Lord Chamberlain's-Office, June 9, 1817.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty will hold a Drawing-Room at the Queen's-Palace, on Thursday the 26th instant, at two o'clock.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 31st of May 1817,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS by the forty-third section of His Majesty's Order in Council, of the fifth of April one thousand eight hundred and five, it is ordered, that all ships and vessels arriving in the ports of Great Britain, or the islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, having come from or through the Mediterranean, or from the West Barbary on the Atlantic Ocean, which with their officers, crews, passengers, and cargoes, shall have previously performed quarantine in the lazaret at Malta, Ancona, Venice, Messina, Leghorn, Genoa, or Marseilles, shall, upon their arrival, be put under quarantine in some of the ports or places hereinbefore appointed for the performance of quarantine, until the Commander, Master, or other person having the charge of such ship or vessel shall have produced to the Superintendent of Quarantine, or his Assistant, or to the Principal or other Officer of the Customs authorised to act in that behalf, the proper documents to prove that such ship or vessel, and the officers, crew, passengers, and cargo on board the same, have duly performed quarantine in one of the lazarets last mentioned, and upon so producing such documents, the said ship or vessel shall not be obliged to perform quarantine, but shall be forthwith admitted to report, and all goods, wares, and merchandize on board thereof, not hereinbefore enumerated in the first class before stated, shall be admitted to entry; but all goods, wares, and merchandizes on board any such ship or vessel, which are enumerated in the first class before stated, shall in such case perform a further quarantine of fifteen days; at some of the ports or places hereinbefore appointed for that purpose; in such manner as has been heretofore practised: and whereas information has been received, that the establishment of the lazaret at Trieste is conducted upon the same plan as that of Venice, and that consequently no danger is to be apprehended from admitting ships, vessels, or cargoes arriving from Trieste, having previously performed quarantine at that place, to all the indulgences granted by the before-mentioned Order, His Royal Highness the Prince Regent is thereupon pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that all ships and vessels arriving in the ports of Great Britain, or the islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, having come from or through the Mediterranean, or from the West Barbary on the Atlantic Ocean, which with their officers, crews, passengers, and cargoes shall have previously performed quarantine in the lazaret at Trieste, shall be subject only to the rules and regulations prescribed by the forty-third section of His Majesty's Order in Council, of the fifth of April one thousand eight hundred and five, with respect to vessels arriving from Malta, Ancona, Venice, Messina, Leghorn, Genoa, or Marseilles:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, His Majesty's Secretary at War, and the Governors or Commanders in Chief for the time being of the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, and Man, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 31st of May 1817,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the forty-sixth year of His Majesty's reign, cap. 98, intituled "An Act for making additional and

"further provisions for the effectual performance of quarantine," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful to and for His Majesty, His heirs and successors, by His or Their Order or Orders in Council, notified by Proclamation or published in the London Gazette, to prohibit all persons, ships, boats, and vessels whatsoever, from going, under any pretence whatsoever, within the limits of any station, which by His Majesty, His heirs, or successors, by His or Their Order or Orders in Council, has been or may be assigned for the performance of quarantine, by any ships or vessels without clean bills of health: and that if any person whatsoever, after such notification or publication of any such Order or Orders in Council, shall presume, under any pretence whatsoever, to go with any ship, boat, or vessel, within the limits of any such station, he or she shall, for every such offence, forfeit and pay the sum of five hundred pounds: and whereas His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, was pleased, by His Order in Council of the fifteenth of July one thousand eight hundred and thirteen, to order, and it was thereby ordered, that all merchant ships and vessels, and all other ships and vessels not having the plague, or any other infectious disease or distemper, highly dangerous to the health of His Majesty's subjects, actually on board (except any ship of war, transport, or other ship, in the actual service of Government, under the command of a Commissioned Officer of His Majesty's Navy), coming from or through the Mediterranean, or from the West Barbary on the Atlantic Ocean, and bound to the western ports of the United Kingdom, which should not be furnished with clean bills of health, should perform their quarantine at Milford Haven; subject to such provisions, rules, regulations, and restrictions, pains, penalties, fines, forfeitures, and punishments, as are contained in His Majesty's Order in Council, bearing date the fifth day of April one thousand eight hundred and five: and whereas the limits of the quarantine station at Milford Haven are now marked off by twelve yellow buoys to point out the same, His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and in pursuance of the power vested in His Majesty by the said Act, is pleased, by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that no persons, ships, vessels, or boats whatsoever, other than the vessels or boats belonging to the Superintendent of Quarantine or his assistant, or other boats regularly employed under the authority of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs in the quarantine service, shall go, under any pretence whatsoever, within the limits of the place so marked out, except in cases of special necessity, and with permission first had and obtained from the Superintendent of Quarantine, at Milford Haven, or his assistant: and it is hereby further ordered, that all ships and vessels, being furnished with clean bills of health, and boats liable to quarantine, which may be ordered to perform the same at Milford Haven, shall come to anchor within the compass of the said yellow buoys, in such place or places as shall be directed by the Superintendent of Quarantine or his assistant, and shall be kept separate and apart from His Majesty's ships of war, transports, and vessels in the service of Government, and not having clean bills of health, which may be performing quarantine as aforesaid, within the compass of the said yellow buoys:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, are to give the necessary directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain. Jas. Buller.

