Lord Chamberlain's-Office, April 5, 1817.

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Royal Highness the Prince Regent will hold a Levee at Carlton-House, on Thursday the 17th instant, at two o'clock.

THE following Addresses have been presented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent; which Addresses His Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously:

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, &c. &c. &c.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Bishop of Bangor, the Dean, the Archdeacon of Merioneth, and the parochial Clergy of the Diocese of Bangor, beg leave humbly to approach your Royal Highness with our sincere and dutiful expressions of concern and abhorrence at the late treasonable outrage committed on your royal person, in the very exercise of the most solemn function committed to your care.

Deeply impressed with gratitude for the many invaluable benefits which our Nation and Church have enjoyed for more than half a century under the pious and prudent rule of our beloved Monarch, and fully persuaded that your Royal Highness has been anxious to continue these benefits, in the exercise of the high authority committed to your trust, we feel all the reverence and affection due to your person and office.

We have especially remarked your Royal Highness's zeal and Christian liberality, not only in sympathising with, but in relieving the distresses which, by God's permission, afflict this nation; a conduct so princely and becoming, as should bind all the subjects of this realm to the supreme authority by the closest ties of loyalty and attachment.

With these sentiments, Sir, and influenced by a strong conviction of the duties peculiarly incumbent on us as a Body of the Established Clergy, your Royal Highness may rest assured, that we shall zealously exert our-elves in our respective districts, by instructing those committed to our spiritual care in the principles of true religion and sound morals; that, while we lift up our hearts with them in concerts of gratitude to the King of Kings for having preserved your royal life on the late traitorous attack, we shall at all times hereafter persevere in inculcating the Christian duty, of obedience and attachment to sovereign authority legally established and administered.

Henry, Bishop of Bangor.

[Transmitted by the Lord Bishop of Bangor, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most loyal, most dutiful, and most affectionate subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Dumbarton, beg leave to express our heartfelt grief and indignation at the disgraceful and atrocious outrage offered to your Royal Highness, when in the discharge of one of the most important functions of the Government.

While we feel the warmest gratitude to Divine Providence for preserving your august person from the violence of the disaffected, we are also gratified by observing that their attempt has called forth the general and unqualified abhorrence of His Majesty's subjects throughout the kingdom—a sentiment in which we are happy to assure your Royal Highness that the great body of the people under our ecclesiastical inspection most cordially participate.

That He by whom kings reign may continue to watch over your Royal Highness's Person and Government, and perpetuate to latest posterity the blessings so long enjoyed by the inhabitants of these lands, under the mild and paternal sway of your illustrious House, is the earnest prayer of, may it please your Royal Highness, His Majesty's most faithful and most obedient subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Dumbarton.

Signed, in our name, in our presence, and at our appointment, by

Duncan Macfarlan, Moderator.
