Whitehall, March 18, 1817.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent hath been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to grant unto Fenwick Bulmer, of the Parish of St. Clement Dane, in the County of Middlesex, Esq. His Majesty's royal licence and authority, that Henry Morgan, (a minor), and his issue, may take the surname of Bulmer, in addition to and after that of Morgan.

And also to order, that the said concession and declaration be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, April 25, 1817.

WHereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness, the Prince Regent, that, on the night of Saturday the 12th instant, a fire was discovered upon a farm called Abbots Hall, in the parish of Wighborough and county of Essex, in the occupation of Messrs. Lungley and Brewer; and that there is every reason to believe that the same was wilfully and maliciously set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said premises), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the Phoenix-Fire-Office, in conjunction with others, to any person (except as is before excepted) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof, or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring the said offenders or any of them to conviction, or cause them or any of them so to be apprehended and convicted as aforesaid.

Navy-Office, May 2, 1817.

THE Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury having appointed money for the payment of half-pay to Sea Officers, from the 1st January to the 25th March 1817, according to His Majesty's establishment in that behalf; these are to give notice, that the several payments will begin to be made at the Pay-Office, by the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy, at ten o'clock in the morning, on the following days, viz.

On the 12th instant, and two following days, to Admirals, Captains, and their Attornies.

On the 15th, 16th, 19th, and 20th instant, to Lieutenants, and Chaplains, and their Attornies.

On the 21st and 22d instant, to Masters, Surgeons, and Pursers, and their Attornies.

After which the lists will be recalled the first and third Wednesday in every month, that all persons may then and there attend to receive what may become payable to them, and not only bring with them the affidavit required, touching their not having enjoyed the benefit of any public employment, either at sea or on shore, during the time they are to be paid their half-pay, but also to produce certificates that they have subscribed to the Test, and taken the Oaths of Allegiance required by Act of Parliament, to His present Majesty; and in case any of the said Officers should not be able to attend themselves, but employ Attornies for that purpose, that the said Attornies do produce the like certificates and affidavits from the persons they are employed by.

Where Officers are abroad on leave, their agents are to produce attested copies of such leave, before the half-pay can be paid.

And as by Act of Parliament, passed in the thirty-fifth year of His present Majesty's reign, intitled, "An Act for establishing a more easy and expeditious Method for the Payment of Officers belonging to His Majesty's Navy," it is enacted by the twentieth clause of the said Act, "that if any Commissioned or Warrant Naval Officer,
