Published by Authority.

SATURDAY, JUNE 14, 1817.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, June 9, 1817.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty will hold a Drawing-Room at the Queen's-Palace, on Thursday the 26th instant, at two o'clock.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 31st of May 1817,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS by the forty-third section of His Majesty's Order in Council, of the fifth of April one thousand eight hundred and five, it is ordered, that all ships and vessels arriving in the ports of Great Britain, or the islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, having come from or through the Mediterranean, or from the West Barbary on the Atlantic Ocean, which with their officers, crews, passengers, and cargoes, shall have previously performed quarantine in the lazaret at Malta, Ancona, Venice, Messina, Leghorn, Genoa, or Marseilles, shall, upon their arrival, be put under quarantine in some of the ports or places hereinbefore appointed for the performance of quarantine, until the Commander, Master, or other person having the charge of such ship or vessel shall have produced to the Superintendent of Quarantine, or his Assistant, or to the Principal or other Officer of the Customs authorised to act in that behalf, the proper documents to prove that such ship or vessel, and the officers, crew, passengers, and cargo on board the same, have duly performed quarantine in one of the lazarets last mentioned, and upon so producing such documents, the said ship or vessel shall not be obliged to perform quarantine, but shall be forthwith admitted to report, and all goods, wares, and merchandize on board thereof, not hereinbefore enumerated in the first class before stated, shall be admitted to entry; but all goods, wares, and merchandizes on board any such ship or vessel, which are enumerated in the first class before stated, shall in such case perform a further quarantine of fifteen days, at some of the ports or places hereinbefore appointed for that purpose, in such manner as has been heretofore practised: and whereas information has been received, that the establishment of the lazaret at Trieste is conducted upon the same plan as that of Venice, and that consequently no danger is to be apprehended from admitting ships, vessels, or cargoes arriving from Trieste, having previously performed quarantine at that place, to all the indulgences granted by the before-mentioned Order, His Royal Highness the Prince Regent is thereupon pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that all ships and vessels arriving in the ports of Great Britain, or the islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, having come from or through the Mediterranean, or from the West Barbary on the Atlantic Ocean, which with their officers, crews, passengers, and cargoes shall have previously performed quarantine in the lazaret at Trieste, shall be subject only to the rules and regulations prescribed by the forty-third section of His Majesty's Order in Council, of the fifth of April one thousand eight hundred and five, with respect to vessels arriving from Malta, Ancona, Venice, Messina, Leghorn, Genoa, or Marseilles:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, His Majesty's Secretary at War, and the Governors or Commanders in Chief for the time being of the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, and Man, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Jas. Buller.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 31st of May 1817,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the forty-sixth year of His Majesty's reign, cap. 98, intituled "An Act for making additional and “ further provisions for the effectual performance “ of quarantine,” it is, amongst other things, enacted; that it shall and may be lawful to and for His Majesty, His heirs and successors, by His or Their Order or Orders in Council, notified by Proclamation or published in the London Gazette, to prohibit all persons, ships, boats, and vessels whatsoever, from going, under any pretence whatsoever, within the limits of any station, which by His Majesty, His heirs, or successors, by His or Their Order or Orders in Council, has been or may be assigned for the performance of quarantine, by any ships or vessels without clean bills of health: and that if any person whatsoever, after such notification or publication of any such Order or Orders in Council, shall presume, under any pretence whatsoever, to go with any ship, boat, or vessel, within the limits of any such station, he or she shall, for every such offence, forfeit and pay the sum of five hundred pounds: and whereas His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, was pleased, by His Order in Council of the fifteenth of July one thousand eight hundred and thirteen, to order, and it was thereby ordered, that all merchant ships and vessels, and all other ships and vessels not having the plague, or any other infectious disease or distemper, highly dangerous to the health of His Majesty's subjects, actually on board (except any ship of war, transport, or other ship; in the actual service of Government, under the command of a Commissioned Officer of His Majesty's Navy), coming from or through the Mediterranean, or from the West Barbary on the Atlantic Ocean, and bound to the western ports of the United Kingdom, which should not be furnished with clean bills of health, should perform their quarantine at Milford Haven; subject to such provisions, rules, regulations, and restrictions, pains, penalties, fines, forfeitures, and punishments, as are contained in His Majesty's Order in Council, bearing date the fifth day of April one thousand eight hundred and five: and whereas the limits of the quarantine station at Milford Haven are now marked off by twelve yellow buoys to point out the same, His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and in pursuance of the powers vested in His Majesty by the said Act, is pleased, by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that no persons, ships, vessels, or boats whatsoever, other than the vessels or boats belonging to the Superintendent of Quarantine or his assistant, or other boats regularly employed under the authority of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs in the quarantine service, shall go, under any pretence whatsoever, within the limits of the place so marked out, except in cases of special necessity, and with permission first had and obtained from the Superintendent of Quarantine, at Milford Haven, or his assistant: and it is hereby further ordered, that all ships and vessels, being furnished with clean bills of health, and boats liable to quarantine, which may be ordered to perform the same at Milford Haven, shall come to anchor within the compass of the said yellow buoys, in such place or places as shall be directed by the Superintendent of Quarantine or his assistant, and shall be kept separate and apart from His Majesty's ships of war, transports, and vessels in the service of Government, and not having clean bills of health, which may be performing quarantine as aforesaid, within the compass of the said yellow buoys;

