TUESDAY, APRIL 29, 1817.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 26th of April 1817,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

THIS day the Right Honourable Sir Richard Richards, Knight, Lord Chief Baron of His Majesty's Court of Exchequer, was, by His Royal Highness's command, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, sworn of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, and took his place at the Board accordingly.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 26th of April 1817,

PRESENT,

Council.

WHEREAS the rules and regulations of His Majesty's Order in Council of the fifth of April one thousand eight hundred and five, touching the performance of quarantine, have been understood to apply to all ships or vessels coming last from ports not declared by the said Order liable to infection, if such ships or vessels had, in the course of their voyage, previously touched at, or taken in a cargo at a port declared liable to infection: and whereas no danger to the public health is to be apprehended from a relaxation of the said rule, in respect to such of the said ships or vessels as shall arrive at any port or place in the United Kingdom, or the islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, under the circumstances and according to the provisos and conditions herein-after expressed and contained, His Royal Highness the Prince Regent is therefore pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, to order, direct, and ordain, that ships or vessels which having sailed from ports declared liable to infection, or having taken in a cargo or any goods at any port so declared liable to infection, shall afterwards have proceeded from such port to another port not declared liable to infection, and shall last sail from any such last mentioned port, and afterwards arrive from thence, either in ballast or with a cargo taken in at such port not declared liable to infection, at any port or place in the United Kingdom, or the islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, shall not be liable to the performance of quarantine; provided the Master or Commander, or any other person having the charge of any such ship or vessel, shall declare upon oath, that all goods, wares, or merchandize enumerated in the first or second class of His Majesty's aforesaid Order of the fifth of April one thousand eight hundred and five, which may have been received on board any such ship or vessel at any port declared liable to infection, had been landed or otherwise discharged from such ship or vessel at a port not declared liable to infection, at least forty days before the arrival of such ship or vessel at any port of the United Kingdom, or the islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man; and that no plague or infectious disease prevailed on board such ship or vessel, either among the crew or passengers, at any time from the commencement of the outward voyage to the termination of the homeward voyage; and provided also, that the goods taken on board at any such port or place not declared liable to infection, shall not be of the growth, produce, or manufacture of any country declared to be liable to infection; or if any goods of the first class taken into such ship or vessel at such port or place not declared liable to infection, shall be of the growth, produce, or manufacture of any country declared liable to infection; then, provided proof shall be given, according to the provisions of the forty-third section of His Majesty's said Order in Council of the fifth of April one thousand eight hundred and five, that such goods have performed quarantine, either at Malta, Ancona, Venice, Messina, Leghorn, Genoa, or Marseilles.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the principal Officers of the Ordnance, His Majesty's Secretary at War, and the Governors or Commanders in Chief for the time being of the Isles of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, and Man, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Chetwynd.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 1st of March 1817.

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the present session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to continue and extend the provisions of an Act, of the forty-ninth year of His present Majesty, for regulating the trade and commerce to and from the Cape of Good Hope, until the fifth day of July one thousand eight hundred and twenty; and also for regulating the trade of the Island of Mauritius;" His Majesty is authorised, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, by any Order or Orders to be issued from time to time, to give such directions, and make such regulations touching the trade and commerce to and from all islands, colonies, or places, and the territories and dependencies thereof, to His Majesty belonging or in His possession, in Africa, or Asia to the eastward of the Cape of Good Hope (excepting only the possessions of the East India Company), as to His Majesty, in Council, shall appear most expedient and salutary, any thing contained in an Act, passed in the twelfth year of the reign of His Majesty King Charles the Second, intituled "An Act for the encouraging and increasing of shipping and navigation," or in an Act, passed in the seventh and eighth years of the reign of His Majesty King William the Third, intituled "An Act for preventing frauds, and regulating abuses in the plantation trade," or any other Act or Acts of Parliament now in force, relating to His Majesty's colonies and plantations, or any other Act or Acts of Parliament, law, usage or custom to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding: and whereas on the night of the twenty-fifth of September last, a dreadful fire broke out in the town of Port Lewis, in the Island of Mauritius, which totally destroyed the chief part of that town, together with a great mass of provisions and merchandise intended for the consumption and trade of its inhabitants, whereby a great number of families were reduced to extreme indigence, and left without a home; in consequence of which dreadful calamity the Governor of the said Island found himself compelled to open the ports of the Island to foreign vessels, in order to afford the speediest relief of which the case would admit, and thereby to save His Majesty's subjects residing in that colony from the greatest extremity of distress; and whereas it is expedient that facilities should in consequence be granted to the trade of the Island of Mauritius, for a limited time, with the view of giving still further relief to its suffering inhabitants; His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that all vessels, whether British or foreign vessels belonging to countries in amity with His Majesty, arriving at any port of the Island of Mauritius, or its dependencies, within twelve months from the date of this present Order, from any country in amity with His Majesty, laden with any articles of the growth, production, or manufacture of any such country, excepting all articles composed of cotton, iron, steel, or wool of foreign manufacture, shall be permitted to enter and land their cargoes, and dispose of the same, in the said ports; provided always, that such articles, when imported in a foreign ship, shall pay a duty of two per cent. ad valorem, over and above what may be payable upon similar goods when imported in a British ship.

