Lord Chamberlain's-Office, April 5, 1817.

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Royal Highness the Prince Regent will hold a Levee at Carlton-House, on Thursday the 17th instant, at two o'clock.

THE following Addresses have been presented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent; which Addresses His Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously:

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, &c. &c. &c.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Bishop of Bangor, the Dean, the Arch-deacon of Merioneth, and the parochial Clergy of the Diocese of Bangor, beg leave humbly to approach your Royal Highness with our sincere and dutiful expressions of concern and abhorrence at the late treasonable outrage committed on your royal person, in the very exercise of the most solemn function committed to your care.

Deeply impressed with gratitude for the many invaluable benefits which our Nation and Church have enjoyed for more than half a century under the pious and prudent rule of our beloved Monarch, and fully persuaded that your Royal Highness has been anxious to continue these benefits, in the exercise of the high authority committed to your trust, we feel all the reverence and affection due to your person and office.

We have especially remarked your Royal Highness's zeal and Christian liberality, not only in sympathising with, but in relieving the distresses which, by God's permission, afflict this nation; a conduct so princely and becoming, as should bind all the subjects of this realm to the supreme authority by the closest ties of loyalty and attachment.

With these sentiments, Sir, and influenced by a strong conviction of the duties peculiarly incumbent on us as a Body of the Established Clergy, your Royal Highness may rest assured, that we shall zealously exert our-elves in our respective districts, by instructing those committed to our spiritual care in the principles of true religion and sound morals; that, while we lift up our hearts with them in concerts of gratitude to the King of Kings for having preserved your royal life on the late traitorous attack, we shall at all times hereafter persevere in inculcating the Christian duty, of obedience and attachment to sovereign authority legally established and administered.

Henry, Bishop of Bangor.

[Transmitted by the Lord Bishop of Bangor, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most loyal, most dutiful, and most affectionate subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Dumbarton, beg leave to express our heartfelt grief and indignation at the disgraceful and atrocious outrage offered to your Royal Highness, when in the discharge of one of the most important functions of the Government.

While we feel the warmest gratitude to Divine Providence for preserving your august person from the violence of the disaffected, we are also gratified by observing that their attempt has called forth the general and unqualified abhorrence of His Majesty's subjects throughout the kingdom—a sentiment in which we are happy to assure your Royal Highness that the great body of the people under our ecclesiastical inspection most cordially participate.

That He by whom kings reign may continue to watch over your Royal Highness's Person and Government, and perpetuate to latest posterity the blessings so long enjoyed by the inhabitants of these lands, under the mild and paternal sway of your illustrious House, is the earnest prayer of, may it please your Royal Highness, His Majesty's most faithful and most obedient subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Dumbarton.

Signed, in our name, in our presence, and at our appointment, by

Duncan Macfarlan, Moderator.

REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The Address of the Presbytery of Air.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's dutiful subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Air, met in Presbytery for the first time since the opening of the present Session of Parliament, take the earliest opportunity afforded us to offer our sincere congratulations on the providential escape of your Royal Highness from the violent outrage of a misguided mob on that remarkable occasion, whereby the dignity of the crown was daringly insulted.

While we deeply lament that any of His Majesty's subjects should be found capable of attempting so odious a crime, we thank God, that the valuable life of our beloved Prince has been preserved as a public blessing.

Dutifully regretting the continued indisposition of our venerable Monarch, we admire the wisdom, and rejoice in the effect, with which you, Sir, have administered the Government of our country, in name and on behalf of your Royal Father, and we fervently pray that you may be long spared to tread in his foot-steps.

Firmly attached to our unrivalled Constitution, and to your Royal House, under whose auspices the British empire has attained to unprecedented fame, and universal admiration among the nations of the earth, it shall be our business, as ambassadors of the Prince of Peace, zealously to inculcate on that portion of the people committed to our care, those important duties of allegiance, subordination, and obedience to the laws, which, under the blessing of Heaven, secure the happiness and prosperity of a State.