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, are to give the necessary directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain. Jas. Buller.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 31st of May 1817,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

IT is this day ordered by His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, that the Order in Council of the twentieth of May one thousand eight hundred and thirteen, permitting vessels trading to the Coast of Africa, to take on board as an assorted part of their cargoes, trading guns, blunderbusses, pistols, and gunpowder, be, and the same is hereby revoked; and it is further ordered, by and with the advice aforesaid, that the Order in Council of the second of January one thousand eight hundred and seventeen, prohibiting the export of arms and ammunition to the places therein specified, be, and the same is hereby also revoked; but whereas it is expedient, that some of the provisions of the said Order in Council of the second of January one thousand eight hundred and seventeen, should be continued; His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, doth, therefore, hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's service) do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the date of this Order), presume to transport any gunpowder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa, or in the West Indies, or on any part of the Continent of America (except to a port or place, or ports or places in His Majesty's territories or possessions on the Continent of North America, or in the territories of the United States of America), or ship or lade any gunpowder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any such ports or places on the Coast of Africa, or in the West Indies, or on the Continent of America (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf first obtained from His Majesty, or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of His late Majesty's reign, intitled “ An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of salt-petre, and to to enforce the law for empowering His Majesty "to prohibit the exportation of gunpowder, or any sort of arms or ammunition, and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt-petre, gunpowder, or any sort of arms or ammunition;" and also by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His Majesty's reign, cap. 2, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval stores, and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt-petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council:"

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Jas. Buller.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 31st of May 1817,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, cap. 38, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to suspend the ballot or enrolment for the local militia," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order in Council, to direct that no ballot or enrolment for the local militia shall take place; but that such ballot and enrolment shall remain and continue suspended for the period specified in any such Order of Council, and from time to time, by any like Order or Orders in Council, to continue such suspension so long as His Majesty shall deem the same expedient, any thing in any Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary notwithstanding: and whereas by an Order in Council, made the twenty-seventh of June one thousand eight hundred and sixteen, it was ordered by His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, that no ballot or enrolment for the local militia should take place from and after the date of the said Order, for the space of one year, but that the ballot and enrolment for the local militia should remain and continue suspended for the space of one year from the date of the said Order: and whereas it is deemed expedient to continue such suspension of the ballot and enrolment for the local militia for the space of one year from and after the twenty-seventh day of June next; it is therefore ordered by His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, that no ballot or enrolment for the local militia do take place for the space of one year from and after the twenty-seventh day of June next, but that the ballot and enrolment for the local militia do remain and continue suspended for the space of one year from and after the said twenty-seventh day of June next.

Foreign-Office, June 10, 1817.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent has been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to appoint the Right Honourable Lord Viscount Strangford to be His Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary at the Court of Sweden.

Carlton-House, May 29, 1817.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent was this day pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to confer the honour of Knighthood on Major-General Francis Wilder.

Crown-Office, June 13, 1817.

MEMBERS returned to serve in this present PARLIAMENT.

City of London.

The Right Honourable Matthew Wood, Lord Mayor, Citizen and Fishmonger, in the room of Harvey Christian Combe, Esq. who has accepted the Chiltern Hundreds.

University of Oxford.