And it is further ordered, that every such vessel, arriving as aforesaid, shall be permitted to export a cargo, consisting of any articles of the growth, produce, or manufacture of the Island of Mauritius, or its dependencies, or of any other articles which shall have been legally imported there; and that all such articles so exported in foreign vessels, shall in like manner be subject to a duty of two per cent. ad valorem, over and above the duties (if any) which shall be payable on similar articles when exported from the Mauritius, or its dependencies, in British vessels.

It is, however, hereby further ordered and declared, that no foreign vessel, allowed by the terms of this Order to export a cargo from the Island of Mauritius, or its dependencies, shall be permitted to export such cargo to any of His Majesty's possessions. But that every British vessel which shall during the continuance of this present Order, have imported a cargo into any port of the said Island of Mauritius, or its dependencies, either from the United Kingdom, or from any other place, shall be permitted to carry back a return cargo, consisting of the articles aforesaid, to any place whatever, either belonging to His Majesty, or to any state in amity with His Majesty. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Chetwynd.

THE following Addresses have been presented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent; which Addresses His Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously:

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Bishop, Archdeacon, and Clergy of the Diocese of Gloucester, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with expressions of unfeigned respect and attachment to our beloved Sovereign, and to offer our heartfelt congratulations upon the late deliverance of your sacred Person, from the criminal attacks of a misguided populace.

In obedience to your Royal Highness's command, and in compliance with our own feelings, we present our most humble and earnest acknowledgments to that All-gracious Being, in whose hands are the lives as well as the hearts of Sovereigns, the disposal of the latter as seemeth best to his Godly wisdom, and the preservation of the former according to his own good pleasure, and in his own way, which is always best; and, while we ascribe all the power and all the praise to Almighty God, we cannot omit to unite with our congratulations and our thanksgivings, a decided and forcible declaration of the abhorrence with which we regard the efforts of designing men, to revive that spirit of irreligion and rebellion, so wisely and happily suppressed in the earlier periods of the late war, and to associate with it sentiments and projects of a nature, if possible, still more atrocious and dangerous.

In common with His Majesty's other loyal subjects, we profess our determination to support in our sphere of action, every constitutional measure which is calculated to check these designs, and to secure a just punishment to their promoters; and, in the discharge of our peculiar functions as Ministers of our most holy religion, ever to uphold and inculcate that inseparable union between "fearing God and honouring the King," which no sophistry could ever invalidate, and which none but practical infidels can openly deny or wilfully violate.

[Presented by the Lord Bishop of Gloucester.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the High Sheriff, Magistrates, Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Flint, lawfully convened for the purpose, approach your Royal Highness with sentiments of the deepest indignation against the abettors and perpetrators of the late ferocious attack on your royal person and authority, when returning from the discharge of the highest and most important functions of the regal office.

