Lord Chamberlain's-Office, May 20, 1817.

NOTICE is hereby given; that His Royal Highness the Prince Regent will hold a Levee at Carlton-House, on Thursday the 29th instant, at two o'clock.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 26th of April 1817,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS the rules and regulations of His Majesty's Order in Council of the fifth of April one thousand eight hundred and five, touching the performance of quarantine, have been understood to apply to all ships or vessels coming last from ports not declared by the said Order liable to infection; if such ships or vessels had, in the course of their voyage, previously touched at, or taken in a cargo at a port declared liable to infection: and whereas no danger to the public health is to be apprehended from a relaxation of the said rule, in respect to such of the said ships or vessels as shall arrive at any port or place in the United Kingdom, or the islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, under the circumstances and according to the provisos and conditions hereinafter expressed and contained, His Royal Highness the Prince Regent is therefore pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, to order, direct, and ordain, that ships or vessels which having sailed from ports declared liable to infection, or having taken in a cargo or any goods at any port so declared liable to infection, shall afterwards have proceeded from such port to another port not declared liable to infection, and shall last sail from any such last mentioned port, and afterwards arrive from thence, either in ballast or with a cargo taken in at such port not declared liable to infection, at any port or place in the United Kingdom, or the islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, shall not be liable to the performance of quarantine; provided the Master or Commander, or any other person having the charge of any such ship or vessel, shall declare upon oath, that all goods, wares, or merchandize enumerated in the first or second class of His Majesty's aforesaid

Order of the fifth of April one thousand eight hundred and five, which may have been received on board any such ship or vessel at any port declared liable to infection, had been landed or otherwise discharged from such ship or vessel at a port not declared liable to infection, at least forty days before the arrival of such ship or vessel at any port of the United Kingdom, or the islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man; and that no plague or infectious disease prevailed on board such ship or vessel, either among the crew or passengers, at any time from the commencement of the outward voyage to the termination of the homeward voyage; and provided also, that the goods taken on board at any such port or place not declared liable to infection, shall not be of the growth, produce, or manufacture of any country declared to be liable to infection; or if any goods of the first class taken into such ship or vessel at such port or place not declared liable to infection, shall be of the growth, produce, or manufacture of any country declared liable to infection; then, provided proof shall be given, according to the provisions of the forty-third section of His Majesty's said Order in Council of the fifth of April one thousand eight hundred and five, that such goods have performed quarantine, either at Malta, Ancona, Venice, Messina, Leghorn, Genoa, or Marseilles.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the principal Officers of the Ordnance, His Majesty's Secretary at War, and the Governors or Commanders in Chief for the time being of the Isles of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, and Man, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Chetwynd.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 1st of March 1817,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the present session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to continue and extend the provisions of an Act,

" of the forty-ninth year of His present Majesty, for regulating the trade and commerce to and from the Cape of Good Hope, until the fifth day of July one thousand eight hundred and twenty; and also for regulating the trade of the " Island of Mauritius;" His Majesty is authorised, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, by any Order or Orders to be issued from time to time, to give such directions, and make such regulations touching the trade and commerce to and from all islands, colonies, or places, and the territories and dependencies thereof, to His Majesty belonging or in His possession, in Africa, or Asia to the eastward of the Cape of Good Hope (excepting only the possessions of the East India Company), as to His Majesty, in Council, shall appear most expedient and salutary, any thing contained in an Act, passed in the twelfth year of the reign of His Majesty King Charles the Second, intituled " An Act for the encouraging and increasing of shipping and navigation," or in an Act, passed in the seventh and eighth years of the reign of His Majesty King William the Third, intituled " An Act for preventing frauds, and regulating " abuses in the plantation trade," or any other Act or Acts of Parliament now in force, relating to His Majesty's colonies and plantations, or any other Act or Acts of Parliament, law, usage or custom to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding; and whereas on the night of the twenty-fifth of September last, a dreadful fire broke out in the town of Port Lewis, in the Island of Mauritius, which totally destroyed the chief part of that town, together with a great mass of provisions and merchandise intended for the consumption and trade of its inhabitants, whereby a great number of families were reduced to extreme indigence, and left without a home; in consequence of which dreadful calamity the Governor of the said Island found himself compelled to open the ports of the Island to foreign vessels, in order to afford the speediest relief of which the case would admit, and thereby to save His Majesty's subjects residing in that colony from the greatest extremity of distress; and whereas it is expedient that facilities should in consequence be granted to the trade of the Island of Mauritius, for a limited time, with the view of giving still further relief to its suffering inhabitants; His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that all vessels, whether British or foreign vessels belonging to countries in amity with His Majesty, arriving at any port of the Island of Mauritius, or its dependencies, within twelve months from the date of this present Order, from any country in amity with His Majesty, laden with any articles the growth, production, or manufacture of any such country, excepting all articles composed of cotton, iron, steel, or wool of foreign manufacture, shall be permitted to enter and land their cargoes, and dispose of the same, in the said ports; provided always, that such articles, when imported in a foreign ship, shall pay a duty of two per cent. ad valorem, over and above what may be payable upon similar goods when imported in a British ship.