The Right Honourable Robert Peel, Master of Arts, of Christ Church, in the room of the Right Honourable Charles Abbot (now Baron Colchester), called up to the House of Peers, Whitehall, June 4, 1817.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent has been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to grant unto George Gwyther, of Leslie-House, in the county of Fife, and of the parish of St. Mary-le-bone, in the county of Middlesex, Esq. and unto the Right Honourable Henrietta-Ann his wife, now in her own right Countess of Rothes and Baroness Leslie and Ballinbreich, in that part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland called Scotland, His Majesty's royal licence and authority, that they may (in compliance with a clause contained in the letters patent under the Great Seal of Scotland, bearing date 4th day of July 1663, conferring those honours upon John Earl of Rothes, who was afterwards advanced to the dignities of Duke of Rothes, Marquess Leslie, &c.) take and use the surname of Leslie only; that the said George Gwyther may bear the arms of Leslie of Rothes; and that the said surname and arms may also be taken and borne by the issue of their marriage; such armorial ensigns being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Heralds' Office, otherwise His Majesty's said royal licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And also to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, June 7, 1817.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent hath been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to grant unto Sir Josiah Coghill Cramer, of Belvidere-House, in the parish of Drumcondra, in the county of Dublin, and of the town of Kilkenny, Bart. His Majesty's royal licence and authority, that he and his issue may, from affectionate regard to the memory, and in compliance with a clause contained in the last will and testament of his late brother Sir John-Thomas Coghill, formerly of Coghill-Hall, in the county of York, and late of Tenterden-Street, Hanover-Square, in the county of Middlesex, Bart. deceased, take and use the surname of Coghill only; and also bear the arms of Coghill, such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Herald's Office, otherwise His Majesty's said licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And His Royal Highness hath also been pleased to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, June 12, 1817.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed Nathaniel Newman Jefferys, of Chepstow, in the county of Monmouth, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

The Lord Chancellor has also appointed John Embury Williams, of Betley, in the county of Stafford, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

Whitehall, June 6, 1817.

WHereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, on the night of Monday the 19th ultimo, some evil-disposed person or persons did wickedly attempt to set fire to the dwelling-house and premises of Mr. John Clark, of Trowbridge, in the county of Wilts, by means of some combustible matter, which was thrown into his bed-room, and which exploded;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the person or persons concerned in such atrocious act, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually committed the offence above mentioned), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of

ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered to any person or persons (except as is before excepted) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof; or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring the offender or offenders to conviction, or cause him, her, or them to be apprehended and convicted as aforesaid.—The said reward to be paid by Mr. Timbrell, Solicitor, Trowbridge.

Admiralty-Office, June 13, 1817.

WIDOWS' PENSIONS.

Notice is hereby given, that all widows who receive pensions from the charity established for the relief of poor widows of Commission and Warrant Officers of the Royal Navy, must send or bring to this Office, between the 17th and 30th of this month, the affidavit required by the rules of the charity, in order to their being inserted on the pension list, which will be prepared next month, and paid on the 10th of August.

All letters from widows respecting their pensions, must state the rank their husbands held in the Royal Navy.

J. W. CROKER.

Notice, that Francis Leigh, of Rosegarland, in the county of Wexford, Esq. did on the 17th April instant, demand from John Farrell, principal occupier of the lands of Moodes and Graigs, situate in the county of Kildare, on the said lands of Moodes and Graigs, all renewal fines and septennial fines, due on the fall of the lives named on the last renewal of the premises, and also require him to nominate proper lives to be inserted in the place of those fallen.—Dated April 21, 1817.

Francis Leigh.

SIRS,

I Do hereby give you, and each and every of you, notice, and require you forthwith to renew the lease made by Richard Aldworth, Esq. to William Aldworth, in the year 1724, of the lands of East Clonticmade, in the county of Cork, by naming three lives in the room and stead of Robert Stannard, Henry Sidley, and Anthony Sidley, deceased, being the three lives named in the last renewal of said lease; and to prepare and tender to me for execution such renewal or renewals as may be deemed requisite or necessary for the renewal of said recited lease; and to pay up to me such fine or fines as now is or are, or shall or may become due and owing to me by means of your neglect in not having such renewal or renewals executed in due time; and should you neglect or refuse to comply with this notice, I will take such proceedings at law or in equity for the recovery of the said lands, and for such redress as I shall be advised, for which you have this notice.

Given under my hand this 19th day of April 1817,

Richard Aldworth.

To the Representatives of William Aldworth, and all others concerned;

ALL persons having any claim or demand upon the estate of Henry Whorwood Greenwood, late of Sloane-Street, Chelsea, in the County of Middlesex, Esq. deceased, are requested to send their respective accounts to Mr. James Platt, New Boswell-Court, Lincoln's-Inn, London; and all persons indebted to the said estate are requested to pay the same to the said Mr. Platt.

