Fame acquired by valour, the triumph of True Highlanders.

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of Great Britain and Ireland, Lord of the Isles, &c. &c. &c.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Society of True Highlanders, convened to-day for that purpose, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with sentiments of the liveliest indignation at the late atrocious attempt made on your sacred Person, to express our sincere gratitude to the Disposer of all events for your fortunate and happy escape from a plot hatched by a combination of malevolent and rebellious fanatics, acting under the destructive influence of ringleaders, who, from the tendency of the principles they disseminate, plainly evince their hostility to the venerable Constitution of Britain, and their determination to annihilate all the distinctions of civil and social order.

We crave permission to assure your Royal Highness, that we are ready, with our lives and fortunes, to rally round your illustrious Person, in support of your Royal Highness, Family, and Government, to march forward, on the shortest notice, to inflict condign and exemplary punishment on the projectors of the late audacious and infernal scheme, and to lend our most active cooperation towards the suppression of every similar attempt at disturbing the public tranquillity, and setting the laws of subordination at defiance.

Signed in the name, and by appointment of the Society at Inverlochy, the rallying point of the ancient Caledonians, this 27th day of February 1817.

A. Macdonell, of Glengarry.

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Walesy REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, &c. &c.

May it please your Royal Highness, WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal sub-jects, the Minister, Churchwardens, and Congregation of the English Episcopal Church in Rotterdam, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with our sincere and heartfelt congratulations upon your Royal Highness's recent happy escape from the daring and traitorous attack of wicked and desperate men, who, under specious and delusive pretexts; assail every thing that is venerable in society, and seek alone the overthrow and destruction of the Constitution.

Though removed to a distance from our native country, we shall never cease to entertain the most lively interest in its welfare, and a sincere attachment to your Royal Highness's Person and Government, and we cannot look upon the atrocious attempts of these misguided men without the greatest abhorrence and detestation.

We fully confide in the wisdom and firmness of the Government, to repress that mischievous spirit of anarchy which has been so industriously disseminated among the lower orders of the people, for the annihilation of a Constitution which has hitherto stood the test of ages, and is the admiration of the whole civilized world.

We beg leave to offer our unteigned acknowledgments for the liberal assistance afforded to us by your Royal Highness's Government for the repair of our church, whereby our national form of worship has been happily restored to us: and we will not cease to offer up our prayers to the Divine Being, that he will be graciously pleased to protect the Person of your Royal Highness from similar outrages, and that your Royal Highness may be long preserved to reign over a free and united people.

Signed at the request and on the behalf of the Congregation,

Richd. John Hay, Minister. William Collings, Churchwardens.

James Smith, (Transmitted by the Rev. Mr. Hay, Minister, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Lieutenancy of Banffshire, respectfully approach your Royal Highness, to present our unfeigned congratulations on the providential deliverance which your Royal Highness has lately experienced from the dastardly and atrocious assault offered to your august Person, in passing from the House of Parliament on the first day of the present Session.

Whilst we contemplate, with mingled feelings of surprise and abhorrence, the treasonable ebullition of that day, we console ourselves with the hope that such a flagrant violation of the laws will have the effect of uniting and strengthening the energies of all ranks of His Majesty's faithful subjects, in successfully counteracting the designs of the seditious and misguided.

Animated with the warmest attachment to our happy Constitution, and impressed with the purest sentiments of loyalty to our revered Sovereign, and of cordial affection to your Royal Highness, we beg leave to assure your Royal Highness that it shall be our unceasing endeavour, as it is our bounden-duty, to promote, within our several spheres, a respectful allegiance to the supreme authority, and a due submission to the laws of our country, and to contribute, by every exertion, towards securing and perpetuating those civil and religious blessings by which these kingdoms have been so long and soeminently distinguished.

Signed, by our Preses, in our name and by our appointment, in a general meeting of Lieutenancy for the County of Banff, held at Banff, this 20th day of February 1817.

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness.

WE, His Majesty's ever faithful and loyal subjects, the Freeholders, Commissioners of Supply and Justices of the Peace of the County of Sutherland, and Magistrates of the Royal Borough of Dornock, convened in general meeting, with a sense of duty, as handed down to us by our fathers, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness, unamimous in our attachment and respect.

We do with great truth assure your Royal Highness, that no class of His Majesty's subjects can be more convinced than we are, of the difficult nature of the duties imposed on your Royal Highness, as Regent of these kingdoms, or who more highly appreciate the wise, firm and dignified manner in which they have been discharged. ...

