AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 31st of May 1817,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, cap. 38, intituled “ An Act to empower His Majesty to suspend the ballot or enrolment for the local militia,” it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order in Council, to direct that no ballot or enrolment for the local militia shall take place; but that such ballot and enrolment shall remain and continue suspended for the period specified in any such Order of Council, and from time to time, by any like Order or Orders in Council, to continue such suspension so long as His Majesty shall deem the same expedient, any thing in any Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary notwithstanding: and whereas by an Order in Council, made the twenty-seventh of June one thousand eight hundred and sixteen, it was ordered by His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty’s Privy Council, that no ballot or enrolment for the local militia should take place from and after the date of the said Order, for the space of one year, but that the ballot and enrolment for the local militia should remain and continue suspended for the space of one year from the date of the said Order: and whereas it is deemed expedient to continue such suspension of the ballot and enrolment for the local militia for the space of one year from and after the twenty-seventh day of June next; it is therefore ordered by His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty’s Privy Council, that no ballot or enrolment for the local militia do take place for the space of one year from and after the twenty-seventh day of June next, but that the ballot and enrolment for the local militia do remain and continue suspended for the space of one year from and after the said twenty-seventh day of June next.

Jas. Buller.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 28th of April 1817,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS the rules and regulations of His Majesty’s Order in Council of the fifth of April one thousand eight hundred and five, touching the performance of quarantine, have been understood to apply to all ships or vessels coming last from ports not declared by the said Order liable to infection, if such ships or vessels had, in the course of their voyage, previously touched at, or taken in a cargo at a port declared liable to infection: and whereas no danger to the public health is to be apprehended from a relaxation of the said rule, in respect to such of the said ships or vessels as shall arrive at any port or place in the United Kingdom, or the islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, under the circumstances and according to the provisos and conditions hereinafter expressed and contained, His Royal Highness the Prince Regent is therefore pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty’s Privy Council, to order, direct, and ordain, that ships or vessels which having sailed from ports declared liable to infection, or having taken in a cargo or any goods at any port so declared liable to infection, shall afterwards have proceeded from such port to another port not declared liable to infection, and shall last sail from any such last mentioned port, and afterwards arrive from thence, either in ballast or with a cargo taken in at such port not declared liable to infection, at any port or place in the United Kingdom, or the islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, shall not be liable to the performance of quarantine; provided the Master or Commander, or any other person having the charge of any such ship or vessel, shall declare upon oath, that all goods, wares, or merchandize enumerated in the first or second class of His Majesty’s aforesaid Order of the fifth of April one thousand eight hundred and five, which may have been received on board any such ship or vessel at any port declared liable to infection, had been landed or otherwise discharged from such ship or vessel at a port not declared liable to infection, at least forty days before the arrival of such ship or vessel at any port of the United Kingdom, or the islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man; and that no plague or infectious disease prevailed on board such ship or vessel, either among the crew or passengers, at any time from the commencement of the outward voyage to the termination of the homeward voyage; and provided also, that the goods taken on board at any such port or place not declared liable to infection, shall not be of the