And that He by whom Kings reign, and Princes decree justice, may, through our Lord Jesus Christ, continue to bless, and to guide, and protect your Royal Highness in the exercise of the royal function, is the earnest prayer of, may it please your Royal Highness, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Air.

Signed, in our name, and in our presence, and at our appointment, by

James Inglis, Moderator.

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales,
REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most faithful and loyal subjects, the Ministers of the Presbytery of Dalkeith, beg leave thus humbly to approach your Royal Highness, and to express our abhorrence and detestation of the late nefarious attack on your Royal Highness's person when returning from the opening of Parliament.

We feel a degree of sorrow and indignation beyond the power of language to convey, when we reflect that there exists in this highly favoured land a single individual capable of such atrocity. We are persuaded that the number of such characters must be comparatively small, and that the great body of the British people are too well aware of the blessings which, under Divine Providence, they derive from our admirable Constitution both in church and state, and of the wisdom and propriety of the manner in which the executive department has been hitherto conducted by your Royal Highness and His Majesty's Ministers, to be misled by the misrepresentations of ignorant or designing men. We have seen with exultation, and with the warmest gratitude to Almighty God, since your Royal Highness has been called by his providence to assume the reins of Government, the nation attain a degree of glory, of power and of prosperity, not only beyond every example recorded in its former history, but even beyond the anticipations of its most sanguine statesmen.

And we cannot view without horror and pity the unprincipled and cruel attempts made by certain wicked persons throughout the country to delude the lower orders of His Majesty's subjects, and thereby aggravate, in an incalculable manner, the feeling of that unavoidable distress which many of them (we lament to say) at present suffer, by leading them to impute its pressure to imaginary causes, and to expect relief from impracticable means.

We pray for the blessing of God on the measures adopted by your Royal Highness's Government and the wisdom of Parliament to frustrate the designs of the enemies of our peace; and convinced as we are that the Throne and the Altar must stand or fall together, and that the spirit of disaffection and disorder, which has of late begun to shew itself, is, in almost every case, to be traced to irreligion as its source, we shall not cease to inculcate on the minds of the people committed to our charge the fear of God as the only sure foundation of due honour to the King. We only beg leave farther to express to your Royal Highness the high satisfaction we feel in being able to assure your Royal Highness, that within our immediate bounds we have observed little or none of that disorderly spirit which has unfortunately pervaded too many other parts of the Kingdom.

That Almighty God may guard and bless your Royal Highness and this great people, over which in the course of his providence he has called you to be the Ruler, is our constant and earnest prayer.

Signed in our name, in our presence, and by our appointment, at Dalkeith, this 25th day of March 1817.

To His Royal Highness George PRINCE REGENT of the United Kingdoms of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble and dutiful Address of the Presbytery of Lorn, in the Shire of Argyll.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most loyal and faithful subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Lorn, request permission humbly to approach your Royal Highness, to express our deep abhor-rence of the late atrocious outrage attempted on the person of your Royal Highness, when returning from opening the present session of Parliament, and to testify our unfeigned gratitude to Almighty God, for the preservation of your royal person and sacred life from a foul and unnatural treason.

That the same good Providence, which has thus shielded and watched over you, may long continue to preserve you as a blessing to these nations, and to the Protestant Church, is the fervent prayer of, may it please your Royal Highness, the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Lorn, met at Oban, this 25th March 1817.

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales,
REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble Address of the High Sheriff,
Noblemen, Clergy, Gentry, and Freeholders of the Queen's County

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Noblemen, Clergy, Gentry, and Freeholders of the Queen's County, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with our warm and sincere congratulations on your providential escape from the outrageous attack on your sacred person on your return from the exercise of one of the most important functions of the royal prerogative.

We cannot sufficiently express our indignation and regret, that any person should be found capable of committing so daring and flagitious an outrage, but while we express our feelings with regard to the persons who committed so atrocious an act, we deem ourselves called upon most strongly to reprobate the conduct of those whose inflammatory and irreligious doctrines and publications, have led to a result so atrocious; and who, taking advantage of the distresses and embarrassment of the times, seek to subvert our excellent Constitution, the pride and happiness of this realm, and the envy of other nations.