And it is further ordered, that every such vessel, arriving as aforesaid, shall be permitted to export a cargo, consisting of any articles of the growth, produce, or manufacture of the Island of Mauritius, or its dependencies, or of any other articles which shall have been legally imported there; and that all such articles so exported in foreign vessels, shall in like manner be subject to a duty of two per cent. ad valorem, over and above the duties (if any) which shall be payable on similar articles when exported from the Mauritius, or its dependencies, in British vessels.

It is, however, hereby further ordered and declared, that no foreign vessel, allowed by the terms of this Order to export a cargo from the Island of Mauritius, or its dependencies, shall be permitted to export such cargo to any of His Majesty's possessions. But that every British vessel which shall during the continuance of this present Order, have imported a cargo into any port of the said Island of Mauritius, or its dependencies, either from the United Kingdom, or from any other place, shall be permitted to carry back a return cargo, consisting of the articles aforesaid, to any place whatever, either belonging to His Majesty, or to any state in amity with His Majesty. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Chetwynd.

THE following Address has been presented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent; which Address His Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously:

To His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales,
REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble and dutiful Address of the Associate Synod of Original Burgher Seceders,

WE, the Ministers and Elders of the Associate Synod, adhering to the original principles of our Constitution as Seceders, met here in our Synodical capacity, humbly beg leave to approach your Royal Highness, with our warmest congratulations, on account of your late escape from the daring attack made upon your royal person and life, when in the exercise of one of the most important functions of your high official station; and embrace with much readiness of mind this opportunity of expressing our loyal and dutiful attachment to the present civil Constitution and Government of our country, and to the present reigning family.

We at the same time express as Protestants, our grateful acknowledgments to Almighty God for the securities of the Protestant interest and ascendancy still maintained in the United Kingdom, in these revolutionary times; and are most anxious that the question of Catholic emancipation may never receive that countenance from a British legislature as shall in any degree relax these securities, and thereby endanger the purity and simplicity of the Gospel of Our Lord Jesus Christ, and the peace of our country.

With feelings of much solicitude for the national tranquillity, we have trembled at the late attempts, by a disaffected party, taking advantage of the clamant necessities of the lower orders, in these times of peculiar calamity, to promote insurrection in various parts of the kingdom. But now are happy to congratulate your Royal Highness, that, through the vigilance and energy of your Government, they have been timeously checked, and the incalculable calamities to be apprehended from them prevented; and shall rejoice if all alarm from such a cause shall be at an end.

We are proud to assure your Royal Highness, that as far as has come under our knowledge or observation, none of the people of our charge have been involved in these atrocious attempts, and hope in God that this shall be our honourable distinction in all time coming. In our intercourse and official labours among them it shall be our constant endeavour to inculcate subordination, respect to our laws, and zeal for the prosperity and peace of our country, as far as our opportunity and influence shall extend.

Our prayers and intercessions are offered up to Him, "by whom Kings reign and Princes decree justice," on behalf of your Royal Father and our aged King under his protracted afflictions—that he may make all mercy, goodness and grace to abound toward Him and His Consort our Queen, and to all their family—that he may bless your Royal Highness, the Princess Charlotte, and Prince Leopold, with every "spiritual blessing in Christ Jesus"—and that the Heir Apparent of these realms, pre-eminent among the illustrious for every princely virtue, may be long the faithful guardian of religion, of liberty, and of the laws of this great and happy nation. Such are the fervent prayers, of, may it please your Royal Highness, your Highness's most faithful, obedient, and loyal subjects, the Ministers and Elders met in Synod.

Signed, in our name and presence, and by our appointment, Samuel Armour, Moderator.
Edinburgh, May 2, 1817.

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales,
REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Master, Wardens, Officers, and Brethren of the Provincial Grand Lodge and the different Lodges of Free and Accepted Masons of the County of Durham, ever grateful for your Royal Highness's gracious condescension in allowing us your princely patronage, beg leave in all humility to approach your Royal Highness, and to express our utter abhorrence of the late atrocious attack made upon your sacred person, on your return from opening the present Session of Parliament; one of the highest and most important functions of the Kingly Government of this country.

We are most anxious to seize the opportunity the present occasion gives us, to assure your Royal Highness of our unshaken attachment to the House of Hanover, and firm determination to support, by our conduct and example, the Laws and Constitution of this realm.

Done in open lodge, the 9th day of April in the year of our Lord 1817,

On behalf of the Free and Accepted Masons of the county of Durham, Ralph Noel, Provincial Grand Master.

Alexander Logan, D. P. G. M.