LONDON (to wit).

Whereas Edward Tugwell, one of the Collectors of the several duties payable to His Majesty on the profits arising from property, professions, trades, and offices, and also of the several duties of assessed taxes, for the Ward of Broad-Street, in the aforesaid City, hath neglected and refused to pay divers sums of money which have been by him received as such Collector, and doth retain in his hands money received by him, and did not pay the same at such time as by law required; and whereas David Jennings, Samuel Weddell, and Nathaniel Brickwood, Esqrs. three of the Commissioners for executing the said Acts, have issued warrants, under their hands and seals, to imprison the person, and seize and secure the estate, as well freehold as copyhold, and all other estate, both real and personal, of the said Edward Tugwell, to him belonging, or which shall descend or come into the hands or possession of his heirs, executors, or assigns, wherever the same can be discovered, and the same have been seized and secured accordingly; therefore, in pursuance of the Statute in such case made and provided, the said David Jennings, Samuel Weddell, and Nathaniel Brickwood, Esqrs. (the Commissioners who have so seized and secured the estate of the said Collector), do hereby appoint a meeting of the Commissioners for executing the said Acts relating to the duties on property, professions, trades, and offices, to be holden at No. 107, Fenchurch-Street, on Thursday the 28th day of June 1817, and of the Commissioners for executing the said Acts relating to assessed taxes, at the Land-Tax-Moots, Guildhall-Yard, on Wednesday the 25th day of June 1817, at Eleven o'Clock precisely each day, in order to proceed in the matter aforesaid, pursuant to law; and public notice is hereby given where such meeting is appointed, pursuant to the Statute in such case made and provided.

By order of the Commissioners,

JOS. BLADES, Clerk.
RICHARD TILL, Secy. Genl.

GILDERSOME-STREET, NEAR LEEDS.

TO be peremptorily, and without reserve, sold by auction, (by order of the major part of the Commissioners named and authorised in and by a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Jeremiah Gaunt, of Gildersome-Street, in the Parish of Birstal, in the County of York, Merchant and Manufacturer, Dealer and Chapman), at the House of Mr. George Newlove, the White Horse Inn, in Leeds, in the said County of York, on Tuesday the 1st day of July next, between the hours of Five and Six o'Clock in the Afternoon, subject to conditions, and free from auction duty;

A valuable freehold estate, situate at Gildersome-Street, near Leeds, immediately contiguous to the Wakefield and Bradford turnpike road, consisting of a neat compact messuage; a warehouse with weaving shops over the same; a new detached building, nine yards by six, now occupied as a barn and workshops; and a burling-house, together with about three acres of rich meadow land, lying immediately contiguous to the buildings and well adapted for building upon, all late in the occupation of the said Bankrupt.

The above estate is situate in the centre of a very populous manufacturing district, at the distance of about six miles from Leeds, Wakefield, and Bradford, and nine miles from Huddersfield, and affords an eligible situation for a mercantile character.

Mr. John Waterworth, of Gildersome, will shew the estate, and any further particulars may be procured at the Offices of Messrs. Tottie, Richardson, and Gaunt, Leeds, and Mr. Carr, Gomersal.

N. B. The purchaser may be accommodated with a good tenant, and the fixtures upon the premises, at a fair valuation.

TO HATTERS AND DYERS.

TO be sold by auction, under and by virtue of a Decree made in the Court of Chancery of Lancashire, in a Cause wherein Mary Hardman and others are Plaintiffs, and Susannah Walmsley and others are Defendants, before Thomas Starkie Shuttleworth, Esq. the Deputy Registrar of the said Court (or before whom he shall appoint), on Monday the 23d day of June instant, at Five o'Clock in the Afternoon, at the Albion Ho el, in Manchester, in the said County, subject to such conditions as shall then and there be produced;

All that substantial double messuage or dwelling-house, situate at the bottom of Clowes-Street, in Salford, in the said County, now in the occupation of Mrs. Walmsley; and also all those the dye-house, store, stable, and vacant land thereto belonging, now in the occupation of Mr. Bispham.

The above premises are fee simple, and the land (inclusive of the site of the erection and building), comprises 1695 superficial square yards or thereabouts, and are subject to a yearly chief rent of 14l. 16s. 10d. payable for ever.

The dye works being situated on the bank of the Old River, are well adapted for carrying on a considerable business in the hatting or dying trade, and lying near to the line of the intended New Blackfriars-Bridge, render them a desirable purchase for any person who may wish to invest money to advantage.

