOTICE.

THE Lord Chief Justice of the Court of King's Bench, of that part of the United Kingdom called Ireland, has, by virtue of an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the fifty-fifth year of the reign of His present Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for the better examination of witnesses in the Courts of Equity in Ireland, and for empowering the Courts of Law and Equity in Ireland to grant Commissions for taking affidavits in all parts of Great Britain," appointed Thomas Eyre Lee, of Edgbaston, in the County of Warwick, Esq. a Commissioner to take affidavits within the several Counties of Hereford, Salop, Stafford, Warwick, and Worcester.

TRIGONOMETRICAL SURVEY OF GREAT BRITAIN.

IT having been represented to the Master-General and Principal Officers of His Majesty's Ordnance, that certain map-sellers and others have, through inadvertence or otherwise, copied, reduced, or incorporated into other works and published, parts of the "Trigonometrical Survey of Great Britain," a work executed under the immediate orders of the said Master-General and Board, the said Master-General and Board have thought proper to direct, that public notice be given to all map-sellers and others, cautioning them against copying, reducing, or incorporating into other works and publishing, all or any part of the said "Trigonometrical Survey," or of the Ordnance maps which have been or may be engraven therefrom. "Every offender after this notice given, will be proceeded against according to the provisions of the Act of Parliament made for the protection of property of this kind."

By order of the Board,

R. H. Crew, Secretary.

Office of Ordnance, 24th February 1817.

Bank of England, March 20, 1817.

BANK DOLLAR TOKENS.

WHereas the Governor and Company of the Bank of England did, by public advertisement, dated the 18th March 1811, give notice, that they had directed their Cashiers and other Officers from thenceforth (until a public notice to the contrary, of not less than six months, should have been given) to receive all Dollar Tokens tendered in payment at the Bank, at the rate of five shillings and six pence each, instead of five shillings as heretofore; and the said Governor and Company did, on the 25th day of April last, give notice, that they would receive and give value for the said Bank Dollar Tokens, at the rate of five shillings and six pence each, until the 1st day of November last; and they have since, by subsequent advertisements, extended the time for receiving and giving value for the said Dollar Tokens, at the rate aforesaid, until the 1st day of May next;

All persons who are, or may be possessed of any of the said Dollar Tokens, and who are desirous of receiving value for the same, at the rate aforesaid, are requested to bring the same to the Bank of England for payment, on or before the said 1st day of May next, as no further extension of time will be given to the circulation thereof.

Robert Best, Secretary.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS.

Lewes, March 14, 1817.

ALL persons having demands on the estate or effects of Thomas Johnson, of Hunington Farm, in the Parish of Littlethorpe, in the County of Sussex, (and who have not already executed his trust-deed, dated the 24th day of February 1815,) are desired to send the particulars of their claims to Mr. Turner, Solicitor, at Lewes, within fourteen days from the date of this advertisement.

Banking Company's Office, Dundee, the 18th of March 1817.

Notice is hereby given, that William Don, Merchant, in Forfar, ceased to be Agent for the Dundee Banking Company upon the 1st day of March current; so that neither he, nor any other person by his orders, have authority to receive any money, or grant any obligation, on account of this Company.

David Jobson, junior, Merchant, in Dundee, is appointed Interim Agent by this Company, for the purpose of receiving payment of all sums due to them at Forfar; and all persons who hold any receipts, signed by Mr. Don, for sums due by the said Bank, are requested to apply to the said David Jobson, junior, at the Company's Office, at Forfar, against the 15th day of April next, otherwise the Company will not pay any interest upon these receipts, after that date.

By order of the Directors

DAVID JOBSON, Cashier.

Notice is hereby given, that the Commissioners named and authorised in and by a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued and now in prosecution against William Yandall, of Taunton, in the County of Somerset, Taylor, Dealer and Chapman, having met together at the Castle Inn, in Taunton aforesaid, on the 3d day of March instant, in order to make a dividend of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt (pursuant to notice given in the London Gazette for that purpose), did then and there order and declare a dividend of the said estate and effects of eleven shillings in the pound, to be paid to all the Creditors of the said Bankrupt, who had proved their debts, and claimants of debts, against the said estate, when they should have substantiated their claims, in proportion to their several and respective debts; and further, that such dividend will be accordingly forthwith paid on application to Mr. James Bunter, of Taunton aforesaid, one of the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate.

THE Creditors under the deed of trust of William White, late of the Island of Jamaica, Esq. deceased, and of John White and John Edwards, late of Fen-Court, Fenchurch-Street, in the City of London, Merchants, deceased, may receive a further dividend, equal to two years interest on the amount of their respective debts, under the trust deeds, on Monday the 5th day of May 1817, between the hours of twelve and Three, and on every following Monday, between the hours of Twelve and two, by applying on those days, at the Chambers of Messrs. J. and W. Lowe and Cowburn, No. 2, Tanfield-Court, Temple, to sign a receipt for the same.