We cannot, therefore, express, in language sufficiently strong, the feelings of horror and indigna-tion excited in our breasts, upon hearing of the assassin-like attack lately made upon your Royal Highness, whilst performing one of the highest and most important of these duties.

We thank God that your Royal Highness escaped the blow of the traitor, and we rejoice that we can truly declare to your Royal Highness, that in this part of His Majesty's dominions, the sentiments which we have expressed, with strong feelings of loyalty and attachment in the people to His Majesty and Family, and of confidence in Parliament and the administration of your Royal Highness; are

The dutiful Address of the Inhabitants of Sheffield and its Vicinity.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's faithful and loyal subjects, the Inhabitants of Sheffield, in the County of York, and its Vicinity, approach your Royal Highness, to express our sincere abhorrence of the atrocious violence and outrage which took place on your return from opening the present Session of Parliament, and we are happy to congratulate your Royal Highness on your escape from any personal injury.

We embrace this opportunity of assuring your Royal Highness of our firm attachment to our constitutional Legislature, composed of King, Lords and Commons, of our steady adherence to the principles which established your ancestors on the Throne of these kingdoms, and likewise of our determination to unite with our fellow subjects in defence of the Constitution, in the preservation of its purity, and in restoring that purity by peaceable and legal means, so far as it may have been

It is also with much satisfaction that we can inform your Royal Highness, so far as we know and believe, that the people of this country are not that ignorant, deluded and lawless multitude which they have been assiduously represented to be, and we further, with dutiful respect to your Royal Highness, beg leave to state our thorough conviction, that the desire of the people to exercise their constitutional right of petitioning the constituted authorities in peaceable meetings, proceeds from no sentiments inimical to the peace and safety of the country, but in a regular way to make known their opinions and their grievances to those assemblies, where legal redress may be obtained; and at this time of general and unprecedented distress especially, so far from deeming this proceeding reprehensible, we cannot but consider it as strong evidence of loyalty and attachment to the constitutional Government. Should these peaceable applications, free from all violence, happily excite the impartial consideration of Parliament, and become, in any efficacious and substantial degree successful, the most beneficial consequences may ensue; the minds of the people would be composed, they would continue patiently to bear their manifold sufferings, and if such salutary reform were adopted as effectually to counteract the corrupt influence which is not denied, and correct the acknowledged abuses, occasioned by the lapse and innovation of time and other circumstances, then additional sta-bility would be given to the Throne in the hearts of the people, and such desirable measures would secure the rights and just privileges of all ranks in society, as well as materially promote the tranquillity, the freedom, the welfare and the prosperity of our country.

Signed by order of a numerous and respectable meeting of the Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Sheffield, held at the Town Hall on Thursday, February 27, 1817. Thomas Rawson, Chairman.

To His Royal Highness George Prince REGENT To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales of Great Britain and Ireland.

REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

> May it please your Royal Highness, is WE, the Noblemen, Gentlerhen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Roscommen; bonvened by the High Sheriff, present to your Royal Highness the homage of our loyal and chatiful at tachment, with our sincere congradulations on your Royal Highness's providential escape from the recent violence offered to your sacred Person.

We bitterly bewail that after a series of lamente able experience, after years of meritorious privation and fortitude, in opposing and finally vanquishing the imperious ambition of France, and after the awful example presented by that country in the face of Europe, there should exist one subject of this realing so abandoned to vice and infamy, so lost to the sure and honourable, and patriotic principles of Britons, as to meditate the introduction of that revolutionary plague, with all its attendant hornors and misfet. tunes, madness, irreligion, innovation, profligacy, and blood.

No doubt, difficulties and distresses have visited this nation, some of them sent directly from the hand of our God; others the natural effect of the protracted struggle in which we have been engaged for the preservation of every thing precious unto man. But from such inflictions Providence in his goodness, and in his own appointed time will deliver a religious people, and whatever human means can effect, both in Parliament and by the affluent spread over the land, we behold in daily exertion to soften down the severity of the crisis.

To guard the sacred Person of your Royal Highness from the desperate designs of wicked men; to defeat the conspiracy existing in the nation; to uphold the faithful; to reclaim the weak; and to drag to exemplary punishment the incorrigible traitor; such will be the employment of the great council of the State.