While we lament the existence of the present distresses, we look forward with confidence for their amelioration, under Divine Providence, to the firmness of your Royal Highness's Councils and the wisdom of the Legislature.

Sincerely attached to our venerated Sovereign, your Royal Highness and family, we beg leave to assure your Royal Highness that we shall at all times be ready to support the Crown, the Laws, and the Constitution, to the utmost of our power.

Walter Dixon Borrowes, High Sheriff.

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Sheriff, Foreman, and Grand Jury of the County of Armagh, assembled at Lent Assizes, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness, with assurances of our unshaken continuance in that loyalty and attachment to your Royal Person and the illustrious House of Brunswick, which it affords us a proud satisfaction to think have distinguished this country in the worst of times.

We would express our indignant abhorrence of those delusive doctrines which led to, and of those audacious traitors who perpetrated the late atrocious outrage against your Royal Person and dignity, when returning from the exercise of your high constitutional functions.

We lament that the British dominions should have been found to contain one wretch so lost to every British feeling, but we trust that in this, the peal of loyalty which has rung from one end of those dominions to the other, has convinced your Royal Highness how weak and insignificant is that infuriated faction, which would seek to violate, in the person of the Sovereign, those laws and that Constitution which have been for ages the admiration and the envy of surrounding nations, and the palladium of our own, amid the anarchy of the world;

May that Power by whom Kings reign and nations prosper, grant to your Royal Highness long to wield the sceptre of this United Kingdom, in honour and in happiness, and to our beloved country ever to stand as firmly proof against the machinations of the traitor at home, as she has risen proudly superior to the enemy abroad.

William Irwin, High Sheriff, Charles

Armagh, Grand Jury Room, March 17, 1817.

[Transmitted by His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales,
REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

WE, His Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Sheriff, Foreman, and Grand Jury of the County of Antrim, assembled at the Lent Assizes 1817, humbly approach your Royal Highness to express our deepest concern at the daring insult offered to the Royal Authority in the treasonable assault and outrage committed against your sacred person whilst in the discharge of your high and most important functions at the opening of this Session of Parliament.

We regret that the perpetrators of such detestable and treasonable acts have not been discovered and brought to make a just atonement to the injured laws of their Country: (whilst we sympathise with sufferings which it was not in the power of human wisdom to avert), we observe with abhorrence the attempts of evil-disposed persons to mislead some of His Majesty's subjects into offences against the State.

We trust to the care of His Majesty's Councils and the predominant good sense and fortitude of the great body of the nation, to support us under these distresses, and preserve to us inviolate the blessings of our excellent and unrivalled Constitution.

We again beg your Royal Highness to accept the assurance of unalterable attachment to our revered Sovereign and his Illustrious House. With every disposition to alleviate the sufferings of our fellow subjects, we pledge ourselves to resist with energy and promptitude any effort to disturb the public peace or to endanger the Government as established under our venerable and inestimable Constitution.

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

The Address of the High Sheriff, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of West Meath.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the High Sheriff, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of West Meath, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness, with sentiments of the most dutiful and sincere congratulation on your Royal Highness's escape from the late treasonable attempt upon your Royal Highness's person, when returning from Parliament, after performing one of the most important duties of the Royal Prerogative; and we beg leave to assure your Royal Highness, that while we feel horror at such an attempt, and just indignation against the perpetration of such atrocious crime, and while we lament that thereby the British character should have been in any, even the least degree, stained and degraded, yet we feel consolation in the confidence, that this treasonable attempt on your Royal Highness's person was confined to a few individuals of the lowest orders of society, who were misled and deluded by the insidious intrigues of a few desperate men, whose object was to throw the country into confusion, by deceiving the ignorant and unwary, and thus to try to raise themselves upon the ruin of their fellow subjects and their country.

