TUESDAY, APRIL 1, 1817.

THE following Addresses have been presented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent; which Addresses His Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously:

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble and dutiful Address of the Presbytery of Dornoch, in the County of Sutherland.

WE, the Members of the Presbytery of Dornoch, in the County of Sutherland, His Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects, ever guided by the most ardent feelings of affection, respect, and loyalty for your Royal Highness, and deeply grateful for the preservation of that individual freedom and national glory, which we owe to the wisdom and energy of the Councils of the House of Brunswick, earnestly request your Royal Highness's acceptance of our heartfelt congratulations on your late escape from the audacious and treasonable attempt made upon your Royal Highness, when returning from executing the most important duty of First Magistrate of this empire.

We view with indignation and abhorrence the attempts of the factious, who by inflammatory publications, as well as tumultuous and seditious meetings, have endeavoured to stir up a spirit of dissatisfaction and rebellion in the minds of the ignorant, and to impress them with the idea, that their present privations and distresses, which we hope and believe are only temporary, have sprung from an error in that glorious Constitution, which it shall ever be our pride to reverence and support.

We beg leave to conjoin the fervent hope, that those concerned in this atrocious and diabolical attempt shall soon be brought to that condign and exemplary punishment which they deserve; with the expectation that Parliament, while it adopts such principles of economy only as are consistent with the true interests of the State, will take such measures as are best calculated to repel the attempts of such designing knaves and furious madmen, as, under the specious pretences of annual Parliaments and universal suffrage, endeavour to level a fatal dart at the vitals of that Constitution, under whose mild sway they enjoy so many privileges and blessings.

We also approach your Royal Highness to declare, that, in common with the great body of His Majesty's subjects, we shall always wish to enrol ourselves with the friends of morality and good order; and, as far as in our power lies, shall endeavour to check such wicked and audacious attempts, and support the Government of our Country, whether assailed by craft or violence.

(Signed) Walter Ross, Moderator.

[Transmitted by the Marquess of Stafford, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble and loyal Address of the Ministers and Elders of the Scots Presbytery in London, and in full communion with the Established Church of Scotland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Ministers and Elders of the Scots Presbytery residing in and about the metropolis, accustomed to follow the example of our Parent Church in every thing that is loyal and dutiful, beg leave upon this occasion also to approach your Royal Highness.

With those who have already addressed the Throne, we would express our astonishment and deep concern, that there should have been found in this country a mob so lawless and infuriate, as to commit the late daring outrage upon your sacred personage. At the same time, we humbly and sincerely thank the Almighty Disposer of all events, who, in His merciful providence, did prevent the accomplishment of their vile and diabolical intentions.

It affords us, the Ministers of the Presbytery, the highest satisfaction to know, that, in these times of distress and disturbance, the people of the various Congregations over which we have the honour to preside, have, from the highest to the lowest, conducted themselves in a most quiet, dutiful, and loyal manner.

We fervently pray, that the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ may bless your Royal Highness, and henceforward have you under His safe and holy keeping, in His kindness lengthening out your life, that you may be a lasting and growing blessing to these greatly distinguished and privileged kingdoms.

Signed, in our name, by William Smith, Moderator.

Scots Church, London-Wall, March 19, 1817.

[Delivered by the Reverend William Smith, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Bailiffs and Burgesses of the Borough and Town of Bridport, and the Inhabitants of the same Town and its vicinity, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness, and to offer our most sincere congratulations on your escape from the late daring and treasonable attack on your august person, whilst returning from the House of Lords, on the twenty-eighth day of January last, after opening the Sessions of Parliament.

We believe that this and the other atrocities of late committed in the metropolis have sprung from that delusive system, propagated with so much industry and too much success among the labouring classes of the community, by a set of factious and designing men, as desperate in their fortunes as profligate in their morals, and who wickedly attempt to subvert all order and Government, for objects of individual aggrandisement.

We beg to express our abhorrence of such flagitious proceedings, and of their authors and abettors, and to assure your Royal Highness of our attachment to yourself and our excellent Constitution; and whilst we acknowledge with gratitude to Heaven, the political blessings we enjoy under our happy form of Government, we pledge ourselves to come forward as one man, to shield it from the attacks of those, who, on any pretence may assail it, and to transmit it pure and inviolate to our posterity.

