Lord Chamberlain's-Office, April 19, 1817.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty will hold a Drawing-Room at the Queen's-Palace, on Wednesday next the 23d instant (being St. George's Day), to celebrate the birth-day of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent.

It is most earnestly recommended and desired, that the Nobility and Gentry, and all persons attending upon this occasion, will appear in dresses entirely of British manufacture.

THE following Addresses have been presented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent; which Addresses His Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously:

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, PRINCE REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, &c.

The loyal and dutiful Address of the Catholics of the Town of Preston, in the County Palatine of Lancaster.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Members of the Catholic Congregation of Preston and its vicinity, being on principle firmly and inviolably attached to religious and social order, and to the Constitution of our country, have learned with regret and indignation, the late atrocious outrage committed against your sacred person. We now humbly beg leave to congratulate your Royal Highness on your late providential escape, and also to assure your Royal Highness, that we hold in the utmost abhorrence and detestation the aforesaid and all other treasonable practices, tending to subvert the Government of His Majesty and the Constitution of our country, which we are ready to defend against every attempt, at the risk of our persons and our property.

Whilst offering this congratulation to your Royal Highness, we humbly beg to express our confidence, that the loyalty and allegiance which on this and every other occasion have influenced our conduct, in common with that of the great body of His Majesty's Catholic subjects throughout the empire, will recommend us to a speedy and full participation of the rights and benefits of the British Constitution.

[Transmitted by Lord Castlereagh, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, PRINCE REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and of all the Countries and Territories thereunto belonging.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most ancient and ever loyal and dutiful subjects, the States of the Island of Jersey, deeply penetrated with horror and indignation at the late atrocious and treasonable attempt upon your Royal Highness's sacred person, when returning from exercising one of the most august attributes of the Regal Power, humbly crave leave to congratulate your Royal Highness upon your safe and providential escape from that dreadful and detestable attack.

We beg to assure your Royal Highness, that, in imitation of the noble and glorious example set to them by their brave and magnanimous ancestors, who were in all ages renowned for firm fidelity and zealous attachment to their Sovereigns, the Dukes of Normandy and Kings of England, the present inhabitants of this favoured island, animated by the same loyal spirit, and with true affection for His Majesty, for your Royal Highness, for your illustrious Family, and for the British Nation, and ever mindful of the many blessings and benefits they have long enjoyed under the mild and paternal sway of the House of Brunswick, are one and all ready to sacrifice their lives and fortunes in defence of your Royal Highness against every wicked and treasonable attempt upon your sacred person, and in support of His Majesty's Government against every effort to trouble the happiness or disturb the peace of the empire.

May the Great Ruler of the World have your Royal Highness continually under His watchful and holy protection; may He stretch forth His almighty arm to preserve you; may He cover you with His impenetrable shield; may He guard you from lawless perfidies, from treason, from danger and every injury. Most earnestly do we beseech Him, that you may long, very long, direct the helm of State with that wisdom, steadiness, and glory which have conspicuously signalized the administration ever since you held the reins of the Government.

By order of the States,
Frs. Godfray, Greffier.

Jersey, 9th April 1817.

[Transmitted by the Earl of Chatham, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The dutiful and loyal Address of the Ministers and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Aberdeen.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Aberdeen, in Synod assembled, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with the renewed assurance of our fidelity and attachment to His Majesty's Person and Government, and humbly to express our heartfelt abhorrence of the atrocious insult lately offered to your Royal Highness. We deeply regret that unprincipled and factious persons, taking advantage of temporary distress, have seduced multitudes of the lower classes of the community into conduct subversive of order and good government, and particularly unworthy of any inhabitant of this favoured kingdom. It affords us at the same time the highest satisfaction to assure your Royal Highness, that, in the congregations entrusted to our care, we perceive no symptoms of that spirit of irreligion and insubordination which has appeared in other places.

It shall be our great object to endeavour, by the faithful and zealous discharge of our ministerial duties, to inculcate those religious and loyal sentiments which have long secured, and can alone perpetuate, the happiness of our country. That Almighty God may ever protect your Royal Highness, and that your illustrious Family may long continue to sway the sceptre over these realms, is the ardent prayer of, may it please your Royal Highness, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Aberdeen.