It has afforded us much consolation to find that no suspicion has attached to any portion of His Majesty's subjects in this country, and we assure your Royal Highness, that it shall be our unremitting care, in our respective stations, to keep alive that spirit of loyalty which has drawn from your Royal Highness's confidential servants, the satisfactory assurance, "That not a single convert had been made in Ireland to those principles and practices, on which has been founded the suspension of the Habeas Corpus Act in England."

Firmly attached to the family of our revered Monarch, and to your Royal Highness's person, we assure your Royal Highness of our readiness and determination, upon all occasions, to defend and support to the utmost of our power your Royal Highness's person against every treasonable attempt, and to maintain and support with our utmost exertions the happy Constitution of these realms, under which we enjoy the fullest rational freedom and the most perfect security.

Signed, on behalf of the meeting,

James Gibbons, jun. High Sheriff.

Admiralty-Office, March 24, 1817.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-sixth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for transferring all contracts and securities entered into, with, or given to the Commissioners for Transports, to the Commissioners of the Navy and Victualling," it is provided, that if His Majesty shall be pleased, by any Commission or Letters Patent, to cancel and revoke the Commission or Letters Patent, constituting and appointing certain Commissioners for conducting His Majesty's Transport Service, and also for the Care of Sick and Wounded Seamen, as well as for the Care and Custody of Prisoners of War, and all other services respecting the employment of ships or vessels in any department which the Lord High Treasurer or Commissioners of the Treasury for the time being might thereafter place under their management, and by any other Commission, Letters Patent, or Order in Council thereafter to be made, to grant, transfer, or commit all or any of the powers, authorities, and rights now vested in the said Commissioners, relating to, or so far as they may relate to, the conduct and management of the transport service, or other service respecting the employment of ships or vessels in any other department of His Majesty's Government, or any thing relating thereto, to the Principal Officers and Commissioners of the Navy; and all and any of the powers, authorities, and rights now vested in the said Commissioners for conducting the Transport Service, relating to, or so far as they may relate to, the care of sick and wounded seamen, or any thing relating thereto, or so far as they may relate to the care and maintenance of prisoners of war, or any thing relating thereto, to the Commissioners for Victualling His Majesty's Navy, that from and after such revocation, and such further grant by His Majesty, all contracts, covenants, and agreements made and entered into between the said Commissioners for conducting the Transport Service, or any person on their behalf, and any other person or persons whomsoever, for the hire of transports, ships, and vessels, or for any other purpose connected with the transport or other services above mentioned, or in any manner relating thereto; and all bonds and other securities entered into by any person or persons for the due performance for such contracts, covenants, or agreements for the doing or performing of any other act, matter, or thing whatsoever relating to the said transport and other services; and also all contracts, covenants, and agreements made and entered into between the said Commissioners for conducting the Transport Service, or any person on their behalf, and any other person or persons whomsoever, for the supply of any articles or things whatsoever for the use of the sick and wounded seamen in His Majesty's service, or prisoners of war, or for any other purpose connected with the care of the said seamen or prisoners, or in any manner relating thereto; and all bonds and other securities entered into by person or persons for the due performance of such last-mentioned contracts, covenants, or agreements, or for the doing or performing of any other act, matter, or thing whatsoever relating to the last-mentioned services, shall be vested in and transferred to the said Principal Officers and Commissioners of the Navy and the said Commissioners for Victualling His Majesty's Navy respectively, and shall continue in force in like manner to all intents and purposes as if the same contracts, covenants, and agreements, bonds, and other securities, had been entered into with the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, or any of them, or with the Commissioners for Victualling His Majesty's Navy, or any of them:

And whereas His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, acting in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, has been pleased to direct, that Letters Patent under the Great Seal, revoking the Letters Patent constituting and appointing the Transport Board, shall issue on the 25th of this month; and further, by His Order in Council, bearing date the 2d January last, to direct, that all the powers, authorities, and rights now vested in the said Commissioners should, from and after the date of the Letters Patent of revocation aforesaid, be transferred and committed to the Principal Officers and Commissioners of the Navy and the Commissioners of Victualling respectively, agreeably to the provisions of the above-recited Act:

This is to give notice thereof, for the information of all persons whom it may concern.

