SATURDAY, APRIL 12, 1817.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, April 5, 1817.

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Royal Highness the Prince Regent will hold a Levee at Carlton-House, on Thursday the 17th instant, at two o'clock.

THE following Addresses have been presented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent; which Addresses His Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously:

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects of the King's County, convened by the High Sheriff, most respectfully beg leave to offer our most hearty congratulations to your Royal Highness, on your late providential escape from the daring attempt against your person, when returning from the House of Parliament after the discharge of one of the most constitutional functions of the high and dignified office represented and sustained by your Royal Highness with so much splendour and glory to the United Kingdom; and we sincerely hope, that condign punishment may speedily make an impressive example of the atrocious offender.

In deprecating this licentious and outrageous conduct towards your Royal Highness, so disgraceful to the subjects of a free State, and so discordant to the feelings of the English character, we would willingly believe it to have been instigated by the secret machinations of revolutionary demagogues, in order to screen by the tumult the perpetrator of so foul a treason, aimed at the vitals of our Constitution.

In contemplating the distress which pervades, not only all ranks throughout His Majesty's dominions, but every State in Europe at large, and which has been very much aggravated by the inevitable injury universally felt by the agricultural interest in the late harvest, occasioned by the very unusual and long continued inclemency of the weather, we have chiefly to lament, that the dispensations of Providence should be so artfully perverted, and used so successfully as a pretext, to promote disaffection amongst the lower orders; but we rely with the most sanguine hopes on the parental solicitude of your Royal Highness, confidently expecting, that every suggestion which can tend to promote encouragement and relief to the community at large, and revive the drooping industry of the country, will emanate from the Councils of your Royal Highness.

Under this impression, and at a time so appropriate for public expressions of loyalty and attachment to our King and Constitution, we cannot omit to renew through your Royal Highness our repeated declarations of fealty and allegiance to your Royal Father, our most revered Sovereign, and his august Family, in support of their rights to the succession, crown, and dignity in these realms, as by law established.

Signed for the meeting, by unanimous desire,
Rich. Malone, Sheriff.

[Transmitted by His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Bishop, Chancellor, Archdeacons, Rural Deans, and Clergy of the Diocese of Chichester, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with assurances of most heartfelt attachment to the illustrious House of Brunswick, and of highest respect for your royal person; and while avowing, with the deepest emotions of horror, our detestation of the base insult and atrocious outrage offered to your Royal Highness, when returning from the discharge of one of the most dignified functions of the British Crown, we request permission further to assure your Royal Highness of our zeal and determination to promote, to the utmost of our abilities, amongst those intrusted to our pastoral care, a spirit of order and allegiance, of peaceable demeanour, and submission to the laws, by impressing their minds with a just sense of the unrivalled excellence of our Constitution, in Church and State, and of the religious obligations on all ranks of the community to venerate, support, and preserve it.

[Transmitted by the Lord Bishop of Chichester, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble and dutiful Address of His Majesty's loyal subjects, the Freeholders, Justices of Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and Heritors of the County of Orkney.

WE, the Freeholders, Justices of Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and Heritors of the County of Orkney, in approaching your Royal Highness upon the present occasion, beg leave to assure you of our invariable attachment to your Royal Highness, and of our fidelity and loyalty to His Majesty.

It is with feelings of the deepest horror and indignation, that we have learned that your Royal Highness has been exposed to the attack of a lawless and misguided mob.

While we lament that a mischievous spirit of revolt should at all exist in this country, we at the same time feel convinced that it is confined to a few, and that the great body of the British people will be found zealously attached to your Royal Highness, and to the Constitution over which you preside.

With our sincere gratitude to Heaven for its gracious protection so lately evinced to your Royal Highness, we add our fervent prayers, that your Royal Highness may long be preserved to exercise the Government of these realms in peace, honour, and happiness.

Signed in our name, and by our appointment, at Kirkwall, the 12th day of March 1817 years, by Wm. G. Watt, Preses.

By His Royal Highness the PRINCE of WALES, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the Name and on the Behalf of His Majesty,

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE, P. R.

