Published by Authority of Parliament,

WILLIAM DOWDING, Receiver of Corn Returns.

Notice, that Francis Leigh, of Rosegarland, in the county of Wexford, Esq. did on the 17th April instant, demand from John Farrell, principal occupier of the lands of Moodes and Graigs, situate in the county of Kildare, on the said lands of Moodes and Graigs, all renewal fines and septennial fines, due on the fall of the lives named on the last renewal of the premises, and also require him to nominate proper lives to be inserted in the place of those fallen.—Dated April 21, 1817.

Francis Leigh.

Exchequer Bill Office, May 13, 1817.

TO BE PAID OFF.

All Exchequer Bills dated in the Months of July and August 1816.

THE Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury having given directions for paying off the principal of the above-mentioned Exchequer Bills, with the interest due thereon, at the Exchequer Bill Office in the Receipt of Exchequer, New Palace-Yard, Westminster, on Monday the 9th day of June 1817, attendance will be given daily (Sundays and holidays excepted) until, and including, Monday the 2d of day June, from ten o'clock in the morning till one in the afternoon, for the purpose of receiving the same. And, for the greater dispatch, the bearers of the said bills are desired to bring lists thereof (which are to be obtained at this Office), classing them in the order of their respective dates, such as are for the same amount being numerically arranged, and specifying the principal sums and interest due thereon, computed from, but excluding the days on which they are respectively dated, to the said 9th day of June inclusive, when the interest will cease; and the said bearers, should they be acting as the agents of holders whose names are inserted in the bills, are previously to procure the endorsements of such holders; and the bearers are also indispensably required to indorse each bill with their usual signatures, and to write their names and residence at the bottom of their list; and they are moreover required to attend the Exchequer Bill Office for payment, and to receive the new bills, and give the receipts for the same.

If any of the holders of the aforesaid bills should be desirous of receiving payment of the principal and interest, previous to the said 9th day of June, they may be accommodated on computing the interest to the day on which they wish to be paid, and leaving the said bills for examination one day prior thereto.

Such persons as may be desirous of having new Exchequer Bills in whole or in part of payment of principal, upon marking new bills, and mentioning the amount at the bottom of their lists, delivered on or before Monday the 2d day of June, may be accommodated with new bills, payable to or order, carrying an interest of two pence halfpenny by the day, on every one hundred pounds, which said new bills will bear date the said 9th day of June, and will be delivered, together with the interest due in respect of the bills so desired to be exchanged, on Tuesday the 10th day of June, and the following days.

The Exchequer Bills to be issued in exchange and made payable to or order, as abovementioned, may be either transferred by endorsement, or will be paid to the bearer if the blank shall not be filled up.

N. B. All Exchequer Bills dated prior to July 1816, have been advertised to be paid off, and the interest thereon has ceased.

Lottery-Office, Somerset-Place,
May 16, 1817.

THE Managers and Directors of the lotteries do hereby give notice, that numbers of tickets and shares in all preceding lotteries may be examined at this Office every day, between the hours of ten and three, with their registers of benefits and blanks.

And the said Managers and Directors do hereby give notice, that they will cut off the tickets of the supplementary to the fifth of those lotteries for 1816, into their respective boxes A and B, on Wednesday the 28th instant, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, at this Office, beginning first with the benefits and blanks, which are to be cut into box B, and continuing until all the said tickets for each of the said boxes are completely cut therein.

And the said Managers and Directors do hereby also give notice, that they will attend and oversee the drawing of the tickets of the said supplementary lottery, on Wednesday the 4th day of June next, at Coopers'-Hall, in Basinghall-Street, within the City of London.