For further particulars apply at the Office of Messrs. Halstead and Ainsworth, Solicitors, in Manchester.

TO be sold by public auction, at the George Inn, in Dale-Street, Liverpool, on Wednesday the 2d day of July next, at Seven o'Clock in the Evening, before the major part of the Commissioners named and authorised in and by a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued and now in prosecution against Samuel Taylor and Jeremiah Steele, both of Liverpool, in the County of Lancaster, Merchants. Dealers and Chapmen, subject to such conditions of sale as will be then and there produced;

Lot 1. All those nine several messuages or dwelling-houses, four whereof are situate on the south side of Ben-Johnson-Street, in Liverpool aforesaid, and the other five at the back thereof, containing in front to Ben-Johnson-Street nineteen yards, one foot, fourteen inches, and in depth fourteen yards and three quarters, or thereabouts, let at the yearly rents in the whole of 71l. 10s.

Lot 2. All those two several messuages or dwelling-houses, situate on the east side of Weale-Street, in Liverpool aforesaid, containing in front thereto twenty-eight feet, and extending in depth backwards twenty-seven feet, or thereabouts, let at the yearly rent of 16l.

Lot 1 is freehold of inheritance, and lot 2, is a contingent fee, dependant on the Bankrupt, Jeremiah Steele, surviving his wife.

For particulars apply at the Office of Messrs. Griffith and Hinde, Fenwick-Street, Solicitors to the Commission, or to Thomas George Massey, Water-Street, Liverpool, Solicitor to the mortgagees.

North End, near Portsea and Portsmouth.

TO be sold by auction, by Mr. George Vicat, at the George Inn, Portsmouth, on Friday the 27th day of June 1817, at One o'Clock in the Afternoon, by direction of the major part of the Commissioners under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Arthur Pink; in one, two, or three lots, as shall be ordered by the said Commissioners at the time of sale;

A commodious freehold dwelling-house, with coach-reel and shrubbery in front, situated at North-End aforesaid, with in two miles and a half of the towns of Portsmouth and Portsea, together with a coach-house and stables, pleasant summer-house, and fish-pond, hot-house, and a large garden, properly laid out and stocked abundantly with espalier and other fruit trees, which are in the highest perfection.

The house comprises a breakfast and two dining-rooms, a spacious hall, drawing-room, eight superior bed-rooms, two dressing-rooms, two large kitchens, a servant's hall, dairy, and wine cellar.

The greater part of the premises are walled in, and command an extensive and delightful prospect of Portsmouth and Langston harbours, Spithead, the Isle of Wight, Portdown, and the adjacent country.

The above is in most excellent repair, and has an abundant supply of rain and spring water; it is likewise most conveniently situate, as the London and other coaches pass to and from Portsmouth every morning and evening.

Also, all that large and very commodious freehold brewery, adjoining the preceding lot, with the storehouses, malthouse, stables, brewhouse, yard, outhouses, and other premises belonging thereto, now in a good state of repair.

These extensive premises have been lately erected, and form, without exception, one of the most compact and well arranged breweries in the kingdom.

The plant, stock in trade, and utensils, to be taken at a fair valuation, at the option of the purchaser.

And also, all that small freehold meadow or close of land, situate immediately behind the above premises.

For further particulars apply to Mr. Compigne, Solicitor, Gosport; Mr. Winkworth, Solicitor under the Commission, Portsmouth; or Messrs. Robins, Covent-Garden, London.

TO be peremptorily resold, pursuant to an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in a certain Cause Ballenger v. Hawes, before Charles Thompson, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at the Public Sale-Room of the said Court, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, on Friday the 20th day of June 1817, between the hours of One and Two in the Afternoon;

All the estate and interest of the late William Reddall Dennis, deceased, in and to a freehold dwelling-house, No. 60, in Upper Thames-Street, London, the corner of Queenhithe, now in the occupation of ———, a yearly tenant.

Further particulars may be had at the said Master's Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings; of Messrs. Steadman and Uthoff, Solicitors, Holborn-Court, Gray's-Inn, London; and of Mr. Towse, Fishmonger's-Hall, London.