J. W. CROKER.

Whitehall, March 24, 1817.

WHereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, about eleven o'clock on the night of Monday the 10th instant, some evil-disposed person or persons did maliciously set fire to two large ricks of beans, standing in a field belonging to Mr. Brindley, of Wheaton Aston, in the county of Stafford, and totally destroyed the same;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said felony, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person or persons who actually set fire to the said ricks), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And as a further encouragement a reward of TWENTY POUNDS is hereby offered, to be paid by the Treasurer of the Lapley and Wheaton Aston Association, and a further reward of TWENTY POUNDS by the said Mr. Brindley to any person (except as is before excepted) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof, or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring the said offenders, or any of them, to conviction, or cause them, or any of them, so to be apprehended and convicted as aforesaid.

Whitehall, March 29, 1817.

WHereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that about twelve o'clock on the night of Monday the 24th instant, a barn, stable, and cowshed, and two straw ricks nearly adjoining the barn, on the premises of Mr. Joseph Howell, of Gunstone, in the parish of Brewood, in the county of Stafford, were discovered to be in flames, the whole of which were entirely consumed, and that there is every reason to suppose that the same were wilfully and maliciously set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said felony, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person or persons who actually set fire to the said premises and straw ricks), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY GUINEAS is hereby offered by the said Mr. Howell, and TWENTY GUINEAS by the Brewood Association, to any person (except as is before excepted) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof, or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring the said offenders, or any of them, to conviction, or cause them, or any of them, so to be apprehended and convicted as aforesaid.

Navy-Office, March 29, 1817.

PENSIONS.

Notice is hereby given, that the pensions payable on the Ordinary Estimate of the Navy are in course of payment for the quarter ending the 25th of March; and that they will in future be paid as soon as possible after the following days, provided the parties have sent the necessary documents:

24th of June.
29th of September.
25th of December.

R. A. Nelson, Secretary.

Office of Ordnance, March 21, 1817.

THE Master-General and Board of Ordnance having granted their authority for the sale of impressions taken from the plates engraved on a scale of one inch to the mile, from the General Survey of Great Britain, performed under the superintendence of Colonel William Mudge, the public are hereby informed, that twenty-six plates are already finished, and that impressions from them are on sale at the Drawing-Room in the Tower. These plates form a complete map of the coast of Great Britain from Folkstone, in Kent, to the Land's End, in Cornwall, and thence to Wick St. Lawrence, near Bristol; and also from the Thames to Orfordness. Several other plates of this work are now in hand, and that which contains the northern part of Hampshire will shortly be ready for publication.

The Index to the Votes, at the end of the Session, or any occasional appendixes during the Session, will be furnished, at four pence per sheet, if required.

Apply personally, or by letter (post-paid) to James Mitchell, No. 5, King-Street, Westminster.

To the Descendants of SAMUEL RICH, deceased.

Whereas James Rich, late of Overstowey, in the County of Somerset, Esq. who departed this life on the 15th of April in the year 1815, did by his last will and testament, bearing date the 19th of August in the year 1813, direct his Executors, William Coles and Thomas Poole, Esqrs. to make distribution of all his residuary estate and effects unto and amongst all and every the descendants of his, the Testator's, late grandfather, Samuel Rich, lawfully begotten, or to be begotten, who should be living at the time of his, the testator's death, and who should, by themselves or agents, claim the same, and make out proof of their relationship to the satisfaction of his Executors, within two years next after his death:—Notice is, therefore, hereby given, that all persons claiming any share or interest of or in the residuary estate and effects of the said James Rich, by virtue of his said will, must send or deliver their claims, accompanied by a pedigree regularly deduced and proved by extracts from parish registers, or other authentic documents, to Messrs. Poole and Stradling, Solicitors, Bridgewater, on or before the 15th day of April instant, or they will be excluded from all benefit under the said will.

N.B. No letters will be attended to unless they are sent free of postage.