Meantime it will act as the most effectual consolation to the feelings of your Royal Highness, wounded, no doubt, by such a recent instance of ingratitude, to behold all ranks and descriptions, from the noble to the peasant, rallying around the Throne, and eager to testify their affection to your Royal Highness's Person and Government, and to those principles of political liberty which gave the sceptre to your Royal House. Michael Griffin, High Sheriff.

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT. of Great Britain and Ireland,

WE, the Gentry, Clergy, and other Freeholders. of the County of Leitrim, beg leave to address your Royal Highness with sentiments of profound reservations pect, and to assure your Royal Highness, that no class of His Majesty's subjects has heard of the late daring and flagitious outrage offered to your Royal Person, with more horror and indignation than the Freeholders of this County.

We trust that the perpetrators of a deed which casts a stigma on the inhabitants of the Metropolis will not long remain undiscovered, and uppunished; but while we thus express our feelings with regard | jesty's subjects will unite in protecting it from outto the persons who committed the act, we deem ourselves also called upon, most strongly to repro-bate the conduct of those, whose inflammatory doctrines have led to a result so atrocious. lament that men should be found, taking advantage of the present season of scarcity and distress, and endeavouring to persuade the people, that their difficulties and privations, which in truth originate in causes uncontrollable by human means, are to be attributed solely to our Government, and that by altering, under pretence of amending, the frame of our civil polity, all these difficulties and privations would be at an end.

We feel a singular hope, however, that the good sense, and loyalty of the great majority of the inhabitants of these Realms, will form an insurmountable barrier to the designs of the disaffected, and we beg to assure your Royal Highness, that, as far as in us lies, we will, individually and collectively, exert ourselves to maintain the public peace against all efforts that may be made to disturb it.

We rely on the firmness of your Royal Highness's Counsels, directed by the wisdom of Parliament, for carrying the nation, with the blessings of Divine Providence, through the dangers by which it is surrounded, and we trust that no exertion may be any where wanting to preserve to us unimpaired a Constitution which secures perfect liberty to all who live under its protection, and which ought to be as much the pride of our own country, as it is the envy of the rest of the world.

For and on behalf of the Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Leitrim. John H. Peyton, Sheriff.

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Tipperary, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with sentiments of deep horror and regret, at the outrage lately offered to your Royal Highness's Person and authority in your return from opening the Session of Parliament.

We lament that any person should be found amongst our fellow subjects capable of so atrocious an act, and we view with indignation the attempts of the disaffected, to take advantage of the distresses and embarrassments of the times for the accomplishment of the worst of purposes.

We feel and lament, in common with our fellow subjects, the existence of such distresses, but we are firmly convinced that they can only be removed by the gradual course of events, and a wise application of such measures as are consistent with the principles of that Constitution, which has raised these kingdoms to the exalted rank among nations they now so proudly hold; we therefore submit with the most perfect confidence, the consideration of these embarrassments, to the wisdom and decision of the protecting Legislature.

Sincerely attached to your Royal Highness's Person and Family, and deeply impressed with the necessity of supporting the Sovereign authority of rage and insult, and show their determination to support that invaluable Constitution which has enabled us to surmount difficulties anexampled, and which we cannot but consider as affording the fairest prospect of transmitting unimpaired to pos-terity, the blessings we have so long and signally experienced.

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

WE, the Minister and Inhabitants of the Parish of Paul, near Penzance, in the County of Cornwall, humbly beg leave to congratulate your Royal Highness on your providential escape from the hands of a wicked and seditions rabble, when re-King of kings and Lord of lords, to whom your Royal Highness and all the world must bow, long continue to protect you from every malicious at tack, in the arduous avocations of your exalted Relying on the disposition of your Royal Highness and your Parliament, to alleviate as much as possible the pressures of a suffering nation, we beg dutifully to assure you of our unalterable determination to support your Royal Highness in the prerogatives of the Crown, and to secure the rights of our excellent Constitution, the glory of England and admiration of the world.

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT of this United Kingdom.

The humble Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders, and Inhabitants of the County of Sligo.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders and Inhabitants of the County of Sligo, impressed as we are with horror and indignation, at the atrocious attack lately made upon your Royal Highness on your. return from opening the present Session of Parliament, humbly approach your Royal Highness to express our abhorrence at such an outrage, and our happiness at your Royal Highness's providential escape; to renew our assurances of zeal and attachment to His Majesty's Person and Government; and declare our unshaken yeneration for the British Constitution, of which we are partakers, and which we hope by the wisdom of our rulers, the prudence of Parliament, and the good sense of His Majesty's loyal subjects, to transmit unimpaired to our latest posterity.

