

Majesty's said royal licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And also to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, June 7, 1817.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent hath been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to grant unto Sir Josiah Coghill Cramer, of Belvidere-House, in the parish of Drumcondra, in the county of Dublin, and of the town of Kilkenny, Bart. His Majesty's royal licence and authority, that he and his issue may, from affectionate regard to the memory, and in compliance with a clause contained in the last will and testament of his late brother Sir John-Thomas Coghill, formerly of Coghill-Hall, in the county of York, and late of Tenterden-Street, Hanover-Square, in the county of Middlesex, Bart. deceased, take and use the surname of Coghill only; and also bear the arms of Coghill, such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Heralds Office, otherwise His Majesty's said licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And His Royal Highness hath also been pleased to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, June 12, 1817.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed Nathaniel Newman Jefferys, of Chepstow, in the county of Monmouth, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

The Lord Chancellor has also appointed John Embury Williams, of Betley, in the county of Stafford, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

Whitehall, June 6, 1817.

WHereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, on the night of Monday the 19th ultimo, some evil-disposed person or persons did wickedly attempt to set fire to the dwelling-house and premises of Mr. John Clark, of Trowbridge, in the county of Wilts; by means of some combustible matter, which was thrown into his bed-room, and which exploded;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the person or persons concerned in such atrocious act, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually committed the offence above mentioned), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of

ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered to any person or persons (except as is before excepted) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof; or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring the offender or offenders to conviction, or cause him, her, or them to be apprehended and convicted as aforesaid.—The said reward to be paid by Mr. Timbrell, Solicitor, Trowbridge.

Admiralty-Office, June 13, 1817.

WIDOWS' PENSIONS.

Notice is hereby given, that all widows who receive pensions from the charity established for the relief of poor widows of Commission and Warrant Officers of the Royal Navy, must send or bring to this Office, between the 17th and 30th of this month, the affidavit required by the rules of the charity, in order to their being inserted on the pension list, which will be prepared next month, and paid on the 10th of August.

All letters from widows respecting their pensions, must state the rank their husbands held in the Royal Navy.

J. W. CROKER.

Notice, that Francis Leigh, of Rosegarland, in the county of Wexford, Esq. did on the 17th April instant, demand from John Farrell, principal occupier of the lands of Moodes and Graigs, situate in the county of Kildare, on the said lands of Moodes and Graigs, all renewal fines and septennial fines, due on the fall of the lives named on the last renewal of the premises, and also require him to nominate proper lives to be inserted in the place of those fallen.—Dated April 21, 1817.

Francis Leigh.

SIRS,

I Do hereby give you, and each and every of you, notice, and require you forthwith to renew the lease made by Richard Aldworth, Esq. to William Aldworth, in the year 1724, of the lands of East Clonticomade, in the county of Cork, by naming three lives in the room and stead of Robert Stannard, Henry Sidley, and Anthony Sidley, deceased, being the three lives named in the last renewal of said lease; and to prepare and tender to me for execution such renewal or renewals as may be deemed requisite or necessary for the renewal of said recited lease; and to pay up to me such fine or fines as now is or are, or shall or may become due and owing to me by means of your neglect in not having such renewal or renewals executed in due time; and should you neglect or refuse to comply with this notice, I will take such proceedings at law or in equity for the recovery of the said lands, and for such redress as I shall be advised, for which you have this notice.

Given under my hand this 19th day of April 1817,

Richard Aldworth.

To the Representatives of William Aldworth, and all others concerned;