[Delivered by Lieutenant-Colonel Sir Horace D. St. Paul and William D. Best, Esq. and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

Address of the Magistrates, Town Council, and Community of the Burgh of Newtown-upon-Ayr, to His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, Regent of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Magistrates, Town Council, and Community of the Burgh of Newtown-upon-Ayr, beg leave to approach the throne, with expressions of the most sincere affection and respect for your Royal Highness.

We cordially join with all our fellow subjects in the United Kingdom, in declaring our utter abhorrence of the violent outrage of wicked and malignant men, by which the life of your Royal Highness was brought into danger; and in offering up our unfeigned thanksgivings to Almighty God for his goodness and mercy, manifested in your safety and deliverance.

As members of a burgh, which holds its charter and privileges directly from your Royal Highness, it gives us a peculiar pleasure in having this opportunity of expressing the deep interest we feel in the prosperity of your Royal Person and Government.

Under your mild and peaceable, and prudent administration, we are astonished that there should exist in the breast of any individual of His Majesty's subjects a spirit of riot, turbulence, and faction; and while we declare our extreme detestation of those acts of insubordination, licentiousness, and sedition, that have lately disgraced some parts of the United Kingdom, we beg leave to assure your Royal Highness, that no symptoms of such a disposition have appeared in this place, and that to the utmost of our power, we will exert ourselves in maintaining loyalty and obedience to the laws of this realm among the inhabitants of this burgh.

May it please your Royal Highness, your Royal Highness's most faithful, most obedient, and most loyal subjects, the Magistrates, Town Council, and Community of the Burgh of Newtown-upon-Ayr.

Signed, in our name, and at our appointment, at Newton-upon-Ayr, this 20th day of March 1817, by William Lanson, B. and John Hunter, B.

[Delivered by Alexander Boswell, Esq. and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

Unto His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The dutiful and loyal Address of the Body of Freemasons of the County of Ayr, assembled at the desire of our Provincial Master within the Mother Lodge, Kilwinning (the ancient seal of Masonry), by Deputations of the Masters, Wardens, and Brethren of the respective Lodges.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Freemasons of the County of Ayr, humbly beg leave to approach your Royal Highness in these momentous times with sentiments of the most profound respect, sincere loyalty, and unalterable attachment to His Majesty, your Royal Highness, and His Majesty's Family and Government; and to express our utter abhorrence and detestation of the wicked and treasonable attempt lately made on the sacred life of your Royal Highness.

We lament that any miscreants could be found so totally lost to every sense of the blessings enjoyed under the Constitution of these lands, and your Royal Highness's administration of our just and equitable laws, who could make so flagitious an attempt; and we trust they will yet be discovered and brought to condign punishment.

We feel, in common with our fellow-subjects, the distress of the present times, by the unsearchable decrees of Divine Providence; but we deprecate all the attempts of wicked and designing men, who, seeking to attribute these distresses to other causes, mislead the unthinking, and, under the specious mask of relief, hold seditious meetings, and industriously propagate seditious doctrines, in order to overturn the glorious fabric of our happy Constitution.

We pledge ourselves as individuals and members of our respective Lodges, to do every thing in the compass of our power to put a stop to such traitorous conduct, and enjoin in these Lodges, that the whole brethren act up to the true principles of the Order, by squaring their actions and sentiments, that they may be ever in unison with the plumb line of loyalty and attachment to His Majesty, to your Royal Highness, and our happy Constitution, as well as to the relief of the distress of our fellow-subjects.

Permit us, while humbly laying these our sentiments before your Royal Highness, to express our pride that we are addressing our Most Worshipful Grand Master of Scotland, and a brother of our ancient Order, and our hope, that our loyalty and attachment will continue to be cemented by brotherly affection.

That the unrivaled Constitution of these kingdoms may have strength to support and beauty to adorn, and its legislators wisdom to conduct it, till the final consummation of all things, and the universe is otherwise disposed of by the Supreme Architect, is the sincere prayer of His Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Body of Freemasons of the County of Ayr.