WHEREAS George William Earl of Rothes was duly elected and returned to be one of the sixteen Peers of Scotland, to sit in the House of Peers in the present Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and is since deceased; in order to the electing another Peer of Scotland to sit in his room, We do, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, issue forth this Proclamation, strictly charging and commanding all the Peers of Scotland to assemble and meet at Holyrood-House, in Edinburgh, on Thursday the seventeenth day of April next, between the hours of twelve and two in the afternoon, to nominate and choose another Peer of Scotland, to sit and vote in the House of Peers of this present Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the room of the said George William Earl of Rothes, deceased, by open election and plurality of voices of the Peers that shall then be present, and of the proxies of such as shall be absent (such proxies being Peers, and producing a mandate in writing, duly signed before witnesses, and both constituent and proxy being qualified according to law), and the Lord Clerk Register, or such two of the Principal Clerks of the Session as shall be appointed by him to officiate in his name, are hereby respectively required to attend such meeting, and to administer the oaths required by law to be taken there by the said Peers, and to take their votes; and immediately after such election made and duly examined, to certify the name of the Peer so elected, and sign and attest the same in the presence of the said Peers the electors, and return such certificate into the High Court of Chancery of Great Britain. And We strictly charge and command that this Proclamation be duly published at the Market-Cross at Edinburgh, and in all the county towns in Scotland, twenty-five days, at least, before the time hereby appointed for the meeting of the said Peers to proceed on such election.

Given at the Court at Carlton-House, the first day of March; one thousand eight hundred and seventeen, in the fifty-seventh year of His Majesty's reign.

GOD save the KING.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 1st of March 1817,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the present session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to continue and extend the provisions of an Act, of the forty-ninth year of His present Majesty, for regulating the trade and commerce to and from the Cape of Good Hope, until the fifth day of July one thousand eight hundred and twenty; and also for regulating the trade of the Island of Mauritius;" His Majesty is authorised, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, by any Order or Orders to be issued from time to time, to give such directions, and make such regulations touching the trade and commerce to and from all islands, colonies, or places, and the territories and dependencies thereof, to His Majesty belonging or in His possession, in Africa, or Asia to the eastward of the Cape of Good Hope (excepting only the possessions of the East India Company), as to His Majesty, in Council, shall appear most expedient and salutary, any thing contained in an Act, passed in the twelfth year of the reign of His Majesty King Charles the Second, intituled "An Act for the encouraging and increasing of shipping and navigation," or in an Act, passed in the seventh and eighth years of the reign of His Majesty King William the Third, intituled "An Act for preventing frauds, and regulating abuses in the plantation trade," or any other Act or Acts of Parliament now in force, relating to His Majesty's colonies and plantations, or any other Act or Acts of Parliament, law, usage or custom to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding: and whereas on the night of the twenty-fifth of September last, a dreadful fire broke out in the town of Port Lewis, in the Island of Mauritius, which totally destroyed the chief part of that town, together with a great mass of provisions and merchandise intended for the consumption and trade of its inhabitants, whereby a great number of families were reduced to extreme indigence, and left without a home; in consequence of which dreadful calamity the Governor of the said Island found himself compelled to open the ports of the Island to foreign vessels, in order to afford the speediest relief of which the case would admit, and thereby to save His Majesty's subjects residing in that colony from the greatest extremity of distress; and whereas it is expedient that facilities should in consequence be granted to the trade of the Island of Mauritius, for a limited time, with the view of giving still further relief to its suffering inhabitants; His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that all vessels, whether British or foreign vessels belonging to countries in amity with His Majesty, arriving at any port of the Island of Mauritius, or its dependencies, within twelve months from the date of this present Order, from any country in amity with His Majesty, laden with any articles the growth, production, or manufacture of any such country, excepting all articles composed of cotton, iron, steel, or wool of foreign manufacture, shall be permitted to enter and land their cargoes, and dispose of the same, in the said ports; provided always, that such articles, when imported in a foreign ship, shall pay a duty of two per cent. ad valorem, over and above what may be payable upon similar goods when imported in a British ship.

And it is further ordered, that every such vessel, arriving as aforesaid, shall be permitted to export a cargo, consisting of any articles of the growth, produce, or manufacture of the Island of Mauritius, or its dependencies, or of any other articles which shall have been legally imported there; and that all such articles so exported in foreign vessels, shall in like manner be subject to a duty of two per cent. ad valorem, over and above the duties (if any) which shall be payable on similar articles when exported from the Mauritius, or its dependencies, in British vessels.

It is, however, hereby further ordered and declared, that no foreign vessel, allowed by the terms of this Order to export a cargo from the Island of Mauritius, or its dependencies, shall be permitted to export such cargo to any of His Maesty's possessions. But that every British vessel which shall during the continuance of this present Order, have imported a cargo into any port of the said Island of Mauritius, or its dependencies, either from the United Kingdom, or from any other place, shall be permitted to carry back a return cargo, consisting of the articles aforesaid, to any place whatever, either belonging to His Majesty, or to any state in amity with His Majesty. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Chetwynd.