We regard such atrocities as the practical result of the doctrines that have been disseminated with indefatigable zeal amongst the lower orders of the community by traitorous innovators, who, associated under the pretext of reform, aim at the subversion of our unrivalled Constitution, and availing themselves of a period of general distress, strive to exasperate the discontents of the sufferers, seduce them from their allegiance, and render them fit instruments of the most nefarious designs, by eradicating from their minds all sense of religious duty, all regard for moral obligation and civil obedience.

Though we cannot contemplate the wide diffusion of such detestable principles without serious and well-founded alarm, we nevertheless rely with implicit confidence on the wisdom and energy of the constituted authorities of the realm, both legislative and executive, for the adoption and enforcing of such measures as may effectually suppress the rising spirit of insurrection, detect and punish the guilty, and convince the deluded of the folly, danger, and wickedness of their attempts.

At such an awful crisis we deem it our indispensable duty to bear to the foot of the Throne an assurance of our unshaken allegiance, and steadfast determination to uphold, and with God's blessing, transmit to posterity, that glorious Constitution under which we have enjoyed a degree of civil and religious liberty, public prosperity, and private happiness, unparalleled in the history of mankind.

Finally, we unite in grateful acknowledgments to the Almighty Disposer of Events, as the only safeguard in the hour of danger, and humbly implore that by a continuance of his gracious protection, your Royal Highness, the Great Council of the nation, and the subordinate Magistrates of the realm, may be preserved from secret conspiracy and open violence, and that the designs of the seditious may be frustrated, and the minds of all impressed with a salutary conviction of this important truth, "Unless a nation be virtuous it cannot be free."

Signed, on behalf the Meeting, this 24th day of February 1817.

John Salusbury Piozzi Salusbury, Sheriff.

[Presented by John Salusbury Piozzi Salusbury, Esq. Sheriff for the County.]

To His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

WE, His Majesty's most loyal subjects, the Mayor, Common Council, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Cardigan, beg leave to offer our most sincere and heartfelt congratulations to your Royal Highness, upon your escape from the violence of a lawless mob, whilst in the exercise of one of the most important functions of the State, and cannot help expressing our astonishment and indignation, that an insult so atrocious should have been committed by the subjects of a Government which has long been the envy and admiration of the world.

We feel for the distresses of our country, but trust that a well regulated œconomy and the wisdom of Parliament will tranquillize the public mind, and make those who have been deluded once more sensible of their obligations to your Royal Highness, as well as of the blessings which they have enjoyed and may continue to enjoy under our happy Constitution. Thomas Lloyd, Mayor.

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble and dutiful Address of the High Steward, Bailiffs, and Burgesses of the ancient Borough of Chipping-Campden, in the County of Gloucester.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects the High Steward, Bailiffs, and Burgesses of the ancient Borough of Chipping-Campden, in the County of Gloucester, most humbly beg leave to approach your Royal Highness, as the representative of our venerable and beloved Sovereign, with expressions of our unfeigned attachment to His Majesty, and to your Royal Highness's Person, Family, and Government.

We contemplate with feelings of the utmost indignation and abhorrence, the wicked and atrocious outrage lately committed against your Royal Highness's most sacred Person, at the time when your Royal Highness was in the exercise of your most high and important functions, with an intention of destroying from its foundation our glorious and inestimable Constitution.

We deeply lament that there should be found in any part of this Realm, men capable of committing such a foul and diabolical deed, and we are of opinion that at this important conjuncture, it is the duty of individuals to express, in the most public and efficacious manner, their utter detestation and disapprobation of the conduct of men who talk of reformation but plan destruction—who design to plunder and to gratify their malice, not to benefit their country—who would level the highest with the meanest—who spread suspicion—invent calumnies—propagate scandal—abet sedition—deny, and would resist lawful and settled authority, and who would gladly reckon those as friends who do not avow themselves as enemies—such a disposition, however wonderful, having been shewn to exist, must be watched and guarded against in all His Majesty's dominions.

We further beg leave to assure your Royal Highness, that being convinced "Government is necessary to man," we will severally and collectively, by all lawful means, oppose to all enemies of Church and State, both foreign and domestic, the most energetic resistance in our power to prevent evil by hindering insurrection, by counteracting, as far as in us lies, every attempt which may be made by disaffected and evil-disposed persons against the same, whether by factious meetings, writings, or otherwise.

