AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 26th of April 1817,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS the rules and regulations of His Majesty's Order in Council of the fifth of April one thousand eight hundred and five, touching the performance of quarantine, have been understood to apply to all ships or vessels coming last from ports not declared by the said Order liable to infection, if such ships or vessels had, in the course of their voyage, previously touched at, or taken in a cargo at a port declared liable to infection: and whereas no danger to the public health is to be apprehended from a relaxation of the said rule, in respect to such of the said ships or vessels as shall arrive at any port or place in the United Kingdom, or the islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, under the circumstances and according to the provisos and conditions hereinafter expressed and contained, His Royal Highness the Prince Regent is therefore pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, to order, direct, and ordain, that ships or vessels which having sailed from ports declared liable to infection, or having taken in a cargo or any goods at any port so declared liable to infection, shall afterwards have proceeded from such port to another port not declared liable to infection, and shall last sail from any such last mentioned port, and afterwards arrive from thence, either in ballast or with a cargo taken in at such port not declared liable to infection, at any port or place in the United Kingdom, or the islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, shall not be liable to the performance of quarantine; provided the Master or Commander, or any other person having the charge of any such ship or vessel, shall declare upon oath, that all goods, wares, or merchandize enumerated in the first or second class of His Majesty's aforesaid Order of the fifth of April one thousand eight hundred and five, which may have been received on board any such ship or vessel at any port declared liable to infection, had been landed or otherwise discharged from such ship or vessel at a port not declared liable to infection, at least forty days before the arrival of such ship or vessel at any port of the United Kingdom, or the islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man; and that no plague or infectious disease prevailed on board such ship or vessel, either among the crew or passengers, at any time from the commencement of the outward voyage to the termination of the homeward voyage; and provided also, that the goods taken on board at any such port or place not declared liable to infection, shall not be of the growth, produce, or manufacture of any country declared to be liable to infection; or if any goods of the first class taken into such ship or vessel at such port or place not declared liable to infection, shall be of the growth, produce, or manufacture of any country declared liable to infection; then, provided proof shall be given, according to the provisions of the forty-third section of His Majesty's said Order in Council of the fifth of April one thousand eight hundred and five, that such goods have performed quarantine, either at Malta, Ancona, Venice, Messina, Leghorn, Genoa, or Marseilles.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the principal Officers of the Ordnance, His Majesty's Secretary at War, and the Governors or Commanders in Chief for the time being of the Isles of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, and Man, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Chetwynd.

THE following Addresses have been presented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent; which Addresses His Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously:

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,
WE, His Majesty's faithful and loyal subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Ross, met in Synod, would beg leave, to approach your Royal Highness, and join our fellow-subjects in our strongest expressions of indignation against the insidious and daring attack lately made upon your august person, when in the discharge of one of the first duties of Royalty; and to express our thankfulness to Almighty God, whose protecting arm was graciously interposed for the preservation of a life so valuable from the hand of the assassin.

We lament that wickedness so atrocious should exist in a nation and under a Government where such fostering care is extended to the best interests of all ranks of society. We view such a diabolical spirit, as a wide departure from the blessed tenets of our holy religion; and earnestly pray, that a return to the exalted principles of that religion may speedily impart a proper sense of duty, of loyalty, and of the value of our inestimable privileges, to those orders of the community that have been so grossly misled by false principles, leading to anarchy, confusion, and total ruin.

We rejoice that such advancement in the depravity of human nature has not extended to these quarters. We pledge ourselves, as in duty bound, to watch over the best interests of our respective flocks, and inculcate upon them, by our doctrine and example, to "Fear God and honour the King;" duties, the practice of which we consider to be the foundation of national prosperity, and the best security of the welfare and happiness of all ranks of the community.

Signed in name, presence, and by appointment of the Ministers and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Ross, met in Synod, at Fortrose, the 16th day of April 1817 years, by

C. R. Matheson, Moderator.

[Transmitted by Charles Fraser, Esq. and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

The loyal and dutiful Address of the Associate Synod.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Associate Synod, representing upwards of a hundred and fifty Congregations of Protestant Dissenters, embrace the earliest opportunity to congratulate your Royal Highness on your providential escape from the violence offered to your sacred person by a lawless mob, and to express our abhorrence of so daring an outrage.

Deeply sensible of the many and valuable privileges which, as subjects and as Dissenters, we enjoy, we will continue to inculcate upon our people, reverence for the principles of our admirable Constitution, attachment to your illustrious House, and obedience to the laws; and to offer up our prayers, that He who gives salvation to Kings, may defend your Royal Highness against the designs of your enemies; that, under your Government, our country may enjoy the blessings of peace and prosperity; and that you may be long preserved to reign over a free, loyal, and happy people.

Signed, in our presence, and by our appointment, at Edinburgh, this 1st day of May 1817 years, by John Johnstone, Moderator.

[Transmitted by the Lord Advocate of Scotland, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]