Signed in our name and presence, and by our appointment,
Pat. Forbes, Moderator.

At the Court at Carlton-House, the 1st of March 1817,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council,

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the present session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to continue and extend the provisions of an Act, of the forty-ninth year of His present Majesty, for regulating the trade and commerce to and from the Cape of Good Hope, until the fifth day of July one thousand eight hundred and twenty; and also for regulating the trade of the Island of Mauritius;" His Majesty is authorised, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, by any Order or Orders to be issued from time to time, to give such directions, and make such regulations touching the trade and commerce to and from all islands, colonies, or places, and the territories and dependencies thereof, to His Majesty belonging or in His possession, in Africa, or Asia to the eastward of the Cape of Good Hope (excepting only the possessions of the East India Company), as to His Majesty, in Council, shall appear most expedient and salutary, any thing contained in an Act, passed in the twelfth year of the reign of His Majesty King Charles the Second, intituled "An Act for the encouraging and increasing of shipping and navigation," or in an Act, passed in the seventh and eighth years of the reign of His Majesty King William the Third, intituled "An Act for preventing frauds, and regulating abuses in the plantation trade," or any other Act or Acts of Parliament now in force, relating to His Majesty's colonies and plantations, or any other Act or Acts of Parliament, law, usage or custom to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding: and whereas on the night of the twenty-fifth of September last, a dreadful fire broke out in the town of Port Lewis, in the Island of Mauritius, which totally destroyed the chief part of that town, together with a great mass of provisions and merchandise intended for the consumption and trade of its inhabitants, whereby a great number of families were reduced to extreme indigence, and left without a home; in consequence of which dreadful calamity the Governor of the said Island found himself compelled to open the ports of the Island to foreign vessels, in order to afford the speediest relief of which the case would admit, and thereby to save His Majesty's subjects residing in that colony from the greatest extremity of distress; and whereas it is expedient that facilities should in consequence be granted to the trade of the Island of Mauritius, for a limited time, with the view of giving still further relief to its suffering inhabitants; His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that all vessels, whether British or foreign vessels belonging to countries in amity with His Majesty, arriving at any port of the Island of Mauritius, or its dependencies, within twelve months from the date of this present Order, from any country in amity with His Majesty, laden with any articles the growth, production, or manufacture of any such country, excepting all articles composed of cotton, iron, steel, or wool of foreign manufacture, shall be permitted to enter and land their cargoes, and dispose of the same, in the said ports; provided always, that such articles, when imported in a foreign ship, shall pay a duty of two per cent. ad valorem, over and above what may be payable upon similar goods when imported in a British ship.

And it is further ordered, that every such vessel, arriving as aforesaid, shall be permitted to export a cargo, consisting of any articles of the growth, produce, or manufacture of the Island of Mauritius, or its dependencies, or of any other articles which shall have been legally imported there; and that all such articles so exported in foreign vessels, shall in like manner be subject to a duty of two per cent. ad valorem, over and above the duties (if any) which shall be payable on similar articles when exported from the Mauritius, or its dependencies, in British vessels.

It is, however, hereby further ordered and declared, that no foreign vessel, allowed by the terms of this Order to export a cargo from the Island of Mauritius, or its dependencies, shall be permitted to export such cargo to any of His Majesty's possessions. But that every British vessel which shall during the continuance of this present Order, have imported a cargo into any port of the said Island of Mauritius, or its dependencies, either from the United Kingdom, or from any other place, shall be permitted to carry back a return cargo, consisting of the articles aforesaid, to any place whatever, either belonging to His Majesty, or to any state in amity with His Majesty. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Chetwynd.

This day the Prince de Castelcicala, Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary from His Majesty the King of the Two Sicilies, had an audience of the Prince Regent, to express to His Royal Highness the affliction, indignation and horror which have been excited in the mind of His Sicilian Majesty by the execrable attempt against the person of His Royal Highness, and to assure His Royal Highness of the interest which His Sicilian Majesty feels in every thing that concerns His Royal Highness;