Admiralty-Office, March 24, 1817.

Whereas by an Act, passed in the fifty-sixth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for transferring all contracts and securities entered into, with, or given to the Commissioners for Transports, to the Commissioners of the Navy and Victualling," it is provided, that if His Majesty shall be pleased, by any Commission or Letters Patent, to cancel and revoke the Commission or Letters Patent, constituting and appointing certain Commissioners for conducting His Majesty's Transport Service, and also for the Care of Sick and Wounded Seamen, as well as for the Care and Custody of Prisoners of War, and all other services respecting the employment of ships or vessels in any department which the Lord High Treasurer or Commissioners of the Treasury for the time being might thereafter place under their management, and by any other Commission, Letters Patent, or Order in Council thereafter to be made, to grant, transfer, or commit all or any of the powers, authorities, and rights now vested in the said Commissioners, relating to, or so far as they may relate to, the conduct and management of the transport service, or other service respecting the employment of ships or vessels in any other department of His Majesty's Government, or any thing relating thereto, to the Principal Officers and Commissioners of the Navy; and all and any of the powers, authorities, and rights now vested in the said Commissioners for conducting the Transport Service, relating to, or so far as they may relate to, the care of sick and wounded seamen, or any thing relating thereto, or so far as they may relate to the care and maintenance of prisoners of war, or any thing relating thereto, to the Commissioners for Victualling His Majesty's Navy, that from and after such revocation, and such further grant by His Majesty, all contracts, covenants, and agreements made and entered into between the said Commissioners for conducting the Transport Service, or any person on their behalf, and any other person or persons whomsoever, for the hire of transports, ships, and vessels, or for any other purpose connected with the transport or other services above mentioned, or in any manner relating thereto; and all bonds and other securities entered into by any person or persons for the due performance for such contracts, covenants, or agreements for the doing or performing of any other act, matter, or thing whatsoever relating to the said transport and other services; and also all contracts, covenants, and agreements made and entered into between the said Commissioners for conducting the Transport Service, or any person on their behalf, and any other person or persons whomsoever, for the supply of any articles or things whatsoever for the use of the sick and wounded seamen in His Majesty's service, or prisoners of war, or for any other purpose connected with the care of the said seamen or prisoners; or in any manner relating thereto; and all bonds and other securities entered into by person or persons for the due performance of such last-mentioned contracts, covenants, or agreements, or for the doing or performing of any other act, matter, or thing whatsoever relating to the last-mentioned services, shall be vested in and transferred to the said Principal Officers and Commissioners of the Navy and the said Commissioners for Victualling His Majesty's Navy respectively, and shall continue in force in like manner to all intents and purposes as if the same contracts, covenants, and agreements, bonds, and other securities, had been entered into with the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, or any of them, or with the Commissioners for Victualling His Majesty's Navy, or any of them:

And whereas His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, acting in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, has been pleased to direct, that Letters Patent under the Great Seal, revoking the Letters Patent constituting and appointing the Transport Board, shall issue on the 25th of this month; and further, by His Order in Council, bearing date the 2d January last, to direct, that all the powers, authorities, and rights now vested in the said Commissioners should, from and after the date of the Letters Patent of revocation aforesaid, be transferred and committed to the Principal Officers and Commissioners of the Navy and the Commissioners of Victualling respectively, agreeably to the provisions of the above-recited Act:

This is to give notice thereof, for the information of all persons whom it may concern.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, about eleven o'clock on the night of Monday the 10th instant, some evil-disposed person or persons did maliciously set fire to two large ricks of beans, standing in a field belonging to Mr. Brindley, of Wheaton Aston, in the county of Stafford, and totally destroyed the same;

Notice is hereby given, that, by virtue of the authority vested in me by the Act of Parliament, fifty-fourth of His present Majesty, I do hereby revoke the licence granted to

to act as an agent in the receipt of pay, wages, prize and bounty-money, for and in respect of the service of petty officers, seamen, and others in any of His Majesty's ships; which licence is withdrawn by me, on the ground of her not having accounted to Michael Keefe, late of His Majesty's ship Modeste, for prize-money received by her as his agent, after repeated applications were made to her for that purpose.
