

Notice to the Creditors of William Geddes, Vintner or Inn-keeper and Victualler in Inverness.

Edinburgh, May 17, 1817:
AT the general meeting of the Creditors of the said William Geddes, appointed to be held for the purpose of electing an Interim Factor on his sequestrated estate, the Creditors present on considering the state of Mr. Geddes's affairs, were satisfied that by adopting measures then proposed to them, the Creditors would receive full payment of their debts. The meeting therefore unanimously agreed that the sequestration should be recalled, and they authorised the agents for the Bankrupt to take measures to have the same accordingly done.

In consequence of this resolution, an application was made to the Court of Session, (First Division) for recalling the sequestration, and the Court of this date appointed the petition to be intimated in the London and Edinburgh Gazettes.—Of all which notice is hereby accordingly given.

Edinburgh, May 17, 1817.
THE Court of Session (First Division) have sequestrated the estates of James Clark, Rope and Sail-Maker and Ship-Builder, in Dunbar, and appointed his Creditors to meet in the house of James Lorimer, in Dunbar, upon Wednesday the 28th day of May current, at One o'Clock in the Afternoon, to choose an Interim Factor on the said sequestrated estates; and on Wednesday the 11th day of June next, at the same place and hour, to choose a Trustee.—Of which notice is hereby given to all concerned.