And we earnestly hope that the universal prayer addressed to the Throne of Grace, for a long continuance of your Royal Highness's life, may be granted to an affectionate and loyal people.

Dated Chipping-Campden, April 8th, 1817.

[Presented by Sir Gerard Noel, Bart. High Steward of the Corporation.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of those United Kingdoms.

Sir,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects the Mayor, the Aldermen, and Inhabitants of the Town of Barnstaple and its Vicinity, beg leave to address your Royal Highness, on that daring and atrocious outrage which has been recently offered to your Royal Person; we contemplate with horror and detestation those violent and impious attacks; and to whatever cause they may be assigned, whether to the malevolence of the factious and rebellious, or the wild phrenzy of the fanatic, we most sincerely deplore, that any, who call themselves Britons, should be so far led astray from their duty, either by the depravity of their own hearts, or the corrupting examples of others, as to offer so enormous and disgraceful an outrage against the Laws and Constitution of their country.

We take this opportunity likewise, of declaring our utter abhorrence of the principles and conduct of those evil-minded persons, whose inflammatory and artful speeches have been industriously circulated through the kingdom, avowedly to excite the worst passions of the human mind, to create discontent and insubordination among the people, and in the end, giving encouragement to acts of rapine and base and cowardly assassination.

We trust that measures will be adopted effectually to check and punish such dangerous and unconstitutional proceedings; and we beg leave to assure your Royal Highness, that we shall be ready to manifest to the world, on all occasions, that we have sincerely at heart the honour and safety of our King, the support of his Government, and the true interests of our Country.

Signed at the request of the Meeting,

Edward Richards Roberts, Mayor.

Barnstaple, 7th February 1817.

[Presented by Sir Massel Lopes & Mr. Franco, M. P.]

Unto His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and other Landholders of the Stewartry of Kirkcudbright, desire to approach your Royal Highness with sentiments of profound respect, and attachment, and to express our abhorrence and detestation of the atrocious and treasonable attack lately directed against your Royal Person; if any thing could add to the enormity of the crime, it is the circumstance of its having been perpetrated whilst your Royal Highness was returning, in official state, from the performance of an important Constitutional duty.

We have observed with the deepest regret, that a few factious and evil-minded men, taking advantage of distresses, arising from causes beyond human controul, are endeavouring to inflame the minds of the lower orders of the people, and to instil into them principles of insubordination and disaffection; but whilst we rely on the vigour of His Majesty's Government, for the suppression of every seditious movement, we rejoice in the belief that the great body of the inhabitants of these realms are warmly attached to the happy Constitution under which we live, and too intelligent to become the dupes of unprincipled demagogues.

We deplore the distresses and privations to which the people are subjected, by the singularly unproductiveness of the crop of last season, but we trust in a kind Providence, that plenty will ere long be restored to the land, and that we shall then be permitted to enjoy, without alloy, all the blessings of a lasting peace.

We presume to convey to your Royal Highness the pledge of our firm and unanimous determination to exert ourselves, collectively and individually, in the faithful discharge of those duties which the peculiar temper of the times may impose; and we pray that your Royal Highness may live long to watch over the happiness, and enjoy the affections, of a free, a loyal, and a grateful people.

Signed in our presence, and by our appointment, at Kirkcudbright, the 25th day of February, in the year of our Lord 1817.

A. Maitland, Preses.

[Presented by Lieutenant General Dunlop.]

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

The dutiful and loyal Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Saint Ives.

May it please your Royal Highness,

IN common with every class of His Majesty's subjects, we humbly approach your Royal Highness, to offer our congratulations upon your providential escape from the late outrageous and traitorous attack upon your sacred Person, the act of desperate and wicked men, whose horrid designs against the State, and the violent and fearful measures by which these designs are attempted to be effected, we regard with every sentiment of detestation and abhorrence.

We are determined, each in his proper station, to perform to the utmost of our power, the duties of faithful subjects and good citizens, by supporting the excellent laws and institutions of our country.

And we humbly pray permission to express our steady loyalty and attachment to your Royal Highness's Person, to His Majesty's Government, and to the Constitution.

Signed on behalf of the Corporation and other Inhabitants, Augustus Stephens, Mayor.

Whitehall, April 25, 1817.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, on the night of Saturday the 12th instant, a fire was discovered upon a farm called Abbots Hall, in the parish of Wigborough and county of Essex, in the occupation of Messrs. Lungley and Brewer; and that there is every reason to believe that the same was wilfully and maliciously set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said premises), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the Phoenix-Fire-Office, in conjunction with others, to any person (except as is before excepted) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof, or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring the said offenders or any of them to conviction, or cause them or any of them so to be apprehended and convicted as aforesaid.

Notice, that Francis Leigh, of Rosegarland, in the county of Wexford, Esq. did on the 17th April instant, demand from John Farrell, principal occupier of the lands of Moodes and Graigs, situate in the county of Kildare, on the said lands of Moodes and Graigs, all renewal fines and septennial fines, due on the fall of the lives named on the last renewal of the premises, and also require him to nominate proper lives to be inserted in the place of those fallen.—Dated April 21, 1817.

Francis Leigh.

Notice is hereby given, that a general meeting of the Lieutenancy for the county of Middlesex is appointed to be held on Wednesday the 14th day of May next, at twelve of the clock at noon, at the Guildhall, in the Sanctuary, Westminster.—26th April 1817.

OFFICE FOR TAXES, SOMERSET-PLACE,
April 29, 1817.

Pursuant to Acts, passed in the forty-second and fifty-third years of His present Majesty's reign, notice is hereby given, that the price of the Three per Centum Reduced Bank Annuities, sold at the Bank of England this day, was £71 and under £72 per Centum.

By order of the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes,
Matt. Winter, Secretary.

CONTRACT FOR TAR.

Navy-Office, April 25, 1817.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice, that on Wednesday the 7th of May next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying His Majesty's several Yards with Stockholm or Archangel Tar.

A distribution of the tar, and a form of the tender, may be seen at this Office.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed, unless the party, or an agent for him, attends.

Every tender must be accompanied by a letter addressed to the Navy Board, and signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £50 per 100 barrels of tar, for the due performance of the contract.

R. A. Nelson, Secretary.

Ordnance Barracks at Newcastle-upon-Tyne, and Oats in the County of Northumberland,

Town of Taunton and its vicinity,

And in the several Counties in North Britain;
 As also Forage to all Horses kept for His Majesty's Service in the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, and Alderney;

That the deliveries are to commence on and for the 25th day of June next; that proposals in writing, sealed up and marked "Tender for Army Supplies," will be received at this Office on or before Tuesday the 27th day of May; but none will be received after twelve o'clock on that day, and, if sent by post, the postage must be paid.

Proposals must be made separately for each county, island, or place, except for the counties comprising North and South Wales, all of which must be included in one tender, as also must the several counties in North Britain; and the proposal for the supply of forage in Guernsey, must include Alderney; and each proposal must have the letter which is annexed to the tender properly filled up by two persons of known property, engaging to become bound with the party tendering, in the amount stated in the printed particulars, for the due performance of the contract; and no proposal will be noticed unless made on a printed tender, and the prices expressed in words at length; and should it so happen that during the continuance of the contract no troops should be supplied under the contract, the expence of the contract and bond, paid in the first instance by the contractor, shall be refunded to him.

Particulars of the contracts may be had upon application at No. 35, Great George-Street, Westminster, between the hours of eleven and five; and at the Office of Deputy Commissary-General Young, Edinburgh.

Note.—It is to be clearly understood by the parties tendering; that all claims under the contracts must be preferred within six months after the termination thereof, or the same shall be null and void.

Office of Ordnance, April 16, 1817.

THE Principal Officers of His Majesty's Ordnance do hereby give notice, that proposals will be received at their Office in Pall-Mall, on or before Friday the 2d day of May next, from such persons as may be willing to undertake the supply of

Leather Pantaloons,
