FIXED PRIZES.

- First drawn prize to have £10,000 more.
- Third drawn prize above £100 to have £500 more.
- Fifth drawn prize above £100 to have £1000 more.
- Seventh drawn prize above £100 to have £20,000 more.
- Second day, first drawn prize 19th July, to have £20,000 more.

The drawing of the first day is to be 9th July 1817, and to continue until 3450 blanks are drawn. The first 500 of which, in both classes, being fixed prizes of £10 each, the remaining 2950 are to be re-created and put into the number wheel, in addition to such numbers as may then remain therein.

When the prizes and blanks that are left in the wheel, and which will form the scheme of the Supplementary Lottery, are drawn on the 19th July, the remaining 2950 numbers will be blanks, and are to be discharged accordingly.

I have the honour to be your
Lordships' most obedient humble servant,
JNO. SIVEWRIGHT.

London, Cornhill, June 2, 1817.
The Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, &c. &c. &c.

After our hearty commendations, having considered the foregoing scheme of the sixth lottery of the year 1816, to be drawn pursuant to the provisions of an Act, passed in the fifty-sixth year of

His Majesty's reign, we do hereby signify to you our consent and approbation thereof.

Whitehall, Treasury-Chambers, the 4th day of June 1817,
N. VANSITTART.
B. PAGET.
JOHN BARRY.

Notice, that Francis Leigh, of Rosegarland, in the county of Wexford, Esq. did on the 17th April instant, demand from John Farrell, principal occupier of the lands of Moodes and Graigs, situate in the county of Kildare, on the said lands of Moodes and Graigs, all renewal fines and septennial fines, due on the fall of the lives named on the last renewal of the premises, and also require him to nominate proper lives to be inserted in the place of those fallen.—Dated April 21, 1817.

Francis Leigh.

SIRS,

I Do hereby give you, and each and every of you, notice, and require you forthwith to renew the lease made by Richard Aldworth, Esq. to William Aldworth, in the year 1724, of the lands of East Clonticomade, in the county of Cork, by naming three lives in the room and stead of Robert Stannard, Henry Sidley, and Anthony Sidley, deceased, being the three lives named in the last renewal of said lease; and to prepare and tender to me for execution such renewal or renewals as may be deemed requisite or necessary for the renewal of said recited lease; and to pay up to me such fine or fines as now is or are, or shall or may become due and owing to me by means of your neglect in not having such renewal or renewals executed in due time; and should you neglect or refuse to comply with this notice, I will take such proceedings at law or in equity for the recovery of the said lands, and for such redress as I shall be advised, for which you have this notice.

Given under my hand this 19th day of April 1817,
Richard Aldworth.

To the Representatives of William Aldworth,
and all others concerned.

Navy-Office, May 31, 1817.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice, that on Wednesday the 18th of June next; at ten o'clock in the forenoon, Commissioner the Honourable Sir George Grey, Bart. will put up to sale, in His Majesty's Yard at Portsmouth, several lots of Old Stores, consisting of Old Canvas in Paper-Stuff, Hammocks, Rope in Paper-Stuff, Junk in Shakings, Yarns from Rope, White Oakum, &c. &c.

all lying in the said Yard.

Persons wishing to view the lots, must apply to the Commissioner of the Yard for a note of admission for that purpose.

Catalogues and conditions of sale may be had here; and at the Yard.

R. A. Nelson, Secretary.