THE Creditors (if any) of Charles Cooke, late of Bell's Buildings, Salisbury-Square, London, Merchant, who have not executed a deed of trust, bearing date the 25th day of May 1804, are requested to send an account of their demands to Messrs. Pitches and Sampson, Solicitors, Swinburn's Lane, on or before the 30th day of May next, when the Trustees intend to make a final dividend of his estate and effects.

Celebrated Leasehold, Gunpowder Works, Battle, Sussex.

TO be sold by auction, by Mr. Munn, on Tuesday, the 20th of May, at Twelve o'clock at Noon, at the Auction Mart, London, in one lot, under an order of the Commissioners named in a Commission of Bankruptcy issued against Mr. W. G. Harvey, unless an acceptable offer be made in the meantime by private contract;

The whole of the capital manufactory for gunpowder, known and celebrated as Battle powder, consisting of four mills, worked by powerful falls of water during the winter months, two of which may, by means of a steam engine on Boulton and Watt's principle, be also uninterruptedly worked during the whole of the year, and a brimstone mill, with numerous buildings appropriated to the manufacture in cylinder corning, glazing, and refining-houses, steam and other stoves, and detached magazines, together with a handsome convenient family residence, suitable offices, pleasure and vegetable gardens, and a well planted orchard, with several labourers cottages, and a close of meadow land, situate at Battle; and also works of a similar description on a smaller scale at Seddescombe, an easy distance from the principal works, occupying together twelve pr. of stones. The whole is held for an unexpired term, of fifteen years, by leases granted by Sir Godfrey Webster, Bart. at very easy rents, and under peculiarly advantageous covenants.

May be viewed by applying to John Matthison, at the Battle Works, and William Gibbs, at the Seddescombe works; and particulars had of Messrs. Gregsons and Fonncreau, Solicitors, Angel-Court, Throgmorton-Street, London; of Mr. Martin, Solicitor, Battle; and of Mr. Munn, Walbrook, near the Royal Exchange, who are authorised to treat for the sale by private contract; particulars also at the Bank, Hastings; the Rose and Crown, Tonbridge; the Bull and George, Dartford; the Red Lion, Hounslow; and at the Auction Mart, London.

TO be peremptorily sold by auction, at the Red Lion Inn, Shaftesbury, on Wednesday the 23d April instant.

Lot 1. A large and convenient dwelling-house called Bay-house-Farm-House, with good offices, a six stalled and open stables, a spacious barn, cow stalls, and other buildings, a convenient farm yard, a courtlage, and a garden containing about one acre.

Lot 2. A close of excellent pasture called the Orchard, containing about one acre with buildings thereon.

Lot 3. Another close of pasture called Carter's-Mead, containing about three and one-half acres, situate in the Parish of Iserne-Minster, in the County of Dorset. Lots one and two are held for three good lives, one of which is insured, and lot three for the remainder of a term of which twenty years are unexpired.

These premises form a desirable situation for a factory, or any business where a regular supply of good water is required, as they command one of the finest springs in the West of England, and have the benefit of good roads.

Iserne is about eight miles from Blandford and Shaston, and six from Sturminster.

For further information apply at the house; or to Mr. George Score, Solicitor, Sturminster; or Mr. Score, Solicitor, Sherborne, Dorset.

TO be sold by auction, before the major part of the Commissioners named in and by a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued against John Cawson, of Liverpool, in the County of Lancaster, Broker, Dealer and Chapman, at the Star and Garter, in Paradise-Street, Liverpool, on Wednesday the 16th day of April 1817, at Seven o'Clock in the Evening, subject to conditions;

All that warehouse, with the yard and premises thereunto belonging, situate and being on the east side of Lancelot's Hey, in Liverpool aforesaid, and late in the possession of the said John Cawson.

For particulars apply to Mr. Kidd, Solicitor, Manesty's-Lane, or to Messrs. Gunnery and Frodsham, Solicitors, King-Street, Liverpool.

TO be peremptorily sold, pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Griffiths against Robson, with the approbation of Francis Paul Stratford, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at the Public Sale-Room, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, on Wednesday the 16th day of April 1817, at One in the Afternoon, in one lot;