WHereas by a Decree of His Majesty's High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause of Williams versus Herrick, it is referred to Francis Paul Stratford, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, to inquire, amongst other things, whether Mary, the wife of John David, had any and what issue living at the death of John Llwyd, the testator in the pleadings named (who died on the 16th of March 1814), and which of such issue are now living; and if such issue, or any of them, are or is dead, who is or are their legal personal representatives or representative: And whereas it appears that the said John David and Mary his wife were heretofore of Longford, in the Parish of Llandewy-felfrey, in the County of Pembroke; and that the said Mary became a widow, and resided at Swansea, in the County of Glamorgan, and died there in or about the month of October 1782; and that amongst other children she had a daughter named Elizabeth, who left Pembroke-shire and came to London about the year 1792, and is supposed to have died in London a few years afterwards.—The said Elizabeth David, if now living, or if living at the death of the said testator and since dead, her personal representative is to come in before the said Master, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, on or before the 10th day of July 1817, and make out their claim, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Pursuant to a Decree of His Majesty's Court of Exchequer at Westminster, made in a Cause Barker v. Jones and Luck v. Jones, the Creditors of Richard Jones, late of Coach-Maker's-Hall, in the City of London, Carpet-Warehouseman (who died in or about the month of January 1811), are forthwith to come in by their Solicitors, before Abel Moysey, Esq. Deputy to His Majesty's Remembrancer, at his Chambers, in the Inner-Temple, London, and prove their debts, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Pursuant to an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Reynolds against Coleby, whereby it is ordered, that Francis Paul Stratford, Esq. the Master to whom the said Cause is referred, do inquire and state to the Court whether any fund for cloathing and assisting poor girls, and procuring them suitable services after completing their education, at Ackworth School (as mentioned in the will of Francis Freshfield, the testator), has ever and when been raised, and whether the same now exists; and in case he shall find that it does, then he is to inquire and state who are the parties that, in right of such last mentioned charity, are now entitled to the legacy of 200l. in the said testator's will mentioned in respect thereof.—If, therefore, any such fund has ever been raised, or if any such charity as aforesaid does exist, the Trustee or Trustees, or other proper person or persons, are forthwith to come in before the said Master, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, and establish their right to the said legacy of 200*l.* or they will be excluded the benefit of the said Order.

PUSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Hoiland against Doole, the Creditors of Thomas Bradshaw Doole, late of Sheffield, in the County of York, Gentleman, deceased (who died in or about the month of March 1799) are forthwith to come in and prove their debts before Robert Steele, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

THE Creditors who have proved their Debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Thomas Youens, of the Township of Westoe, in the County of Durham, Ship-Owner, Dealer and Chapman, are desired to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, at Oyston's Golden Lion Inn, in South-Shields, on the 5th of July next, at Twelve at Noon precisely, for the purpose of assenting to or dissenting from the said Assignees selling and disposing of all the Bankrupt's part, share, or interest in any ship or vessel, household furniture, and all other his goods, chattels, and premises, by public auction or private sale, for the most money, or best price or prices that can, shall, or may be got and received for the same, and also to accept such securities for payment thereof, at such times and dates, and in such manner as may by the said Assignees be thought right and proper; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, for the recovery of any part of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their Debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Edward Burford, of Clapton, in the County of Middlesex, Merchant, Master Mariner, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on the 20th day of June instant, at Two of the Clock in the Afternoon precisely, at the Office of Mr. Lang, No. 12, America-Square, to assent to or dissent from the Assignees selling or disposing of the ship Eclipse, with her tackle and apparel, and also the household furniture and effects of the said Bankrupt, or such part thereof, and either together or separate, by private contract or by public auction, and upon such terms and credit as they shall deem most advisable; and to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, for the recovery of any part of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, and to the calling to account, investigating, and settling the accounts of all or any person liable or accountable to the said Bankrupt, his estate and effects; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Thomas Adams, of South-Shields, in the County of Durham, Ship-Owner, Dealer and Chapman, are desired to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on the 5th day of July next, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon, at Oyston's Golden Lion Inn, in South-Shields aforesaid, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling and disposing of the said Bankrupt's household furniture, together with all his the said Bankrupt's ships or vessels, timber, stock in trade, debts, and effects, by public auction or private sale or contract, at such times and places, and in such manner as the said Assignees shall think right and expedient to be done; also to the said Assignees giving such time, and taking such security for the payment of such purchase-moneys, or such parts thereof as shall be deemed fit and proper, or to confirm any sale or sales to be made in the meantime by the provisional Assignee of such effects, or any part thereof; and to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, for the recovery of any part of the said

Bankrupt's estate and effects; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto; on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their Debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Edward Butt, of Rotherhithe-Wall, in the County of Surrey, Plumber, Painter, and Glazier, are desired to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on Wednesday the 18th day of June instant, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon precisely, at the Office of Messrs.