Signed in our name, and by our appointment, and the seal of the Mother Lodge appended hereto, at Kilwinning, this 21st day of March 1817, and year of Masonry 5817, by James Crichton, P. M.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 1st of March 1817,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the present session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to continue and extend the provisions of an Act, of the forty-ninth year of His present Majesty, for regulating the trade and commerce to and from the Cape of Good Hope, until the fifth day of July one thousand eight hundred and twenty; and also for regulating the trade of the Island of Mauritius;" His Majesty is authorised, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, by any Order or Orders to be issued from time to time, to give such directions, and make such regulations touching the trade and commerce to and from all islands, colonies, or places, and the territories and dependencies thereof, to His Majesty belonging or in His possession, in Africa, or Asia to the eastward of the Cape of Good Hope (excepting only the possessions of the East India Company), as to His Majesty, in Council, shall appear most expedient and salutary, any thing contained in an Act, passed in the twelfth year of the reign of His Majesty King Charles the Second, intituled "An Act for the encouraging and increasing of shipping and navigation," or in an Act, passed in the seventh and eighth years of the reign of His Majesty King William the Third, intituled "An Act for preventing frauds, and regulating abuses in the plantation trade," or any other Act or Acts of Parliament now in force, relating to His Majesty's colonies and plantations, or any other Act or Acts of Parliament, law, usage or custom to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding: and whereas on the night of the twenty-fifth of September last, a dreadful fire broke out in the town of Port Lewis, in the Island of Mauritius, which totally destroyed the chief part of that town, together with a great mass of provisions and merchandise intended for the consumption and trade of its inhabitants, whereby a great number of families were reduced to extreme indigence, and left without a home; in consequence of which dreadful calamity the Governor of the said Island found himself compelled to open the ports of the Island to foreign vessels, in order to afford the speediest relief of which the case would admit, and thereby to save His Majesty's subjects residing in that colony from the greatest extremity of distress; and whereas it is expedient that facilities should in consequence be granted to the trade of the Island of Mauritius, for a limited time, with the view of giving still further relief to its suffering inhabitants; His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that all vessels, whether British or foreign vessels belonging to countries in amity with His Majesty, arriving at any port of the Island of Mauritius, or its dependencies, within twelve months from the date of this present Order, from any country in amity with His Majesty, laden with any articles the growth, production, or manufacture of any such country, excepting all articles composed of cotton, iron, steel, or wool of foreign manufacture, shall be permitted to enter and land their cargoes, and dispose of the same, in the said ports; provided always, that such articles, when imported in a foreign ship, shall pay a duty of two per cent. ad valorem, over and above what may be payable upon similar goods when imported in a British ship.

And it is further ordered, that every such vessel, arriving as aforesaid, shall be permitted to export a cargo, consisting of any articles of the growth, produce, or manufacture of the Island of Mauritius, or its dependencies, or of any other articles which shall have been legally imported there; and that all such articles so exported in foreign vessels, shall in like manner be subject to a duty of two per cent. ad valorem, over and above the duties (if any) which shall be payable on similar articles when exported from the Mauritius, or its dependencies, in British vessels.

It is, however, hereby further ordered and declared, that no foreign vessel, allowed by the terms of this Order to export a cargo from the Island of Mauritius, or its dependencies, shall be permitted to export such cargo to any of His Majesty's possessions. But that every British vessel which shall during the continuance of this present Order, have imported a cargo into any port of the said Island of Mauritius, or its dependencies, either from the United Kingdom, or from any other place, shall be permitted to carry back a return cargo, consisting of the articles aforesaid, to any place whatever, either belonging to His Majesty, or to any state in amity with His Majesty. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

And whereas His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, acting in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, has been pleased to direct, that Letters Patent under the Great Seal, revoking the Letters Patent constituting and appointing the Transport Board, shall issue on the 25th of this month; and further, by His Order in Council, bearing date the 2d January last, to direct, that all the powers, authorities, and rights now vested in the said Commissioners should, from and after the date of the Letters Patent of revocation aforesaid, be transferred and committed to the Principal Officers and Commissioners of the Navy and the Commissioners of Victualling respectively, agreeably to the provisions of the above-recited Act:
