THE following Addresses have been presented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent; which Addresses His Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously:

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most faithful and dutiful subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Hamilton, in Presbytery assembled, beg leave, at the present alarming crisis, humbly to approach your Royal Highness, with the warmest feelings of respect and loyalty.

We view with abhorrence the daring outrage lately offered to your sacred person, at your return from discharging your high duty in Parliament; and, while we present our heartfelt congratulations upon the providential deliverance then vouchsafed, we avail ourselves of this opportunity to testify our dutiful regard for the sacred person of your Royal Highness, and our grateful sense of the benefits enjoyed under the mild and parental sway of the House of Brunswick.

Venerating as we do the unrivalled Constitution of our country in Church and State, and feeling that veneration daily increase, in proportion to our increasing experience of the blessings which it yields, we behold with astonishment and horror the treasonable attempts of infatuated men to overturn it; and, at the same time, to root out from the hearts of our countrymen, those principles of religion which have been the safeguard and the glory of our nation, and to treat with a blasphemous derision that sacred book which contains the words of eternal life.

We recall to mind the pernicious effects which a spirit of infidelity and of anarchy has produced in other countries, and we deprecate the prevalence of such a spirit in our own happy land, as the most dreadful calamity which can befall it.

As Ministers of the Gospel of Peace, we consider it to be our indispensable duty to warn all those committed to our care of the guilt and danger resulting from such principles; and we will continue to inculcate upon them, by our admonitions and by our conduct, not only a conscientious respect for the ordinances of religion, and a becoming reverence for the oracles of God, but also an affectionate attachment to His Majesty's Person and Government, and a cheerful submission to lawful authority, as the most effectual means of enabling them to resist the arts of those designing men, who would rob them of their dearest privileges as Christians, and as Britons.

That the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ may protect your Royal Highness from the machinations of every foe; that He may prosper your administration, and perpetuate the tranquillity and happiness of His Majesty's dominions, are the earnest prayers of, may it please your Royal Highness, His Majesty's most faithful and dutiful subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Hamilton.

Subscribed, at Hamilton, on the 25th day of March 1817 years, in our name, in our presence, and at our appointment, by

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The Address of the Provincial Synod of Merse and Tiviotdale.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Merse and Tiviotdale, convened at Jedburgh this 23d day of April 1817, beg leave to embrace this opportunity of our first meeting to approach your Royal Highness, and to offer our most sincere and hearty congratulations on your escape from the late treasonable and atrocious attempt against your life, when returning from the discharge of one of the most important duties of your high office.

While we feel the strongest abhorrence and detestation of a deed so dark and diabolical, and deeply lament that there are men in His Majesty's dominions so base and unprincipled as to be capable of such enormities; we at the same time with sentiments of the warmest gratitude to Heaven, recognize in the preservation of your Royal person from the imminent danger with which you were threatened, a new and most signal proof of the watchful care of Providence over the peace and prosperity of this United Kingdom. That the Almighty, in the exercise of his mercy, would remove or alleviate the afflicting malady with which it has pleased to visit your Royal Father and our venerable and much beloved Monarch;—that your Royal Highness may long experience the protection and kindness of the same gracious Providence, which you have hitherto enjoyed;—that God may bless you in your Family, your Government, and in all your concerns, are our sincere and fervent prayers to Heaven.

Given in our name, in our presence, and at our appointment, by

To His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble and dutiful Address of the Mayor, Deputy Recorder, Aldermen, Free Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Fowey, in the County of Cornwall.

AT a time when all the dutiful and loyal subjects of this realm are congratulating your Royal Highness on your late providential and fortunate escape from the atrocious outrage and attempt on your Royal Highness's sacred person, we, the Mayor, Deputy Recorder, Aldermen, Free Burgesses, and Inhabitants of this ancient Borough, beg to approach your Royal Highness with expressions of our warmest sentiments of indignation at the late atrocious outrage and attempt on your Royal Highness's sacred person, whilst returning from having exercised, on behalf of our beloved Sovereign and the Country, one of the highest and most important functions of the Royal Prerogative.

We deplore and regret that there could be found in this land of freedom, any man, or set of men, so base, misguided, and infatuated, as to be capable of such an atrocious and diabolical attempt, an act so disgraceful to the character and fame of our country.

With such sentiments, we avail ourselves of being thus assembled together, collectively and individually, of declaring our firm and steady attachment to your Royal House and Person, and our utter detestation of all traitorous and seditious plots and conspiracies, and our fixed determination to support to our utmost the honour and dignity of the Crown, and to defend against every attack the dearest interest of our country; and presuming to claim to have still nearer access to your Royal Highness as the Duke of Cornwall, we most devoutly pray, that the Supreme Being may avert from your Royal Highness the evil designs and machinations of all such conspirators.

Signed, on behalf of the Corporation and Inhabitants,

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Angus and Mearns, in Synod assembled, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness, with sentiments of profound respect and attachment to

Your Royal Person and Government, and to express our utter abhorrence of that atrocious outrage lately committed against your Royal Highness, when engaged in discharging the high duties assigned to Majesty by the free Constitution of our country.

As Members of our National Church and Ministers of the Gospel of Peace, we feel ourselves called upon to express our detestation of every act that tends to produce insubordination and anarchy; and to promote, as far as in our power, respect to those laws, which equally guard the privileges of all classes in the community; and the safety of a Constitution which has stood the test of long experience, and proved the source of power, and wealth and happiness to Britons.

We feel the greatest pleasure in being able to assure your Royal Highness, that the late treasonable attack on your Royal Highness has excited a general indignation throughout the province; and that, notwithstanding of the heavy sufferings of the lower orders amongst us, they have exhibited such a degree of submission to the Divine will, and of attachment to the Constitution and Government of the country, as happily demonstrates the soundness of their religious and political principles.

Highly appreciating the inestimable blessings which we and our fathers have long enjoyed, under the mild sway of Princes of the House of Brunswick, we beg leave to assure your Royal Highness, that we shall not cease to inculcate on the people under our care, respect for your august family, and obedience to the laws.

That your Royal Highness may be preserved from every secret, and from every open enemy; and that the people under your Royal Highness's government may be at once religious and loyal, prosperous and happy, shall ever be the prayer of, may it please your Royal Highness, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Angus and Mearns, met at Forfar, on the 22d of April 1817 years.

Signed, in name and by appointment of the Provincial Synod of Angus and Mearns, by Charles Adie, Moderator.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 26th of April 1817,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS the rules and regulations of His Majesty's Order in Council of the fifth of April one thousand eight hundred and five, touching the performance of quarantine, have been understood to apply to all ships or vessels coming last from ports not declared by the said Order liable to infection, if such ships or vessels had, in the course of their voyage, previously touched at, or taken in a cargo at a port declared liable to infection: and whereas no danger to the public health is to be apprehended from a relaxation of the said rule, in respect to such of the said ships or vessels as shall arrive at any port or place in the United Kingdom, or the islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, under the circumstances and according to the provisos and conditions herein-after expressed and contained, His Royal Highness the Prince Regent is therefore pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, to order, direct, and ordain, that ships or vessels which having sailed from ports declared liable to infection, or having taken in a cargo or any goods at any port so declared liable to infection, shall afterwards have proceeded from such port to another port not declared liable to infection, and shall last sail from any such last mentioned port, and afterwards arrive from thence, either in ballast or with a cargo taken in at such port not declared liable to infection, at any port or place in the United Kingdom, or the islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, shall not be liable to the performance of quarantine; provided the Master or Commander, or any other person having the charge of any such ship or vessel, shall declare upon oath, that all goods, wares, or merchandize enumerated in the first or second class of His Majesty's aforesaid Order of the fifth of April one thousand eight hundred and five, which may have been received on board any such ship or vessel at any port declared liable to infection, had been landed or otherwise discharged from such ship or vessel at a port not declared liable to infection, at least forty days before the arrival of such ship or vessel at any port of the United Kingdom, or the islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man; and that no plague or infectious disease prevailed on board such ship or vessel, either among the crew or passengers, at any time from the commencement of the outward voyage to the termination of the homeward voyage; and provided also, that the goods taken on board at any such port or place not declared liable to infection, shall not be of the growth, produce, or manufacture of any country declared to be liable to infection; or if any goods of the first class taken into such ship or vessel at such port or place not declared liable to infection, shall be of the growth, produce, or manufacture of any country declared liable to infection; then, provided proof shall be given, according to the provisions of the forty-third section of His Majesty's said Order in Council of the fifth of April one thousand eight hundred and five, that such goods have performed quarantine, either at Malta, Ancona, Venice, Messina, Leghorn, Genoa, or Marseilles.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the principal Officers of the Ordnance, His Majesty's Secretary at War, and the Governors or Commanders in Chief for the time being of the Isles of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, and Man, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 1st of March 1817.

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the present session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to continue and extend the provisions of an Act, of the forty-ninth year of His present Majesty, for regulating the trade and commerce to and from the Cape of Good Hope, until the fifth day of July one thousand eight hundred and twenty; and also for regulating the trade of the Island of Mauritius;" His Majesty is authorised, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, by any Order or Orders to be issued from time to time, to give such directions, and make such regulations touching the trade and commerce to and from all islands, colonies, or places, and the territories and dependencies thereof, to His Majesty belonging or in His possession, in Africa, or Asia to the eastward of the Cape of Good Hope (excepting only the possessions of the East India Company), as to His Majesty, in Council, shall appear most expedient and salutary, any thing contained in an Act, passed in the twelfth year of the reign of His Majesty King Charles the Second, intituled "An Act for the encouraging and increasing of shipping and navigation," or in an Act, passed in the seventh and eighth years of the reign of His Majesty King William the Third, intituled "An Act for preventing frauds, and regulating abuses in the plantation trade," or any other Act or Acts of Parliament now in force, relating to His Majesty's colonies and plantations, or any other Act or Acts of Parliament, law, usage or custom to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding; and whereas on the night of the twenty-fifth of September last, a dreadful fire broke out in the town of Port Lewis, in the Island of Mauritius, which totally destroyed the chief part of that town, together with a great mass of provisions and merchandize intended for the consumption and trade of its inhabitants, whereby a great number of families were reduced to extreme indigence, and left without a home; in consequence of which dreadful calamity the Governor of the said Island found himself compelled to open the ports of the Island to foreign vessels, in order to afford the speediest relief of which the case would admit, and thereby to save His Majesty's subjects residing in that colony from the greatest extremity of distress; and whereas it is expedient that facilities should in consequence be granted to the trade of the Island of Mauritius, for a limited time, with the view of giving still further relief to its suffering inhabitants; His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that all vessels, whether British or foreign vessels belonging to countries in amity with His Majesty, arriving at any port of the Island of Mauritius, or its dependencies, within twelve months from the date of this present Order, from any country in amity with

His Majesty, laden with any articles the growth, production, or manufacture of any such country, excepting all articles composed of cotton, iron, steel, or wool of foreign manufacture, shall be permitted to enter and land their cargoes, and dispose of the same, in the said ports; provided always, that such articles, when imported in a foreign ship, shall pay a duty of two per cent. ad valorem, over and above what may be payable upon similar goods when imported in a British ship.

And it is further ordered, that every such vessel, arriving as aforesaid, shall be permitted to export a cargo, consisting of any articles of the growth, produce, or manufacture of the Island of Mauritius, or its dependencies, or of any other articles which shall have been legally imported there; and that all such articles so exported in foreign vessels, shall in like manner be subject to a duty of two per cent. ad valorem, over and above the duties (if any) which shall be payable on similar articles when exported from the Mauritius, or its dependencies, in British vessels.

It is, however, hereby further ordered and declared, that no foreign vessel, allowed by the terms of this Order to export a cargo from the Island of Mauritius, or its dependencies, shall be permitted to export such cargo to any of His Majesty's possessions. But that every British vessel which shall during the continuance of this present Order, have imported a cargo into any port of the said Island of Mauritius, or its dependencies, either from the United Kingdom, or from any other place, shall be permitted to carry back a return cargo, consisting of the articles aforesaid, to any place whatever, either belonging to His Majesty, or to any state in amity with His Majesty. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Chevynd.

Carlton-House, May 1, 1817.