Impressed with these sentiments we cannot but declare our surprise, that any description of persons, however wicked or deprayed, should be able by inflammatory speeches, publications, and artful pretences, so to mislead their fellow subjects, as 10 engage them in riot and confusion, for the declared purpose of overturning whatever is venerable or the Realm, we trust that all classes of His Ma- I valuable, and destroying our beautiful and universally admired system of laws and liberties, a system. which under the auspices of His present Majesty, has been the means of preserving our peace and happiness at home, and reaping triumphs over our enemies abroad in every quarter of the globe.

It is in vain that the distresses of the times are made a pretence for collecting the idle and disaffected for such purposes; we all feel those distresses, but we attribute them partly to the change from war to peace, and partly to the distresses of the continent, which we believe to be greater than our own; and such as have rendered foreign states unequal to the recommencement of a general com-merce for the present; but these difficulties we consider as only temporary, and we are persuaded, that by patience and enlightened policy, they will soon be overcome, and our agriculture, trade, and commerce, revive and flourish.

But as we now have reason to know, that the outrages lately committed make only part of a system of the deepest and blackest die, and for the most atrocious purposes, artfully promoted with indefatigable industry; it is time, for us His Majesty's faithful subjects, to offer every discountenance in our power to such proceedings, and to assure your Royal Highness that we shall be ever ready, to the utniost of our ability, to preserve the peace, and to support your Royal Highness's authority for the maintenance of social order, the rights and liberties of our fellow subjects, and the welfare and prosperity of the United Kingdom.

Signed by order of the Meeting,

John Armstrong, High Sheriff.

GEORGE, P.R.

HEREAS on the sixth day of December last, a reward of five hundred pounds was, by and under our authority, offered for the appre-hension of James Watson the younger, late of Hyde-street, Bloomsbury, surgeon, who then stood charged upon oath, on a violent suspicion of having wilfully and feloniously attempted to kill and murder Richard Platt, on Monday the second day of December last, by firing a loaded pistol at and desperately wounding the said Richard Platt: And whereas a bill of indictment has since been preferred and found by the Grand Jury of the City of London, against the said James Watson the younger, for the said offence: and whereas the promise of the said reward of five hundred pounds for the apprehension of the said James Watson the younger, was, by and under Our authority renewed on the twenty-second day of January last; but the said Janues Watson has not yet been apprehended: And whereas the said James Watson the younger and Arthur Thistlewood, late of No. , Southampton-Build-Thistlewood, late of No., Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, stand charged upon oath with high treason committed by them and sundry other persons, now in custody in the Tower of London; We, therefore in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, do hereby enjoin all Magistrates and all other His Majesty's loving subjects, to use their utmost endeavours to discover and cause to be apprehended the said James Watson and Arthur Thistlewood, a order: but they may be dealt with according to law: And We are herebypleased to renew the said promise of a reward of

so made on the said sixth day of December, and renewed on the said 22d day of January last, to be paid upon the said James Watson the younger being apprehended and lodged in any one of His Majesty's gaols: And We do hereby promise, to any person or persons who shall discover and apprehend, or cause to be discovered and apprehended, the said Arthur Thistlewood, the like sum of

FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS,

to be paid in like manner, upon the said Arthur Thistlewood being apprehended and lodged in any one of His Majesty's gaols: And We do hereby strictly charge and command all persons upon their allegiance, not to receive or harbour the said James-Watson and Arthur Thistlewood, or either of them: All persons offending herein will be thereby guilty of high treason: And We do hereby promise a like reward of

to any person who shall discover and apprehend, or cause to be discovered and apprehended, any person so receiving or harbouring the said James Watson paid upon the conviction of the person or persons so receiving or harbouring as aforesaid, which said - several sums of five hundred pounds the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are hereby required and directed to pay accordingly.

Given at the Court at Carlton-House, the eighteenth day of February, one thousand eight hundred and seventeen, in the fifty-seventh year of His Majesty's reign.

GOD save the KING.

The above-named James Watson is a Surgeon by profession, and has been employed in that capacity on board a Greenland ship: He is a young man, apparently about twenty-three or twenty-four years of age, but is only twenty, dark hair, rather pale complexion, five feet five inches high, has a mark or mole with a few hairs on it, on his left check bone near the eye, the left eyelid rather dropping over the eye, very faint remains of small pox in his face, has rather a wide mouth, and shews his teeth, (which are very black) when he laughs; he sometimes were a brown great coat, black under coat, black waistcoat, drab breeches and long gaiters, and at other times he wore a black coat and waiscoat, blue pantaloons, and Hessian boots; his appearance shabby genteel: he formerly lodged in Hyde-Street, Bloomsbury.