At the Court at Carlton-House, the 31st of May 1817,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

IT is this day ordered by His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, that the Order in Council of the twentieth of May one thousand eight hundred and thirteen, permitting vessels trading to the Coast of Africa, to take on board as an assorted part of their cargoes, trading guns, blunderbusses, pistols, and gunpowder, &c, and the same is hereby revoked; and it is further ordered, by and with the advice aforesaid, that the Order in Council of the second of January one thousand eight hundred and seventeen, prohibiting the export of arms and ammunition to the places therein specified, &c, and the same is hereby also revoked; but whereas it is expedient, that some of the provisions of the said Order in Council of the second of January one thousand eight hundred and seventeen, should be continued; His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, doth, therefore, hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's service) do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the date of this Order), presume to transport any gunpowder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa, or in the West Indies, or on any part of the Continent of America (except to a port or place, or ports or places in His Majesty's territories or possessions on the Continent of North America, or in the territories of the United States of America), or ship or lade any gunpowder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any such ports or places on the Coast of Africa, or in the West Indies, or on the Continent of America (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf first obtained from His Majesty, or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of His late Majesty's reign, intitled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of salt-petre, and to

“to enforce the law for empowering His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gunpowder, or any sort of arms or ammunition, and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt-petre, gunpowder, or any sort of arms or ammunition;” and also by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His Majesty’s reign, cap. 2, intituled “An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval stores, and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt-petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council:”

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty’s Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty’s Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Jas. Buller.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 31st of May 1817,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, cap. 38, intituled “An Act to empower His Majesty to suspend the ballot or enrolment for the local militia,” it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order in Council, to direct that no ballot or enrolment for the local militia shall take place; but that such ballot and enrolment shall remain and continue suspended for the period specified in any such Order of Council, and from time to time, by any like Order or Orders in Council, to continue such suspension so long as His Majesty shall deem the same expedient, any thing in any Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary notwithstanding: and whereas by an Order in Council, made the twenty-seventh of June one thousand eight hundred and sixteen, it was ordered by His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty’s Privy Council, that no ballot or enrolment for the local militia should take place from and after the date of the said Order, for the space of one year; but that the ballot and enrolment for the local militia should remain and continue suspended for the space of one year from the date of the said Order: and whereas it is deemed expedient to continue such suspension of the ballot and enrolment for the local militia for the space of one year from and after the twenty-seventh day of June next, it is therefore ordered by His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty’s Privy Council, that no ballot or enrolment for the local militia do take place for the space of one year from and after the twenty-seventh day of June next, but that the ballot and enrolment for the local militia do remain and continue suspended for the space of one year from and after the said twenty-seventh day of June next.

Jas. Buller.

Whitehall, June 10, 1817.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent has been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to appoint the Right Honourable Lord Viscount Strangford to be His Majesty’s Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary at the Court of Sweden.

Whitehall, June 6, 1817.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, on the night of Monday the 19th ultimo, some evil-disposed person or persons did wickedly attempt to set fire to the dwelling-house and premises of Mr. John Clark, of Trowbridge, in the county of Wilts, by means of some combustible matter, which was thrown into his bed-room, and which exploded;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the person or persons concerned in such atrocious act, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty’s most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually committed the offence above mentioned), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered to any person or persons (except as is before excepted) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof; or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring the offender or offenders to conviction, or cause him, her, or them to be apprehended and convicted as aforesaid.—The said reward to be paid by Mr. Timbrell, Solicitor, Trowbridge.

NOTICE, that Francis Leigh, of Rosegarland, in the county of Wexford, Esq. did on the 17th April instant, demand from John Farrell, principal occupier of the lands of Moodes and Graigs, situate in the county of Kildare, on the said lands of Moodes and Graigs, all renewal fines and septennial fines, due on the fall of the lives named on the last renewal of the premises, and also require him to nominate proper lives to be inserted in the place of those fallen.—Dated April 21, 1817.

Francis Leigh.

SIRS,

I Do hereby give you, and each and every of you, notice, and require you forthwith to renew the lease made by Richard Aldworth, Esq. to

William Aldworth, in the year 1724, of the lands of East Clontarf, in the county of Cork, by naming three lives in the room and stead of Robert Stanuand, Henry Sidley, and Anthony Sidley, deceased, being the three lives named in the last renewal of said lease; and to prepare and tender to me for execution such renewal or renewals as may be deemed requisite or necessary for the renewal of said recited lease; and to pay up to me such fine or fines as now is or are, or shall or may become due and owing to me by means of your neglect in not having such renewal or renewals executed in due time; and should you neglect or refuse to comply with this notice, I will take such proceedings at law or in equity for the recovery of the said lands, and for such redress as I shall be advised, for which you have this notice.

Given under my hand this 19th day of April 1817, Richard Aldworth.

To the Representatives of William Aldworth, and all others concerned.