Arthur Thistlewood is about forty-five years of age, five feet eleven inches high, has a sallow complexion, long visage, dark hair (a little grey), small wiskers, dark hasle eyes, and arched eyebrows, a wide mouth, and a good set of teeth, has a scar under his right jaw, is slender made, walks very upright, and has much the appearance of a military man; was born in Lincolnshire, and apprenticed to an apothecary at Newark, and has been a lieutenant in the army; he usually wore a French grey coloured coat, buff waistcoat, grey coloured Wellington pantaloons, with Hessian boots under them, and at times a dark brown great coat.

T the Court at Carlion-House, the 1st of March 1817,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

HEREAS by an Act, passed in the present session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to continue and extend the provisions of an Act, of the forty-ninth year of His present Majesty, for regulating the trade and commerce to and " from the Cape of Good Hope, until the fifth day of July one thousand eight hundred and twenty; and also for regulating the trade of the Island of Mauritius;" His Majesty is authorised, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, by any Order or Orders to be issued from time to time, to give such directions, and make such regulations touching the trade and commerce to and from all islands, colonies, or places, and the terri-and Arthur Thistlewood, or either of them; to be tories and dependencies thereof, to His Majesty belonging or in His possession, in Africa, or Asia to the eastward of the Cape of Good Hope (excepting only the possessions of the East India Company), as to His Majesty, in Council, shall appear most expedient and salutary, any thing contained in an Act, passed in the twelfth year of the reign of His Majesty King Charles the Second, intituled "An Act for the encouraging and increas-" ing of shipping and navigation," or in an Act, passed in the seventh and eighth years of the reign of His Majesty King William the Third, intituled An Act for preventing frauds, and regulating abuses in the plantation trade," or any other Act or Acts of Parliament now in force, relating to His Majesty's colonies and plantations, or any other Act or Acts of Parliament, law, usage or custom to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding: and whereas on the night of the twenty-fifth of September last, a dreadful fire broke out in the town of Port Lewis, in the Island of Mauritius, which totally destroyed the chief part of that town, together with a great mass of provisions and therchandise intended for the consumption and trade of its inhabitants, whereby a great number of families were reduced to extreme indigence, and left without a home; in consequence of which dreadful calamity the Governor of the said Island found himself compelled to open the ports of the Island to foreign vessels, in order to afford the speediest relief of which the case would admit, and thereby to save His Majesty's subjects residing in that colony from the greatest extremity of distress; and whereas it is expedient that facilities should in consequence be granted to the trade of the Island of Mauritius, for a limited time, with the view of giving still further relief to its suffering inhabitants; His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that all vessels, whether British or foreign vessels belonging to countries in amity with His Majesty, arriving at any port of the Island of Mauritius, or its dependencies, within twelve months from the date of this present Order, from any country in amity with His Majesty, laden with any articles the growth, production, or manufacture of any such country, excepting all articles composed of cotton, iron, steel, or wool of foreign manufacture, shall be permitted to enter and land their cargoes, and dispose of the same, in the said ports; provided always, that such articles, when imported in a foreign ship, shall pay a duty of two per cent. ad valorem, over and above what may be payable upon similar goods when imported in a British ship.

And it is further ordered, that every such vessel, arriving as aforesaid, shall be permitted to export a cargo, consisting of any articles of the growth. produce, or manufacture of the Island of Mauritius, or its dependencies, or of any other articles which shall have been legally imported there; and that all such articles so exported in foreign vessels, shall in like manner be subject to a duty of two per cent, ad valorem, over and above the duties (if any) which shall be payable on similar articles when exported from the Mauritius, or its dependencies, in British vessels.

It is, however, hereby further ordered and declared, that no foreign vessel, allowed by the terms of this Order to export a cargo from the Island of Mauritius, or its dependencies, shall be permitted to export such cargo to any of His Majesty's possessions. But that every British vessel which shall during the continuance of this present Order, have imported a cargo into any port of the said Island of Mauritius, or its dependencies, either rom the United Kingdom, or from any other place, shall be permitted to carry back a return cargo, consisting of the articles aforesaid, to any place whatever, either belonging to His Majesty, or to any state in amity with His Majesty. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty; are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Chetwynd.
